LATE NEWS.

WASHINGTON WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 .- Revenue to-day half a million.

In the Supreme Court, Judge Chase has ordered that cases hereafter continued at this term will be put at the foot of the calendar of the next term. It is understood that cases so disposed of will be delayed about two years.

The Revenue Department has advices of a number of distillers arrested in Botetourt and Craig counties, Va., for il icit distilling and a large quantity of whickey seized. Also of arrests and seizures for the same cause in Montgomery, Pulaski, Bland and Taswell counties. Similar reports are received from Tennessee. In the latter, a man left in charge of stills and whiskey seized was overpowered and the property taken from him.

Counsel for the government have filed a general demurrer in the case of the U.S. c. Farragut's crew, in the New Orleans prize money affair.

Gen. Butler has been arrested in New York, charged by Florance, of New Orleans, with having taken three swords, presented to Gen. Twiggs, by the U. S. Congress, and the States of Georgia and Texas, valued at $35,000, and a box of silver of $2,000. He claimed that the swords had been deposited in the Treasury Department, but mquiry has proved that such was not the case. He was held to bail in the sum of $15,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 .- Nelson's official majority in New York is 20,066.

A building on the corner of Olive and Fifth street in St. Louis fell to-day burying thirteen men in the basement. Delano goes to Jacksonville Flerida look after alleged Revenue troubles. Washington, Nov. 20.—Revenue to-day a quarter of a million. Boutwell returns on Monday. The Treasury has solu $108,000,000 gold and $10,000,000 currency. A Cuban letter to the New York Ton says, "Of the Americans and foreigners landed by the Peoret, about 40 still remain, the rest have been killed for disabled. Of the Grapeshot expedition only two remain The Tribune says, "A victo y by the insurgents near Remedious disturbance at Cardense, and continued and conspicuous deported from Cuba. A manifesto for annexation by the Congress at Guimaro is for the first time given to the American public." "Senator Drake of Missouri is in town and has a bill prepared to strike a blow at the Appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court by removing from its consideration every is desirable to rid the country of all political question; such as those relating to thieves, house-breakers, and robevonetruction as illustrated in the Yerger and McArdle case. The bill will be offered the first day of the session. A Correspondent to the Times gires account of several battles between the Spanlards under Valmaseda, and the Cubans under Jordan. The Spaniards claim the victory in two of the engagements. At two engagements the Spaniards were defeated. The district is still in possession of the Cu-about commencing the Spanish gun! oats to cently built in New York.

Cornell Jewett is here urgeing the government to take active interest in the cable from the Hague to Naw York harbor, for which Jew att and associate have important concessions to make from Germany.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHIL DELPHIA, Nov. 20 .- A. W. Notteny Commission Merchant from Richmond, was found dead in his bed at the Continental Hotel. No indications of violence or suicide was found. His will was found in his pooket-book.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 22 .- There was an at tempt to day to blow up the Hudson Coan ty, N. J. jail; windows were broken and cracks made nine inches long in the jail walls. Surrounding buildings were shattered, lut no prisoners escaped. RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Nov. 22 .- Jeter Phillips who was to be hung next Friday, has been again respited for 60 days, to await the action of the U. S. Court on the constitutionality of the Virginia Court of Appeals.

FOREIGN. Madeid, Nov. 20 .- A hundred and sixtyone deputies voted for the Duke of Gonos. The Bishop of Havana is accused of an attempt to escape from Cuba with $100,000.

Another Carlist rising is apprehended. A Constitution for the Island of Porto Rico has been submitted to the Cortes; It declares Porto Rico a province of Spain

GENERAL WADE HAMPTON .- The arrival of this gentleman at Macon to attend the State Fair, is thus The process would bankrupt the appropriately noticed by the Telegraph and Messenger of that city "We notice the arrival vesterday in our city of this distinguished citizen and soldier, who will deliv- be utterly useless institutions,er the annual address before the Georgia State Agricultural Socie-

"As a citizen without reproach, and as a soldier whose honor is as stainless as his lineage, we greet Georgia. It is most fit that he, so true a representative of the highest type of Southern manhood should lend the dignity and inflacuce of his presence to an occasion peace and unity so essential to the full development of the greatness and glory of our common coun-dollars have been subscribed for the World's Exposition, which it is proposed to hold in Washington are doing very well. Let us "let

THRWRRAN

VOLUME 3.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1869.

NO 81.

WEEKLY NEWS.

CHARLOTTE:

Tuesday, November 30, 1869.

R. II. ALDRICH & CO., PROPRIETORS.

R P WARING, Edder:

Office on Trade-Street, Springs' Building

Six Months Three Months,

One Square (12 lines or less), for each insertion oo. For more than two, months, by special con-

ADVERTISEMENTS:

Contraction.

Attorney General Hoar has writ ten a letter to Mr. Spaulding, of New York, says the Richmond DISPATCH, in which he comes out for a persistent contraction of the amount of currency as a means of bringing about specie payments. -It is astonishing how a favorite fallacy maintains its hold upon the average mind. Contraction was once almost universally supposed to be a certain means of producing the result which Mr. Hoar desires to produce; but surely experience has shown that the remedy is worse than the disease. No doubt fections among the Spanish troops, are re- the retirement of half the volume of greenbacks would enable the seconds, third tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds.
W. J. Pogue, Knight of Snowden, first Government to redeem the other The World's Washington special says, half in specie; but the process of retirement would break half the business men in the country. It bers, and the officers of justice could soon bring about this desirable state of things by shooting down in his tracks every suspected man; but who would recommend | 1-rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 secsuch a measure, however effective it might bef So as to a contraction of the currency. If we admit that the measure, would bring E A Clark, Knight of Ger not admit, the banks not being in

cause evils ten-fold greater than an irredeemable currency. The banks can get specie only by buying it; and to attempt to buy enough of it to enable them to resume at any specified day would be to run up the price of it to such an extent as that it would ruin onds, third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds. every bank in the country thus to supply itself To contract the 5 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds. currency is to make every man pay his note in bank at maturity, tilt, 3 rings, 7 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, and refuse to renew it for him; for as the banks have but little gold and silver on hand, they would seconds. specie payments. The Virginia J. W. Harris, Knight of Flat Rock, first banks, tot instance, have in round numbers, only seventy-three thousand dollars in specie in their vaults, whilst their loans and discounts exceed three millions of dollars, and their outstanding notes of circulation amount to over two first tilt, 2 rings, 7 seconds; second tilt, 1 millions of dollars, They would have to "contract" with a ven geance to qualify themselves for redeeming their notes in specie. whole State of Virginia. The banks would be unable to accom- Golden Fleece." After the first tilt, modate business men, and would But let resumption result as a con- tors had to withdraw. And now sequence of the paper currency followed a sharp contest between the "No man in all this broad land and specie being at par, and no two remaining Knights, and not unhospitalities and courtesies of this this is the only way in which spe the "Indian Land" declared to be the cie payments can be brought victor. With great grace did he re-The difference between the value of coin and that of paper is not him in the name of the people of very great. It will continue to diminish gradually if the finances of t e Government be well managed; and in the course of a few years we may glide into specie that is, we trust, to mark a new payments without knowing any departure toward that genuine thing about how we managed to accomplish it. We are inclined to say with Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, that "we have now the best Then came ferward the Knight of ground will soon be broken. It currency ever known in the na- the "Golden Fleece," who crowned tor its redemption in specie.

well enough alone."

ment, which took place at Fort Mill ters, Miss Sallie Steele.

Knights seated upon their gallant spectators. steeds, it was difficult to form an estimate as to who would be the victor.

Never did Knights bear themand not among the least of the admired was the youthful Knight of the Confederate Flag" Master Jimmie Miller, a lad of ten years.

And now for the contest. The indges, Col. A. B. Springs, Capt. B. H. Massey, Capt. S. E. White and Mr. Jas. Miller, baving taken their seats, the Herald, Mr. J. P. Sossaman, gave the signal for the onset. The Knights presented themselves in the following order : R. J. Watson, Knight of Hill, first tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; second tit, 1 ring, 6 tilt, 3 rings, 5 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds, third tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds. J. D. Kell, Kuight of the Forest, first tilt, 2 rings, "6 see nde ; second filt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds. J. N. Steele, Knight of St. Johns, first tilt 2 rings, 7 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds. J. D. Hotchkies, Knight of the Woods first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, ring, 6 seconds, third tilt, 2 rings, 6 se onds. W. M. Steele, Knight of Indian Land, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt; rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 second. J. M. Spratt, Knight, Richard Cour de Leon, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds, second tilt,

W. J. Waters, Knight of the Golden Circle, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 25rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 sec-

J. J. Waters, Knight of the Lone Star, first tilt, 3 rings, (seconds; second tilt, 3 a condition to redeem their notes rings, & seconds; third tilt, I ring, 6 seconds J. A. Withers, Knight of the Lost Cause. whether in so doing it would not rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds. R. T. May, Knight of Kings Mountain, first tilt, 0 rings, 0 time; second tilt, 2 rings, 5 seconds; third tilt, 0 rings, 5 sec-

F. B. Bradford, Enight of Yadkin Valley first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second t lt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; thire tilt, 1 ring 7 seconds. Henry Massey, Knight of Kershaw, first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 econds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds. Proje Jones, Knight of France, first ti t ring, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 sec-C. L. Miller, Knight of Lancaster, first tilt, 2 rings, 5 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring E. B. Springs, Knight of the Raven Black Plume, first tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; second

S. A. Carothers, Knight of the Golden Fleeces first tilt, 3 rings, 7 seconds; second ilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 6 tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds. J. H. Young, Knight of Four Mile Creek, first tilt, 2 rings, 8 seconds; second tilt, 0 Master James Miller, Knight of the Confederate Flag, first tilt 3 rings 8 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings; 7 seconds; third tilt, 0g

John Wallace, Knight of the Mohaws. ring, 7 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 5 seconds 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 7 seconds.

After three tilts, the honors of th occasion lay between the Knight 'Snowden," the Knight of "the dian Land" and the Knight "of the however, the last named Knight being less successful than his competiceive the crown upon the point of his lance from the hands of the Judges, and dismounting, he gallantly lead forward, Miss Gordon, of Rock Hill, and pleeing the crown upon her fair brow, proclaimed her "Queen of Love and Beauty."

The Knight of "Snowdon" to whom was adjudge I the second prize, placed his chaplet upon the One hundred and fifty thousand tion," but not, as he does, to call Miss Annie Jones, of Rock Hill, 2nd We Maid of Honor.

Tournament at Fort Mill, S. C. or of selecting the third Maid of Hon-By special invitation it was our or, placed his chaplet upon the head privilege to be present at the Tourna- of one of Charlotte's fairest daugh-

on the 18th inst. Upon our arrival, A second contest was now held for we were met by Capt. J. W. White, an elegant saddle, which, after the who escorted us to the family Man- fourth tilt, was awarded to the Knight sion, and were the recipient of the gen- of the "Golden Circle." But we erous hospitality of its inmates. The must not omit noticing particularly our day opened beautifully and augured voung Knight, of the "Confederate a propitious time to those who were | Flag," who, though unsuccessful as a to contest for the laurels of the day. competitor, for the honors of the Quite a concourse of the citizens day, nevertheless succeeded in gainof the vicinity and adjacent points ing the applause of the Judges and assembled to witness this pleasing his competitors, and was awarded a entertainment. Among the special prize of a saddle. Thus endtors were to be seen a number of the ed the Tournament, which was the fair damsels of Charlotte and Rock occasion of more than ordinary Hill. As we looked upon the pleasure, both to the knights and

During the day at appropriate in tervals, the "Charlotte Cornet Band selves with more ease and grace than those assembled. We would here these. Each one in his turn, elicited remark in passing, that the young the applause of the admiring crowd, men who compose this band, deserve more of the support and encouragement of our citizens.

The festivities of the occasion were continued until a late hour of the night. In a hall prepared for the closing scene of this dama, were to be heard the dulcet strains of music, to the measured notes of which, were to be seen, fair maidens and gallant Knights, whirling in the "mazy dance:" the fair Queen and her attendants, contributing to the inspiration of the hour by their presence. Youth and beauty graced the occasion, and ever and anon, in this assembly, was to be seen the "Child of the Regiment" "drumming up Beaux," which, from her attractive appearance, we presume she found no difficould possibly entertain.

Towards the "wee smal hours" of the night, the inmates of the hall. were invited to participate in a sumptuous entertainment, prepared under the skillful supervision of Mrs. Col. A. B. Springs, the "lady of mine host" and others.

On the whole, we do not think juitted themselves with greater e-lat, or which afforded more enjoyment to

We would like to have been more ainute, and given the names of all the Marshalls of the day, but time and space will not permit.

A young gentleman living in Kings on, N. Y, went to see his girl the other night, and when he started for home, the night being dark, his inamorata gave him a fed paper lantern with which to light his lonely way. He took the railroad track as being the shortest route to bis home, and was walking leisurely along, his mind thoughts of the fair one he had just left, when suddenly his reverie was brought to an end by some James Sutton, Knight of the Palmetto one in the rear, who gave the chit have to contract to a wonderful State first tilt, I ring, 5 seconds; second nese lantern a kick, which sent is extent to enable them to resume tilt, 0 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 flying, "confound you," said the person from behind, "here I've been slowing my train for the last two hours on account of that red light." And looking behind him rings, 8 seconds; third tilt, 0 rings, 0 time. the young man saw a freight train, and it was the, engineer who had disturbed his meditations.

The New York Times is disposed to expect great changes as the J. J. Lumpkins, Knight of Catawba, first result of "free labor" in the South tilt, I ring. 7 seconds; second tilt. 3 rings, We of the South "can't see it," if it means free negro labor; but we do hope that other labor, aided by a wiser management of our re sources and productions, will ace-implish a great deal for our section. In an article opposing the removal of the National Capital to some Western city, the Times says: We all know what the present condition of the Southern States and their seaports is now; but who is the man so bold as to say what Welker's resolution as a substitute, things threw a suspicion upon the more deserves the most generous bad effects would tellow. And til the 6th round was the Knight of it will be after half a century of which requires an investigation of all matter, as if there was a latent purfree labor t Who will venture to the Roads composed of three Sens- pose to repudiate. He was opposed assert positively that with their tors for each Road.
oil and climate, and other natural Mr. Jones of We sdvantages, these States will not the whole subject be referred to a ment of bonds thrown upon the mar- Dr. Serafin Bissi exhibited the heart actore the close of another century have drawn the weight of population and of wealth away from the Northwestern States completely. Savannah News.

At last New York is to have a market which for size and beauty is not to be surpassed by any in the world. This new institution is lost. head of Miss Grier of Steel Creeh, to be located at the foot of Thirtyconstituting his 1st Maid of honor. fourth street, North River, and will be a rectangular structure, eight hundred feet in length and two hundred in width, thus enclosing market space of 160,000 square cle," to whom was assigned the hon- ing on the Continent.

From the Roleigh Sentinel. The Legislature of North Carolina. SENATE.

NOVEMBER 22th, 1869. A. H. Galloway, (col.) presented a petition from the citizens of Wilmington irrespective of party urging the repeal of an act establishing a special court for the city of Wilmington which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Beeman introduced a bill to compel persons to work on the public roads, referred.

Mr. Robins resolutions reducing the per diem of members to $4 per day and mileage to 10 cents came up. Mr. Cook moved to strike out $4 and insert $1.50.

Mr. Bellamy moved to insert 50

Mr. Brogden was infavor of fair consideration, and thought these propositions were made in ridicule. The subject ought to be treated with more dignity. Without coming to a added not a little to the pleasure of conclusion the matter was postponed, which simply means that the Senate refused to reduce the pay of members from $8 to $1 per day.

Bill authorizing the State Treasurer to pay the officers and members of the General Assembly per diem and mileage came up. A. H. Galloway, colored, offered a substitute to legalize the payments already made, and to fix the per diem and mileage at the same rates as has been allowed at the two preceeding sessions of the General Assembly ($7.) Yeas 20, navs 20.

The following bill introduced by Mr. Graham several days ago, came $6,000,000 of North Carolina bonds up to wit :

A bill to be entitled. "An Act to secure the return to the Public Col. Johnston very properly refused Treasurer, the bonds issued to the to put his bonds on the market; but Chatham Railroad Company, which others have placed millions of bonds have been declared illegal by the

Sec. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the Public Treasurer is hereby authorized, upon the return of any bonds issned by the State to the Catham culty in obtaining as many as she Railroad Company, under the Act passed at the special session of 1868, and of the Act to re-enact and confirm the said Act, passed at the session of 1868-69, to deliver to the person surrendering said bonds, the same amount in bonds of the Chatham Railroad Company, received by the State in exchange for the above mentioned bonds.

Sec. 2. That the Public Treasurer is authorized and directed to assign the payment of the bonds so received in exchange for bonds issued under the above recited acts, to a Trustee for the benefit of all parties who may desire to avail themselves of the benefit of this Act.

Sec. 3. That this Act shall be in force from and after its ratification. Mr. Martindale moved its reference to the Committee on Internal Improvements, after some discussion the reference was, made.

TUESDAY, Nov. 23rd 1869. The Senate was called to order at 11 o'elock.

Mr. Winstead in the chair. The Journal of vesterday was read and corrected, as the vote on A. H. Galloways (col.) substitute fixing per diem milage at $7 dollars, proved upon examination to be a tie instead no doubt filled with agreeable of 21 to 20. The President voted in the affirmative, stating that he should Committees might have time to revote against the proposition on its port on matters connected with it. third reading, in its present form.

> SPECIAL ORDER. Bill to further protect the interests of the State in certain Railroads and to require accountability on the part of their officers was taken up. Mr. Lassiter offered a bill from the Code Commission as a substitute, authorizing the Governor to appoint a commission to examine into the commission to have a clerk with a and payment of every dollar of her salary of $500 and report in 187 - | debt, was resumed, the question being order, that his resolution relating to ponement for one month. the same subject, was introduced 2nd and therefore entitled to precedence. about the same shape as that of yes-That the resolution of Mr. Welker terday. came second on calender and the bill of Mr. Respass third, the proposition of Mr. Lassiter to offer his suband the chair so raled.

point a Committee of the Senate to road, was taken up.

Finance, and that they be instructed to pay. He opposed this resolution unfortunate man died of cancer of his to report next Thursday. ous question, which was lost.

the table, which prevailed.

Yeas, 18. Navs, 22.

Yeas, 22. Nays, 19. The Knight of the "Golden Cir- feet, the largest area of any build- transactions quarterly,) passed its men to protest and take measures nary interest to surgeons and anatosecond reading.

On motion of Mr. Lassiter the rules were suspended in order to allow him to introduce his bill from the Code, placed on calendar. Mr. Martindale, introduced a resolution proposing to raise a committee of three Senators to confer with the Superintendent of Public Works, to ascertain and report what information he has in reference to the management of the various Railroads. Adopted.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NOVEMBER 22nd, 1869. The resolution of Mr. Seymour, in regard to maintaining the State's credit, pledging the State to pay her public debt, the question being on the amendment of Mr. Malone, to insert "legally incurred and honestly disposed of, as to the bonded debt. Mr. French asked an explanation of the amendment, said the inference was that part had been illegally and dishonestly disposed of.

Mr. Malone said the object was to avoid pledging the faith of the State to every single act creating i debtedness, because it appears regular. Acts giving men control of $12,000,000, may be regular, yet the bonds may be disposed of to parties who have full notice of the fraud. If an agent transcends his authority, the principal is not liable. If a man, passing through the country, offers a horse worth $200 for $25, it is evidence of something wrong that the horse was probably not the property of the eller. So, if a man proposes to sell for 35 to 39 cents on the dollar, it is almost positive evidence of bad faith. on the market, yet strange to say, very little of the roads have been is now the truest of the true-the most built and the confractors complain liberal man, the most national man Shall we see this ruinous sacrifice of in the South. He has never ceased of having no money. Why is this? the State? Shall we stand by and allow this huge speculation, and glories won by Yankees and Southstrous to contemplate! If this be the policy, we are ruined! ruined! Mr. Sinclair opposed the amendment; it would intimate that the as deep into the ranks of the enemy Legislature had made dishonest ap- as he ever bore the "lost cause." propriations and prejudge matters on this subject to go before Commit-involved the question whether the in time of peace. He is the true conpeople should be protected from the servator of the times. He will not be. infamous swindles of the "Ring." found wanting in reflective judge-There was no party movement in it ; ment, or patriotism, or justice to all it was merely a measure to protect men. He can much more be entrustthe State, and all men who wished ed with public responsibilities than the State's appropriations to Rail- many of the blatant demagogues of roads honestly and judiciously spent, our day, who, for political capital, could support it regardless of party. are the self-elected representatives of Vest and Harris, of Wake, opposed a soured, billious and mawkish rethe amendment.

Mr. French thought if there were grounds of suspicion that bonds had chievous and scheming brains. been dishonestly disposed of, it was the duty of the House to examine into the matter, and not put this amendment in this resolution, which

Mr. Argo thought the proceedings on the matter premature, and moved to postpone for one month, that On his motion the yeas and nays were ordered and resulted as follows: not in the library well fitted, softly Yeas 54, nays 44.

Tuesday Nov. 23nd. 1869. Governor, submitting certain claims competence—is genius born and against the State in favor of M. A. nurthred; more frequently in ad-Beldsoe and the late Gov. Worth!

Mr. Graham raised the point of on the motion to reconsider the post-

A discussion ensued assumin signatures of the Governor and Tresinvestigate the sale of the bonds of urer, with the great seal of the State the Western North Carolina Rail- attached. The resolution was not to repudiation; he abhorred the Mr. Jones of Wake, moved that word, but he would oppose the pay

Mr. Argo, also opposed the resolu-tion, in quite a lengthly speech, his position being substantially the same as upon yesterday, when he first made the motion to postpone

Mr. Seymour next took the floor in a long speech favoring a reconsider-ation of the vote postponing, and advocating the adoption of his resolutions. During his remarks, said if they were going to repudiate a part of the debt, repudiate all of it : if they were going to take the shame of the thing, take the gain of it also, by repudiating the whole debt, &c., &c. After some further debate Mr. Sevmour called the privious question. The call was sustained. the motion to reconsider was adopted by a vote of yeas 59, nays 39. Mr. Argo was then allowed to withdraw his motion of postponing for 30 Mr. Welch moved to postpone for one week, from to-day. The year and navs being called, the motion was re-ected by a vote of yeas 45, nay 61. The question then recurred upon Mr. Malone's amendment inserting the words "legally incurred and honestly disposed of as to the landed debt." The yeas and navs being called resulted in the rejections of the amandment by the following ballott:—Yeas 36. Nays 64.

Mr. Durham offered the following amendment as an additional resolu-

Resolved, That this General Assembly will not recognize as valid any future sale by the several Railroad Companies of the State, of the special tax bonds, authorized by Acts of the General Assembly at the regular session of 1868 69 at a price less than 60 per

Mr. Pou next obtained the floor and argued for some time in advocacy of a substitute offered by himself when matter was first brought forward, (Published before,)

Mr. Seymour called the previous question, when One motion of Mr Argo, the Houes adjourned.

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIER -The man who loves not his family can never love his State; the man who loves not his State can never love the whole land. The Confederate soldier to claim his interest in the olden when called upon, vote a resolution erners, shoulder to shoulder. The endorsing the same? It is mon- Union can have no foreign foe which is not his foe, and in time of good need he would follow the starry flag

The Confederate soldier could not fail to be true to his State, to the South, to the United States. The Mr. Saymour hoped the amend- rights of every citizen would be saent would be withdrawn and the cred with him. The man who never are the self-elected representatives of bellious sentiment, existing really no where else save in their own mis-Nashville Banner GENIUS AND POWERTY .- It is one of the mysteries of our lives that was intended to prop the credit of genius, that noblest gift of God to man, is nourished by poverty. Its greatest works have been achie ved by the sorrowing ones of the world in tears and despair. Not in the brilliant saloon, furnished with every comfort and elegance; carpeted, and looking out upon a smooth, green lawn, or a broad A message was received from the expanse of scenery; not in case and versity, and destitution, amidst the The consideration of the resolution household, in bare and fireless garaffairs of the several Radroads, said maintaining the credit of the State rets, with the noise of squalid children, in the midst of the turbulence of domestic contentions, and in the deep gloom of uncheered despair, is genius born and reared. This is its birthplace, and in scenes like these, unpropitious, repulsive, Mr. Durham said it was particu- wretched, have men labored, stularly unfortunate for the credit of the died and trained themselves, until State, that this resolution was intro- they have at last emanated out of stitute at that stage was out of order duced. The faith of the State had the gloom of that obscurity, the already been pledged by the solemn shining lights of their times; be-Mr. Graham's resolution to ap- acts of this Legislature and by the come the companions of kings, the guides and teachers of their kind, and exercise an influence upon the thought of the world amounting oad, was taken up.

Worth the paper it was written upon, to a species of intellectual legisla-

A NEEDLE IN A LIVING MAN'S HEART. At one of the late meetings of the Academy of Science at Milan, Italy, special joint committee, and that ket at 25 cents in the dollar. by spec- of an insane nobleman who died latethey be instructed to report a bill. | ulators and ring men. The bonds | ly, and who at various times attemp-Mr. Respass moved to amend by that have been sold at anything like ted snicide, after he had killed his striking out Special Joint and insert, their adequate value, he was willing father in one of his insane fits. The because, no sensible man would tongue, which he had bitten off during Mr. Graham called for the previ- pledge the State to pay bonds in the one of his excesses of lunacy. When hands of agents charged with fraud, he was dissected a needle of three selling at from 15 to 25 cents, for inches in length was found in his heart Mr. Respass' motion to refer was which the people would have to re- The coroner's court was informed that deem dollar for dollar. He believed twenty-two months before his death A. H. Galloway, colored, moved to the people were opposed to repudia- he had told his parents that he had lay the resolution and substitute on tion, but this kind of legislation pierced his heart with a needle. They, would soon drive them to it. Every of course, did not believe it, because honest man revolted at the idea of no change in the functions of this or-The bill introduced by Mr. Respass repudiating honest debts, but when gan could be remarked. He never was then taken up. (This bill pro-rides that the officers of the several Roads shall make full reports of their tors, it was the duty of right-minded this case as being of most extraordi-