HOPELESS CONSUMPTION. Washingros, D. C., August 20, 1869 cough and spitting blood. One year ago last winter I took a heavy cold, which settled on my lungs. I had a bed hemorrhage. I used many Cough Mixtures, but found no relief. I was very sick all summer. I went into the country hoping it would benefit me; but when I returned my couch was more violent than ever. I had a frightful hemorrhage, which lasted five days; I was very low and nervous, and suffered with shortness of breath; I coughed incessantly; could not sleep; had no appetite. I tried everything my friends recommended, but found no relief until 1 tried DeBing's Wonderful Remedy. I took this remedy, Viafug.o, about eight months, and my friends and hundreds of acquaintances in Washington, who knew my supposed her less and bedridden condition, are surprise! to see me at-tending to my Fousehold affairs and about the city, apparently as well as other people generally. My general health was very much impaired. I applied to celebrated physicians in New York and elsewhere with little or no relief. A lady advised me to try DeBing's Wonderful Remedy, Viafugie. I have used four bottles, and am happy to say I can now speak so as to be heard at a distance, and my health is greatly improved. I carnestly recommend this VALUABLE MEDICINE to the afflicted.
