CLINTON, N. C., APRIL 11, 1889.

THE CAUCASIAN'S RECORD. CIRCULATION: 1,439.

Work on the Governor's mansion has been resumed and will be kept up until the building is completed.

Van Cott is Postmaster of New York City and Erhardt is Collector of Customs at the port of New York.

The Goldsboro Argus was four years Tuesday old and celebrated the anniversary with a ten page illustrated edition.

We are pleased to learn that every dealer in veneer work North and South, who has examined specimens from the Carolina Veneer Works at this place say that they are the handsomest articles of the kind they have ever seen.

There was a heavy snow storm last Saturday in Western Carolina, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and other sections further North, and hail at several places in this state.

President Harrison kept the Senate in session exactly as long as did Mr. Cleveland.

Rhode Island, which went republican last election by over 3,000, (save the majority by 1,000) elected a Democratic Governor last week by 4,000 plurality.

General Boulanger, the head of the War Department of the French Government, is now an exile from his own country, in Belgium.

President Harrison in making his Cabinet, Diplomatic and Consular appointments has totally ignored the South.

Maj. Hearne of the Wilmington Messenger says: The contrast between Mr. Cleveland and General Harrison, in respect of the national feeling, and confidence in all sections, is most striking.

Farmers' Alliance in Session. [Special Cor. Correspondent.]

The anniversary meeting of the Sampson County Farmers' Alliance convened in Atkins' Hall April 5th, 1889.

At 12 o'clock the hall was crowded with delegates and visiting brethren from forty-four Alliances.

The rap of the President's gavel called the members to order, and the Alliance proceeded to the dispatch of business.

A glance over the hall was sufficient evidence that the Alliance men of Sampson county had not been asleep for the past twelve months.

The evidence of our progress can be seen in many ways, but especially can it be seen in our new perfect organization. Herebefore a great deal of time has been consumed at our county meetings in organizing the properly accredited delegation.

But not so at our anniversary meeting. Every thing worked smoothly and harmoniously; and brother Secretaries of the sub-Alliances I desire to thank you for the manner in which you conducted the business of your sub-Alliances, thereby relieving your President and Secretary of County Alliance of such onerous labor.

From a very small beginning we have grown amazingly strong until the tomes of the Farmers' Alliance have penetrated into almost every portion of the county.

The representatives of forty-four Alliances as before stated, embracing some of the best men in the county is another characteristic element of our Alliance more than of any other.

The Committee on the good of the order made a most gratifying report. We vouchsafe to say that no committee, for similar duty in any brotherhood ever made a more harmonizing report. Their rebukes were mild but effective, with very encouraging words of advice.

The Executive Committee made a very satisfactory report. They, after much consideration had elected Bro. G. A. Clute, Business Agent, who is pushing the business of his office to well high perfection, brings to bear on the minds of all people, one of our mottoes: "That the Alliance is run strictly on business principles."

The Secretary's and Treasurer's books were found to be correct and in a good condition.

The lecturer was called and responded in a most happy style. His lecture was grand, forcible, and instructive to all. His comparison of the past and present condition of the people was truly a profitable lesson, bearing the stamp of a stronger and more united brotherhood. His lecture I am beginning to end was a success, and fully compensated for his absence at all previous meetings.

The CAUCASIAN has been adopted as the organ of County Alliance, and if you would keep yourself informed as to our work and plans you should subscribe for it and learn what the brethren are doing in other Alliances.

Much business was transacted, but of a private nature, and not for publication.

J. D. EZZELL, Sec'y, Sampson Co. Farmers' Alliance. LAUREL HILL, No. 653.

The members of our Alliance have resolved to pay 25 cents for each hawk killed upon our lands. Any one will receive the above amount by presenting the Secretary, M. M. Killeff, the right foot of such hawk killed after the publication of this notice.

We respectfully ask the cooperation of all the Alliances in this county in our efforts to save the poultry from the claws of the great destroyer.

P. S. We have just learned that Ingold (No. 653) and Lisbon (No. 871) Alliances have adopted similar resolutions.

BLUFF. Alliance men should remember to hold their tongues and not disclose business matters to outsiders. Remember the old adage, "What is every body's business is nobody's business."

Business men who have succeeded never made it a point to tell their plans, and we as an order can not succeed if we disclose our plans. The brother who willfully does so should have charges preferred against him and be dealt with. This is mentioned as a caution to prevent interferences with the order by its enemies. W. J. C.

[Continued from First Page.] by men with practical experience in the business. In conclusion we would say that the meeting was a decided success and is the beginning of a movement that will soon spread over the entire country, much to the advantage, stimulation, and profit of the great and growing industry of Truck and Fruit growing for market.

The Executive Committee was instructed to confer with Mr. Emerson of the Atlantic Coast Dispatch, relative to certain shipping arrangements that were desirable.

Resolutions, thanking Capt. W. L. Faison for the interest displayed in the meeting, to whose energy its success was largely due; thanking the President and Secretary for the successful and impartial manner in which they had managed the meeting; also thanking the citizens of Clinton for the courtesy and hospitality shown the visiting delegates while in their town, were unanimously passed.

The Association adjourned to meet on the first Wednesday in January, 1890. The place of meeting to be designated hereafter.
