LOCALS.

The county Commissioners were in session Monday and Tuesday. Mayor-elect Thompson of Raleigh—Mayor-elect Thomson of Clinton. Mr. Alvin Royal is building another neat cottage for rent on Britton street. Capt. W. L. Faison and Capt. C. Partrick are shipping quantities of peas this week. The Convention of the Episcopal church meets in Wilmington the 23d instant instead of the 16th. Glenwood High School will close on Tuesday, May 14th, instead of Friday as stated in last issue. Mr. A. F. Johnson has received an order from South Carolina for goods advertised in THE CAUCASIAN. Mr. L. Sam Bell placed a spring turnip up on our table last Saturday that measured six inches in diameter. He made a shipment of them to New York Friday. The town Commissioners organized yesterday by electing W. S. Thomson, Mayor; J. A. Ferrell, Treasurer; and appointing J. W. King chief of police. There will be a mass meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association in the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Every body is cordially invited to attend. Mr. F. T. Atkins' new dwelling on Main street is beginning to present a very attractive appearance, though it will be several weeks yet before it is completed. Glenwood High School will close on the 14th of May. Hon. E. W. Kerr will deliver the annual address. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Craven, the Principal, has a very successful school. Mr. H. J. Carleton, of Warsaw, shipped the first strawberries from that place on the 27 of April. There is upon our table a berry of the Hoffman variety from his farm that is at least 1 1/2 inches in diameter. But his farm was badly damaged by the hail storm last week. Be sure to read our Fayetteville letter this week. We have had arrangements with a gentleman of unusual tact and ability as a newspaper reporter to furnish us each week with the news from the historic old town of Fayetteville and the surrounding country. The foundation for J. E. Royal's new brick store has been laid and the walls are now being run up. It will be about the same size as the one he now occupies. When completed, this double brick front will be a considerable addition to that side of the square. The frame of the new Methodist Church was raised Monday. The steeple will be at the S. E. corner, rising from the ground. The entrance will be through the steeple. There is a lecture room attached on the N. W. side and a rich in back of building for pulpit. We would judge that it will be a handsome edifice when finished.

Never before have we presented to our readers in a single issue a finer array of oratory than today. We give extracts from the speech of the beloved Vance at the Guilford Battle Ground Celebration, from the speech of Chauncey M. Depew at the Washington Centennial, and the eloquent remarks of Ex-President Cleveland at the Centennial Banquet. Such speeches you will seldom have a chance to read.

Capt. R. G. Holmes and Mr. Knight, conductor and engineer respectively on the W. & W. Railroad, as an evidence of their esteem, for Dr. B. F. Marable, presented him with a gold headed cane. The presentation was made by Mr. A. F. Johnson in a very happy and appropriate speech at the residence of J. R. Beaman, Esq., on the evening of the 28th of April. Mr. W. A. Johnson shipped a lot of rice last week. The returns stated that the low price which he received was not due to the market, but to the character of the rice. The consignee stated that if the rice had been properly harvested it would have brought 40 per cent more. Farmers, take notice of this and don't, by carelessness, lose half the value of a crop after it is almost ready for market. Mrs. Dr. A. Holmes has kindly handed to us a copy of a very old paper, which at this time, is especially and peculiarly interesting. It is the Ulster County Gazette and was printed January 4th, 1890, in Ulster county, New York. The paper is in mourning for George Washington, and gives an account of his death, funeral and burial. You will all remember that Washington died at Mount Vernon, December 14th, 1799, but the sad news of the infant Republic's great loss did not reach Ulster county till January 14th. Sorry we haven't space to tell you more about this interesting paper this week.

A. F. JOHNSON IS BETTER.

Though Weak and not yet out of danger.

Mr. Johnson's attack of physical and nervous prostration was brought on by sheer over work. To superintend a mercantile business the size of Mr. Johnson's would amply engage the time of one to start from the beginning, erect buildings and start to work all the machinery (nearly all of which was made to order) of the Carolina Veneer Works would be a big task for any man; and to transact the business, as cashier, of the Clinton Loan Association would be plenty for a man of Mr. Johnson's delicate constitution. But just think of him doing all these, sitting up often till 2 o'clock in the morning, and it is rather a surprise that the attack did not come sooner. There could be no better evidence of the great esteem in which Mr. Johnson is held, and the appreciation for his efforts to better the condition of the town and county, than the universal fear for the possible result of his attack and the great anxiety and solicitude of every one for his recovery. The physicians hope, with careful management, he will be up in a week or two.

"CITY FATHERS."

A Close Election—New Ticket Successful—Flags Banned from the Streets.

The election for town commissioners Monday was close and interesting, though quiet. There was also a special election held to decide whether or not stock should be allowed on the streets. The vote was overwhelming against the nuisance. The vote for commissioners was as follows: NEW TICKET. OLD TICKET. W. S. Thomson, 71 R. H. Hubbard, 67 J. A. Ferrell, 77 W. H. Stetson, 63 A. F. Johnson, 63 W. A. Stewart, 63 J. H. Stevens, 77 J. E. Royal, 69 T. H. Partrick, 77 J. B. Bodenhamer, 69

CLINTON TRUCKING.

No Place Earlier North of Wilmington—Let Those Who Doubt It Give Dates and Figures.

The Fayetteville Observer clipped from our issue of several weeks since the following item, adding a line by way of comment: "Capt. Partrick is shipping asparagus every day. So far he has shipped about 500 bunches. His last returns were $6.00 per dozen." "Why, brother, the truckers in and around Fayetteville have been shipping asparagus two or three weeks." For the information of the Observer we will state that Capt. Partrick shipped asparagus on the 29th of March, and had been eating it at his table at least a week before this. Last year he shipped on the 25th of March. Now, brother, give the date of the earliest shipment from your place. The same gentlemen had ripe strawberries on his farm on April 21st. While we are on this subject we might say that Clinton has probably the earliest season north of Wilmington. Last year J. S. Bizzell, clerk of Superior Court, had ripe grapes on the 26th of June, and Treasurer, J. R. Beaman, had fields of wheat all heading, on Monday. Now can Fayetteville beat this?

All Through the County.

What Samsonians are Doing and Saying.

Send us the news from your township for this column.

TURKEY.

There was a violent storm of wind, rain and hail in this section on the 1st inst., during which pines and trees were blown down, corn beaten into the ground and gardens almost destroyed. Over 5,000 panes of glass were blown down and hundreds of dollars worth of timber ruined in a few seconds.

LITTLE COHABIE.

We are glad to see our blacksmith, Mr. J. B. Owen, who has been very sick for the past week, out on the streets of our village again. A man living in this township sheared his sheep in the latter part of March in order to save a nice lot of wool, and the cold came and he had to wrap them up in quilts and blankets in order to save them. We sympathize with a young man of another county who came to see his girl in this section, and unfortunately turned over the table and destroyed all of the old lady's dishes. PRUG.

SOUTH CLINTON.

Quite a storm, supposed to be the same at whose hands W. A. saw fared so roughly, passed over the place of Mr. M. M. Killeat last week, blew down much of his fence, and several large oaks in his yard, one of which fell on his dining room, knocking down two chimneys and damaging the roof considerably.

NORTH CLINTON.

Mrs. Alice Fitchett, who has been visiting her brother, Captain Owen Chesnut and her sister, Mrs. J. W. Boney, of this township, returned to her home in South Carolina last week. When she saw THE CAUCASIAN she was so much pleased with its appearance and matter that she decided to subscribe.

WESTBROOKS.

The second quarterly meeting of the New-ton Grove circuit will convene on the 11th and 12th instants. Presiding Elder, Dr. W. S. Black, will be present. Mr. W. J. Gregory is doing business at Rosin Hill. Mr. M. B. Williams left for Georgia last Thursday, where he will sell fruit trees for the Westbrook nursery at Faison.

Duplin Items.

Mr. R. C. Broadhurst, clerk of the Court, is gradually improving. Messrs. W. R. Allen of Goldsboro bar and D. B. Nicholson of Clinton bar were in town Monday on professional business. The cyclone did considerable damage in the Northern part of Kenansville township. Messrs. J. B. Carr and D. M. Pearsall were among the heaviest sufferers. Mr. Willie Hill of this town shipped Monday 3 crates of strawberries, had it not been for the cyclone he would have shipped at least 30 crates. Mr. Chas. Hussey has moved from Deep Bottom to Warsaw and entered the mercantile business with Mr. Hines under the firm name of Hines & Hussey.

PERSONALS.

Senator Robinson, of Duplin, is in town. Prof. B. F. Grady and wife are in town. Mr. French McQueen was in town for a few days this week. Mr. H. L. Cook of the Fayetteville bar was in town last week. Commissioner of Agriculture, Robinson, was in town last week. Misses Carrie and Minnie Johnson have returned from Wilmington. D. B. Nicholson, Esq., was in Warsaw on professional business Monday. F. R. Cooper, Esq., of the Clinton bar, is attending Fayetteville court this week. Rep. W. E. Stevens is attending the meeting of the State Board of Agriculture in Raleigh. Mr. T. H. McKoy, Jr., took a flying business trip via Fayetteville and Greensboro last week. Mr. N. L. Anderson is just back from Princeton. He will graduate from that institution next year. Mr. Roseover, editor of the Goldsboro Headlight, paid our town a visit last week and in the meantime gave THE CAUCASIAN a call. Bev. Dr. Carmichael, of Wilmington, has been spending a few days in our town. Dr. Carmichael is chaplain of the 2nd Regiment, N. C. State Guard.

CUMBERLAND NEWS.

3,000 People Attending the Great Pear-son Meetings—A $40,000 Cotton Factory—Jefferson Davis to Come on a Special car next November—Progressive and Beautiful Clinton.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 6th, 1889.

Mr. Editor: Your correspondent recently paid a visit to Clinton and upon suggestion has decided to write a short letter to THE CAUCASIAN, and tell its readers of a few pleasant impressions of your beautiful town and the good county of Sampson. We saw many improvements in Clinton since our last visit, but discovered that to see Clinton in all its beauty, Spring is the time. The magnificent shade trees, which line the streets, and the lovely flower gardens which adorn the yards of many of the residences make Clinton a veritable little haven of peace, and pleasure. In addition to the natural beauty, the town is fortunate in having a good back country full of thrifty and progressive farmers, who do their trading with its clever and live merchants. We could write a paper full of Clinton and its hospitable people, but THE CAUCASIAN would doubtless object to it so we will close this part of the letter by saying we mean every word we say about the place. The news in Fayetteville now seems to be all about the great evangelist, H. G. Pearson, who commenced a series of meetings in this city last night. The meetings are held in the Pearson Tabernacle, on Gillespie street, which was constructed especially for these meetings at a cost of $1,000.00, contributed by the people. The building has a seating capacity for 3,000 people, is lighted by five electric lights of 1,200 candle power each, and another one on the outside. A choir of 100 trained voices lead the singing. At the services last night over 3,000 people were in the building and many could not get in. Mr. Pearson preached a sermon of power and earnestness. There is a magnetism about him which seems to draw you to him. Many strangers are in the city attending the meetings, and it is said that thousands will be here during this and next week. More about it in our next. Next Friday is Memorial Day. Mr. E. W. Poo, of Smithfield, will deliver the address and Rev. T. P. Barclay, the new Presbyterian minister from Kentucky, to be Chaplain. The military companies of Bennettsville, S. C., Maxton and Lumber Bridge, will participate in addition to our own excellent F. I. L. I. The Maxton band furnishes the music. The procession will start from the Cumberland House, on Hay street, and then to the Confederate Cemetery. The Fayetteville Wooden-ware Co. is shipping water and well buckets by the hundred. Capt. S. C. Rankin, the President, has just returned from a trip through the South taking orders. The cotton mills are running on full time and making weekly shipments. This mill with a capital stock of $4,000.00, represents to a large extent the savings of the young men of the city. Mr. John P. Morgan, the President, being only thirty years old. The Grand Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows of North Carolina, in its 14th inst. in annual session. The Order here is in a flourishing condition and is preparing to give their brethren a handsome reception. The 30th of April, centennial day, was appropriately observed here by services in the different churches at 9 o'clock A. M. Cumberland Superior Court convened this morning with Judge Gilmer presiding. It is two weeks' term for the trial of civil cases, with the exception of the first three days which are devoted to the criminal docket for the purpose of clearing the jail. The C. F. & Y. V. Railway Company are turning out a large number of cars at the shops here. The building of the iron bridge across the Cape Fear has not commenced. The work of building five large piers however is progressing satisfactorily, one being completed and another nearly through. Seventy-five men are at work. President J. A. Gray, of the C. F. & Y. V. Railway Company has tendered the use of his elegant private car to the committee to go out to bring ex-President Jefferson Davis here in November next, to be chief orator at the centennial celebration which will take place on November 21st. It is said that Mr. Davis will come. We hope so, as this would like to help do honor to this great chief. The celebration will be on a grand style. Committees are already at work making preparations. If Mr. Davis comes 50,000 people will be here.

Invitations.

We are indebted to the Marshals of Davidson College for an invitation to attend the fifty-second annual commencement. Col. John N. Staples delivers the annual address. The commencement exercises of Fremont Institute will be held on May 29th. Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., will deliver the address. Prof. W. H. Hand is Principal of this flourishing school. A very neat ticket, announcing the closing exercises of Nahata Academy, May 21st and 22d, is upon our table with the compliments of J. H. Moore, Principal. James H. Brinson, Esq., of New Bern, delivers the address.
