

GOVERNOR FITZHUGH LEE.

Last week we gave a side view picture of the handsome and dashing Governor of Virginia in uniform. This week we give a front view in the costume of a civilian. He is today the most prominent Southern Democrat. Don't fail to hear him speak at the Sampson Fair.

CLINTON, N.C., NOV. 28, 1889.

The State Board of Agriculture will meet in Raleigh on Dec. 3rd at 4 o'clock.

Products of the Dairy? Handwork from your fingers! Results of your art in cookery, etc. Who can excel Sampson in these? In these, let us convince the world that we are leaders, by our exhibit at the Sampson Fair.

New Bern and vicinity was visited on last Thursday by a severe storm, doing much damage. The Weaver and Wood Plate Factory of the S. H. Gray Manufacturing Company was blown down and made almost a complete ruin. The loss is about $7,500.

What are you going to bring to the Sampson Fair? Have you good stock. Have you good poultry? Have you good corn or grain of any kind? If so, as a good citizen you will bring it to the Fair and prove to the world that we have a live and progressive county.

We have just received a copy of the first issue of the University Magazine for this year. A fine steel engraving of the late Prof. R. H. Graves adorns the first leaf. There is also an excellent article on his life and character by Prof. Winston. We are pleased to note that our townsman T. M. Lee is one of the editors.

The Sampson County Alliance has paid more money to the State Business Agency Fund than any other Alliance in North Carolina, which State by the way the banner commonwealth in the great brotherhood. Now let us give the visitors to our Sampson Fair an object lesson in Agriculture, that will sustain our enviable record.

A special to the Wilmington Messenger says:

There is great excitement in Chatham county, arising from the capture of J. P. Davis, who is charged with the murder of John A. Houghton, a worthy farmer of that county, who disappeared very mysteriously ten days ago. He was captured in Danville and brought to Greensboro. Such is the excitement in the vicinity of the murder that it was decided to keep him in jail at Greensboro for the present. He was charged with the murder and confessed the crime. He killed Houghton, he said, in order to get possession of his farm. He killed him with a bootjack and buried the body in the barn.

Don't fail to hear that popular statesman and gallant soldier, Gov. Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, who will be at the Sampson Fair next week.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself has said, This is my own, my native country, Then if your soul is not dead, bring something, bring everything worthy to the Sampson County Fair."

THE CENTENNIAL.

Thousands Present to Witness the Great Event.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE THE CAUCASIAN.) Tuesday, the 19th inst., was the beginning of the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States by North Carolina at Fayetteville.

The Centennial and the Agricultural Fair of Cumberland came off at the same time, and by Tuesday night the number of visitors in Fayetteville was estimated at 10,000. On Wednesday, which was really the opening day of the Centennial, the number was increased by as many more, coming from every portion of the State and many from our neighboring States.

Gov. Fowle began the programme in an eloquent and orate speech of about fifteen minutes and was loudly cheered at its close. The marshals and the military had previously met him at the train on his arrival and escorted him to the grand stand. The marshals were a handsome body of men, and were all representative men from their respective sections.

Thursday, the day that was set apart for the grandest and best of the programme, opened gloomily. From midnight to 11 o'clock in the morning the rain fell unceasingly and it was a blue day for everybody until about 1 o'clock, when the clouds cleared away.

All the indications point to the fact that the Sampson County Fair, to be held at Clinton on December 4th, 5th and 6th, will be the biggest and best ever held there. The premium list is large and varied, and there will undoubtedly be a handsome display of the products of the fields, as well as of the work shops, and in live stock also it is expected there will be a fine display, as Sampson county is noted for its fine blooded cattle and horses, as well as hogs, poultry, etc. In addition to the display of things the programme includes the opening of the fair by His Excellency, Gov. Fowle, on Wednesday, the 4th, and a speech by Gov. Fitzhugh Lee, on Thursday, the 5th, Veteran's Day—and an address by Hon. C. W. Macon, President National Alliance, on Friday, the 6th, Alliance Day. We hope our readers will compete for some of the premiums offered.

—Barnes Herald.

THE FAIR AT CLINTON.

The approaching Sampson Fair promises to be one of the most interesting and attractive in its history. A quarter of a century ago the Fair on Wednesday, December 1st, Gen. Lee, Governor of Virginia, will speak on Thursday, Veteran's Day, while Hon. C. W. Macon, ex-Governor of the National Alliance, is expected to speak on Friday, Alliance Day. These names are sufficient to draw a large crowd, but, in addition, the exhibits at the Sampson Fair are always good. We wish the farmers in our neighboring county of Sampson a much deserved success.

—Winston Star.

Sampson Fair.

Our friends in Sampson are putting forth unusual zeal and effort to make their approaching Fair a great success. The last fair held in that county was in 1884, we think. Up to that time the Sampson fairs were famous throughout the whole State. As the people in the good old county never do things by halves, and with the array of distinguished speakers they will have this year, we are sure, the attractions will be unexcelled.

Wilmington can rightfully claim an interest in this fair for it is the only one held this year in our immediate territory. Our merchants have contributed liberally in special premiums and there will no doubt be a large attendance from this place.

The Atlantic Coast Line will sell round trip tickets to Clinton, including one admission to the Fair, at the following rates: Goldsboro, $1.45; Fremont, $1.50; Wilson, $1.80; Tarboro, $2.70; Rocky Mount, $2.20; Weldon, $2.00; Mount Olive, $1.30; Fatsome, $1.10; Warsaw, $5 cents; Magnolia, $1.05; Duplin Roads, $1.35; Burgaw, $1.45; Rocky Point, $1.60; Wilmington, $1.90. Tickets will be on sale from December 2nd to 6th, and will be good for returning until December 7th.—Wilmington Messenger.

We are really pleased to know that the gallant Fitzhugh Lee, nephew of the Great Robert E. Lee, and a soldier or merit, as well as Governor of Virginia, will attend the Sampson County Fair, that begins on the 4th of December and continues for 3 days. He will deliver an agricultural address. Our Sampson friends are to be congratulated and we feel sure they will have a satisfactory exhibit. North Carolina will always be ready to greet warmly Gov. Lee.—Winston Mirror.

A Popular Event.

The Clinton Fair, opening December 4th, promises to be a great and popular event. Gov. Fowle will open the Fair, and Gov. Lee, of Virginia, and the President of the National Farmers' Alliance, will be of the speakers during the event.—Goldsboro Argus.

SANFORD, S. C., August 2nd, 1888.

Messrs. J. C. Stevenson & Taylor, Wilmington, N. C.

DEAR SIRS:—We have been using "Champion Food" for twelve months and find that it does all that is claimed for it. It improves the general condition of stock and will cure Hog Cholera. We feed it to our stock regularly and would not do without it.

LAURENSBURG, N. C., Sept. 15th, 1888.

Messrs. J. C. Stevenson & Taylor, Wilmington, N. C.

DEAR SIRS:—After using the half barrel "Champion Food" purchased of you we can readily say that it has fulfilled every representation made for it so far as we have tried it. In no instance has it failed to benefit stock fed on it. We can particularly recommend it for milch cows, calves and colts. We regard it as the best stock food on the market. Send us another half barrel.

Yours Truly,

ALEX. MCKINNON & CO.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 10th, 1888.

Messrs. J. C. Stevenson & Taylor,

Gentlemen:—The "Champion Food" you sold us has been given a fair trial, it is a success, and we are glad to add testimony to its worth. When fed to our horses we find it aids digestion, creates an appetite and the animal improves at once. It is a great conditioner, and a trial will prove its value. We have fed it to our cows and, with them also, it has proved a great digestive, both for milk and the quality of the milk has improved, the per centage of increase we cannot say positively state. The food does all you claim in the line of tests we have made; we shall continue its use and advise all the owners of stock to give it a trial.

NOTICE OF SALE.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE

of the Superior Court of Sampson county, rendered in the case of Caroline Merritt et al., heirs at law of John S. Parish, deceased, ex parte, the undersigned, as commissioner of said court, will sell at the courthouse door in Clinton, N. C., on Wednesday, the 11 day of December, 1889, by public auction, to the highest bidder, all that tract or parcel of land lying and being in Taylor's Bridge township, adjoining the lands of A. J. Johnson, C. J. Williams and others, containing 300 acres, more or less, being the home place of the late John S. Parish. Said land will be sold in two lots: First lot to include all the lands lying on the north side of the Taylor's Bridge and Magnolia roads. Second tract to include all lying south of said road. Terms of sale will be one-fourth purchase money cash, balance in two years, payments to be in six and twelve months respectively. Title reserved until purchase money is paid in full.
