Herbert Ward, Stanley's Companion. Herbert Ward, the companion of Stanley in his explorations in Africa, is the only white man connected with Stanley's African explorations who has ever returned alive from the "Dark Continent." Mr. Vard's articles running through with numbers of the "Ledger" are of the most intensely interesting description, and cover five years of his adventures in Africa, and they will be illustrated by sketches made by Mr. Ward, and by the reproduction of photographs takes by him in Africa. These pictures will throw much light upon the manners and customs of the hitherto unknown cannical tribus of Africa.

Life in British America, By Rev. E. R. Toung. Being the adventures and experiences of Rev. E. R. Young, the celebrated missionary, and his wife during their residence to the Polar region twelve hundred miles north of St. Paul, in which Dr. Young narrates how he tamed and taught the native wild Indians of the Northwest; how he equipped himself for and how he made his perilous designing and handred when visiting all the Indian settlements within five hundred miles of his home.
