SENSIBLE TALK

BY A NORTH CAROLINA NEGRO.

He is Opposed to Emigration and is not Ashamed that He is Black.

Dr. J. C. Price, president of the colored college at Salisbury, N. C., and one of the foremost orators of his race.

"I have no faith in the doctrine of assimilation. The ancestral pride of the white man, the growing pride of the negro, forbid that this amalgamation take place save on the high ground of matrimony, and there is only one intermarriage out of every 200,000.

"It is not because of his color but because of his condition, that the black man is in disfavour. Whenever a black face appears it suggests a poverty-stricken, an ignorant race.

"Others would have us disappear by emigration. Your distinguished Senator has just introduced into Congress a measure intended to help us away.

"It may be that God means us to go some day, but that is not the way and this is not the time. Remember, friends, that long ago two little barges came to America.

"When Congress legislates the black man back to Africa it would be just as wise to legislate the white man back to Europe.

"The negro is an imitative creature, and this is a sign of much hope. The Indian always does the opposite from what he sees the white man do.

"It is said that the 'decent' Republicans of Montana are ashamed of the course pursued by their party in that state.

"The negro is following right on in the white man's steps."

What is Transpiring at the Head of the Nation.

[REV. COR. THE CAUCASIAN.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10th.

Senator Voorhees is always certain of a large audience, no matter what the subject is that he is announced to speak upon.

President Simmons in opening the meeting said: "As your presiding officer, you have accorded to me the pleasant privilege of inviting you to the entertainment which now comes.

"The meeting was one of great enthusiasm and the principles celebrated did credit to those who participated.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

The Business Men's Democratic Association of New York celebrated the battle of New Orleans on the 8th instant, the seventy-fifth anniversary.

A large gathering of distinguished Democrats were present, including the Governors from many States. Over the chairman's seat in the hall of the Association was the floral motto:

1815. TARIFF REFORM. 1890.

President Simmons in opening the meeting said: "As your presiding officer, you have accorded to me the pleasant privilege of inviting you to the entertainment which now comes.

Alliance trade cards for sale at THE CAUCASIAN office at 25 cents per hundred.

The Executive Committee of the State Farmers' Alliance was in session in Raleigh last week. Much of the business transacted will not yet be made public.

Col. L. L. Polk's resignation as secretary was accepted and Mr. E. C. Beddingfield, of Wake county, elected to succeed him.

A few days since we heard a gentleman say that the trouble with the farmer was that he did not work enough; that if he would produce more, that hard times and depressed agriculture would be a thing of the past.

That the first part of his statement is true in many individual cases we will admit, but the cause for the general depression of agriculture is to be found elsewhere.

Let us take a broad view of the situation. During the year 1889, the farmers of the United States produced more corn than ever before.

According to the report of the Department of Agriculture the total is over two thousand million bushels, which is more than two hundred million bushels more than was produced the year '88, yet the corn crop of '89 is not worth as much in the market as the corn crop of '88.

Just think of it! The average price of corn in the United States today is only about 28 cents per bushel. There is something also the matter, something badly wrong; and it is that wrong that the Alliance is in pursuit of.

Unjust legislation tells the story. This government is under the control of Plutocracy—money-kings, who are driving the producer to starvation in the midst of plenty, by gambling on the hard-earned products of his labor.

Official. NATIONAL FARMERS' ALLIANCE AND INDUSTRIAL UNION, Washington, D. C., Jan 3, '90.

At an early day the Ritual, containing form for burial service, will be published and issued from this office. Also, the Constitution and Statutory Laws of the Order, with simple and practical rules of parliamentary usage.

These books will be printed in neat and durable style and will each bear the imprint of the seal of the National Order. Rituals and National Constitutions without such imprint will not be recognized as official.

This office can supply State Secretaries only. Members of the Order must apply to their State Secretary.

By order of the President: J. H. TRISER, Sec'y N. F. A. and I. U.

He Was Puzzled. Farmer Adkins: "I don't understand it. In 1870 I owed a man $180 and brought one bale of cotton to town weighing 500 pounds and sold it and took up the note. I was owing another man this year the same amount and brought two bales to town and sold it to-day and it took the last cent to pay it. I couldn't for the life of me understand how it is that it takes just 1,000 pounds of cotton to-day to pay the same amount that it took only 500 pounds to pay in 1870. It required twice as many hard licks to make these two bales—they cost me as much as the one bale and yet they buy me no more money. Somehow or other it looks to me that just one-half my labor has gone for nothing and somebody has got it without paying for it."

"Say, Allen, can you tell me how it is that I have to do twice as much work now for that $180 as I had to do in 1870?" Allen—My advice to you, Mr. Adkins, is to take Alliance papers and read and study more about your business."

ANDREW'S CHAPEL ALLIANCE, No. 519. IN MEMORIAM. WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom saw fit on the 15th of December, 1889, to remove from midst sister MARY N. OWEN, therefore be it

Resolved 1st, That we bow with humble submission to this dispensation of His providence, knowing that He doeth all things for the best and that our loss is her eternal gain.

Resolved 2nd, That in the death of sister Owen our Lodge has lost a good member, the church a consistent christian and the community a genial friend, and that we extend to the family of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved 3rd, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the minutes of this Lodge, a copy sent to the family of the deceased, and a copy to THE CAUCASIAN for publication.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS. The System is a Failure—Let Us Have a Change for the Better.

In ante-bellum times we had a three-month term of school each year, and the public fund was distributed with little expense. Since the war the school fund collected has grown to an enormous amount, and we would naturally expect an increased term of school, but the average is less than two months, and in many of the counties the future statesman of the country receive about 80 cents per year to fit them for the duties of citizenship. Is not our public school system a failure? We have a State Superintendent, ninety-six county superintendents, ninety-six school boards, and ninety-six county treasurers engaged in the management of the public schools in the State. An increased levy is impossible, as the constitutional limit is already reached. What remedy can be suggested to better our condition? Private educational enterprises suffer in proximity to a public school, we all know, and the mere pittance doled out each year ought to make us feel ashamed of our educational system. Let us have a change for the better, if such a thing is possible.—The Farmer and Scottish Chief.

Not One in Ten. Of the people you meet from day to day has perfectly pure, healthy blood. The hereditary scrofulous taint affects the large majority of people, while many others acquire diseases from impure air, improper food and wrong indulgences. Hence the imperative necessity for a reliable blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which eradicates every impurity, and gives to the blood vitality and health. It cures scrofula, rheum, humors, boils, pimples, and all other affections caused by impurities or poisonous gases in the blood. All that is asked for Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it be given faithfully.

The Forum. A MONTHLY REVIEW OF LIVING SUBJECTS. By the Foremost Writers in the World.

THE FORUM has won the highest place reached by any periodical; for it publishes articles by more authoritative writers and by more workers along instructive lines of activity than any other publication. It contains eleven studies of great subjects every month. It is impartial, giving hearings alike to each side. It is financially independent, as it belongs to no sect or party or "interest." It is never sensational, but it aims always to be instructive.

There has come forward no problem of grave importance since THE FORUM was established that has not been discussed in its pages by masters of the subject. Announcements of forthcoming articles can seldom be made long in advance, for THE FORUM's discussions are always of problems of present concern. Every such problem that the year 1890 will bring forward will be discussed, whether in politics, or religion, or social science, or practical affairs. The January number will contain a reply by ex-Speaker J. G. CARLISLE to Senator Cullom's recent article on "How the Tariff Affects the Farmer."

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Arkansas, says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an Incurable Consumptive. began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on a farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middleward, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Dr. R. H. HOLLIDAY'S Drugstore, Clinton, N. C.
