LOCALS.

—Dr. George Thomas, of Wilmington, is dead.

—Court next week; His Honor Judge Graves presiding.

—Yesterday was Ash Wednesday. There were services in the Episcopal Church.

—Sampson's Bill Arp is growing popular. See his third article in this issue.

—Special drill of the Sampson Light Infantry to-night—every Thursday night.

—Is it not about time for the Sampson's Truckers' Association to hold its second annual meeting?

—Mr. R. C. Holmes and Mr. W. H. Russell have the framing of their residences on DeVane street up.

—Miss Mary Lou Brown will have the Young Ladies' Club to hold its next regular meeting at her place of residence.

—Rev. Thomas Strange will deliver the Baccalaureate address at the University. Rev. Thos. Dixon will deliver the address at Wake Forest.

—The case of Merritt vs. Mosely, which was moved from this county to Duplin, was tried in Kenansville last week. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

—A lady writing to the New York World, says: "Why not put all the advertisements of the dry-goods houses on one sheet? Then when the ladies of the family wish to read the (to them) most interesting part of the paper, they will not have to wait until the end of said family devour the base-ball news."

—Mr. Robert Peterson says that the surest and easiest way to destroy ground moles is to mix a little "Rough on Rats" with a little dough or bread and put in their paths. They are sure to eat it and die.

—The State Sunday School Convention meets in Wilmington, N. C., next Tuesday, the 35th. The County Sunday School Convention will meet in the Baptist Church Saturday at 10 o'clock to elect delegates.

—An exchange says: Dust is one of the worst difficulties to contend with in keeping house-plants during the winter. If they can not be thoroughly protected the foliage must be washed off carefully every week or ten days.

—Yesterday being Ash Wednesday, Divine service was held in the Episcopal Church at this place, Rev. J. W. Turner officiating. Services are appointed in the same church for Sunday morning next at 11 o'clock, at which time the Holy Communion will be administered.

—Occasionally we get a letter from a subscriber asking us to discontinue his paper when the year is out. This we cannot do unless he has paid in advance, for it would necessitate a separate set of books. We need about two more days in a week to keep up with what we are trying to do at present.

—At the Baptist Church, on Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Meeks lectured on the "Origin of Idolatry." He said that idolatry originated in the Garden of Eden, when Adam and Eve paid homage to the serpent. The flood was sent upon the world to destroy it—Noah and a few others were saved because they were free from the sin. But the sins of Adam outperched again in his seed. We have had all kinds of idolatry. The idolatry of mammon is the reigning curse of the world to-day.

—The stock of the Sampson Building and Loan Association is steadily growing. We understand that at several Wilmington men have applied for stock, not with a view of getting a loan (for none but citizens of the county can borrow money) but simply as a good paying investment. The Association is sure to prosper, for every cent of the money paid in on stock has already been borrowed out and there are applications in ahead now for the money as fast as it is paid in by the stockholders. We have five shares and would double the number now if we thought we could easily meet the weekly payments of 25 cents per share.

—Try to pay us all or a part of your subscription during next week. If you do not come to court send us whatever amount you can by mail and we will send you a receipt for the same by next mail stating exactly up to what time it pays. We have often heard good men complain that some editors were always dunning them through their papers. We are not dunning you you now, but are simply forced by necessity to ask you to come to our assistance. Don't hesitate because the amount you could send is small, for we assure you that any amount, however small, will be acceptable.

Henry James—James Henry. Miss James Henry is now Mrs. Henry James. A quiet and democratic wedding took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. James S. Bizzell, Clerk of the Superior Court. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Colin Shaw. A reception was given in the evening at the residence of the groom's father, Mr. Perry James. THE CAUCASIAN extends its best wishes to the happy couple.

Are you made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? SHILOH'S VITALIZER is a positive cure. For sale by Dr. R. H. HOLLIDAY, Clinton, and W. P. KENNEDY, Warsaw, N. C.

HONEYCUTTS. Mr. R. M. Crumpler has fenced in a field using the barbed wire. He is much pleased with it.

Mr. W. F. Taylor and Miss Gertrude Taylor are over in Snakesville this week to see the new railroad.

MINGO. Quantities of timber in this section waiting for a fresher.

A man in this section had his infare table set on last Sunday m'ning. He took his best girl in his buggy and started for J. P. There was another man, who for some special reason, wished to be present when the knot was to be tied. Man No. 1 objected. So the prospective groom and bride and the would-be spectator ran a race for the J. P.'s. The spectator got there first, whereupon the couple for reasons best known to themselves decided to postpone the nuptials.

The best-laid schemes of mice and men hang oft agley. And leave us naught but grief and pain. Forpromised joy.

PINEY GROVE. Several marriages have recently occurred, and as they haven't appeared in the columns of this paper, I guess the contracting parties don't desire their publicity. Hope 'tis a sign of a good crop year, and that the "La Grippe" will prove a daisy instead of a fatal epidemic.

Several farmers availed themselves of the protracted fair warm weather and went to work with renewed energy, like they mean business and to do away with so much guano this season and rely more on the compost heap.

Messrs. J. C. & E. D. Hobbs are running the rein ring machine by steam and can turn them out rapidly.

A man in an adjacent township has a cart body that will hold collard seed loose in it. This shows pretty good workmanship of the constructing mechanic.

The recent blooming of fruit trees and the unusually warm weather is a topic of conversation among some of the natives, and the ideas they entertain, when expressed in words, are often quite amusing. They seem to think old father Time is preparing for his final exit during the present year. Time will end forever with them when they die.

[Does our correspondent mean to say that they have no souls?—Ed.]

NEWTOWN GROVE. Mr. D. C. King, aged 65 years, was married the third time on the 9th. The bride was a Mrs. Woodard, of Johnston county. May the third honeymoon be as sweet as the first.

Miss Mary Williams is teaching an excellent school at Persimmon College.

Miss R. E. Bolton, of Cumberland county, has been visiting in this section.

Miss Annie Southerland, and the Misses Cooper, of Kenansville, have been spending a few days with their friends here.

The firm of Rose & Bro., have moved their naval store business to Peacock's X Roads.

Our farmers are "making hay while the sun shines," or rather making wise preparations for it.

Mr. Sampson Warren will in a few days put in a 3,700 pound water wheel—35 horse power, at his mill to run his machinery, consisting of a rice mill, cotton seed crusher, gin and grist mill.

WESTBROOKS. Mrs. E. A. Wilson, aged 62 years, died at her home on last Sunday morning at 1 o'clock. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. F. H. Underwood.

EXCUSE ME AGAIN.

To Each One of the Two Hundred.

I have on my books over a hundred subscribers, who are equally as good as a bank, yet who owe me from one to two years subscription. It is a small item, and they have neglected it on that account, knowing that I would be satisfied that I would get it, and that it would come in a good time when I did get it. That is so, and would be all right if I could negotiate their accounts like money and pay my indebtedness with them. But unfortunately I had not a cent given me to start on in the world, and the afore have only a limited capital to work with. I bought this paper on the installment plan, so much coming due every few months. All the payments are not yet met. I have to meet not only my current expenses but also to raise enough to meet these payments, never laying aside a cent for myself. This being the case I must ask you to excuse me again for calling your attention to the small amount due, or else be unjust to others and to myself. I am sorry that I have not the money to pull out of my pocket and pay these obligations when they come due, but I have not, so must ask you to do me the genuine favor to come to my assistance.

There are also on my books the names of a hundred or more men who are due me for a year or more, but men who, like myself, are poor and hard pressed for money, but men who are equally as good as a bank, I would trust as far as the others,—men who are also as good as a bank, for they are true and honest. These I ask to do simply as much for me now as they can and pay the balance next fall. Pay me a little, if it is only 50 cents, for many littles will count up, a hundred 50 cents will make $50.00.

I believe that every county should have a good paper and I have striven to give my native county such a one, and to this end have devoted two of the hardest years of my life, therefore it is peculiarly mortifying to owe just debts which I am unable to meet. Try to give me a call during court next week, if not sooner.

Very truly and earnestly, MARION BUTLER.

Shakespearean Club.

The Shakespearean Club met at the residence of Dr. A. M. Lee on last Friday evening. The next meeting will be at Mrs. W. H. Fowle's on the evening of the 28th. The programme for the meeting will be as follows:

Play—"As You Like It."

The first section of the club will come on duty as follows: Orlando, by Miss Studie Faison. Touchstone & Jaques, by Mr. T. M. Lee.

The Ethical Side of Play, by Miss Nela Fowle.

Toselind, by Mr. Edward Faison. Twelve Quotations from est passages, by Miss Mittie Beaman.

Abstract of Play, by Mr. J. C. Shoum.

A resume of the play and discussions on it by the President.

Can't Get Along Without It.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 15. Editor of "Caucasian"—Dear Sir: Please send THE CAUCASIAN to A. W. Colwell, care of A. & M. A. College, Raleigh, N. C., and draw on Mr. D. F. Colwell, of Harrell's store, for the amount necessary to settle for the same. Mary thanks for the copy sent me sometime ago. We can't get along well without THE CAUCASIAN. The school is at work nicely now. Respectfully, Mrs. SUE C. CARROLL.

Died.

Capt. T. D. Smith, of THE CAUCASIAN office, received the sad intelligence Tuesday of the death of his mother in Virginia. She was an exceptional pious woman and lived to the ripe old age of ninety-five years. Our sympathies are tendered the bereaved.

Personals.

Miss Charlotte Murphy, of Taylor's Bridge, is visiting at Mr. H. B. Chesnut's.

Engineer Johnson is sick. Engineer Langston is temporarily running in his stead.

Messrs. Gabriel Holmes and Davis, of Wilmington, were up yesterday going for the "bob white."

Postmaster Ward was absent Monday, attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, in Westbrooks.

Attention!

We will advertise free of charge for any articles that may have been lost, misplaced, or taken through mistake at the Sampson Fair last fall. Any one who has lost any article on exhibit will please send us a description of the same and we will try to trace it up.

Piles! Piles! Heching Piles! Symplocos—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumor. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents.

DR. SWAYNE & SON, Philadelphia.

Do you take THE CAUCASIAN? If not, then it is your duty to do so, and help us make the paper better and more influential.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will Cure Dyspepsia.

I, Joseph Latham, of Greenville, N. C., take pleasure in adding a word of commendation of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Mrs. Latham had the dyspepsia very badly, and the use of this remedy proved wonderful in its effects, and after using a few bottles her health vastly improved.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will Cure Indigestion.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 14, 1889. Last winter I was suffering very much from indigestion and general debility, with a broken-down system, followed with chronic dyspepsia. I tried one bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and found so much relief and improvement I continued its use until I used the seventh bottle, which restored me to perfect health, and I am now as well as a silver dollar. I can cheerfully recommend it as a good restorative, blood purifier and a builder-up of broken-down systems.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE of the Superior Court of Sampson county, the undersigned, as commissioner of said court, will sell by public auction, at the court house door in Clinton, N. C., on Monday, the 3rd day of March, 1890, for the purpose of making partition among the heirs of Rebecca Tew, an undivided half interest in the following tract of land, situate in Dismal township, adjoining the lands of Young Tyndall, J. L. Tyndall, W. B. Honeycutt and others, containing about 155 acres.

TERMS OF SALE—20 per cent. cash, one half balance in nine months and one half in twelve months, with 8 per cent. interest from date of sale until paid. Title reserved until purchase money is paid in full.

F. R. JOPEL, Com'r. This Jan. 29th, 1890.—4f

NORTH CAROLINA, SAMPSON CO.—IN SUPERIOR COURT, JANUARY 7th, 1890.

W. L. Faison, Cashier Clinton Loan Association,

Against F. L. Faison, administrator of A. M. Faison, deceased, William A. Faison, Vivie Devane, A. C. Dixon and wife, Mollie F. Dixon, Nathan W. Faison, F. L. Faison, De B. H. Faison and A. Mosely Faison.

The above action was brought by the plaintiff to recover judgment on a note made by A. M. Faison, deceased, and W. A. Faison, one of his sureties, the said A. M. being the father of the defendants, Vivie Devane, Mollie Dixon, Nathan Faison, F. L. Faison, De B. H. Faison and Mosely Faison for the sum of $1,200, due October 26th, 1888; and for a foreclosure of a mortgage on two tracts of land, known as the Fortner and Meers places, made by the said A. M. and W. A. Faison to the plaintiff to secure the said note.

And the defendants, Nathan W. Faison and Mollie F. Dixon and her Husband, A. C. Dixon, are hereby notified to appear before the Judge at the next term of our Superior Court to be held for the county of Sampson, at the courthouse in Clinton, on the 1st Monday before the 1st Monday in March, 1890, and answer or demur to the complaint of the plaintiff, filed in this action.
