

SUBSCRIBE.

Show this Paper to your neighbor and advise him to subscribe.

Subscription Price $1.50 per Year, in Advance.

PROFESSIONAL COLUMN.

W. R. ALLEN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Goldsboro, N. C. Will practice in Sampson county.

A. M. LEE, M. D., PHYSICIAN, SURGEON AND DENTIST, Office in Lee's Drug Store.

J. A. STEVENS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, (Office over Post Office) May be found at night at the residence of J. H. Stevens on College Street.

H. E. FAISON, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Office on Main Street, will practice in courts of Sampson and adjoining counties.

W. S. THOMSON, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Office over Post Office, Will practice in Sampson and adjoining counties.

E. W. KERR, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Office on Wall Street, Will practice in Sampson, Bladen, Pender, Harnett and Duplin Counties.

FRANK BOYETTE, D.E.S., DENTISTRY, Office on Main Street, Offers his services to the people of Clinton and vicinity.

Epilepsy. This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life.

Never put iron or steel bits in a horse's mouth on a frosty weather with out first warming them.

New Give Attention! To the purification of your blood, for at no season is the body so susceptible to the benefits to be derived from a good medicine.

All animals can be made happy or miserable by the way in which you talk to them.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life. It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life.

"How to Cure All Skin Diseases." Simply apply "SWAYNE'S OINTMENT." No internal medicine required.

"Did they treat you cordially?" "Indeed, yes. Why, about midnight her father came to the head of the stairs and called down to know if I wouldn't stop to breakfast."

FOR THE BLOOD. Biliousness, take SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. It cures quickly. For sale by all druggists in medicine. Get the genuine.

Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity, and truth accomplishes no victories without it.

It probably hits every man at times how many of his acquaintances make first-class strangers.

THE CAUCASIAN.

Pure Democracy and White Supremacy.

VOL. VIII.

CLINTON, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1890.

No. 25.

THINK!

DELICIOUS ADVERTISING. CREATES many a new business, ENLARGES many an old business, REVIVES many a dull business, RESCUES many a lost business, SAVES many a failing business, PRESERVES many a large business, SECURES success in any business.

A Forum of Public Opinion.

THE OPINION OF THE CAUCASIAN'S READERS ON THE VARIOUS TOPICS OF THE DAY.

We offer this column to our readers in which to discuss topics of interest and profit to them.

Monetization of Land.

BY A COLLARD.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

The introduction into the banking scheme advocated by the Farmers' Alliance is only one evidence of the great dissatisfaction that is felt with our present National banking system.

NOMINATE MEN

Who are Known to Favor the Legislation Desired by the People.

The Daily State Chronicle says:—People are already talking politics. This will be a notable year in the political world of North Carolina.

- 1. A Chief Justice and an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State. 2. Superior Court Judges of the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth and Eleventh districts. 3. Solicitors in all the twelve judicial districts. 4. Nine members of the United States House of Representatives. 5. Fifth State Senators. 6. One hundred and twenty members of the North Carolina House of Representatives. 7. All county officers.

The importance of this election is evident: from the above list of officers to be elected. The outlook is particularly promising to the Democrats.

The importance of this election is evident: from the above list of officers to be elected. The outlook is particularly promising to the Democrats.

The importance of this election is evident: from the above list of officers to be elected. The outlook is particularly promising to the Democrats.

The importance of this election is evident: from the above list of officers to be elected. The outlook is particularly promising to the Democrats.

The importance of this election is evident: from the above list of officers to be elected. The outlook is particularly promising to the Democrats.

The importance of this election is evident: from the above list of officers to be elected. The outlook is particularly promising to the Democrats.

WOMAN'S SPHERE.

It has been said, "there are but a few things on which health and happiness depend more than on the manner in which food is cooked."

It is every woman's duty, first to herself, second to her family, and third to society to appear neat, attractive, and to an advantage in every way possible.

Mrs. Cleveland, attending the reception given by ex-Mayor W. R. Grace of New York, was dressed simply in afternoon calling costume, and the reporter says that she never looked better and was the most charming woman present.

Two Types of Women. We said last week that we could best judge a refined woman by the details of her dress.

One will put on a new gown and be instantly at home in it, while another will look as if her gown did not belong to her at all.

However, if a woman has neither she may acquire a certain ease and grace by forgetting her clothes; some women impress us with their clothes, and others with themselves.

After a woman has put on her gown, attended to all its details and knows that her toilet is complete and perfect, let her endeavor to forget all about it.

Fashion Notes. We draw following notes from a half a dozen fashion books for April.

A novelty in rings consists of a plain band of silver, set with five couch shells.

One of the new spring shades is called Aubergine, and is the purple color of egg-plants.

Black bengaline and surah gowns are made up in combination with gay Scotch tartans, or else the many blue and green plaids, with their white and yellow bars.

THE TABLE.

Variety of Preparation. A troublesome question with house-wives and cooks is what to do with cold meats.

Both housekeepers and ordinary cooks make a mistake in doing hash always exactly in the same way.

Two Remedies. The unprejudiced agricultural depression and the great injustices done the American farmer was the condition very ably and forcibly portrayed by Senator Voorhees of Indiana in the United States Senate recently.

As to his second remedy we would say the we agree with the National Economist that we need not only a sufficient volume of money, but that volume must be flexible.

What he means by "a liberal policy of pensions" we do not know. But one thing certain is that the present policy is already too liberal—liberal to absurdity.

There are seven changes which may be rung on the one theme and still keep it the good old-fashioned dish. By this means the grumbling men will cease to grumble even if they are served with hash twice a week, for I could not then come on in the same form twice a month.

One Means of Relief. The Richmond Times says:—"The poorest people, that is those who have less ready money with which to supply their daily wants, are the larger land owners, who have no other resource but their lands and are dependent on hired labor or tenantry for its cultivation."

Every Day Recipes. Of the making of many recipes there is no end, but the experienced housekeeper will delight in the opportunities afforded her by THE CAUCASIAN'S weekly visit to place new toothsome and palatable dishes before her family and friends.

POPOVERS. 3 cups of milk, 3 cups of flour, 3 eggs, and a little salt. Drop into hot fat and they will pop over. They are very nice.

MUFFINS. 1 cup of flour, 2 cups of corn meal. Butter the size of an egg. Sweeten and salt to taste. 1 teaspoonful of soda, 1 cup of buttermilk.

SPICE CAKE. 1 pound of flour, 1/2 pound of sugar, 1/2 pound of butter, 4 eggs, 1 cup of sweet milk, 2 tablespoonful of baking powder, 1 tablespoonful each of cloves, cinnamon, and nutmeg.

Our Farmers' Column.

SOMETHING INTERESTING TO THOSE WHO TILL THE SOIL.

"There is no material progress that is well based and permanent without agricultural progress."

The unprejudiced agricultural depression and the great injustices done the American farmer was the condition very ably and forcibly portrayed by Senator Voorhees of Indiana in the United States Senate recently.

As to his second remedy we would say the we agree with the National Economist that we need not only a sufficient volume of money, but that volume must be flexible.

What he means by "a liberal policy of pensions" we do not know. But one thing certain is that the present policy is already too liberal—liberal to absurdity.

There are seven changes which may be rung on the one theme and still keep it the good old-fashioned dish. By this means the grumbling men will cease to grumble even if they are served with hash twice a week, for I could not then come on in the same form twice a month.

One Means of Relief. The Richmond Times says:—"The poorest people, that is those who have less ready money with which to supply their daily wants, are the larger land owners, who have no other resource but their lands and are dependent on hired labor or tenantry for its cultivation."

Every Day Recipes. Of the making of many recipes there is no end, but the experienced housekeeper will delight in the opportunities afforded her by THE CAUCASIAN'S weekly visit to place new toothsome and palatable dishes before her family and friends.

POPOVERS. 3 cups of milk, 3 cups of flour, 3 eggs, and a little salt. Drop into hot fat and they will pop over. They are very nice.

MUFFINS. 1 cup of flour, 2 cups of corn meal. Butter the size of an egg. Sweeten and salt to taste. 1 teaspoonful of soda, 1 cup of buttermilk.

Facts on Forest Leaves.

When I began gardening for market, my land was poor, and I had little means for buying manure, I raked leaves and rich woods-earth and covered it with loam until fall.

They were then composted with one-third their bulk of stable manure. I have never seen better effects from any fertilizer.

The unprejudiced agricultural depression and the great injustices done the American farmer was the condition very ably and forcibly portrayed by Senator Voorhees of Indiana in the United States Senate recently.

As to his second remedy we would say the we agree with the National Economist that we need not only a sufficient volume of money, but that volume must be flexible.

What he means by "a liberal policy of pensions" we do not know. But one thing certain is that the present policy is already too liberal—liberal to absurdity.

There are seven changes which may be rung on the one theme and still keep it the good old-fashioned dish. By this means the grumbling men will cease to grumble even if they are served with hash twice a week, for I could not then come on in the same form twice a month.

One Means of Relief. The Richmond Times says:—"The poorest people, that is those who have less ready money with which to supply their daily wants, are the larger land owners, who have no other resource but their lands and are dependent on hired labor or tenantry for its cultivation."

Every Day Recipes. Of the making of many recipes there is no end, but the experienced housekeeper will delight in the opportunities afforded her by THE CAUCASIAN'S weekly visit to place new toothsome and palatable dishes before her family and friends.

POPOVERS. 3 cups of milk, 3 cups of flour, 3 eggs, and a little salt. Drop into hot fat and they will pop over. They are very nice.

MUFFINS. 1 cup of flour, 2 cups of corn meal. Butter the size of an egg. Sweeten and salt to taste. 1 teaspoonful of soda, 1 cup of buttermilk.

Children's Corner.

SOMETHING INTERESTING TO THE YOUNG READERS OF THE CAUCASIAN.

Lottie Champney's Easter Party. BY CLARISSA DOWNS.

"Aunt Marie, you said that next Sunday was Easter Sunday, what does Easter mean?"

"The speaker was a little girl about twelve years of age, with thoughtful brown eyes and shining hair. Aunt Marie looked up in quick surprise.

"Why, my dear, you go to Sunday school every Sunday and ask such a question? I am surprised."

"No, no, Aunt, you misunderstand me," began Lottie, who she had appealed to her Cousin Helen instead of Aunt Marie, who always thought her questions sprang from ignorance.

"The festival of Easter, Lottie dear, was celebrated before the Christians claimed it as the most joyful and hallowed day of the year. Some say the word Easter is from the Saxon word Oster, which signifies, to rise.

"But, Cousin, how do we happen to call it by the same name?" "Because, Lottie, when the Christian fathers came to see a day for this commemorating of Christ being risen from the dead, they found no more beautiful time, or one that seemed so to rejoice and revel in the risen Christ, as the spring season.

"Now tell me why we always have eggs at Easter?" "That we may attribute to a custom. They used to be called Pace, Pasch-eggs, and only the pleasure they grant you children seems to be their excuse for being a prominent feature of the celebration.

"Wait and see what chickens will be hatched for you two little chatter-boxes," laughed Cousin Helen. "Oh, tell us, tell us, what is going to happen," cried Lottie, while Larry looked beseeching.

They began coming, presently, until the parlors held about ten [Continued on Second Page.]