The Chair of History at the North Carolina University was established none too soon. No effort should be spared to teach the youth of the South the truth and the whole truth about the history of the South. It is easy for the meaning and significance of an event to be distorted through ignorance, superficial information, prejudice or wilful misrepresentation. Against all these the South must protect itself.—Charlotte Chronicle.

THE CAUCASIAN.

Pure Democracy and White Supremacy.

VOL. VIII. CLINTON, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1890. No. 43.

THE EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

ANGER IN IT.

Senator Aycock, of Wayne, agrees with THE CAUCASIAN in condemning the proposition of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, that was accepted by the Railway Investigating Committee. What is the proposition? In substance it is about as follows: That for a consideration of about $20,000 in taxes, to be paid by the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, that the State enter into a contract with said company that it shall never be taxed more than above amount and that certain rights and privileges be granted the company, viz: That the capital stock of said company be increased to $10,000,000, in all respects like the stock before issued, that the company have the right to consolidate with or buy any other railway or stock of other companies, or to enter into any traffic agreement it may desire without further permission or consent from the State.

In the first issue of our paper, after the proposition was accepted by the committee to be recommended to the next General Assembly, we said that it would not do. We gave warning that there was a Trojan horse in it. No people can afford to grant such extraordinary and perpetual privileges for such a pittance of taxation, and any Legislature that would swallow the bait would be untrue to the people. We are opposed to accepting a cent of taxation that comes loaded with such a burden. Senator Aycock, who was a member of the committee, voted against accepting the proposition and we are glad to see him out in a card giving his reasons. His card is as follows: After maturely considering the proposition of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company in the draft of a bill submitted to this committee, I am compelled to dissent from the action of the committee recommending the acceptance of the proposition for the following reasons: 1. The powers given to make connection and the general privileges bestowed by the bill on the company are too general and far reaching. The grant of unlimited powers of consolidation being, in my opinion, capable of being so used as to prove injurious to the interest of the people of the State.

2. The valuation of the railroad bed of the main track is fixed at not more than $3,000 per mile, and that of the branches at not more than $4,000 per mile, and the State bound by contract not to exceed these valuations for taxation purposes, thereby putting the property of the corporation upon a different footing from that of the private taxpayer. I think the valuation ought to be made under the general law, and not reserved, as proposed, for the State should be bound by such a contract as is proposed, the value of the road-bed might double and treble, but the tax value would remain about the same.

3. Under the proposed bill the property of the company, the value of the road-bed for all time, and recognizes and approves the principle that one law of taxation may exist for the property of a corporation and another for the taxation of that of the individual.

4. The bill limits perpetually the rate of taxation, fixes the valuation of the road-bed for all time, and recognizes and approves the principle that one law of taxation may exist for the property of a corporation and another for the taxation of that of the individual.

5. I think the surrender of exemption should be made with fewer conditions, and I believe if it were so made the company could safely rely upon obtaining from the Legislature such privileges as it might reasonably ask, and such as may be necessary to it in the conduct of its business. The railroads of the State have been trusted by the Legislature with unequalled power, and they have no reason to fear any unreasonable refusal of legislation in their behalf.

6. The alleged contract, whereby the company has always claimed its exemption from taxation, has been and still is a source of irritation to the people of the State, and a constant source of annoyance to the taxing powers, and I am not in favor of the State entering into any new contract with this company or any other which shall have for its effect the suggestion of any claim of exemption from taxation or the curtailing of the right of the State to derive revenue from any and every species of property within its territory.

In arriving at these conclusions, I am not insensible of the great benefit which will be derived to the people of this State by the contribution of so large a sum to the Treasury as the company has proposed, which would yield to the State and counties about $20,000 per annum, but seeing that such legislation has led me to the conclusion, that the proposed legislation would be unwise.

OUR CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEE.

It was eminently fitting that the Democrats of the 3rd Congressional District should the other day at Clinton invest with the highest honors in their gift one whose life, though hitherto comparatively removed from public view, has been replete with valued services to his fellow-men. A graduate of the University of his native State, which he honors by his ripe scholarship and varied attainments, B. F. Grady, after four years of service to his country in the field—given with the self-abnegation and devotion to principle characteristic of the man—has consecrated his intellectual vigor and prime to the great work of a field where the laurels are un fading; the promotion of the interests of both higher and common school education. As Superintendent of Public Instruction, in his county, in the class-room, in the lecture-hall, in the columns of the press, he has been always an educator in the best sense of the word, a soulful laborer in the task of freeing the youthful mind from the trammels of ignorance, and elevating it to the broader and brighter domain of intelligence. A member of the Farmers' Alliance, Mr. Grady is a consistent friend of the agricultural interests, while his liberal and advanced views on all important subjects render him a well chosen representative of every class of the people.

It is especially seemly, too, that the convention by its nomination made recognition of the past services of Mr. Grady's native county, Duplin, and cast about its splendid Democratic record the wreath of victory. The "banner" county of the district goes into this fight with its own gallant standard-bearer.—Fayetteville Observer.

RIGHT KIND OF TALK.

To my friends of the Third Congressional District: It is no time for regret. The success of the Democratic party and the domination of the white people in North Carolina is paramount to all other considerations. You made a valiant and determined fight to secure my renomination, from the 1st to the 17th of ballot, you proved to me your devotion, loyalty and confidence. I thank you for it I deeply, profoundly and sincerely appreciate it. You are Democrats. Your first and last consideration is Democratic supremacy in North Carolina. Without the asking you, I know, will support my successor, B. F. Grady, of the noble, true, tried and patriotic county of Duplin. As you have supported me, I ask you to follow me in the coming campaign. C. W. McCORMY.

Commissioner of Agriculture Robinson writes that after having travelled over the greater portion of the cotton producing section of the State, he has never seen a better prospect for a good crop, and the same is true also of tobacco, another "money" crop. In consequence of this cheerful outlook, the farmers are hopeful and in good spirits. In addition to this he says that the crops, as far as they promise, have cost less to produce than any previous year, attributable not alone to the favorable seasons, but also to the unusual economy practiced by the farmers. With no mishaps between now and harvest time he is of opinion that our farmers will have more money at the close of the present year than at any time in the past ten years.—Wil Star.

THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT IN GEORGIA.

Atlanta, Ga., July 30.—The convention in the fourth congressional district was held at LaGrange today, and Congressman Grimes was added to the ranks of the congressional corpses.

Alliance leader Moses did it, and after a battle which extended over sixty-five ballots Moses was declared the nominee. Of course his election is assured.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Latest Doings in the Field of Federal Legislation and Politics.

The Week in Congress. THE SENATE. Under the new order for the dispatch of business the Senate meets now at 10 A. M. There are, however, a dozen more minutes of Senate business, during the prayer, and it is almost 11 o'clock before a quorum is secured.—Amendments were made to the tariff bill.—The consideration of the tariff bill was continued all the week.—Amendments offered by the finance committee were adopted. Those proposed by the Democrats were rejected. Toward the close Senators Plumb and Paddock began voting with the Democrats. Senator Plumb made a long speech against the duties asked by the manufacturers, to which Senator Sherman replied.—A resolution was offered to direct the committee on rules to report some method of limiting debate. It was laid over.—The President appointed, and the Senate reported, Thaddeus S. Sharrette, of Maryland, to be general appraiser of merchandise to complete the board created by the administrative customs bill.—The tariff bill will be discussed in the Senate until Friday, when it will give way to other measures.—The conference in the original package bill decided to report in favor of the passage of the Senate measures.

REPORTS OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The report of the majority of the committee on elections on the murder of Clayton and declaring Breckinridge's seat from the Second district of Arkansas vacant, is made public.—Representative Sargent, of New York, offered resolutions to leave all legislation affecting the duties on sugar and molasses alone till next Congress, and requesting the President meanwhile to negotiate with the sugar producing countries for reciprocity. The conference reported the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to.—The Senate amendments to the sundry civil bill were further discussed.—The Speaker approved the bill, and the conference reported the charges against Pension Commissioner Raim.—Fifteen requests for leave of absence were refused.—On Friday no business could be transacted on account of the absence of a quorum. A heated controversy took place between the Speaker and Representative Rogers of Arkansas, over the former's refusal to recognize the latter as entitled to the floor.—The conference on the fortification appropriation bill were unable to agree on the report to the committee on houses.—The committee on post offices and post roads authorized Chairman Bingham to report favorably, without amendment, the Kriss postal subsidy bill.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

The reduction of the public debt during July amounted to $395,255.37. President Harrison is spending a week with his family at Cape May, New Jersey. The President has approved the joint resolution providing temporarily for the expenditures of the government. The conferees of the two houses of Congress have finally agreed upon the passage of the Senate "original package" bill. The President has appointed the following cabinet to West Point: Clyde E. Hawkins, Twenty-fourth district, Pennsylvania. The Director of the Mint has been informed that gold bars to the value of $9,200,000 were shipped from New York to Europe last week. President Harrison has written Governor Brackett, of Massachusetts, that he will be in Boston on August 12, to attend the G. A. R. parade. The Lodge elections bill is undergoing considerable changes at the hands of the Senate committee, and an attempt will undoubtedly be made to pass it at this session. The absent Republican members of the elections committee have been telegraphed to return to Washington, in order to make a quorum and secure action on the Clayton-Breckinridge contest case from Arkansas. Breckinridge will be unseated. The Postmaster General has awarded the contract for furnishing stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers for the four years beginning October 1, 1890, to the Plimpton Manufacturing Company, of Hartford, Conn. A circular has been issued by Secretary Tracy designed to carry into effect the provisions of the naval appropriation bill for a common store for the entire Navy, instead, as heretofore has been the case, of a separate store for each bureau. A Steamship With Three Keels. The steamer Watertown, the only vessel of that kind afloat, and the first ever built at Watertown, Mass., was successfully launched last week. The steamer has three keels, one on each side, and is 134 feet long, and is designed to carry 500 tons of coal. Superior advantages in shallow water over other crafts are claimed for her peculiar construction, it being claimed that she will draw only eight feet.

MURDERED BY A POLICEMAN.

A private watchman named J. L. Monjeaux, Sunday morning, detected Henry Almond, colored, stealing newspapers from doorsteps in Philadelphia. He pursued the thief quite a distance, and finally drew his revolver and fired, the ball taking effect in the fleeing man's back, death resulting. Menjeaux surrendered himself to the police, and will have a hearing.

A RICE FAMINE IN JAPAN.

The British steamship Glengorie arrived in New York Sunday from Yokohama and Amoy China with the first year's crop. The captain reports the suffering from the rice famine to be upon the increase. The government has come to the assistance of the people, however, and is importing large cargoes of rice from Siam, Cochin China, and Burma.

A LIBERAL FRENCHER.

Dr. Meredith, who is hardly less popular as a Brooklyn preacher than Talpa, has established a second reading room for workmen on Fulton street, where no restriction is placed on smoking cigars and pipes. He says he would not object to the church furnishing billiard tables and bowling alleys, and is likely that the boys would object to it either.

IT IS POSSIBLE WE MAY LEARN ALL ABOUT THE CRIMINAL MURDER.

Dan, Coughlin, one of the Cronin suspects now serving his term in Joliet prison, is about ready, it is stated in a Chicago dispatch, to confess. He is fretting himself to death, and is without hope of his former self, and the prison warden believes that the crime so wrought on his mind that he is liable at any time to break down and make a full confession.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The German railway companies having thoroughly examined the Hungarian zone system, have declined to introduce it in Germany. Ex-Secretary of State, Thomas F. Bayard, will attend the Delaware Democratic State convention as a delegate from Wilmington. Mrs. Patty Galloway died Saturday night at Baltimore, after having attained the ripe age of 109 years. All her faculties remained intact until a few days ago. The grand jury of Red Fork county, Arkansas, found true bills against 34 citizens who cut the Bogge Bayou levee to loose the damage to property during the late floods. Mrs. Elizabeth Sands died Sunday at Baltimore at the age of 101 years and 5 months. She had lived 99 years in that city. Her health was remarkably good until a few weeks ago. By explosion of fire-damp Monday in a coal pit at St. Etienne, France, 65 miners were seriously injured. One hundred and fifteen of the men in the pit escaped uninjured. In accordance with the orders of the Emperor of Germany 1,000 sick children of government employees will be sent for a holiday to the seaside. The emperor will personally defray the expense of the trip. Rev. Father Burtell, late pastor of the Church of St. Apphany in New York City, is said to have received information from Rome within the last fortnight which put his case in such a light as to cause him to send an answer to Rome, and that pending the arrival of a reply everything will remain in abeyance. It is now believed that Father Burtell will not go to Rome, but will finally be assigned to another parish in New York.

AT READING, Pa., Saturday, the wife of John Fertig of Rock Stron, probably a mixture of poison to kill rats. Later, while preparing dinner, she accidentally mistook the mixture for brown sugar and put a tablespoonful of it in some dough. At dinner the whole family ate heartily of it. Shortly afterward a violent attack of cholera followed, and suffered intensely. A doctor was summoned and with difficulty relieved Mrs. Fertig and her four children, though they are still very ill. Mr. Fertig's condition is very alarming.

THE HOT WEATHER OF THE LAST WEEK HAS HAD A BAD EFFECT ON THE CROPS IN MINNESOTA AND BOTH THE DAKOTAS. IN SOUTH DAKOTA WHEAT IS ALMOST ALL HARVESTED. THE HOT WINDS OF TWO WEEKS AGO DID IT MUCH DAMAGE, AND AS LARGE A PORTION AS USUAL WILL GRASS NEXT YEAR. THE CORN CROP MAY BE SAID TO BE ALMOST COMPLETELY RUINED, AND NOT OVER 15 TO 20 PER CENT OF A CROP IS NOW IN SIGHT. INDICATIONS POINT TO A LIGHT YIELD IN NORTH DAKOTA, EXCEPT IN PORTIONS BORDERING ON RED RIVER. NO HARVESTING HAS BEEN DONE BEFORE THE MIDDLE OF NEXT WEEK. DURING THE LAST 10 DAYS THE OUTLOOK HAS CHANGED GREATLY FOR THE WORSE.

THE NEIGHBORS OF MR. ANDREWS, A JUSTICE OF THE PEACE IN JOHNSTOWN, AND MRS. JAMES PATTEN, ARE GREATLY EXCITED OVER THE MARRIAGE OF THE COUPLE. MR. PATTEN IS LIVING, BUT OWING TO DOMESTIC INFELICITIES HAS NOT LIVED WITH HIS WIFE FOR SEVERAL MONTHS, THOUGH NO PAPERS OF DIVORCE OR SEPARATION HAVE BEEN FILED. MR. PATTEN SAYS HE WILL BRING ABOUT A PROSECUTION FOR BIGAMY, AND ANDREWS'S NEIGHBORS THREATEN TO TAR AND FEATHER HIM.

ON AUGUST 15 RIVAL IRISH DEMONSTRATIONS WILL BE HELD IN CHICAGO, ONE UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CLAN NA GAEL, AND THE OTHER CONDUCTED BY THE FRIENDS OF DR. CROIN. THE ANTI-TRIANGULARS HAVE ADOPTED AN ADDRESS WHICH SEES THE REPEAL OF GREAT BRITAIN AS THE ONLY WAY among other things: "This year the friends and associates of the murderers—the men who stand between the chief murderers and the gallows—have decided to use the proceeds of the Ogden Grove picnic for the benefit of those dupes, so that the tongues that would speak the words that would bring them within the grasp of the law may be kept silent a little longer by delusive hopes."

WHAT THE ANTI-TRIANGULARS INTEND TO DO WITH THE PROCEEDS OF THEIR DEMONSTRATION IS NOT GIVEN OUT.

REMEMBER TO DIE.

At Last the First Victim of Electrocutation. There appears to be a good reason why William Kemmler's electrocution was set to take place between Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, the 6th and 7th inst. The following are the invitations to be present at the carrying out of the death sentence were received by various persons on Monday the 4th. The holders of the invitations have been very secretive and state that no time or hour was named in the invitations. The reporter was privileged to examine one of these gruesome invitations. It was written in typewriter on an Auburn prison letter head and invites its recipient to report at the prison "at 7 p. m. August 5." "Charles F. Durston, Warden and Keeper."

WHETHER THE EXECUTION TO TAKE PLACE AT NIGHT IS UNCERTAIN, BUT THE CONJECTURE IS THAT SOON AFTER THE STROKE OF MIDNIGHT TUESDAY NIGHT KEMMLER WILL BE EXECUTED HIS CRIME.

MORTALLY WOUNDED HIS WIFE.

Davis Fitzgerald and Hilbert Mortley, brakemen on the Norfolk and Western Railway, have been in love with the same woman. Sunday Fitzgerald caught Mortley in company with the woman at Greensboro, and at once shot him, the ball entering the groin, inflicting a wound that will prove fatal. Fitzgerald fled to the woods, and a posse of men is in pursuit of him. Mortley is a resident of Petersburg, Va.

TRAVELING GHOSTLY FIND.

Charles Thompson, of Great Chebogue, Me., reports the finding on Goose Island, near Chebogue, the remains of children. On a rock were four hand and four feet, recently cut off. A large fire had been built near by, and among the charred pieces of wood were bones, as if the children's bodies had been broiled. Coroner Davis will go down to the scene of the ghastly find.
