LOCALS.

—We are glad to learn that Miss Loula Beaman, who has been quite sick for the past week, is recovering.

—Mrs. M. E. Moore has bought the store of Mr. T. C. Pope, on Main street, now occupied by Capt. D. A. Calbreth.

—There will be a public meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in the Presbyterian Church, in Clinton, at 3 o'clock next Sunday evening.

—Mr. R. C. Holmes has rented the new residence of Mr. D. M. Partrick on Sampson street, and moved his family into it last Tuesday.

—See Hon. B. F. Grady's card in another column explaining why he failed to meet the appointments made for him in Sampson.

—A handsome new fence is taking the place of the old one in front of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Railroad street. The church in St. Paul's is also undergoing repairs.

—Mr. W. G. Rackley received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his father in Cumberland county. Our sympathies are extended to the bereaved family.

—The town authorities are having the guard house remodelled and enlarged. Those who occasionally take lodging there will find it more roomy and comfortable than heretofore.

—We learn that the protracted meeting which was to commence in the Methodist church of this place on next Sabbath has been postponed. The date will be announced later.

—The Convocation of the Wilmington Diocese of the Episcopal Church meets in St. Paul's Church, in Clinton, on next Tuesday, the 7th, at 10:30 o'clock, a. m.

—You must register this year if you expect to vote. It doesn't make any difference how many times you have voted before, you won't vote any more until you register again.

—The campaign opened yesterday at Lisbon. On next Saturday it will be discontinued for two weeks owing to the fact that Sampson Court convenes next Monday and holds for two weeks.

—Among the twenty-seven young men who were granted law license on the 27th ultimo were Mr. G. M. Monk, of Sampson, and Mr. J. G. Stokes, of Duplin. Mr. Stokes read law under Mr. F. R. Cooper of the Clinton bar.

—Mr. J. H. Stevens attended the Sam Jones meetings in Wilmington and was favorably impressed with the great revivalist. He says Sam Jones is a team, and he believes he would back his sayings up with his fist if necessary.

—Hon. B. F. Grady passed through town last week on route for Bladen, where he goes to meet his appointments to address the people of that county. He is making a vigorous canvass and will roll up a handsome majority in November.

—Saturday was a live day in Clinton. More than one hundred and forty bales of cotton were sold on this market and our merchants were kept busy. No merchants offer great bargains than ours as will be seen from our advertising columns.

—When you sell your cotton don't forget to drop in and pay THE CAUCASIAN the small subscription you are due. The amount may be small but however small we need it, and will take pleasure in writing receipts for subscriptions from 25 cents up.

—Capt. W. L. Faison, who has recently returned from an extended trip through Western North Carolina and Virginia, remarked the other day that in all his travels he had found no purer air or better climate than we have here in Clinton; and for good water, it may be said no town in the State can beat Clinton.

—THE CAUCASIAN begins this week the publication of "His Floating Ideal," a composite novel by the following celebrated authors: Bill Nye, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, A. C. Calhoun, Inspector Byrnes, Pauline Hall, Miss Eastlake, W. H. Ballou, Nell Nelson, Alan Dale, P. T. Barnum, Howe & Hummel and John L. Sullivan. It is a great story. Subscribe now and read it.

—We are carrying a good number of delinquent subscribers on our books, and on account of bad crops for the past two years have tried to get along without calling on them for money, but crops are better this year and our expenses heavier than ever, so we are forced to ask all in arrears to pay up as promptly as possible. We need the money, or we would not ask you for it.

—Dr. B. F. Marable delivered two fine sermons in Clinton on last Sabbath. The subject of the morning

Personals.

Mr. John E. Lewis, who has been quite sick, is improving. C. B. Aycock, Esq., of Goldsboro, was in town Tuesday night.

Mrs. H. W. Battle, of New Bern, is visiting her father, Rev. J. L. Stewart.

Mr. D. L. DeVane and wife, of Winston, are visiting relatives in town.

F. P. Jones, Esq., of the Daily bar and associate editor of the Harriet Courier, was in town on Tuesday night.

Miss Judge Faison, who has been spending the summer in Virginia, at Bedford City and Staunton, has returned.

Miss Hattie Mahan, of Wilmington, who has been visiting friends in Clinton, returned home Tuesday morning.

Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable paid us a pleasant call this week. He tells us that he will move his family to Clinton sometime next week.

Mr. W. S. Thomson ran down to Morehead City to join a fishing party. He says that the trout fishing and blue fish trolling was successful.

Messrs. S. G. Worth, of the U. S. Fish Commission, and J. T. Murphy, of the U. S. Treasury Department, have returned to Washington City.

Capt. Wm. A. Johnson, left York and other Northern markets, where he will buy a large filling in stock of winter goods.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Lane, of Goldsboro; also Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clute, of Wilmington, were in town last week attending the funeral of Mr. Giles Clute.

The following named persons from Clinton attended the Sam Jones' meetings in Wilmington: Rev. C. P. Jerome, Sheriff J. M. Spill and Messrs. J. H. Stokes, T. C. Pope, O. F. Herring, J. C. Stocumb, R. E. DeVane, W. T. Williamson and Dr. John A. Stevens.

Mr. W. S. Partrick, of the firm of Moore & Partrick, has returned from Philadelphia and New York, where he purchased the winter stock for their large millinery establishment. He says he will give the ladies pointers on the latest styles and designs.

Hon. E. J. Hill, Ex-United States Consul to Monte Video, gave us a pleasant call recently while visiting friends in the county. One of the professors of Princeton, who was in South America during Cleveland's administration, said that Mr. Hill was one of the best Consular representatives of the United States he had ever seen. Mr. Hill will leave soon for a trip out West.

Miss Mary Clute, formerly a resident of Clinton, and sister of the late Mr. Giles Clute, died at Magnolia on last Tuesday night. Her remains arrived in town last night and will be interred in Clinton Cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Clute was about 55 years of age and a consistent member of the Baptist Church. THE CAUCASIAN extends its sympathies to the bereaved relatives.

Stockholders' Meeting. The stockholders of the Clinton Loan Association were in annual session yesterday. The old officers were all re-elected with the exception of Mr. Warren Johnson, who was made a Director, Mr. H. E. Faison being elected to succeed him as Vice-President. The President's salary was made $1,000 and the Cashier's $750.

A Card from Mr. Grady. Editor CAUCASIAN: Please inform the good people of Sampson that the letter of Mr. W. S. Thomson, written on the 15th of August, informing me of the appointments he had made for me to speak in Sampson, did not reach me until too late for me to meet the appointments. I very much regret that the people were disappointed, but I shall endeavor, if I have time, to meet with and talk to your people on my return from canvassing Cumberland, Harriet and Moore. Due notice will be given. Very truly yours, B. F. GRADY.

To the Democratic Voters of Duplin County. The Commissioners have ordered a new registration. No one that fails to register by October 25th will be permitted to vote. Let every Democrat register and see that his Democratic neighbors register within the prescribed time. A. D. WARD, Ch'm Co. Dem. Ex. Com.

Sunday School Conference. The Sunday School Conference of the Newton Grove Circuit will be held at Black's Chapel on Saturday before the third Sunday in October. The Superintendents of all the schools are requested to see that a full and correct report is prepared and that the committee on constitution and rules will be ready to report. J. H. FAIXER, President.

Some raise the objection that everything is now sold at so small a margin of profit that they cannot afford to advertise. This is just why they should advertise. Where is the advantage of selecting particularly cheap or offering especially great bargains if the people are not made aware of them?—Old Town (Me.) Enterprise.

WHY WOULD YOU COUGH when Shilo's Cure will give immediate relief? Price 10 cents, 80 cents and $1. For sale by Dr. R. H. HOLLIDAY, Clinton, and W. P. KENNEDY, Warsaw, N. C.

Before and After Using. At one time I had awful Sores and Pimples on my face, and after using two bottles of S. S. S. I was cured, and now have a nice, smooth complexion. JAMES L. POYLE, Atlanta, Georgia. My life a burden.

I was afflicted from infancy with Catarrh and with eruptions on my face for ten years. I was attended by the very best physicians, and tried a number of blood purifiers, without permanent relief. The mineral ingredients settled in my bones, and caused Rheumatic trouble. My life was a burden to me, and my case was declared incurable, when I saw S. S. S. advertised. Eight bottles cured me entirely, and I feel like a new person. JOSIE OWEN, Montpelier, Ohio.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Georgia.

Up to July 15th, the number of appointments for missionary service in connection with the American Board, since the last annual meeting, was just sixty, twenty-two of them men and thirty-eight women.

The increase from last year in the missions of the American Baptist Missionary Society is fifty-two missionaries, forty-two churches and 3,980 members.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 23, 1900. Mrs. JOE PERSON—Dear Madam:—About April, 1887, I treated Sam Privett for Scrofula affecting the glands of the neck. I had done for him all that could be done, and considered his chances for life very small and to bid him so, and that if you would bid him with your Remedy, I would give you a certificate of the fact.

That you have done your part the boy is now a living witness, and I shall not hesitate to furnish your Remedy in any similar cases I may be called upon to treat. I am very truly, Thos. Hill, M. D.
