WHAT CONGRESS HAS DONE,

Beating the Record as to the Number of Bills Acted Upon. There were during the session 12,402 bills and joint resolutions introduced in the House, and in the Senate 4,570, or a total of 16,972 against 15, 598 in the first session of the last Congress, which in this matter far excelled all previous records. Reports made in the House, 3.215; in the Senate, 1,817 (no account being taken in the Senate of other than written reports). Bills passed by the House, 1,292, of which few of these 849 have become laws or are awaiting the President's approval. By the Senate, 1,100, of which 486 have been sent to the President, making a total number of about 1,335 acts or laws, against 1,790 for the whole of the last Congress. Of these acts 606 House and 275 Senate bills were for pensions to individuals. A number of important measures are hanging fire. One of these is the bill to relieve the Supreme Court of the United States by the establishment of an intermediate court. A great deal of impor-
