

THE CAUCASIAN.

Entered according to Post Office Laws at Clinton, N.C., as second-class matter.

For Editor—3rd District, BENJAMIN F. GRAUB.

For Judge—6th District, EDWIN T. BOYKIN.

For Solicitor—6th District, OLIVER D. ALLEN.

CLINTON, N.C., OCT. 16, 1890.

THE CAUCASIAN with this issue enters upon its ninth volume.

The evils of the McKinley tariff bill are already being felt. The price of shoes has been advanced 10 to 50 cents per pair by northern manufacturers.

Hon. W. J. Rogers, Democratic nominee for Congress in the 2nd N. C. District, has thrown up his nomination on account of poor health.

Steve Jacobs, a notorious crook and outlaw of Robeson county, was hanged last Friday at Lenoir for the murder of Mrs. Eary.

According to the annual report of the Commissioner of Pensions there are 537,944 pensions on the rolls of the Government now, and more than a half million additional applications are on file in his office.

The Wilmington Star says: Rev. C. L. Arnold, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, has definitely determined upon leaving Wilmington.

The new tariff law has not been in effect a week yet, but the rise of so many of the necessities of life has raised a howl of discontent.

The organ manufacturer, Beatty, at Trenton, N. J., has been indicted by the Federal grand jury for using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

The fates and the weather bureau being willing, Goldsboro will have a big fair next week. We know it will be a success for all the people of Goldsboro and Wayne we saw when there a few days since are interested and lending a helping hand.

The Globe says: Rev. Thos. Dixon, the distinguished North Carolinian who has made such a reputation in New York as a preacher and lecturer, and who is already well known to our people, will lecture in Durham on the 23 instant on the subject of foals.

Editor Fairbrother should secure a reserved seat for the man that came up and stopped his Globe because he was going to take Dr. Jayne's Almanac for this year, and had rather look at the pictures in the signs of the Zodiac than to read the papers in North Carolina.

MY FRIEND-A WORD WITH YOU.

Do you know that every man who desires to vote with his fellow citizens must register anew? Even if you have registered and voted before, you must re-register again under the new Election Law to vote this year.

If you want the Republic to carry the election and have your neighbors arrested and put in jail as in 1890-92, if not, register and vote the Democratic ticket.

To you and the negro to vote for the election and State? If not, register and vote for the Democratic nominees.

Do you not know that every negro in the State will register and vote? Then a must every white man.

Do you want negro Yankee soldiers with drawn bayonets to meet you at the polls and debate you how to vote? If not, be sure your name is on the registration book, and do not fail to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

You can't register after Oct. 24th, so register at once. Don't say you have not time, take time--your happiness depends on it, the good name and prosperity of your State depends on it, honest government and white man's control depends on it. Don't wait. Delay may cause the defeat of the party.

All Democratic papers will please copy and keep at the top of the column of each issue until after the election.

Justice Miller of the United States Supreme Court, who was stricken with paralysis about a week ago, died on last Monday night. He was born in Richmond, Ky., in 1816, and was graduated from the University of Transylvania.

The News and Observer in speaking of Senator Ransom as an orator says: Our own opinion is that he is probably as fine an orator as there is in the United States.

We once listened to a political oration delivered by Mr. Geo. Davis--a Northern man standing by us, exclaimed--who is that man! That speech delivered in New York would be worth fifty thousand dollars to any man. There was probably no man in New York who could equal it.

Some years afterwards--in 1874, we heard Gen. Ransom at Metropolitan hall make a speech that Mr. Davis could not have made--and we doubt whether any other person in the United States could have equalled it.

Two years ago this writer heard Senator Ransom make a speech in the court-house, in Clinton, which we believe no man in North Carolina could have improved upon. Many of our readers heard and remember it. Though of a political nature, it was a perfect gem of oratory. Strong men whom we had never known, on a previous occasion of the kind to show the best emotion, were moved to tears, and at its conclusion pushed eagerly forward and warmly grasped the Senator's hand while tears of admiration and gratitude trickled down their cheeks.

Every man ought to be piz or pup. Every man to be both destroys the capacity to be truly either. If a man in Eastern North Carolina can so far lose his self respect as to be an independent, let him vote the Radical ticket and get out. If a man pretends to be a decent man and a Democrat, let him show it by voting the straight ticket. If he can't do that, let him make haste to go and join the Radical party and be false to himself and his family--State Chronicler.

A Forum of Public Opinion.

THE OPINION OF OUR READERS ON THE VARIOUS TOPICS OF THE DAY.

We offer this column to our readers in which to discuss topics of interest and profit to them.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Mr. Editor, in a recent issue of "THE CAUCASIAN" (Sept. 11th we believe) there appeared an article under the caption, is it wise, is it just &c., from "tax payer" upon the question of the proposed increase of taxation for public school purposes.

He raises his voice against the betterment of our educational system without making the first point against the public school of the State which are training to day 250,000 of the white girls and boys of North Carolina.

Again Mr. Editor your contributor protests against the proposed increase of this "already onerous taxation" without stating that 12 1/2 cents is all that is levied on the $100, for public school purposes, and without setting forth any reason for making his protest except that "not infrequently is heard the cry of distress and discord in our party ranks."

He insists that "surely our public schools are doing well enough." Now we believe that it is not well enough for the Old North State to lag behind in educating her children and the fact that Va., Tenn., and all the Southern States with perhaps one exception are outstripping us along this line should make all true Carolinians blush with shame. We believe in public education.

SAMPSON COUNTY.

A Mass Convention of Democrats nominate J. A. Beaman for Senator.

The Democrats of Sampson county met in mass convention in Atkins' Hall, Clinton, Oct. 6th, 1890, there being present about five hundred straight-out Democrats.

An Executive Committee of one from each township was appointed to draft resolutions, and reported the following:

Resolved, 1st. That we adopt the time honored principles of the Democracy from beginning to end.

Resolved, 2nd. That we endorse the course of Senator Z. B. Vance and instruct the nominee of this convention to vote for him, first, last and all the time.

The Committee organized by electing J. R. Maxwell chairman, John A. Beaman was nominated by acclamation for Senator from Sampson in county amid the greatest enthusiasm, and being called, came forward and made a ringing speech, accepting the nomination.

[A report of the above proceedings was not furnished THE CAUCASIAN, consequently no notice of it was made in last week's issue as the editor of this paper is the regular Democratic nominee for the Senate, he will make no comments here.--Ed.]

Let ally means bad air. Poisonous germs arising from low, nasty land, or from decaying vegetable matter, are breathed into the lungs, taken up by the blood, and unless they are purified by the use of a good medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla, the unfortunate victim is soon overpowered. Even in the more advanced cases, where the terrible fever prevails, this powerful medicine has effected remarkable cures. Those who are exposed to malaria or other poisons should keep the blood pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.

To the Editor--Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves.

Scrofula

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed, and by continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy."
