Alliance Directory. NATIONAL FARMERS' ALLIANCE AND INDUSTRIAL UNION. President—L. L. Polk, North Carolina, Address: 244 D Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Vice-President—B. H. Clover, Cambridge, Kansas. Secretary and Treasurer—J. H. Turner, Georgia, Address: 229 North Capitol Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Lecturer—J. H. Willets, Kansas. EXECUTIVE BOARD. C. W. THE EDITOR'S CHAIR. HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT. The Opinion of the Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day. We are not surprised that the Press should misrepresent and Wall Street give money to check the Alliance, since they saw 5,000,000 voters represented at the Supreme Council at Indianapolis.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS. JUDGE CRISP OF GA., NOMINATED FOR SPEAKER BY DEMOCRATS ON 30TH BALLOT. The 52nd Congress convened at Washington Monday. The only object of special interest was the Democratic nomination for speaker. There were five candidates, Messrs. Crisp, Mills, Spinger, McMillan and Hatch. The contest was a long and exciting one, and much interest was manifested throughout the country. Mr. Crisp was nominated on the 30th ballot and was duly elected yesterday. Thos. B. Reed the Maine, petty tyrant was given the empty compliment of being voted for by the Republican.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT. A COLUMN FOR THOSE WHO WILL READ AND THINK. The nine millions of mortgage on land show that mongers regard it as a safe security for their loans. The law of supply and demand, as related to all products of labor, is not the sole regulator of price. There is another consideration. The supply and demand of money.—Chicago Tribune. Behind every one of the portly and well dressed members of the Senate, can be seen the outlines of some corporation interested in getting up preventing legislation, or syndicate that has invaluable contracts to defend or push.—Chicago Tribune.

FIFE AT OXFORD. THE GRANVILLE COUNTY ALLIANCE AND ITS ENTERPRISES. The Trial Between the State Department of Agriculture and the Durham Fertilizer Co. OXFORD'S SCHOOLS, &c. [Editorial Correspondence.] OXFORD, N. C., Dec. 7, '91. We reached this beautiful town on last Saturday morning. It is now quite a railroad centre, a big tobacco market, and its people are hustlers though have lost none of that old-time Southern hospitality. Court was in session, His Honor, Judge Winston presiding. And we will say right here that we were as much pleased with him as any Judge we have ever seen on the bench. The case between the Department of Agriculture and the Durham Fertilizer Company was up for trial. The Department of Agriculture after its evidence was all in was informed by the Judge that they had no case on their first issue, whereupon they took a non suit.

Tabernacle Pulpit. SERMON ON ROYAL BLOOD PREACHED BY THE REV. DR. TALMAGE. The Discourse Preceded by the Singing of Cooper's Standard Hymn Beginning, "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood, Drawn from Immanuel's Veins." BROOKLYN, Dec. 6.—This morning the vast congregation which filled every available space in the Tabernacle at the opening of the service, sang with great heartiness and evident feeling Cooper's well known hymn beginning: "There is a fountain filled with blood Drawn from Immanuel's veins—"

THE WORLD'S NEWS. SINCE LAST THURSDAY, CAREFULLY ASSORTED AND CONDENSED FOR RUBY PEOPLE. State. Wilmington Welcome Week is to be permanent thing. It is believed an organized band of burglars have headquarters in Winston. Wythe, the big game, has been bound over to court at Greensboro for $1,000 bail. There are 96 counties in the State, and 12 show a decrease in population by last census. Sen. and Mrs. Vance who have been in Europe for past several months are to return last of this week. The New Bern Journal says: President Polk denies that he said he would stamp North Carolina against Cleveland if nominated. The burglars continue to get in their work in various parts of the State. A special from Winston reports that several houses there have been visited during the past two or three nights, but the burglars were frightened away before they could steal anything. Greensboro is also somewhat stirred up from the same cause. The board of trustees of the A. and M. college were in session with the State board of agriculture yesterday. Only routine business was transacted. The reports of the officers of the college were read and approved. It was decided to continue the erection of the much-needed dormitories, and appropriations were made for that purpose. The board visited the college and inspected the various buildings. The board of agriculture meets again to day and will consider the matter of making an exhibit at the World's Fair.—State Chronicle.

NORTH CAROLINA FARMERS' STATE ALLIANCE. President—Marion Butler, Clinton, North Carolina. Vice-President—T. B. Long, Asheville, N. C. Secretary-Treasurer—W. B. Barnes, Raleigh, N. C. Lecturer—J. S. Bell, Brasstown, N. C. Edward C. C. Wright, Glass, N. C. Chaplain—Rev. Erskine Pope, Chalk Level, N. C. Door-keeper—W. H. Tomlinson, Fayetteville, N. C. Assistant Door-keeper—H. E. King, Mount Airy, N. C. Sergeant-at-Arms—J. S. Holt, Chalk Level, N. C. State Business Agent—W. H. West, Raleigh, N. C. Trustee Business Agency Fund—W. A. Graham, Macphail, N. C. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMERS' STATE ALLIANCE. S. B. Alexander, Charlotte, N. C., Chairman; J. M. Mewborne, Kinston, N. C.; J. S. Johnston, Hurler, N. C. STATE ALLIANCE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE. Elias Carr, A. Leazer, N. M. Culbreth, M. G. Gregory, Wm. C. Conell. STATE ALLIANCE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE. E. J. Powell, Raleigh, N. C.; N. C. English, Trinity College; J. J. Young, Polenta; H. A. Fornay, Newton, N. C.

Mr. Vanderbilt tenners court at Asheville will cost over $100,000, while many thousand are starving for bread, and a Christian (?) priest stand tooth set, against an honest effort for reform. The Astors, in one day received an income of $28,000, Jay Gould $8,000 Rockefeller $18,000, yet there is nothing wrong, and all we must do, is to do as we have in the past, trust a party of politicians who will do the dancing and the farmer pay for the fiddling. And because we would ask for laws giving more safe guards against such wealth massing schemes, we are told not to have anything to do with politics but trust it all to party and all will come right.

SPEAKER CRISP. The Senate was called to order by Vice President Morton. But soon adjourned. There is some interest being felt in the contested seats of Senate. Brice (Dem.) of Ohio, who it is claimed was not resident of State when elected, and the case of Call and Davidson of Fla. Call was elected, it is claimed by the Legislature, and Davidson appointed by the Governor. Both of these cases will be decided this week. Ex-Congressman McClannay of Pender county N. C., is a candidate for Post Master of the House.

VERY TRULY YOURS. The Southern Mercury is correct when it says: "The man who is the greatest disgrace to American manhood, is he who admits that we need more money in circulation, yet fights every movement looking to that end." The failure of the First National Bank of Wilmington was because of the stringent money market and inability to collect. So many failures of banks and firms all over the country emphasize the fact that there is not enough money to do the business of the country. The money power is in control of this government and it looks as if it will be impossible to wrest this control from it.—Kinston Free Press.

WHO KILLED SEN. STEPHENS. A Bit of Interesting History. Last week the State Chronicle published a statement that Dr. Felix Roan, of Caswell county, had made a death-bed confession to the effect that himself, Dr. Stephen Richmond and Sheriff Wiley were the men who murdered John W. Stephens, the Republican Senator from that county, on May 21st 1870. This was a very sensational murder and had a powerful bearing on the political campaign of the State that year. The Chronicle gives these facts on the authority of the editor of the Hillsboro Observer: "Now Mr. J. R. Webster, editor of Webster's Weekly, telegraphed to the Chronicle that Mr. Robert Roan denounces the alleged confession as an unqualified falsehood, and further says that his brother, Dr. Roan, could not have been one of the murderers, as he was not in Yanceyville nor anywhere near it on the day the murder was committed. Our impression is that Dr. Roan, to whom the alleged confession is attributed, moved to Winston and died there several years ago. Neither he nor Dr. Richmond nor Sheriff Wiley, all of whom were dead, are the kind of men who would have enticed John W. Stephens into a room in the court house to strangle him to death." The editor of the Observer now says he will prove his statement.

Half Dollar Made. You can make a half a dollar in less than a minute any time between now and January 1st, '92. First allow us to say that we have often been asked by our friends why we did not reduce the subscription price of THE CAUCASIAN to $1.00 per year. The answer is short and plain. It is because two thousand subscribers at one dollar each a year is only $2,000, and it costs us more than that to publish the paper. But we had rather send out three thousand copies of the paper at $1.00 each than two thousand copies at $1.50 each. Now we wish to reduce the subscription price to $1.00 and only regret that we are not able to do so with only 2,000 subscribers. But we are going to try and will do it if you will help us. Will you do it? During the month of December we offer the paper at $1.00 to all new subscribers. If by January 1st, '92, we have reached 3,000 subscribers, we will put the price permanently at $1.00, if not we will be forced to go back to the old price. Now two of our subscribers should be able to get us our new one, and if you will do it, we will add a thousand new subscribers. If you like THE CAUCASIAN, think it a good paper then say so, and get others to think likewise and to read it also. Now we are not going to do better by our new friends than by our old ones. So every old subscriber who pays up before January 1st, we will let new at $1.00 in advance for the next year. Now friends, let us pull together and put THE CAUCASIAN to 3,000 and at $1.00 a year.

THE FARMERS' MOVEMENT. Those who sneer at the farmers' movement are as far wrong as those who fear it. It will not usher in a political millennium, nor will it subvert our institutions and substitute a reign of anarchy, says the Winston, S. C. Advocate. The farmers see that they are contributing to support the most magnificent government on earth, and that their labor has made the country exceedingly prosperous, and they want to know how it is that they seem to have little or no part in this matter, and have at last reached the conclusion that they have been attending too closely to their private affairs to watch the other fellows, and that their duty to themselves and the country requires that they take a hand in running the government. They are not fooling. Not being disciplined in the political manual of arms, they may be expected to make some blunders. But they will not be deterred from the effort. Parties, political or otherwise, who think the movement is only an April shower, will learn their error, and it will be happy for them if they are not too late in catching on.

Specimen Cases. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spenser, Catawba, O., had five large Peter sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at 50 cents and $1 per bottle at R. H. Holliday's Drug Store; John E. Smith, druggist, Mount Olive, N. C.
