We will begin in next week's issue one of Hamlin Garland's powerful stories from Main-Traveled Roads. Like all his writings it is remarkably true to life, and bears a valuable lesson with it. It will be worth the time of every one to read it. "Under the Lion's Paw" is its title.

Mr. W. H. Williams and family will leave here and go to his farm in Duplin county, near Warsaw. Mr. Williams has been with us over a year. AFTER THE HOLIDAYS

Is the Time to Advertise!

After the rash of that stirring season the average merchant is too apt to subside into a condition of lethargy for a couple of months and lose all the profits which have accrued from the holiday boom.

But the wise man of business never relaxes his efforts when there is increased necessity for enterprise and vigilance. He knows the People must live all the year round and that well directed advertising draws trade during the dull season as well as at other times.

Only Two More Weeks.

Have you renewed your subscription for next year? If not, do so before February the first, do so at once and get the paper for $1.00. Some of our friends are sending in new subscribers every day. Have you sent us in one yet? Your neighbor needs the paper as much as you do, and would appreciate it as much if he once began to read it regularly. Show him your paper and get him to subscribe. If he will not subscribe for one year at $1.00, then try him six months at 50 cents, or even 3 months for only 25 cents. At that price every citizen in this section of the State should take it.

The Alliance Store.

The County Alliance at its last meeting passed a resolution to abolish the Alliance Store at Clinton. G. A. Clute, manager. But owing to the stringencies in money matters, it was advisable to give time to those whom the store holds claims. From the figures gathered from a very careful inventory, shows it to be solvent and perfectly safe. The invoice of goods on hand, $4,000 (first price). Solvent claims $3,500.00 Liabilities $5,000. Showing a balance on the stores account of $2500.

Lamb—Herring.

On the morning of January 10, 1892, at the residence of Mr. O. F. Herring, the bride's father, Mr. W. B. Lamb and Miss Mary J. Herring were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. Rev. J. M. Ashby, officiating. The bride is one of our most charming young ladies and one who is deservedly popular. The groom is a very successful business man and very highly esteemed by all who know him. They have our congratulations.

A New Story.

In next week's issue we will commence the publication of a new story, "Under the Lion's Paw." This story is written by the vigorous young author, Prof. Hamlin Garland, to whom we several times referred in these columns. No other paper has published this story. It teaches a great truth. It deals with life as we see it to-day and the great living ideas which confront every wealth producer of the land. Don't miss it.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

Notice.

The Executive Committee of the Alliance Store is requested to meet with the Directors at Clinton on Saturday, 30th inst. V. J. McARTHUR, Sec'y.

Beaver Dam High School.

Will begin Monday, January 4th, 1892, under management of John K. Fowler, Hobton, N. C.

THE BANK.

Something of What is Being Done.

For the past week Mr. Dunn has been especially at work in getting his books in good shape so he can begin properly. It will take him sometime, something like one or two months to do this.

He has been making a very careful inventory of the assets of the bank. Messrs. O. Barton, of Raleigh, and E. L. Travis, of Halifax, of the law firm of Barton & Travis, were down here several days last week assisting in the work. D. B. Nicholson, Esq. of Clinton, has been appointed clerk to the Receiver and has entered into the discharge of his duties. The work has not progressed far enough yet to learn the assets and liabilities, but a statement will be given to the public as soon as it is known.

Mr. Dunn informs us that claims are not being very promptly filed. This is important, both to those holding claims against the bank and to the Receiver. Those holding certificates of deposit, etc., should present them at once. The bank holds great many claims against parties who have not seen the Receiver. This is important and should be attended to immediately.

A Sampsonian.

Rev. T. M. Curtis, who has had charge of the mission stations for the Baptists in this section for about three years, has resigned his work here and has accepted a call to Anander church. He moved his family last Thursday. Mr. Curtis has done a great deal of good work in this community and has impressed himself upon the people, both Baptists and others, as being one of the ablest preachers and best thinkers that have ever worked in this section. He is well beloved by all, and all regret to see him go. He held his last service in the Baptist church Wednesday night of last week, and spoke of the pleasure he had had in his work among all classes and denominations here. He and his interesting family will be greatly missed, and the people of Anander are to be congratulated upon their good fortune in securing Mr. Curtis as a preacher and upon the acquisition of the family to their number. Mr. Curtis leaves a monument of faithful work behind him here, and the Deacons join his host of friends in their regret at his going and in wishing him still greater success in his noble work.—Scotland Neck Democrat.

Ten Mile Twinkling.

(Special Correspondent.) I never heard anything from the dear old boy of Ten Mile though your columns, and how many of your readers that are scattered West and South that would hail any news from these dear old hills with joy.

But, boys, the old school house, where many of our hands have been reared by that faithful teacher, has been moved away for a tent house. What a pity that such old landmarks should be so swept away. Dear Mr. M., wasn't he faithful? Oh bright is the crown he has won! But, boys, the old spring is at the foot of the hill yet, "central ground" we used to call it those happy bygone days, and old Beulah church, then under the wouldn't a coat or two of paint brighten up that old hill. Mr. Britt preaches there.

But, boys, for the swimming hole, it has been blocked by a causeway, which is a great blessing to all those on this side of the "creek." It was put there through Dr. Marable's influence, by the way, who is now ranching in Arizona with his boys. He sent his little grandson, Poydrou Faison, a lasso made of raw-hide, also a bridal maid of the same material, put together in the willow work. It is a beauty in the shape of raw-hide.

Mr. Ransom Middleton couples the old homestead now, and has been very ill for two months with typhoid pneumonia, but this is a Providence, and to Dr. Hussey, one of the best physicians in the State, he is coming around all right, though he can sit up only a few moments at a time.

We see that you solicit news from all sections, and if you just wont give me away to any one, you may hear from old Ten Mile again. "DINNA FORGET."

Resevoir Dots.

(Special Correspondent.) Mr. Redden Butler has accepted a position as traveling agent for "The Dixie Tobacco Co.," of Bedford city, Va. Redden has many friends around Resevoir, who wish him success.

The Southern Building and Loan Association have organized a branch office at Resevoir, with 50 shares for a start. We think it is a good thing and undoubtedly, it will be an auxiliary in bringing about a boom at Resevoir.

Mr. W. A. Minis is building a new hotel here.

The Baptist church at this place is now under construction by Mr. B. R. Jordan. Bob is a good workman and will do a good job on the church.

Mr. John A. Oates, Sr., was here last week on business, agent for Southern Building and Loan Association. Mr. Oates is a fine man. Come again uncle John.

LaGrippe is still abroad in the vicinity of Resevoir. Mr. A. Minis had a light attack of it but is now improving.

Our new Methodist preacher, Rev. Mr. Parker is liked very much, he is a fine man and an excellent preacher. We heartily hope he will be successful in his pastoral work. "JUMPER."

Beaver Dam Items.

(Special Correspondent.) Last Friday, 15th instant, the Pathologic Society was organized here. We are expecting some lively debates. The young ladies are speaking of organizing a Reading Club.

Our school has two teachers—Prof. J. E. Fowler, Principal, and Miss Eva Sumner, Assistant.

Miss Eva is one of our most esteemed young ladies of high Sampson, and an excellent teacher.

Hope our grippie patients will soon be up again to help dig stumps. They are tough. STUDENT.

FOR DYSENTERIA.

USE SWAYNE'S IODINE TABLETS. Physicians recommend it. All dealers keep it. Beware of cheap imitations. Genuine has trademark and cannot be imitated without warning.

Eczema, scarp covered with eruptions, doctors proven useless. P. P. P. was tried and the hair began to grow again. Use a little can, and P. P. P. again proved itself a wonderful skin cure.

IN MEMORIAM.

THOMAS J. BRADSHAW. Died, Thos. J. Bradshaw, on the morning of January 12th, 1892, at twenty three to one.

Mr. Bradshaw was regarded a good citizen. He was pronounced honest and upright in his dealings with his fellow man. We heard quite a number say on the day of his funeral, "Mr. Bradshaw will be badly missed in this community." Such remarks go to show the worth of a man in a community. Mr. Bradshaw was not a member of any church, but he made a profession of religion about four months ago at the Fire meeting in Clinton. He told me after that event that he was a changed man, and by the grace of God intended to live a different life. His neighbors say he lived differently before he was taken down sick. He told his wife a short time before his death that he did not fear death. He died with hardly a struggle.

We have a good hope that he is safe with Jesus. May God's blessing constantly abide with and comfort the bereaved widow and relatives. J. M. ASHBY.

Scrofula is that impurity in the blood which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produce unsightly lumps or swellings, which cause painful, running sores on the arms, legs or feet, which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears or nose, often causing blindness or deafness, which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths and many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." P. P. is the friend in need. A course of this valuable blood purifier, and you will be a well man. If you suffer from Scrofula in any of its various forms, be sure to take P. P.

Pronounced Hopeless. Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Grotton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, and I determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, and Cold. I gave it a trial, took it all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Dr. R. H. Holliday's drugstore, Clinton, N. C.; and at J. R. Smith's drugstore, Mount Olive, N. C. Regular size bottles 50 cents, and $1.00.

The spring term of the Mt. Olive High School commenced Monday under favorable auspices. The community should patronize this splendid school as it is under the eye of excellent and careful management. All the patrons of the school are well pleased. The music teacher who comes to accept the vacancy is highly spoken of, and will no doubt add to the reputation of the school in her department. Miss Waller is a graduate of music and a highly efficient teacher has charge of the music at our school.

Among the many advantages the press renders the public nothing is so patent to its readers as the great number of new aspirants in the field of National law and constitutional requirements. The energetic and labored manner in which many of them have attacked prominent statesmen and public questions is appalling. Surely the days of Don Quixote is here again, and his whole force is in arms. The great relief that is to come from their schemes, could they be realized, will take from the horizon the clouds that obscure the dawn of the millennium. Great Ajax! Solomon is a pigmy beside some of our new Solons. Where is Jesse Holmes?

The I. W. Harper is the finest whiskey on earth. Used in moderation, it is a sure specific for indigestion, for general debility, for insomnia, for mental depression. It is as fragrant as ripe fruit and if used in moderation it lengthens life, adds to our joys and drives dull care away.
