EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

Let the people of North Carolina congratulate themselves that the State is saved, and to a great extent harmony prevails in spite of the damage done by certain ignorant and hot-headed newspapers, and certain unscrupulous and dominating politicians. The days of bossism are numbered, the people will rule.

Evidence of the rottenness of the associated press have been accumulating for years, and by and by, the attention of the people will be concentrated upon this gigantic monopoly—and we might say, she-devil of the whole lot. The associated press is under the absolute control—censorship, of a few men, the tools of the money, who do not let anything go to the public that meets the disapproval of the plutocratic lords, who have set up in our so-called "free America" a form of censorship equally as arbitrary and despotic as that exercised in Russia, or other monarchial forms of government. One of the recent acts of this plutocratic despotism was the refusal to send out an associated press dispatch at Denver, the article to be found in another column entitled "Congressional Corruption," in which Mr. Frederick A. Luckenbach, a prominent business man of Denver now—and in years past of New York and Philadelphia, by affidavit authenticates the charge made for years that silver was demoralized through the influence of English and German bankers, and that money was used to accomplish it—sent over here with, and paid out by Ernest Seyd, as agent of the foreign bankers. Startling and important as this statement is, it is rejected by the associated press agents, and notwithstanding it has appeared as a special dispatch, it has not evoked a single editorial comment that we have seen in a single metropolitan paper. This cannot be attributed to oversight. This silence is significant of the fact that the metropolitan papers of the country—as well as the associated press, are under the control of the money power.—Forum.

A SELF-CONSTITUTED ORGAN. Mr. J. Caldwell's paper is posing as the self-constituted organ of the Alliance. It lays down the law as follows: "This year there are three ways open to Democratic Alliance: they must assert themselves and take charge of the Alliance, get out of it, or get out of the Democratic party. Their leaders are not going to permit them to stay in the Democratic party and in the Alliance both. If they propose to remain Democrats, they will have to get out of the Alliance or else turn the present leaders out. The plan is now to deliver the whole order over to the People's party. Democratic Alliance must be to be put to a severe test within the next few weeks or few months. They had as well make up their minds now to surrender, or begin to nerve themselves for resistance."

What unparalleled cheek and blatant ignorance! Poor Caldwell, men both in and out of the Alliance who do not suffer with your complaint, will either laugh at your folly or have pity for your condition.

THE TRUE LINE OF ACTION. The Alliance Conference, which met in Raleigh on May 17th, did not "back down from or compromise the St. Louis Demands." The three planks—Finance, Land and Transportation—were separately voted on and endorsed almost unanimously. The Alliance will continue with unabated effort its work of education on these principles. The organization invites the freest and fullest discussion on the stump and thro' the press. And the more joint discussions there are on these principles the more they will grow and strengthen with the people. All that is wanting to make the great bulk of the reformers of the country as solid on these principles as they are now on the Ocala demands is enough discussion and investigation. Mark it! But in all reform movements that do not go backward, the line of discussion is always in advance of the line of action. Action should always be taken on the line on which the largest number of reformers are united. No other course is wise; and any leadership that advises a different course will be found to be unsafe. The reform element at the late State Convention selected that line of action and won. In the next light the line of action selected by the reformers will be advanced to just that point that the result of the work of education in the meantime will justify. Some may get impatient and think that this method is too slow, but it is the safest, surest and best way, and therefore the quickest way. This kind of wisdom on our part means sure fate the death of machine parties. Therefore in the eyes of the machine politician the Alliance conference was not a success; but those we know are satisfied that it acted with rare wisdom.

THE HARM THEY DID. The Lumberton Robesonian, very timely says: "It is interesting to note the number of our exchanges that talk so confidently of the fact that all of our political troubles, for the year, have been averted, and amusing to see how many of them claim all the credit of it."

Yes, the very parties who did the most harm, who irritated the plain, hard-working people almost to the point of desperation now have the brazen effrontery to claim the credit for harmony. What an absurdity! Those who engendered the most had feeling, when harmony prevailed in spite of them, claim to be the great and original agents of harmony. If The Wilmington Messenger, The Statesville Landmark, The State Chronicle and a few other such extreme papers had been sunk into the middle of oblivion, where they will soon go unless they are backed by resources of revenue other than their subscription lists, there would not be half the Third Party feeling that does exist to-day. In this section, where THE CAUCASIAN has a larger circulation than all other papers combined, especially in this county where it goes into nearly every home, there are fewer Third Party people than in any other section of the State. Yes, there are here a larger per cent of the people who are opposed to machine politics and who are squarely and determinedly fighting for reform than in any other section we know of, yet there are fewer Third Party people. This has a volume of meaning for those who are capable of seeing it.

THE WISDOM AND LEADERSHIP OF THE PEOPLE. The fact that the great bulk of the plain hard-working people, though irritated by many hot-headed and indiscreet, if not empty-pated newspaper editors, and badly treated by the machine politician at many primaries and county conventions, yet have not been forced into taking any rash steps is a high tribute to the conservatism, wisdom and honest purpose of the people. It shows that the plain people are guided by the only safe political philosophy, that is "never to do what irritation tempts you to do." It shows conclusively that the people are not only capable to rule, but that it is always safest to follow them. It shows that the people are always moved by an honest desire to do what is right and best, and if they find that their methods are wrong the same honesty, patriotism and purity makes them turn to the right. The machine element in politics can never be trusted to do this. Therefore machine politics is dangerous to free government. The work of the machine politician is what has aroused the people. The machine must be downed, the people will rule. But the machine can not irritate the people into taking rash action, it can not force them to split their forces and fight among themselves. This would leave the machine politician still in control, and it is what the boss desire. Let the people stand together and bide their time and reform will be sure to come. But remember that no lasting reform can come till the machine is entirely routed and pure Democracy is completely re-established. The machine can not be whipped by running from it. Then let us keep our face to the enemy. Let us meet trickery and corruption with a determination born of outraged justice and backed by fair play and simple justice.

SOMETHING WRONG. Rev. Thos. Dixon, Jr., in speaking of his recent Southern tour, among other things he said: "I am not a pessimist, but during my visit to the South I was most painfully impressed with the appalling condition of agriculture. The depression of farming interests in the South is truly alarming. Cotton has been king of the South, but the king has not only lost his throne, but has become a beggar. The farmers are in debt and are growing more and more hopeless. The negroes are crowding into the towns more rapidly than the whites and they loaf about and fall into vice and dissipation. The South is the agricultural garden spot of the world and when agriculture fails to pay something is wrong."

CONGRESSIONAL CORRUPTION.

STARTLING STATEMENT OF HOW THE DEMONETIZATION OF SILVER WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

English Gold Said to Have Flooded the Legislative Halls at Washington—An Englishman's Revelation to an American.

[Special Dispatch to the Globe-Democrat.] DENVER, Colo., May 12.—Mr. Frederick A. Luckenbach is a citizen of Denver, and is well and favorably known by many of Colorado's leading business men. He has been engaged for two years past in conducting his private business, and has met with flattering success. It having come to the ears of Mr. M. H. Slater, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the State Silver League that Mr. Luckenbach possessed the startling information contained in the following affidavit, that energetic gentleman waited upon him and induced him to put the whole story into explicit form and give it to the public. This Mr. Luckenbach did, and the result is the affidavit published below.

State of Colorado, County of Arapahoe, Frederick Luckenbach, being first duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: "I am 62 years of age. I was born in Bucks county, Pa. I was known in New York. I have been a member of the Produce Exchange and am well acquainted with many members of that body. I am well known by Mr. Ernest Seyd. In the year 1865 I visited London, England, for the purpose of placing with Mr. Seyd and with his brother, Richard Seyd, who I understand is yet living. I visited London there after every year, and at each visit renewed my acquaintance with Mr. Seyd, and upon each occasion became his guest, one or more times joining his family at dinner or other meals. In February, 1874, while on one of these visits and while his guest at dinner, I, among other things, alluded to rumors about of Parliamentary corruption, and expressed my opinion that such corruption should exist. In reply to this, he told me he could relate facts about the corruption of the American Congress that would place it far ahead of the English Parliament in that line.

So far the conversation was at the dinner table between us. His brother, Richard and others were there also, this was table talk between Mr. Ernest Seyd and myself. After dinner ended he invited me to another room, where he resumed the conversation about legislative corruption. He said: "I will pledge me to you that I am about to tell you while I live I will convince you that what I said about the corruption of the American Congress is true." I gave him my promise and he then continued: "I went to America in 1873, authorized to secure, if I could, the passage of a bill demoteizing silver. It was the interest of those whom I represented—the Governors of the Bank of England, and the Bank of France, with me £100,000, with instructions that if that was not sufficient to accomplish the object, to draw for another £100,000, or as much more as necessary." He told me the cotton makers were also interested in having it accomplished, and that he was the financial adviser of the bank. He said: "I saw the committees of the House and Senate and paid the money and said in America until I knew the measure was safe."

I asked if he would give names of the members to whom he gave the money, but this he declined to do. He said: "You people will not now comprehend the far-reaching extent of that measure, but they will in a few years. Whatever you may think of corruption in the English Parliament, I assure you I would not have dared to make such an attempt here as I did in your country."

I expressed my shame to him for my countrymen in our legislative bodies. The conversation drifted into other minor subjects, and after that, though I met him many times, the matter was never again referred to. (Signed) FREDERICK A. LUCKENBACH. Subscribed and sworn to before me at Denver, this 9th day of May, A. D., 1892. JAMES A. MILLER, Clerk Supreme Court, State of Colorado.

CURIOUS FACTS.

The daily papers occasionally print interesting items under the head of "Curious Facts." The scrub paragraphs, which are entitled to a place under that head, are now published for the first time. In Clarendville, this Spring, a farmer found under the hay in his barn a hen that had evidently been buried there last Summer. The fowl was not only as dead as the Silver Bill, but it had not had a single egg during its long imprisonment.

A lady, while bathing at the seashore last season, lost a valuable diamond ring from her finger. A few days ago a large fish was caught near the spot; and when it was cut open, much surprise was naturally manifested when it was discovered that the missing ring was "not in it."

A young woman in this city, recognizing her lover's pull at the doorbell, went in person to admit him. During her absence, her mischievous little brother staid in the parlor, and placed a hunk of soft molasses candy on the big rocking chair. When the young lady's lover entered the room, he deliberately took a seat on the sofa, and the girl's little brother, who was sitting on a left the room in disgust.

A young man, employed by a large firm, took two thousand dollars from his employer's safe, and staked it all on a horse race. He won the race, and the thousand dollars. The money he took from the safe was his own.

Last Winter, a poor but respectable young man saved the life of a wealthy old gentleman by dragging him from in front of a moving locomotive at a railway station. The rich man took the rescuer's address, and a month ago he died. When his will was read, it was found that he had left $700,000 to charity, and had not sent to the young man who had saved his life.

During a thunder storm last week, three men took shelter under a large tree. Suddenly there was a blinding flash of lightning and a terrible crash of thunder, and four cows standing in a field were killed. The three men under the tree were not hurt.—J. H. Williams in Puck.

SUB-TREASURY BILL.

In the political hubbaldoo of the last two or three days the United States Representative Watson, of Georgia, actually succeeded in getting his sub-treasury resolution through the House the other day has been generally unnoticed. This resolution was one instructing the ways and means committee to report the sub-treasury bills which were introduced early in the session by the alliance contingent and referred to the ways and means committee. As it was evidently the intention of the committee to take up the sub-treasury bills Mr. Watson has been endeavoring lately to force action and at last he has succeeded. Inquiry at the committee room this morning elicited the information that the committee now felt compelled to report on the sub-treasury bills, and would probably proceed to their consideration at the next meeting. It may be added that the report will undoubtedly be an unfavorable one. Until he got his resolution through Mr. Watson has been conspicuous as the chief "objector" to the bill of the House, and it is now understood that he will continue in this role until he secures from the House a date set apart for the consideration of the sub-treasury bills.

There has been no progress of late in the ways and means committee on any of the remaining "little tariff bills." The bill in relation to tobacco is next on the list, but it will not be ready to be reported for some time yet, apparently.

SECRETARY BLAINE RESIGNS.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secretary Blaine has resigned the secretaryship of state, and the resignation has been accepted by the President. The following correspondence explains the matter. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, June 4, '92, 12:45 p. m. To the President:—I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the 6th of March, 1892. The condition of public business in the department of State justifies me in requesting that my resignation may be accepted immediately. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, JAMES G. BLAINE. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 4, 1892. To the Secretary of State:—Your letter of this date, tendering your resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States has been received. The terms in which you state your desires are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted. Very respectfully yours, BENJAMIN HARRISON. To Hon. James G. Blaine.

MILLIONAIRES AND PAUPERS—WHERE LIES THE REMEDY? There are said to be 30,000 millionaires in the United States to-day. It is estimated, and correctly too, that to make one millionaire, 1,000 people become paupers. Thus there are a thousand times 30,000 pauper in America, making a total of 30,000,000 dependent human beings in our grand country. Thick of it.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

THEIR RELATION TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF PATRIOTISM.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., Discourses Interestingly—Upon Free Education Depends Our Progress and Prosperity and the Perpetuity of Free Institutions. NEW YORK, June 5.—Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., preceded the regular sermon in Association hall this morning by reviewing the relations of our public schools to the development of national patriotism. He said: "The teacher is the hero of the nation. He is the one who is to be the father of the nation. He is the one who is to be the mother of the nation.
