

New and Enlarged Facilities AT W. T. WILLIAMSON'S BUGGY AND CARRIAGE FACTORY.

My Factory is now run at full capacity. My heavy work is now done by steam power. I am turning out a large number of new style Buggies and Phaetons. We make to order, but always keep a few styles on hand for examination.

I will keep on hand a large lot of Western Buggies (open and top) and Road Cars. They will equal in quality and are sold as low as any like goods in Goldsboro, Fayetteville or Wilmington.

Round Shaves, Hacks and all Edge Tools made, and Repairing done on short notice. HARNESSES, WHIPS, COLLARS and ALL HARNESSES HARDWARE.

I will hereafter keep in stock. My Harness Department is under THE CAUCASIAN OFFICE, on Fayetteville Street, near my Factory.

Be sure to see my styles and get my prices before buying. Respectfully, W. T. WILLIAMSON.

Dr. Boykin's Worm Killer. THE MOST RELIABLE WORM DESTROYER IN USE.

Receipts furnished to any Regular Physician when Requested. We have never asked for a certificate. We have some of the strongest ever given—all sent without solicitation.

By VIRTUE OF A TOWER OF SALE, contained in a mortgage deed, executed by F. D. Jackson to Wm. E. Bass, which said mortgage has been duly transferred to us by the said Wm. E. Bass, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Sampson county, in book 92, page 539, I will sell, on Saturday, the 11th day of June, 1892, at the Court House door, in the town of Clinton, at 12 o'clock a. m., for cash, the following real estate, viz: Four parcels of land, lying and being in Mingo township, said county, all contiguous and known as the lands of the said F. D. Jackson.

There are people who wish to oppose the Alliance and not being able to do so fairly or meet its speakers in argument, stoop to misrepresent and abuse.

How is this? We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Having qualified as ADMINISTRATOR on the estate of R. R. Bell, deceased, I hereby give notice to all persons having claims against said estate to present the same daily authentic to me within one year from this date or this notice will be pleaded at bar to their recovery, and to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate settlement of the same.

NEW BARBER SHOP. When you wish an easy shave, As good as barber ever gave, Just call on us at our saloon.

Some persons and newspapers have been charging that the St. Louis demands of the Alliance contained a "Soldier's plank," and other things that would be objectionable to many people.

First—We demand a national Currency, safe, sound and flexible, issued by the general government only, a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and that without the use of banking corporations a just, equitable and efficient means of distribution direct to the people at a tax not to exceed 2 per cent, be provided, as set forth in the sub-treasury plan of the Farmers' Alliance, or some better system; also, be payments in discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

Second—The land, including all the natural resources of wealth, is the heritage of the people and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes, and alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All land now held by railroads and other corporations in excess of their actual needs, and all lands now owned by aliens, should be reclaimed by the Government and held for actual settlers only.

Third—Transportation being a means of exchange and a public necessity, the Government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people.

The above is certified to by the whole North Carolina delegates to the St. Louis Convention. The delegates were as follows: Marion Butler, J. F. Brinson, Rev. J. C. Hoover, W. C. Wilcox, E. C. Beddingfield, P. H. Massey, J. F. Johnson, A. C. Shuford, H. M. Kent, Rev. J. C. Brown.

ESSEX'S COLUMN. A Story of the Twentieth Century. By Edward Bonington. (How Ignorance Ruins a Nation.) The most remarkable and stirring story, which has been published in the present form. 128 Pages, 10c. A Swedish edition of the above—Cloth, 128 Pages, 25c. Norwegian and German translations are now in preparation. DOCTOR HUGUET. A Novel. By the author of "Essex's Column." A wonderful, exciting story, based on the most startling and original conception in literature. 128 Pages, 10c. AN INDIAN MAN. By LeRoy Armstrong. "So true to the real life of modern politics as to seem more like history and biography than romance."—Chicago Inter-Ocean. "A story that holds the reader's attention from beginning to end."—Chicago Herald. Cloth, 128 Pages, 10c. DIVEN FROM SEA TO SEA. By C. C. Cook. This great anti-monopoly book was formerly published at $2.00 and $2.50 per volume. It is now first published in popular form, and profusely illustrated. Since the days that Mrs. Stowe wrote the doom of the slave-driver in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," no author has struck a more vigorous blow in favor of the rights of the laborer.—Chicago Inter-Ocean. Cloth, 32c. A TRAMP IN SOCIETY. By Robert H. Goddard. "Thrilling and fascinating as a story, it is also a powerful and timely indictment for the man who can write a story that contains in his warp and woof so much that is helpful and soothing to humanity."—Arkansas Traveler. Cloth, 32c. PIZARRO AND JOHN SHEPHERD. By Mrs. Marion Todd. "While you will go far toward the solution of the financial problem, and it will give a powerful lesson in the overthrow of Mammon's temple. It should be read by every American citizen."—Farmers' Alliance Journal. Paper, 5c. MEN OF MONEY ISLAND. By R. K. Johnson. "It makes the money question, which has bothered so many brains, as simple as the alphabet. It is a literary wonder in that it makes you see 'self' on the fundamental principle of rightness, justice, equity and pleasant reading as 'Robinson Crusoe.'"—Lester G. Hubbard. Paper, 5c. PROTECTIVE TARIFF DELUSION. By Mrs. Marion Todd. "This book, by the most able and eloquent lady orator that ever graced the American platform, answers the question that has troubled the mind of every citizen, and takes from the tariff question the false and mistaken idea of 'Protection to American labor.'"—New Confederation. Paper, 5c. PROF. GOLDWIN SMITH, and his satellites in Congress. By Mrs. Marion Todd. "A clear and potent presentation of facts relating to the tariff question."—Chicago Herald. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 5c. IN OFFICE: A Story of Washington Life and Society. By Lester Vital Day. A stirring novel, the scene of which is laid in the National Capitol, and which throws a peculiar light upon some of the mysteries of national politics. Paper, 5c. A KENTUCKY COLONEL. By Olin P. Royal. While this book advocates no party, it is a story of a man who has seen the inside of a political machine, and who has seen the inside of a political machine, and who has seen the inside of a political machine. Paper, 5c. THE LITTLE GIANT CYCLOPE. By R. K. Johnson. A Million and One Facts and Figures. A full-page colored map, 20 colored charts, plates and diagrams. 300 pages. 128 Pages, 10c. Paper, 5c.
