

SUBSCRIBE!

Show this Paper to your neighbor and advise him to subscribe.

Subscription Price $1.00 Per Year, in Advance.

Alliance Directory.

NATIONAL FARMERS' ALLIANCE AND INDUSTRIAL UNION. President—H. L. Loucks, Huron, South Dakota.

NATIONAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL. The Presidents of all the State organizations with L. L. Polk, ex-officio Chairman.

NORTH CAROLINA FARMERS' STATE ALLIANCE. President—Marion Butler, Clinton, North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMERS' STATE ALLIANCE. S. B. Alexander, Charlotte, N. C., Chairman.

STATE ALLIANCE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE. Elias Carr, A. Leason, N. M. Culbreth, M. G. Gregory, Wm. C. Connell.

NORTH CAROLINA REFORM PRESS ASSOCIATION. Officers—J. L. Ramsey, President; Marion Butler, Vice-President.

THE CAUCASIAN, Clinton; Progressive Farmer, Raleigh; Rural Home, Wilson; Farmer's Advocate, Tarboro; Salisbury Watchman, Salisbury; Alliance Sentinel, Goldsboro; Hickory Mercury, Hickory; The Rattler, Whitehairs, Country Life, Trinity, Colleges, Mountain Home Journal, Asheville; Agricultural Bee, Goldsboro; Columbus News, Whiteville, J. C.; The Business Agent, Raleigh, N. C.

PROFESSIONAL COLUMN. T. M. LEE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office on Main Street, opposite Court House.

H. W. ALLEN, W. T. DORTCH, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Office on Wall Street. Will practice in Sampson, Bladen, Pender, Harnett and Duplin Counties.

DR. CHAS. S. BOYETTE, DENTIST. Offers his services to the public. Charges moderate and work guaranteed.

DR. D. S. HARMON, DENTIST. Office on Main street. Offers his services to the people of Clinton and vicinity. Every thing in the line of Dentistry done in the best style.

THE CAUCASIAN.

Pure Democracy and White Supremacy.

EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of the Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

The reformers out West who have left the Republican party to join us in this great common fight for the laborer and wealth producers have a right to expect us to stand by them in good faith.

A few days since, we heard a man who had deserted the reform movement and cast his lot with the old party machine say that the reformers out West would not stick, that they would go back to the Republican party.

We heard a man say a few days since that he was a Democrat. We asked him why? He said, well I have always been a Democrat.

Every reformer who deserts to the old Democratic machine down South says to the reformer out West go back to the Republican party, go and get under the lead of the bosses, the demagogues, the sectional hater and the bloody shirt screamer, and let us fight the old battles over again.

When the present editor bought THE CAUCASIAN, he went into the fight for reform from the first issue. In every issue since it has stood by the people.

A few weeks ago the politicians and partisan papers were abusing every Democrat who would not vote for Cleveland who staying in the Democratic party.

The Democratic papers all over the State are publishing extracts for editorialists that appeared in THE CAUCASIAN when we were advising reformers not to put up a State ticket.

THE CAUCASIAN is the best advertising medium in this section. Why? Because it has the largest circulation and among the very best classes of our people.

JARVIS AND GARR.

SPEAKS TO A FAIR AUDIENCE IN CLINTON.

Carr Simply Talked From Notes.—Jarvis' Speech Did Him No Credit and His Cause No Good.

Ex-Governor Jarvis and Mr. Elias Carr were first billed to speak in Clinton on Wednesday, the 25th, and the notices were so published by the chairman of the State Executive Committee.

The editor of THE CAUCASIAN seems to have discovered only recently what everybody else who reads his paper knew a long time ago, viz.: that there is not, and never has been, a drop of Democratic blood in his composition.

The above is a very high compliment to the editor of THE CAUCASIAN, but it is hard on the Democratic party, or what is left of it. We have been fighting for reform right along on the same line ever since our first appearance before the public.

There was some hope for reform as long as the people were in the Democratic party, but now that the machine has driven the great rank and file out of the party there is no hope.

The Democratic papers all over the State are publishing extracts for editorialists that appeared in THE CAUCASIAN when we were advising reformers not to put up a State ticket.

Further on he said: "When the wisdom of the acts of the St. Louis national meeting, (1890) like leaven, begin to work upon the masses of the people, they, and not till then, shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles."

THE CAUCASIAN is the best advertising medium in this section. Why? Because it has the largest circulation and among the very best classes of our people.

JARVIS AND GARR.

SPEAKS TO A FAIR AUDIENCE IN CLINTON.

Carr Simply Talked From Notes.—Jarvis' Speech Did Him No Credit and His Cause No Good.

Ex-Governor Jarvis and Mr. Elias Carr were first billed to speak in Clinton on Wednesday, the 25th, and the notices were so published by the chairman of the State Executive Committee.

The editor of THE CAUCASIAN seems to have discovered only recently what everybody else who reads his paper knew a long time ago, viz.: that there is not, and never has been, a drop of Democratic blood in his composition.

The above is a very high compliment to the editor of THE CAUCASIAN, but it is hard on the Democratic party, or what is left of it. We have been fighting for reform right along on the same line ever since our first appearance before the public.

There was some hope for reform as long as the people were in the Democratic party, but now that the machine has driven the great rank and file out of the party there is no hope.

The Democratic papers all over the State are publishing extracts for editorialists that appeared in THE CAUCASIAN when we were advising reformers not to put up a State ticket.

Further on he said: "When the wisdom of the acts of the St. Louis national meeting, (1890) like leaven, begin to work upon the masses of the people, they, and not till then, shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles."

THE CAUCASIAN is the best advertising medium in this section. Why? Because it has the largest circulation and among the very best classes of our people.

FACTS FOR CONSIDERATION.

A Field-Day for the People's Party at Magnolia.

EX-GOV. T. J. JARVIS' SPEECH COMMENCED BACK IN 1866.—WILSON HAD CONVERTED HIM INTO A MANY TO THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

Magnolia, N. C., Aug. 25, '92. Mr. Editor—Dear Sir: We want to beg space in your paper to tell the people of Duplin county what a grand day Magnolia and Democracy spent yesterday, the 24th instant.

The close of the war the public debt of the United States was $2,680,617,869, 74, being about $70 per head on every man woman and child in the land.

The People's Party of the 14th District Nominates F. M. White, of Sampson, and E. N. Robeson, of Bladen.

The Senatorial Convention of the 14th District, composed of the counties of the People's party, as reported by the press, met here to-day.

The executive committee elected for the District is as follows: Mr. S. W. Parker, chairman, Dunn, N. C.; R. H. Lyon, Elizabethtown, N. C.; Mr. M. M. Killeit, Clinton, N. C.

The People's party convention in Mecklenburg county has put out a full ticket as follows: Senate, P. L. Vail; House, Nick Gibson, W. G. Ford, W. G. Steele; Sheriff, W. D. Harry; Register, Deeds, J. C. Stewart; Treasurer, H. T. Rhyne; Coroner—T. M. Carr; Surveyor, J. J. McRaven.

Our very efficient young Register of Deeds was present and had noticed served on him to give up the key to the first Monday in December.

JARVIS AND GARR.

SPEAKS TO A FAIR AUDIENCE IN CLINTON.

Carr Simply Talked From Notes.—Jarvis' Speech Did Him No Credit and His Cause No Good.

Ex-Governor Jarvis and Mr. Elias Carr were first billed to speak in Clinton on Wednesday, the 25th, and the notices were so published by the chairman of the State Executive Committee.

The editor of THE CAUCASIAN seems to have discovered only recently what everybody else who reads his paper knew a long time ago, viz.: that there is not, and never has been, a drop of Democratic blood in his composition.

The above is a very high compliment to the editor of THE CAUCASIAN, but it is hard on the Democratic party, or what is left of it. We have been fighting for reform right along on the same line ever since our first appearance before the public.

There was some hope for reform as long as the people were in the Democratic party, but now that the machine has driven the great rank and file out of the party there is no hope.

The Democratic papers all over the State are publishing extracts for editorialists that appeared in THE CAUCASIAN when we were advising reformers not to put up a State ticket.

Further on he said: "When the wisdom of the acts of the St. Louis national meeting, (1890) like leaven, begin to work upon the masses of the people, they, and not till then, shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles."

THE CAUCASIAN is the best advertising medium in this section. Why? Because it has the largest circulation and among the very best classes of our people.

JARVIS AND GARR.

SPEAKS TO A FAIR AUDIENCE IN CLINTON.

Carr Simply Talked From Notes.—Jarvis' Speech Did Him No Credit and His Cause No Good.

Ex-Governor Jarvis and Mr. Elias Carr were first billed to speak in Clinton on Wednesday, the 25th, and the notices were so published by the chairman of the State Executive Committee.

The editor of THE CAUCASIAN seems to have discovered only recently what everybody else who reads his paper knew a long time ago, viz.: that there is not, and never has been, a drop of Democratic blood in his composition.

The above is a very high compliment to the editor of THE CAUCASIAN, but it is hard on the Democratic party, or what is left of it. We have been fighting for reform right along on the same line ever since our first appearance before the public.

There was some hope for reform as long as the people were in the Democratic party, but now that the machine has driven the great rank and file out of the party there is no hope.

The Democratic papers all over the State are publishing extracts for editorialists that appeared in THE CAUCASIAN when we were advising reformers not to put up a State ticket.

Further on he said: "When the wisdom of the acts of the St. Louis national meeting, (1890) like leaven, begin to work upon the masses of the people, they, and not till then, shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles."

THE CAUCASIAN is the best advertising medium in this section. Why? Because it has the largest circulation and among the very best classes of our people.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE To communicate with about ten thousand of the best country people in this section of North Carolina then do it through the columns of THE CAUCASIAN. No other paper in the Third Congressional District has as large a circulation.

MAJ. GUTHRIE'S CARD. HE DECLINES THE NOMINATION, BUT BELIEVES IN THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

To the People's Party of North Carolina: I am informed that at a State Convention in the fall of 1892, your name was presented for nomination in the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and Book of Honor was conferred on you.

I am honored that my name was presented for nomination in the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and Book of Honor was conferred on you.

Because I feel that on your ticket would very soon dates in advancing the national interests of your party. It is well known to my intimate personal friends that I am now, and have for some years past, since the removal of my residence to Durham, been the regular contributor to the regular ad columns of your party, and it is a fact I could not deny, nor wish to deny, that at the very time when your delegates were assembling in Raleigh, I was engaged in a distant State drawing legal documents and contracts to build an entirely new railroad to develop the latent resources of a large undeveloped section and affecting at least two counties in North Carolina.

You would hardly want to clog and handicap your other candidates to defend an avowed railroad attorney. Please understand me, however, as I think my clients do, that if my railroad company would just hint to me that because of my association with them I would be under any circumstances expected to sacrifice my liberty of independent thought and action in political affairs by surrender of my money, they would very soon see that my relation for I would in that event sever the relations of attorney and client quick enough to make their head swim, I would, if I know myself, rather live and die in obscurity and gain my livelihood by plowing a ball in cornfield than sacrifice myself to act my vote according to the dictates of my own judgment and conscience for the men of my choice and for the measures I fully believe in and to promote the good of my country.

I do not want the office. When I was beaten before the people for this same office some six years ago, I made up my mind to give up my ambition in another direction entirely and I have devoted whatever of energy and talent I may possess to building up a law practice in a new place. I think I have gone far enough already in being a candidate for judicial honors and I would not generally. My own respect demands a halt here. I acquire the reputation of becoming a chronic office-seeker—the most contemptible of all right-thinking people under a free government. I would not belittle the office, however, though only a fragmentary term of it is now at stake for political bidding. Though a piece requiring much hard labor, if the office is fairly fully given, it is a large compensation given for it; the occupant subject to times (and sometimes not deserved too) can never become an office of small importance by plowing a ball in cornfield. The office is worthy of the high appreciation of every ambitious lawyer much good men desire the fact that under our constitution and the elective judiciary system, it is being given to a young man more and more the luck of a political gambler rather than the reward of merit. In this particular campaign the nominee of the People's party will, I think, stand at least an even chance of receiving the office, and I believe a better one. He will at least have more votes to begin his campaign with than the Governor's appointee has, since only one vote may appoint, but it requires a full majority of votes to elect before the people.

In conclusion I would not wish to be misunderstood in declining your nomination. It is very from my purpose to slap in the face any body of men who would do so, did, in tendering your confidence in naming me as your choice for so high and important an office, and one clothed with so much dignity, honor and power; but remember I have no particular claim on that or any other office. The office belongs to the people and are the mere agencies of government established to give effect to the will of the people as embodied in the laws which the people through their servants and representatives have made. The office has come in this country when the theory of our system of government must realize that sovereignty resides in the people; and no man who thinks that political power is drifting out and away from the hands of the people and contracting in the hands of a few. A reformer must be had, in order to preserve liberty. It is not a false clamor we hear on every side coming up as a wall of distress from the ever increasing masses of the South and West. It is a cry, too, that sooner or later will be heard and the independent men of all classes, professions, trades and occupations will be sooner or later stand together as a wall of adamant between the oppressors of the people who have used political demagogues, office-seekers, and office-holding legislators to restrict and destroy the liberties of the people, and check and retard the progress and prosperity of the farming classes of the South and the West. When the

THE CAUCASIAN for three months for 25 cents. Send us a club. [Continued on Second Page.]