OPINION OF THE EDITOR ON THE ISSUES OF THE DAY.

Any subscriber who will send us an address on a postal card, will send a bundle of sample copies which you can kindly hand out to your neighbors.

How the old parties do hate THE CAUCASIAN. Do we mind it? Bless us, we feel proud of it. The people love THE CAUCASIAN and will support it.

Will you hand out some sample copies for us? If so please send an address on a postal card. We will send you a bundle of sample copies by next mail, which you can hand to your neighbors.

A number of our readers have inquired who were the business men in Goldsboro who returned the complimentary copies of THE CAUCASIAN. We kept a list of the names for the people ought to know.

Why do the fellows who did the thing and cheating at the last election hate THE CAUCASIAN so? Because it is hitting them hard licks and telling the truth on them. We have just commenced. We will try to get them full justice before long. We will set up on them they will set up all night to hate us.

THIS EXPLAINS THEIR SILENCE.

The rotten, subsidized plutocratic press was significantly silent on the recent county elections in Georgia. When these elections were going on we said that we felt sure that the people were carrying the day, because we could learn nothing nothing from the daily papers. The following facts explain it all: Franklin and Hart counties—heretofore Democratic strongholds, and which rolled up handsome majorities for Cleveland last fall, gave nearly all the county officers to the Populists, while in Warren and McDuffie counties the Populists majorities ranged from 450 to 500. In Augusta and Atlanta the working men succeeded in electing a number of candidates. In Toa Watson's district the Populist counties rolled up overwhelming majorities. If the result of the county elections in Georgia had been the reverse of the very significant increase of Populists votes, what a shout would have gone up from the nose rag sheets of plutocracy that is otherwise silent as the grave.

Why should serious objection be made to Cleveland and Carlisle formulating a tariff bill for Congressmen to vote for? According to the universal dictum of the Democratic leaders during last year's campaign, the tariff was the only live issue, and Cleveland the only representative Democrat. Congress surrendered then, why not now?

Attorney General Olney should have the following plank from the National Democratic platform laid upon his desk regularly each morning until it is carried into effect: We demand the rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them [trusts and combinations], together with such further legislation in restraint of their abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

The Washington Star says "it has been practically settled that there will be no extra session of Congress this spring, and this decision is owing to the strength shown by the silver men." This, of course, says that Cleveland's only object in calling an extra session would be to have silver demoralized. Where is the fellow who said Grover was for free coinage?

Another evidence that the coming democratic administration will not be different from the present republican administration is the fact that Charles Foster, secretary of the treasury, has had a conference with his successor, J. G. Carlisle, and both have agreed to issue $25,000,000 of gold bonds, bearing gold interest, to buy gold to keep the treasury from becoming depleted. This is a nice state of affairs after the best crops and the highest overproduction that the world has ever seen.

It gives us genuine pleasure to commend and give full credit to every public man, no matter what party he belongs to, who stands by the people and does his duty. THE CAUCASIAN is not the organ of any party or set of men, but is fighting for truth and justice. It will turn on the light, and in doing so if it shall prove to the credit of any public man or party it will give us pleasure, but if it will give us pleasure, sure, but if the truth exposes and condemns any public man or party we will be sorry, but will do it all the same, for it is our duty. The truth will be told and justice shall be done and we shall not spare any man, big or small, who deserves condemnation, nor will we withhold praise and credit from those to whom it is due, even if they are our personal enemies. If THE CAUCASIAN cannot be a personal friend, it will always be a political friend to those who are honest and true to the people.

HAYSEEDER "RODRICK" OF SAMPSON WRITES THE CAUCASIAN ANOTHER LETTER.

He Hits the Bull's Eye Every Shot.

(Special to The Caucasian.)

Big BLUE SWAMP, N. C. - A very caustic Democrat in our hearing the other day said that it is best for the South that cotton is low. Don't you think they need him at the national museum?

A fellow was asked the other day what he thought they would do with him at the final wind up. He said he didn't think they would reach his case on judgment day, that it would take all their time to try political thieves.

How many men could be found in Sampson county before Cleveland was nominated, that opposed free silver? How many could be found now? Oh, for such original thinkers.

If a man were to burn a part of his earnings, we would call him an idiotic fool; but if he votes for the old parties, men and measures that will destroy it in prices and useless expenditures, the same is a patriot and wise man.

We overheard a conversation the other day something like this: "What kind of a fellow is your neighbor?" "He used to be a real clever fellow and one of our best friends, but he went off with that d—n third party and since then I don't have much to do with him." God pity your poor, black, ignorant, infamous contemptible soul. In the name of justice and reason, has it come to that pass that a man is to be estranged from his friends and underlarded in the world simply because he is honest with his conscience? Whither are we drifting and what will our masters do next?

If Mr. Cooper's bill to imprison a man for getting drunk had been a law when the Legislature met, do you know of any Senator who would have been unable to go? If you do, answer, because, "When the wicked rule, the people mourn."

It is real amusing to hear these little pin-hook fellows of the Democratic party when they go to town get around their bosses tell that they are Democrats and what they did last election.

We see a good deal in some of the partisan papers, and among that number the Sampson Democrat, about the feeling that exists between town and country. Now, what started this feeling? Did the country people or the town people start it? It was originated by these same papers that are now asking for peace. They now admonish the country people to lay aside this feeling. Do they ever admonish the town people to do the same? Not a bit of it. The country people want peace and if the town people want it, they should be willing to come half way, or at least be charitable. They continue to abuse the reform element and because the reform papers occasionally retort back at them, they say we are waging war. How can the DEMOCRAT dare ask for peace till it apologizes to the many good people of North Carolina for the very hard things it has said about them and for no other reason than that they saw fit to differ with that little sheet as to party policy? Gentlemen, we country people will meet you half way, but will not go any further. We will see who wants peace.

Say, is Mr. Cleveland dead? Why is the price of cotton declining? Some of the papers that said his election put the price up will please explain.

How many men have we in North Carolina who for the sake of having a certain ring notice them in company, would vote the Democratic ticket if they new positively it is against their own interest?

He's a dandy. Who is a dandy? The man who says he is a prohibitionist and then votes with a party that brings itself in power with whiskey.

Do you ever hear anything from Judy Carroll these times? Wonder if they haven't got him boxed up for the World's Fair?

Do a good many of those farmers who don't belong to the Alliance and People's party really hate us who do belong to them? or are they just trying to please the bosses?

We think some of the partisan papers have about stopped puffing Jimmie Bell since the reform papers are beginning to publish about his buying goods from the State Business Agency and refusing to pay for them. Turn on the light.

We notice that the Sampson Democrat never fails to publish anything it sees that it thinks is detrimental to the Alliance. Isn't it a pity that so able (?) a paper should oppose us? Of course if it turns all its mighty logic against the Alliance and People's party, they must go down; for well may this paper be called the Weakly Democrat.

A very officious ignoramus said to the writer the other day, "I am a Democrat, and why am I?" Really we were unable to say whether he didn't know any better or had been bribed.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

For the County.

LEWISVILLE, N. C. March 1st '93. MR. MARION BUTLER, DEAR SIR AND BRO.—Last Monday I sent you a letter containing two subscriptions, but in the hurry to get it ready for the mail, I forgot to say some things that I wanted to tell you. I want to thank you for your kindness in sending me THE CAUCASIAN, and would say that I like it so well that I expect to take it as long as I can raise money enough.

We fell out with you last summer, or spring rather, because you did not, at once go ahead, after the St. Louis conference, and organize the State, in the interest of the Peoples Party, but we all see now where you were right, and we were wrong, you were not in position to know, being Pres't of the S. A. and said Alliance having not adopted the platform, and you could not adopt it for them.

I am glad to tell you that you have a very warm place in the hearts of the alliance people in this part of the county, now, and I think that Col. Polk's mantle rests upon you, and that ere long you will be called to take up the work that he left unfinished.

I must say that you have a great work before you and I hope that you will continue to "turn on the light."

The action of the legislature has waked up some Alliancemen, who were asleep, they know now that they are Alliancemen, but I fear that some had forgotten it before.

I find a great many that would gladly subscribe for THE CAUCASIAN but they say they can't spare the money, many of them are in debt.

I will do the best for you and THE CAUCASIAN that I can, will try to use every opportunity to speak a good word for you and THE CAUCASIAN.

Would say that we have about the banner P. P. town's "rip in the county. We give Weaver 99, against 32 for Cleveland, and 68, I think, for Harrison; but we are mostly poor farmers.

With best wishes I am Yours fraternally, D. A. BRINKLEY.

Craven County.

COVE N. C. Feb. 27th 1893.

MR. EDITOR: Send me THE CAUCASIAN. I am trying to get up a club for your paper and think that I will be able to send you a few names with the money for THE CAUCASIAN in a few days and if I fail in getting up a club will send money for my self. I wish to say to the brethren that it is high time that we had aroused from our lethargy and assert our manhood and drop the hiring partisan paper, for why should we pay our money to our enemies to enable them to taunt and taunt us with ignorance and just as long as we help them to abuse and mislead us we render ourselves unworthy of respect and deserve nothing better.

Dear brothers and sisters I say once for all and especially to all who voted in the late election for reform in government both county state and national cut loose from the hiring partisan press as you would from the beguiling influence of his stanic majesty, they are continually crying peace when there is no peace, here brethren let us hold up the hands of our worthy brother who advocated the cause of oppressed humanity through one of the most persecuting and villainous campaigns that our ever disgraced fair name of our once prosperous and happy country. I beg you think of what the dominant party promised in the late campaign and look at what they are doing in the legislative halls of our state and nation, then say if you are not all and will be well, now it is go slow and appropriate $100,000,000 for the ship canal, the Sherman silver bill of 1890, which cost $54,000,000 in circulation amongst the people, demonetize silver, drink beef tea, filibuster and fritter the time away, cater to the demands of Generalism Grover and worship at the shrine of Wall street and its golden calf, Grover Cleveland, with a mugwump State legislature passing o'possum laws and reducing rate of interest on borrowed money 90 days after never and trying to repeal the charter of the State Alliance Business Agency, taxing female dogs &c.

Now Mr. Editor, if you think this letter or any part of it worthy of a place in your valuable paper you can publish it and if not consign it to the waste basket, but let me have the weekly CAUCASIAN, ever yours Fraternally J. W. KENNEDY.

The Wolf-Unmasked.

EL PASO, N. C. March 6th '93. MR. EDITOR.—The time has come when the most obtuse can see that the sympathy and friendly interest professed by politicians and party papers for the Alliance as an Order, and the members as a class was and is just such as the wolf has for the lamb or the fox for the goose. The amendments made to the charter of the State Alliance is such as to unmask our enemies and let the wafferer though blind and a fool see their objects and aims. "Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad" There never was a political party who had such an opportunity to perpetuate its existence and to live in the memory and hearts of the masses as the Democratic party has now. Will it embrace the opportunity? Judging the future by the past where have we any ground to hope. What has the present legislature done for the people, that is the Farmers and Laborers? Has not the most of the legislators of the present session been inimical to their interest, and as a crowning act, adding

A STRONG LETTER.

Capt. Lloyd Analyzes the Position of the Banks Toward the Administration.

(For The Caucasian.)

TARBORO, N. C. March 6, 1893. THE NEW YORK WORLD, in the past few issues, has contained the views of many prominent bankers, and business men on the financial condition of the country, and the prospect for relief, under the present administration.

It is remarkable how nearly unanimous they are in favor of the repeal of the Sherman silver law. They contend that the "business interests" of the country will enter upon an era of unprecedented prosperity in the event that the Sherman law is repealed. "Sound," "phones," and "staple money" is their cry. They do not want any free silver and express the confident belief that Mr. Cleveland will exert himself in behalf of a "sound" currency regardless of party, these bankers endorse Mr. Cleveland's views on the financial question. They do not desire any change, save that by which they can add more money to their plethoric purses.

Extracts from these bankers' views may not be uninteresting to THE CAUCASIAN, and I give them herewith.

James Campbell, a banker of St. Louis, says: I believe Mr. Cleveland will be equal to all emergencies and will know how to provide for them until Congress convenes regularly, and that he will then be better able to shape legislation to the conditions brought about by the reduction of the tariff. A gradual reduction of the tariff will not seriously affect or disturb the finances of the country, as then all the evils of immediate tariff reform would be avoided, and the manufacturer would then be able to adjust himself to the conditions brought about by the reduction.

Do not believe in issuing gold bonds. I think that the gold scare is largely artificial, and that the parties clamoring for bonds are directly or indirectly in the conspiracy. I think that the anxiety felt about the shipment of gold abroad and the pretended evil that will follow if gold went to a premium will have passed out when the Secretary of the Treasury positively and permanently states that no bonds will be issued. From the fact that Mr. Cleveland's methods are so well known and that his administration is to continue for four years, and any policy that he would advocate would meet with the general approval of a very large majority of the business community, and they would at once endeavor to adjust their condition so as to have in the business form profitably with the new condition of things, believing whatever it is would be best.

Here is what another banker says: "The effect of the incoming administration will be beneficial. It is generally understood that Mr. Cleveland is pledged to a sound financial policy. This is understood not only in this country but throughout Europe. Therefore the effect of the incoming administration cannot fail to be beneficial to all industries."

THE CAUCASIAN readers will note the writer of the above says that "it is generally understood that Mr. Cleveland is pledged to a sound financial policy. This is understood not only in this country but throughout Europe." This means that if Cleveland can prevent it, there will be no change in the present iniquitous financial laws of this country!

Now you will hear what a Republican banker has to say respecting the situation. Read it and soberly reflect: "I do not see what change Cleveland's policy will make in the financial world. It does not see that its effect will be other than good. I think Mr. Cleveland's policy is to conduct his administration in such a business-like way that the prosperity of the country will continue. I do not think he will make any radical changes in any direction. I say this as a Republican who voted for him. The change of administration is one of political significance rather than a business change. I do not see that it will benefit or depreciate the present fortunate condition of trade in any way.

There are so many factors back of the flow of gold to Europe that I feel hardly able to express an intelligent opinion as to how it will result. If the people will only preserve quiet minds and do not get into a splinter of excitement there will be no danger. There is no more danger of a panic from an overflow of gold than there was from the Reading collapse. I am perfectly satisfied that the prosperity of the country will continue under the new administration, and should experience an increase as it did eight years ago.

Your readers will doubtless recall the fact that the tariff was regarded as the paramount issue in the last campaign, but is singular, that in view of the fact that it was considered such an egregious evil then, how silent the leaders are now regarding it. Their silence is appalling and painful! Here is what a New York broker says when interviewed by the World said: "I think the tariff is a dangerous thing to meddle with at present. If those who were commissioned to execute the will of the people failed to keep their pledges, two, and four years hence, they will find the people 'danger
