MARION BUTLER, Editor & Propr. SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Entered in the Post Office at Clinton, N

See double column article on first page headed "The Voice of the Per ple." Read it, study it, cut it out and lay it away.

How is it that a man could mak the price of cotton go up before he become President and could no keep it up after he become President? But we suppose he has put the price of meat up and one thing enough at a time.

When Postmaster General Bissell was ruling that every postmaster must devote his entire time to his office and not have any other business, he certainly knew little about the country postoffices. He will learn to the public. We did feel that the more by and by.

ury is to continue under a Demo- as we do by all men and measures, cratic as well as a Republican ad- tell the public our honest opinion. ministration, then it is time that With the lights before us now, we the Alliance between the South and still say that the Alliancemen sub-West be perfected for both defen- mittel to an infomous wrong, but sive and offensive warfare.

gress that body that misrepresents capital out of it," he would monopoly, which is to be run by coercion to make a shield for demaprivate individuals for speculation gognes and wrong doers to hide beand profit to themselves. And then hind." having loaned and voted away so much of the peoples money they decided to give themselves some, so they voted $100 month extra pay to to the amount of his salary the rest know some churches that should on the shoulder and tell him to work the way another man can fill the Democratic Methodist church," "a the next breath begin talking about amendments, while each one of us beoffice and be drawing the same salary Democratic Baptist church" or "a "overproduction." How much long- lieved that it was a direct insult to ing machine. But in the past huat the same time. But the Judge Democratic Presbyterian church." er will the "industrious poor" be every Allianceman in North Caroli- man ingenity has failed to offer the anyhow. The economic system of says that he will not resign for he is Now we dare and challenge these "hewers of wood and drawers of waable to do the work and there is no contemptible lying hypocrits to name ter?" May the day speedily come cocted, we thought it best that Broth-question (if correct) could do the Mr. Cleveland to appoint Gresham to get him off the bench. As a Cir- STEAL THE PEOPLES MONEY FOR THEM cuit Judge he was in their way. We suppose the same railroads and trusts urged Mr. Cleveland to appoint Mr. Olney the Attorney and pet of the monopolies and trusts to the position of Attorney General, for in that position he can proteet them better. There has never been a coherent more hostile to the great issues that the people are interested in.

A man wrote a few days ago, "Stop your paper till it is Demo-Democrat, he is satisfied; but if you take Democratic principles and lafor himself does not suffer from this kind of complaint were it not for such simple innocent but foolish men, the game of the politicians and the rule of monopoly would be over and gone. This Labelcrat can't now see his interest and is actually fighting those who are laboring to free him from the oppression of monopoly. We are working for him. because we cannot liberate ourselves, without also liberating him. Before long, his eyes will be opened and then he will repent, if he is honest. There has never yet been a great fight for reform or liberty, that a part of those oppressed did not join with their enemies and fight their friends and against their own inter- But if you read THE CAUCASIAN, his game to keep the people divided. But all have an abiding faith in the final triumph of the with much self satisfied pride to the late legislature says: "It has been that mean? What would be the dif- 2d, adjourned to meet again at Faiference if he had said "conservative sons on March 31st. The comprogressive?" In fact what did Mr. mittee appointed at the first meetplain in his next issue? Is he abus- the committee to confer with "Trade ing the Legislature? But since they Associations" will be of great intervoted for him for public printer we est to truckers. It is also hoped that suppose he felt that he aught to the transportation committee will compliment that body and having also have a favorable report. some conscience and knowing they did not deserve it, he dodged behind a glittering (?) generality. Was the

In another column will be found a letter from Capt. W. S. Barnes, Secretary of the State Alliance. are glad to get the information contained therein and glad to give it Alliancemen in the Legislature did wrong in approving the mean and If the Alliance between Wall and cowardly amendments passed we do not blame them, for probably it was best under the circumstances, With this issue we begin to ven- you see they were threatened by the tilate the election and expose the partisans, that if they did not let the committed under it. Every voter in they would repeal the charter. Why the State should commence with were they so anxious to have the this issue and read and study it every amenaments passed unanimously? week. We have printed 500 extra So they could escape the responsicopies of this edition so that every bility of their meanness and unjusnew subscriber for the next week tice hereafter by saying "the Alli can get this issue. Don't neglect to ancemen in the Legislature voted for subscribe at once for in less than it." And when Joe Daniels referring ten days the new subscribers coming to this piece of dishonesty and inin will take up all the extra copies. justice said: "They had managed to take the wind out of the sails of During the closing hours of Con- demagogues who would try to make the people, voted to lend another half | come nearer the truth if he had sale million dollars to the World's Fair "they had managed by threats and themselves. Can you believe it? It ing something about what a crime it Even men of North Carolina, who same evening what Mr. Atwater is a fact. Yet the politicians and is for the Alliance to go into politics, are possessed of considerable means, partisan papers are trying to keep These parties are putting the Alli- and who are bitter enemies to the The Democratic papers and politi- these self same persons and hypocrites ton that comes to this market at three once, and together they come to my washing machine? no, you are still cians have been suggesting to Judge have dragged their churches into cents per pound I would do it." Dick that he resign and let Mr. politics. According to their narrow Now, if this class could manage ter. Remember we only had about Henderson be appointed. They intellects and irreligious souls, the to buy the poor farmers' cotton at one hour for consultation and it was ing will break down your health and other good people who have allowed further suggest to him that the law religion of a church depends upon three cents per pound, they would impossible to correspond with you or make you look old and worn quicker. their minds to be fuddled by the provides for him to draw a pension the political label on it. In fact we glance at his tattered coat, slap him any other of our officials in that short Your husband would gladly relieve of his days, and if he will get out of have over their doors: "This is a hard and use more economy, and at need to pay another man just to a single man who has ever been when the "industrious poor" will re- er Atwater (he agreeing with us) been invented but none of them filled called political government, is a prepare a soft place for a Democrat. turned out of the Alliance on ac- alize that in unity there is power and should sign the committees report for the bill. We believe the New Era even who was not elected to an office Sun. Secretary of State, we said that he on account of the party he affiliated was put in a position where his with. When this is done then we will views on monopolies and the money give some cases of not only how members of churches but how the pastors people no good. It is now charged of churches have been treated on acchangelessness in the weather. count of their politics.

You have heard of the back "salary grab" business, when a majority of the Congressmen voted to double their own salaries. You know how the Democratic politicians and partisan papers have condemned that act of the Republican party helped by such men as Waddell of Wilmington. Now it was right to condemu this act, but were the persons who condemned it moved by a sense the other hand has taxed them heavier to pay themselves bigger salthe politicians will say, oh well, that for some more propitious season. was done by the Congress that went out before Cleveland's administrawas done by a Democratic Congress gress to have the justice and manhood to repeal this cowardly law. Did you know such a law had been passed? Have you seen it in partisan papers? Did they condemn it? The business of the partisan papers is to hide the facts from the people and to apologize for wrong. you will know the facts and the

The North Carolinian referring EASTERN CAROLINA TRUCKERS' ASSO

The meeting of the Eastern North progressively conservative." "Pro- Carolina Truckers' Association gressive conservative." What does which met at Faison's N. C., March Daniels intend to say? Will he ex- ing will then report. The report of

IS IT A DEAL?

When the Senate Committee on Legislature "progressive conserva- Finance was captured by the Free tive" when it tried to repeal the Al- Silver men and Senator Voorhees liance charter in such indecent haste? made chairman, it is reported that Will the Carolinian please answer? President Cleveland was very much disappointed and chagrined. But it seems now that there is a dea! on hand. Listen, on Monday Cleveland appointed J. E. Resley a brother-inlaw of Senator Voorhees to be Minister to Denmark. On the next day he appointed Mr. Hawkins U. S. Marshall and Mr. Burke District Attorney of Indiana. These men Street and the United States Treas- by that body, and feeling so, we did are special friends of Senator Vorhees and were strong anti Cleveland are cursing mad. But that is a small matter. What we are interested in, has Cleveland made a bargain with Voorhees to back down and desert silver? or is he trying to crimes against popular government amendments pass unanimously that patronage? Let the people watch! Eternal vigilance is the price of "INDUSTRIOUS POOR." Dr. Parker, of the London City Temple, said in a sermon on New Year's day: "There is no torment the way they are treated is a shame. Let the "industrious poor" organize for mutual protection and there rises at once a howl from the Shylocks in every quarter of the earth, and this howl re-echoes back and fourth until it is taken up by the insignificant POLITICS IN THE CHURCHES AND THE set of cross-road and street corner tattlers, who think themselves to be Every few days some paper is say- the "seven wonders" of the world. ance on a very high moral plane, Farmers' Alliance have been heard was asked for, but it was refused.

count of his politics or any member that there is no hope of relief save the amendment, as it was better to Hydraulic Clothes Washer fills this through the ballot-box.—Burgaw have them than for the charter to be large and greatly felt want.

EDITORIAL POSTSCRIPTS.

The Weather Bureau has changed hands, but there seems to be no ious to hear the monsters squeal.

has yet referred to Baby Ruth as "the uncrowned queen."

Cleveland's Cabinet had to bow his tell you. We believed that if the head and swear allegiance to the gold Alliance charter was repealed that a trust of America and England. Do "Receiver" would be appointed at moved by the law and sordid motives extra session to relieve the people of

The partisan Democrat who howled about putting on guard on the aries. This is not only undemocratic, true and tried, whose democracy was but is cruel and heartless. When above suspicion, is singing very small this is told on the next campaign these days, evidently saving his wind

The papers speak of the Presi tion took charge. But remember it dent's Cabinet. There is no such what the fund would be trifled with term in the United States Constitu- again by another set of "NON-PARTIand we now call on the next Con- tion as "Cabinet." There is no authority for such a body. Did not this invention smack off Royalty?

Spring is coming, affable and ge-taken care of faithfully, as they have nial reader; so is the great pallid been in the past. That no one knew millennium coming, and the cows so much about the fund, and the are coming, and all sorts of things plan upon which it was given, and are coming just as fast as they can be no useless expenditure. That conpay their fare. Spring may wear fidence in our order would increase icicles when she comes, but we'll instead of diminish and that the

BARNES' LETTER.

THE STATE SECRETARY WRITES US A

what we wish to purchase.

But there were other considerations. The cost of all commodities

Agent publising weekly in our or-our people informed, but it posted which thousands, nay mullions of

Yours fraternally,

J. IVEY.

WOMAN'S FRIEND

THE HYDRAULIC CLOTHES WASHER.

Have you a cook stove? ves, you could not do without it. Have you scrubbing over the washtub. Noth-you of this killing labor if he could.

STRONG LETTER TO THE INFAMOUS AMEND-

OF THE TWO UNJUST AND INFAMOUS gan, the Progressive Farmer, the Light Than Ever.

[Special to THE CAUCASIAN.] ER .- In your issue of last week, the Agency has started on its present the Alliance charter, which were re- of that article in price more than a vorably and passed in place of House was established, yea, five times that bill for repeal of charter in hands amount, if the farmers of the State of Senate Committee. The facts are would have purchased entirely these: The amendments we offered through this agency or at prices at torney, so completely filled the pre- Now, if our charter had been repealtext that was used for repealing the ed and our Business Agency destroycharter that the Senate Committee ed what would have been the consewere at a loss for a time what to do, quencies? for the Democratic members both of I have thought of this constantly men. The partisan Cleveland men which would suit the fancy of our sulted to all classes of our people if in Indiana are fighting hot—they law-makers, not of those interested. These things the House proceeded tion ever was concocted or attempted buy him over to the gold-bugs with above, the Senate Committee did not ber of our order think upon these finite use of the word government. sufficient for robbers of the indus- ASTUTE LAWYER POLITICIANS) the other organizations, or who would To increase the powers of monarchisufficient for robbers of the indus- ASTUTE LAWYER POLITICIANS) the other organizations, or who would trious poor." There is a whole sermon amendments of which you have so take away the rights of any other cal governments is undemocratic be- Dick, laughingly. "And I must say it expressed in these few words. The "industrious poor" are the back-bone the amendments were presented abiding citizens.

In the second of the people of the people. To increase the back-bone of the people of the people. To increase the back-bone of the people of the peo "industrious poor" are the back-bone to our attorneys on Saturday eveand sinew of the whole world, and ning, the 25th of February by the chairman of the Senate Committee, charge, and, who stated that if Mr. Atwater who is a member of our order would agree to them, that the committee would make a unanimous report and it would pass both Houses: but if he should refuse to do so then

> After as thorough discussion as na, and as far reaching in its ingen-necessary machine to relieve you of the committee would make a favorable report of House bill for repeal of charter and IT would pass the Sen-would do, as the committee would make out their report at that time and proceed to the Senate. More time office to consult with Brothers Worth.

ate—that he must know by 3½ o'clock repealed, he, Mr. Patterson, promising that no more hostile legislation should be enacted by said body if the report was signed. Brother Atwater agreed to the amendments, not because he believed they were right or just, not because he desired to fasten any such igno-When will Mr. Olney open up on minious measure upon himself or the trust? The country is rather anx- his brethren, but because he believed it would work less harm to the Alliance organization and to the breth-It seems a little bit singular, con- ren. Now if there is any stigma to sidering everything, that nobody be attached to this action of our Brother, then we W. H. Worth, Thadeus Ivy, and myself, wish to divide it with our Brother as we ad-Every man who has got into vised it, and believe yet it was best. Why did we think it best? I will you doubt it? Time will prove it. the suggestion of these same conspirators who would have been a tool of If Cleveland can't get Congress to these traitors if not one of them; of right and wrong or were they demonstize silver he might call an that a greater part of the funds in cratic." That man does not know what pure Democracy is. If you what pure Democracy is. If you congress that has just adjourned thieving and robbing campaign the first large and robbing campaign because I believe that to do so would be locked up for the remainder of ly clean without rubbing or boiling. necessarily in expenses of settlement; es the finest laces or the heaviest bed way I would abolish every existing the next day all three went out for a walk the year if not longer, and none of It will do the family washing in one increase the sum total of human it could have been used as a backing still more. They have increased their Is there a town in the United for our Business Agent as now; that still more. They have increased their pay from $5.000 a year to $6.200 a States which is not described by the ent on our agent for supplies would be the first to thousands who were partly dependent on our agent for supplies would be the first to the time required by hand. Each washer is guranteed for five ent on our agent for supplies would be the first to the time required by hand. Each washer is guranteed for five ent on our agent for supplies would be the first to the time required by hand. Each washer is guranteed for five ent on our agent for supplies would be the first to the time required by hand. Each washer is guranteed for five ent on our agent for supplies would be the first to the first year. They get the money, the peolocal papers as a "centre of culture be deprived of that privilege of out of repair it will be repaired for ment to allow any combination of kind of rumbling noise attracted their atbel them the "Peoples principles" what pure Democracy is, he ples" what pure Democracy is, he can't see it and will not have it. He's like the money and the poor local papers as a "centre of culture and refinement?" If there is, it will be deprived of that privilege of trading; that without the fund our Business Agent could not purchase that does not do what we claim for not only that, but to give them a bofor us goods at the favorable prices time to reorganize again and would have cost the members thousands of dollars extra. While our breth-he now is enabled to do; that it would it, will be taken back and money redisorganize our order by unseating funded. It is one of the greatest should solely be owned and operated every officer in sub, county and State inventions of the age, because it by the Government. To say it is imsaves the strength, health and beauty of woman, God's first and most valuable machine. ren would be willing to contribute WE WILL GIVE one of again to the Agency, they would not like to do so, not knowing but (40) forty cash subscribers for one year to The Cancasian. The price of SAN POLITICAL" law-makers. That the washer is $8.50. Address. with the amendments we know that THE CAUCASIAN, our trusted agent, Bro. W. A. Graham, would have the handling of the funds and that they would be BOSS REED DISAPPOINTED.

se Cleveland Did Not Appoint Him

Ex-Speeker Reed, of Maine, while being interviewed by a Washington correspondent a few days since, said: love the sweet thing just the same. funds drawn out by those who have no moral right to do so, would be place in the Cabinet because of some "I think Mr. Cleveland changed which furnish not merely the luxu-Subscribe to The Caucasian $1.00 Why is a prudent man like a pan?

Because his head keeps him form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary. That our Business A continuous form larger if necessary and so if they had been there, tracts which he had made with man-THE POWERS OF GOVERNMENT. ufacturers and others, and could con-

BY EDWARD BELLAMY, AUTHOR OF tinue to give us wholesale prices on "LOOKING BACKWARDS."

A subscriber writing us in regard to the petition for government ownerwhich our people have had to purship of the telegraph and telephone chase have been reduced to the lowsays. "The only objection to governest possible rate, by our Business ment control is that it tends to increase the powers of the government, cheerful companion. which is undemocratic.' PROPOSITIONS, THEY THOUGHT IT prices at which he could purchase

Here seems to be a confusion of terms, growing evidently out of a con-

for our people. This not only kept fusion of thought. thousands of farmers and others Looking up the definition upon the market price of goods, by democracy as given by Webster, we find it to be "Goverment by the peo- Judith must have a contempt for him. dollars have been saved to the people EDITOR CAUCASIAN, DEAR BROTH- of North Carolina since the Business ple;—a form of government in which the supreme power is in the hands 9th, you have an editorial in which capital as a backing. On guanos of the peeple." According to this you seem to blame Senator Atwater alone, there is no doubt but that definition, the correctness of which for agreeing to the amendments to there has been saved by the reduction will not be questioned, any policy while she righted things as best she could. tending to enlarge the powers of the ported by the Senate Committee fa- million of dollars since the Agency people in government is democratic and any policy tending to restrict the power of the people is undemocratic. Is then the proposition of government ownership of the teleto the committee through our at which he purchases for our brethren. graph, a measure for restricting or the arms of Judith, who appeared to be all enlarging the powers of the people in government? Very obvisously it is a proposition for enlarging the stood erect, and put up her hand to her them in direct control of the facili-House and Senate had agreed pre- since the bill for repeal passed the ties of communication? What, ever viously in caucus, unanimously, (so House, and the more I think about then, in the name of common sense, "Dick, your cousin, Philip Boughton," I have heard) to repeal the charter of it, the more I am impressed with the does our correspondent mean by callthe Alliance and to issue a new one great damage that would have re- ing the proposition "undemocra-

We might leave the matter here, but it may be profitable in a spirit of to do; to repeal our charter and in N. C. that equals this one of our candor to seek after the explanation something like Judith's seen in a spoon, cerned, and that before the Senate atrocity Let us be thankful that understanding of terms into which had acted on the bill for repeal as the damage is not greater. Let us our correspondent has fallen. Obvisent from the House. As I said do nothing rashly, but let each mem- ously it arises from a loose and indeknow what to do, but the conspira- matters, and determine to stand to- There are two contrasted kinds of tors (those who had in caucuses gether through weal or woe, more government which are as opposite as ton between its cars. planned for repeal of charter) were closely than ever. Be careful not to light and darkness and everything on hand demanding their "pound of break any of the laws enacted, but that is true of one kind of governflesh." These conspirators, (headed stand firm for truth and right, and ment is false as regards the other. by a man who claimed to be an Alli- when opportunity is given let us The one sort is the government of Do you like hunting? anceman, but who was a traitor so drive from power those who would men by other men, and the other is deprayed, that Judas Iscariot and take away our vested rights as the self-government. The one is royal, the power of a democratic govern- seem to bore your sister.
"Nothing bores Judy," Master Dick as W. S. BARNES. ment, on the other hand, is neces- sured him in the same sarily and always, by the very We heartily concur in what Brothmeaning of the terms, a democratic

W. H. WORTH. best,"he necessarily had in mind the only forms of government of which the world at that date had had any experience, namely the royal and aristocratic forms, and as applied to them the saying was quite true. It requires no argument to prove that ABOR, TIME AND MONEY SAVED---IT the less men are tyrannized over by selfish despots the better.

When however the people govern themselves for their own interests, to a sewing machine? yes, you could say that the less governing they do even higher than their churches, for to say: "If I could buy all the cot- Our attorneys saw Mr. Atwater at not do without it. Have you a the better, is equivalent to declaring We were measured only last June." that the less attention people give to their own affairs the more prosperous suggested Boughton, quite unmoved. bending your back and drudging and ther will be.

We beg our correspondent and all "You've got her in a perfect temper, Cousin ment, to bear in mind that the question is not whether they shall complex and elaborate system which face had grown quite pale. requires a deal of governing. It has got to be governed by somebody and will be governed in the interest of those who are allowed to govern it. At present it is being governed by a set of moneyed oligarchs, who are fast reducing the people to the condition of "hewers of wood and drawers of water." Shall this system continue or shall we overthrow our ber tantrums. tyrants and establish in industry as well as in politics a government of the people, for the people, by the

Could anything be more democratic

AN EX-SUPREME COURT JUDGE A PRO-

"I will admit that I am a thorough radical." said Judge C. C. Cole, of Des moines, ex-chief justice of the thing for granted with this young lady. lowa supreme court to a reporter at especially when there were little sparks of the Riggs House, "and that is why It can be used by a person in delicate I quit the Republican party and health, no bending of back. It is stumped Iowa, Nebraska. Kansas, made of solid brass, covered with and the Dakotas for Gen. Weaver in nickel and will not rust. It wash- the last campaign. If I had my Dick was to stop over until Monday, and that does not do what we claim for not only that, but to give them a bonus for robbing the people?

practicable is really no answer since the feasibility is clearly shown by the successful way the Government conducts the postal system. Express these and telegraph companies should also washers to any lady who will get us be wiped out and their business carried on by the Government in the interest of the people. You may call me a reformer of the most radical type, but sooner or later all these changes are going to be made. Why, Goldsboro, N. C. in Des Moines, where I live and practice law, I am one of the most popular men, simply because I advocate that the city own its own water works, gas plants and street railroad. as a plowshare. He was coming nearer, too. They could see his little red eyes dis-My people are beginning to see that my views are right in these matters. and that something must be done to protect society against the organized avarice and spoliation of corporations

IS IT -UNDEMOCRATIC TO INCREASE MY LADY'S TONGUE.

CHAPTER III. AN EVENTFUL WALK. Boughton was a good deal impressed, at he same time that he was provoked at being shown up in all his flagrant ignorance of the ills that horse flesh is heir to. They had a tiresome walk the rest of the way, for Judith would not remount Eyebrows, and poor Trumpeter, emulating his name, behind them, was any thing but a How Phil did wish that he had been able to spring from the foundered horse, all the time baving a full cognizance of what ailed him-have whipped out his whisky, all without a word from Judith. And how he fumed over that idiotic speech And, to tell the truth, she did. Her eyes were still a good deal more red

That night, as he came into the drawingroom, just before dinner, he found Judith in the arms of a slim young man in a very As Boughton came in, however, she powers of the people, by placing curls, which were a good deal rumpled. Her eyes were brown as rain-washed > the slim young man's hand "Er-glad to see you-er, just from Parist Cold here, isn't it!" said the boy, grant a new one as far as it was con- traitorous brethren in villainous of the certainly very complete mis- and the same red-brown curls. His eyes,

He did not laugh, neither did Judith. She scratched the chin of the black kitten in the out hunting. Deuce of a time you had, Judy here tells me. Horse foundered. Awful nuisance, having one's horse foundered. "I haven't done much of it," said Philip,

Benedict Arnold were saints in comparison,) concocted, (with the aid of methods of co-operation as is allowed republican, democratic, popular. of the girl's mouth, as she went on cossetpower of the people. To increase "Oh, does it!" said Boughton. "It doesn't seem to bore your sister."

When Thomas Jefferson said "the inghis eyes to open themselves, as it were, government which governs least is in despite of his own will, while Judith looked a great deal astonished.

"Why, as you stand there together, I'm quite sure she's a good inch taller," said Boughton, calmly, with one hand in his pocket and the other meditatively at his moustache. "Yes, a good inch, I should say," he repeated. Dick flushed, but Judith grew positively scarlet. The intense blush seemed to spread into her very eyes, and they reddened omthe small, still voice which is generally sup-Richard is a half inch taller than myself,

"Not in grace, eh, Judy?" put in the boy, good-naturedly coming to the rescue.

"How can you speak so, Dick!" cried Jumisuse of this maxim about govern- ki ten, which fell with a furry bounce upon He has shown his willingness by be more or less governed but who went away. And, besides, you know very well that you are a half inch taller than I a country, commercial and industrial, ing in the delight of taking the superior upon which we all depend tenfold pose in his turn. "Here's a good book to All the blush was in her eyes now. Her

"You are insulting," she said. This was a great deal more than Boughton had expected. He stood staring after opened it blankly and looked in it as if for an explanation. It was a volume of Miss Hannah More's private devotions, and se he closed it and replaced it on the little ta

"Don't you mind her," said Dick, easily. This seemed in truth to be the case. She

"How cross do you think I am?" she said, leaning toward him, and making a cushion elbows being on the table "I am afraid I was very provoking," he

She said nothing, but went on smiling, s known this; the smile she bestowed upon him was so enchanting that he did not look

Boughton neither transfixed the infuriate tention. Dick was the first to look back. "Good heavens! Judy," said he, "it's Prid-"Is it?" said Judith, losing color for an eyes. "Yes, it is, and not a fence within two hundred yards. Oh! what are we to ing himself and feeling an abomi clutch in the hollow between his ribs, "run as hard as you can, while Dick and I— Why, where is Dick!" he said, blankly. "I'm-going-for-Priddie!" came back in broken bits over the shoulder of the flying youth. "He can—manage—him!"

Boughton said nothing. He turned again to Judith. "That's all right. Run, now, as stones until Priddie comes."

"And leave you here for that brute to gore and trample?" said Judith, bristling in moment. "I see myself!" she added, with All this time the bull was making a tremendous tow row, and using one of his horns giving her not a gentle push.

"Well, I will," she said, sudd

She lifted her walking skirt, and quick gesture slipped of the red be petticoat which she wore underneath

He gave a dragging But the brute ; mat a great now and then !

weak-kneed, and so ugly left horn of Away went th direction of the between it and he red petticest, as awhile to tosa red clay

Boughton had bad no time f Hascemed to so naugled in the sa skirt, hr those thank Heaven! that she rew by rolled over into Then, for the seif and the but lowing like a boy.

xuct reproduction He took her hand way, up which th oosening avalanche everal times before Once there, Jud making a little hollow which she thrust her ing from head to for wrenching with a which went to Bought calm heart. He leaned over and as she lay, and then away or remonstrate curls. Something in living clasp upon his I his veins strangely. "Judith," he said, not himself quite "Judith," and then " That aroused Jud

"There comes Pri

n; and then added, with

DEMOCRATIC OFFICE SEE the Fodder.

It seems that a few di delegation of hungry who did a lot of shouti late campaign, called of Carlisle to get appointed position in the light hou

We make the following his written reply: "In reply, I beg leave you that the positions Geen and Burger apply cant, and no cause for

of the resent incumbent No light-keeper will b by me in his official p because of his political

"Look upon that p upon this picture. A took Jefferson to Washin hitched to a post. Mi went in a mahogany thedral panenls, curtain enough for the Sultan of prince of the Punjaub."