

By WALTER H. M'DOUCALL

[Copyright, 1892, by Cassell Publishing com-pany, and published by special arrangement with them.] [CONTINUED.]

He discovered that he overlooked the great estufa.

When they reached Listah's chosen retreat, after threading the maze of the many devious passages, the priest counseled Eric to take some food and lie upon his bed while he reconnoitered. So Listah left him, and he laid himself down on the rude couch. He could not sleen, of course, for his mind was too agitated.

It was now midday, as Listah had told him, and a little farther down the passage in which the old recluse had made his home there shone one slim white ray of light from above, feebly illuminating one little spot. He went to it and saw a-small opening in the wall a few feet shove his head. He stood looking directly upward along the ray of light and saw that it came through a trapdoor in the roof of an apartment above.

Placing several large stones together. he was enabled to peer through the opening, and discovered that he overlooked the great estufa, the sacred council chamber and secret room of the Kabilo. It was deserted and dark, but his eye. accustomed now to intense gloom, could discern every feature of the great room into which he had never before penetrated.

matters, who takes their maidens to the under the temple. There we can be near feet of the god because they will not Iklapel and be ready at any moment love him, who juggles with the sacred Show us the way, Listah!" dice and with such solemn mien tricks. They followed the old man, who held the simple worshipers. Ah, they will a candle aloft, and after a journey of reliss learning how they have been de-perhaps a half hour came to a stop before an apparently solid wall of large ceived!" Chalma stood thunderstruck; such ef- stones. Eric recognized the great slab frontery he knew, of course, was backed in the center as a door similar to the by knowledge of his evil ways, one Iklapel had opened when they had "There is a person," Tepeipee went on, inspected the treasure vault." "who knows it all and has the proofs. I They passed through and along the

If I disappear he is instructed to pub- passage again until they came upon the managed. But, old friend, you must lish the truth immediately. So, my treasure house of Atzlan, filled to overtake some rest, for you will need your father, when you kill me you merely flowing with the accumulated wealth of strength tomorrow. It is now late." pull the whole edifice of fraud down dead, forgotten nations. Even old Listah upon your wise head. You will not be host his stoical reserve and burst into asso foolish. No, you will cherish Tepel- tonished exclamations, while Jan-ila pec as your hid and assistant, who can walked around among the various anhelp you well. You need a faithful, cient, almost priceless relics with open trustworthy accomplice in the game you eyed and open month i wonder. It are playing, for you cannot carry things | was truly a remarkable spectacle. More with such a high hand against the peo- wealth in gold and silver lay there un-

ple as you did against Quetzal-they are guarded, unbeeded, than the banks of too many. Iklapel and Kulcan have the entire world could command. Its many friends-they will not all believe introduction into the commerce of the so readily our story that we saw Quetzal United States would revolutionize all go up the cliff and disappear. They will the markets on earth! Half-yes, onesuspect you perhaps, and you need help | eighth-of it was a colossal fortune; the to deceive them. wealth that Pizarro, Cortez and their

Eric gould see that Chalpa was con- followers ravished from Peru and Mexfounded. Full of vexation, he hung be- | ico was equaled and surpassed by this tween his wrath and his fear, for awhile, treasure, Then, assuming an air of upconcern, he "It is the treasure of the gods," said exclaimed: Listah finally. "It belongs to them-"So, friend, you play the spy upon mel, yes, and it belongs to Quetzal!" Well, so be it; know then that I will," "It is not for us at my rate," rejoined stick at nothing to win the place and Jan-ila. "I would not know what to do power I covet. You can help me, and with it if I had it." you shall be repaid. Let us now hasten, "Nor I," Listah replied, "but Quetzal for tomorrow is the day that will make knows, 1 would wager, and many won-or mar our fortunes."

pa's face.

vex us!"

derfal things he could make for us. For "Everything is ready and awaiting me one good ax, or knife of his wondrous, only your orders. Kulcan, lklapel and new metal that he calls iron is worth Jan-ila are confined, as you commanded. all this great pile," in separate rooms in the temple. The There was a strong fascination in the old man is obdurate; he swears we have hoard to Eric. He felt a sort of miserly killed Quetzal, but Kulcan may yet greed creep over him as his eyes roved yield to save his precious life." over the mass; the old vases full of gold The cruel, hungry smile crossed Chal: dust, strangely shaped utensils and furniture, meaningless trappings of all

"He will not save it even then, the sorts, shapes and sizes aronsed his anticoward! I sm sorry I did not place him quarian interest and his cupidity at the beside the false Quetzal; they would lie same time, for there were fortunes in beneath the water together and cease to single objects lying there upon the tiled pavement; relics of the prehistoric past "The maiden is at the house of her that nations would vie with one another grandmother, old Intzu, whom I have to secure-not for their intrinsic value commanded to prepare her for her fate. alone, but for their ethnological interest. She is haughty and will not speak to me. A great golden calendar, a circular I visited her but now, but I saw her not, disk, with strange obsolete characters Still she is well guarded by men armed all over its surface, lay against the wall. with Quetzal's axes. We can thank him What a prize for a museum! And he for that blessing." noticed several figures of animals, well

"I will talk with her," said Chalpa, modeled in gold, and among them stood his eyes lighting with a steely glitter in a regal elephant with greatly curved the gloom. "She will listen to me! tusks. He looked sharply at it, and as Hark! What was that?" he stared he realized that it was a model It was a slight noise that made both in miniature of the extinct mammoth! start, caused by Listah, who, returning "There are pictures of them in the along the passage, stumbled over a sacred books," said Jan-ila when Eric stone. He stopped at once, seeing Eric's had pointed out this wonder, "for I have upraised finger, and stood motionless.

nized Erse, and grasping his hand cried: THE LOVE OF MONEY. "Ah, ray brother! It gives me strength and hope to see you, although I knew you were safe."

yield nothing to Chalps, and I think we are going to come out victors even more easily than you expect. Chalps is the one man we need bother about. When he is out of the way the rest may be

"Yes, it grows late: but, see, the peo-

"All the better, I can pass among

"It is a dangerous errand," said fk-

"Not very. Even were I recognized 1 carry many lives in my hand, Iklapel.

and they know it. But go to bed and

He went down the broad, graded de-them unnoticed, for I am going to Lela ple crowd outdoors: they will not go to their beds; they cannot sleep."

to send her to Kulcan."

sleep, for we are safe."

lapel.

within?"

her at once."

height.

face was strange to her and dark.

wife and friend or Chalpa's slave?"

his bidding and no other's."

victim, the sacrifice to the god!"

"Why, what mean you?" she

REV. THOMAS DIXON'S SECOND SER-"Yes, sufe, dear triend, and we will MON ON MONEY AND CHRISTIANITY. crush this rattlesnake, Chalps, forever ere tomorrow's sun sets. I am going to send word to Kulcan to be firm and

It is Not Money, but the Undue Love of it. Which is the Great Evil-Heartless Proverbs of Hard Hearted Money Sochers. Marders In Trade.

CAPE CHARLES, Va., July 9.-Rev. proprietors of the hotel on the island have arranged a schedule of three boats don't think any man would stop me: I nia."

It is not a sin to be rich if our riches are righteously obtained. And yet a thousand dangers beset the man who sets out with the determination to be scent and reached the ground unob- rich. It is easier for a camel to go served. There was nobody near the tem- through the eye of a needle than for a ple: the priests were busy preparing for rich man to enter the kingdom of heavthe festival on the morrow or about to en. He is almost sure to reach the crisis seek rest. Farther on the people sat in in his experience when he will say. groups about their doors or upon the "Soul, take thine ease; I have much lower range of roofs. Those among goods laid up for thee in store." and enter whom he passed glanced at him, but upon a downward course from that mo-Jan-ila's blanket was close up about his ment. The determination to get rich at ears, and they did not recognize him. He all hazards may be termed a modern disreached Lela's door and saw that a light ease. It is a money mania. It is the evil burned within; he halted, at a loss how eye of the closing days of this century. to summon Bari forth, but at that mo- It has thrown its spell over millions. ment Eltza, now a large girl, came from is a disease which sweeps before it the the spring with a jar of water upon her whole nature of man, that lays waste head, and was about to enter the house not only the fairest hearts and what when he stopped her. "Maiden, is Bari, the wife of Listah, waste what might be the gardens of the nations. It is this modern disease of the

"Yes," she answered, looking sharply evil eye of haste for riches that is one of at him, but not knowing him, for his the most withering curses of our age. First-It denies and abrogates the par-"Tell her, child, that one is here with amount law of industry. In the sweat message from Listah, who would see of man's brow shall he eat bread, decreed the eternal God, echoed the eternal She went in, and in a moment old Bari nature. And yet men in modern times came out. There was a pale crescent have said that they will do nothing of moon low in the sky, and its light fell the sort. They will eat bread without upon her face as she looked at him with | labor. They will eat bread by trick, by a frightened gaze. He held up a warn- chicanery, by overreaching; by swin-"Bari, do not speak; I come from Lis- dustry brings us face to face with the tah to ask you whether you are still his submerged millions in the industrial world, with the countless thousands and claimed. "I saw my husband today; he brend, who are caught in the vicious un-"But you guard Lela, who is Chalpa's "Aye, but Listah did not forbid me.

The devil take care of the bal-CORNER IN CROWNS

I do not know what a man who makes this principle the ruling one of his life will do if he ever gets to heaven. They say that some of these men who live money, who think money, who breathe money, are going to heaven. Their names are on the church books. they will do when they get there I cannot understand. Sam Jones declares that if some of them get there the bal-Thomas Dixon, Jr., preached on Cobb's ance of the people will have to sleep island today the second sermon in the with their pocketbooks under their pil series on the question of money and its low. I am not sure but that he is right. relation to the gospel of Christ. The How a man who has spent his life in the supreme effort to create a corner in various commodities and prey on the neceson Sundays to convey the people from sities of his fellow men, how he can enthe mainland to the island to attend the ter the kingdom of Jesus Christ and be services. The text chosen for the dis- comfortable is more than I can undercourse today was the proverb, "He that stand, even with Christ who is love and hath an evil eye hasteth after riches." the peace and righteonsness. His life means specific subject being the "Money Ma- a corner. It means to get his neighbors at a disadvantage and to prey on his necessities. He lives in corners, he thinks in corners, he moves in corners. When he dies, he will die in a corner, and if he ever gets to heaven he will sit down in a corner, and there will be a corner in crowns within 34 hours after he gets there if they turn him loose.

It is very easy to say that this is a su-perficial view of the modern methods of the commercial world and is based upon impractical education and impossible ideals. It is very easy to may that the person is talking, and he does not know what he is talking about. Again I re- him limb from limb. Such a life is the. peat, any hen can lay an egg. While cannot perform that feat, I am a better judge of eggs than any hen in the world. Moral judgment is not dependent upon any intimate knowledge of technicali-Great moral truths are so simple might be the fairest homes, but that lays that a wayfaring man, though a fool need not err therein. A lie is a lie. Theft is theft. Gambling is gambling. A spade is a spade. And that is all there is to it

TEN MILLION DOLLARS. Fifth-It is this mania that reduces life to the standard of a miserable commercial dividend. Men afflicted with this disease refuse to enter upon any work that does not pay in a commercial sense. The first question they ask is, Will it pay? I ask a man to give money to save the heathen. He says: Will it pay? Does it pay? | ing finger as he stooped to hide his dling, by cheating, by humbug. This ask him how. "Well," he says, "how abrogation of the paramount law of in. much money did you spend on the heathen last year?" I tell him $10,000,000. "How many did you save?" I tell him so many thousands. He says: "It don't pay hundreds of thousands who cry for They cost too much. They come too high. They are not worth it. Too much need send me no such message. 1 do dertow of this angry sea of human ava- money a head." This is the man who rice and are dragged to the bottom of the refuses to subscribe money to buy the deepest sea of human misery. In the new hearse, because he said he never mildest developments of this mania it is had suy use for the old one, and he gave it." simply gambling, and its necessary cor- $10 for that. The idea of a commercial

CALEBRAT & CHILDRE pearest hmb. MARTIAL WAR In martial war soldiers are kind to one nother, even to enemies. There was a picture on exhibition in the National as mercury will Academy of Design last year which rep- sense of smell resented a scene on the field of battle be- range the whole tween the northern and southern armies. ing it through t The Confederate soldier in his gray uni- Such articles form lay wounded nigh unto death with except on preser his broken arm folded under his body ble physicians, and the broken leg that made it impassi- will do is ten for ble for him to move. He was crying for can possibly dewater. Near by was a wounded Federal Catarrh Cure ma soldier in blue uniform. He was strick. Cheney & Co. en to the earth with a terrible wound, but no mercury, and he was crawling over the rough round acting directly extending his canteen in his strong arm mncous surface. as far as possible toward his wounded buying Hall's enemy. A little child wandered be you get the gen tween the two lines of battle in the late ternally, and me war. Instantly both lines ceased firing by F. J. Cheney a at the sight of that little bit of white free. Is Sold clothing." Two men stepped forward 75c. per bottle from either of the ranks and seized the little one and led the child back to the DO YOU WANT ING mother in her cottage. And after the child was safe they returned to their We will send ranks, and again the awful volleys of lead CAUCASIAN and an began their deadly work. In martial war men do not kill women and children. They do not kill a wounded enemy. Even a Turk will not fire on a hospital. But in this modern war for money maniacs fight. Madmen do battle. They kill women and children withont mercy, and a wounded friend is the supreme opportunity of the crisis of battle. They spring on his body and tear abrogation of civilization, the denial of love, the denial of the basis of Christianity itself. No Christian civilization can exist while these forces are dominant.

Remarks on a Recent Invention. Mr. Louis Gross of Philadelphia shouls be investigated. He is too smart by half, or he is a fearful liar, which is worse. Mr: Gross claims that he has invented a hand-me-down egg., and right here this machine made business should stop. Man is a creature of environment, and if something is not done a fearful catastrophe may befall humanity." Today man their letters. Get stands surrounded by wooden nutmegs, sawdust, flour, and, steer, butter. He wears false teeth, glass eyes, wigs, wood-en legs, cork hands and padded coats, while his wife wears crinoline that is full of guile at 60 cents a yard. The fabric of society is frail and full of deceit, and man is rapidly adjusting himself to his surroundings. The advent of the tailor made egg fills the last niche in the circle of deception that surrounds bewildered humanity. If this is not checked, very soon there will be "no joy nor beauty nor loveliness" that "continueth in man.

stealing our letters containing ey. The thing has gone one are compelled to give notices sending us money end money orders, or else as possible, and pense. This

Postmasters are the circulation of papers for the an

People's Party Part

Iowa Farmers' T-

National Watchman

send you two papers

For the above sm

Addr

IN ORTANT TO OUR SUBSON

It really seems the Postal (

THE CASE

Dakota Ruralist

ing it, we will very careful somebody is get caught. Look out

BEWARE OF OINTNESS

CATARRH THAT O

MERC

L. J. MERRIMAN & CO.

Clains, Oysters, &c.

SHOE

TEADEP

Quick Sales and Prompt h

may25-3ms-2p.

mayl1-5ms

All will be "vanity and vexation of spir-Next Session Opens Sept. 4 Enrollment

It was arranged like an amphitheater. with a capacity of perhaps two hundred people. In the center stood the hideous image of Chalcu, the god to whom the fearful human sacrifices were devoted. Barbaric and rude, misshapen and ugly as it was, the image awoke from its terrible import a thrill of momentary awe been given to this ancient idol; how ages of his dread reign?

The image had been he could see, newly painted, and the gold and silver upon it polished until is glowed in the were turned toward him and seemed was lessened by the row of ancient but sense of security, and he would be his very precious sea shells that formed the teeth of this terror of Atzlan. They made its smile more terrible to its votaries god's dignity to grotesqueness. This Listah. When he had concluded the element of the grotesque grew upon latter said; him as he gazed at it standing there, solemnly, like a Mardi Gras selic, a monument to the folly and the debasement of man.

"As he looked the light grew dim and faded suddenly. A figure came down it. But there is a strong party in favor the ladder; then another, and he saw weazened, pockmarked villain, standing before him by the side of the idol.

Chalpa .examined it carefully and remarked:

"He is dry now. We can take him ont and set him on his pedestal at once.

"He is delighted at the prospect," re-

"Ha!" ejaculated Chalpa. "Fifty-two feast. It should occur every twenty years. But he will feast well and nobly! Is everything prepared?"

"Everything, although the victim is far from feeling disposed to go willingly. She will not drink the sacred aitsi. and I fear that she will make us trouble to the last "

"Perhaps;" replied Chalpa with a grin full of triumph and hate. "But go she shall; quietly if she will, or in our tender hands if she is unruly. And the people -are they quiet, think you?"

"Too quiet; I fear there is a strong undercurrent of feeling against this sacrifice which only needs stirring to him along the passage, but slowly. The become an open protest. They seem to old man, accustomed to the dark ways, think that you have taken some unfair could move rapidly, and he soon vanha superior.

"Chalps started and glared at his assistant:

"What do you mean? Do you dare to say"- He hesitated.

"I speak to no one," answered Tepel-Chalpa and Tepelpec, like two alarmed men spearing them and being trampled rats, peered in every direction in silence under feet by these same monsters." for awhile. Then Tepelpec said: They lost no more time, but started at

"It was nothing-a loose stone per- once for the chamber under the temple, haps." They noiselessly ascended the for Eric remembered well the way now, ladder and disappeared. and they reached it in a few minutes. All the while Eric's hand had been on Noiselessly they entered it, and the two his weapon, but he was loath to kill priests reverently, for both had been even in his bosom. How many lives had them in cold blood, although he had there before on solemn occasions. This fully determined to slaughter Cir 'pa as room held the ark of the Atzlan faith, many fair throats had poured forth their he would a rattlesnake or a rabid dog Quetzalcoatl's vessel, and it was a sacred virgin blood upon its altars in the long simply to rid the earth of a vicious and apartment, into which none but priests dangerous animal. It had become sim- ever ventured. Listah extinguished the ply a question of self defense, and al- candle as soon as they were fairly in the though he had been long in arriving at cellarlike chamber. A few narrow shafts such a decision he was resolved to carry of light shot through the crevices, but darkness with a semblance of life. Two it out. In this he was justified, inas they could see that the light was dim immense emeralds were its eyes. They much as Chalpa had twice attempted and that darkness was rapidly approachhis life, and would certainly kill him if ing. They heard footsteps upon the full of dark fire, as though the god saw he had another opportunity. He could light flooring above, but they ceased a him spying there. The effect of dignity not invoke the law in Atzlan with any moment later.

They waited a full hour in deep siown law and rid the city of a base lence and almost complete darkness; scoundrel. then Eric reached out and touching When the two had gone he stepped Jan-ila upon the shoulder drew him perhabs, but to Eric they reduced the down and related their conversation to close and whispered:

"You go up the ladder and lift the trapdoor silently and carefully. If no "Tepelpec is right-there is much ob- one is in sight, slip out into the room jection to the sacrifice. People are say and then outdoors to find Iklapel. If ing it is time to abolish it. They say he is there, call him softly and tell him that Quetzal was averse to it, and they we are here, ready to act. Be very believe he will return in time to prevent careful, my boy, and don't get nervous." Without answering Jan-ila quickly of it too. They seem about divided, mounted the ladder, and after a mo-Chalpa and his assistant, Tepelpec, a Some fear Chalpa and side with him." ment's pause cautiously and almost im-"Did you see Iklapel?" perceptibly opened the trapdoor. They

"Yes," replied Listah. "He is guarded saw him disappear through it, and it by my nephew Aza, and he permitted, was closed softly.

me to speak to the high priest. He was An hour elapsed, and then Eric went filled with sorrow, for he thought you up, and lifting the trapdoor peered out. dead. He did not believe that you had A dark form, and one which he did not How handsome he books in his new left us, as Chalpa has said, but he feared recognize, sat in the doorway motionthat you were murdered. When I told less. Its back was toward him. He him you were here he almost wept for raised the door higher; he could see nojoined Tepelpec. "I'll wager no Katun joy. He brightened up and appeared body in the room. While he stood there feast was ever graced by such a beanty years younger. He has told me how to wondering, looking upward he saw the as Lela. The god looks hungry, too, get to the vault under the temple by the opening in the floor above fill up with a secret door which you know, he says, dark object, and he quickly closed the and we are to go there and be ready to trapdoor and held his head close under it years of fasting would make even Chalcu rescue Lela tomorrow noon. He thinks to listen. Not a sound reached him, but it wise to wait until then."..... after a long interval he felt the door "Did you see Lela?" asked Eric, his move. He drew away from it and depatience giving way entirely. In this to scended the ladder. A pair of legs ap-"No; she is with her grandmother. peared, and then the form of Jan-ila, But Bari, my wife, is one of the weavers whe closed the door after him. He had and is allowed to see her; you can send caused no more noise than a serpent in her a message and comfort her." all this time. Grasping Eric's hand he. "Let us do so at once," cried Eric. whispered: "She must be told, for that her heart is "Iklapel was upon the roof, and I went breaking I know too well. Go to her to him; I could have escaped down the and tell her all. Give her this knife and outside pathway, but 1 wished to return tell her to use it upon Chalpa if he beto you, for you will need me. Aza the comes too dangerous, but also tall her to Sleepy One guards Iklapel; Kulcan is be cantious and keep our secret well. confined in Chalpa's house, and Iklapel Go quickly; I will await here patiently." fears that they will prevail upon him to Listah turned off, Gilbert following side with Chalpa after all. The people are greatly excited and ready for almost anything. Kulcan's attitude will influadvantage of the girl." As Tepelpec ished. In less than thirty minotes he inform him of your safety. Aza could be influenced, I believe, to come over to "She is happy," he said. "Chalpa has us and carry word to Kulcan, for hebeen there, but she taunted and defied him, and he feared to touch her because Kulcan-will never weaken if he knows you are alive. What thinks my wise the people would know of it and be shocked. She is now sacred in their master?"

"Nothing, father, nothing, only-I eyes. Jan-ila has been released, for they can's weakness and shared Iklapel's have heard a word or two now and then think him not dangerous, I suppose, and fear, yet he dared not depend upon Aza, he will be here soon with food and your s tool of Chalpa's, and one who might "By Chalcu, I would like to hear such long thunder tube, if he can bring it betray them. He knew that the elea word! The lips that uttered it would without detection. Everybody is busy ment of surprise would be the greatest utter no more lies. And remember, keep preparing for tomorrow, and perhaps he factor in the next day's work, and he watch over your own tongue lest it slip will not be observed. We must meet desired most of all that Chalpa shouldhim. Follow me." They walked down the crypt until the last moment. Many plane came pec, "but to you. From you, I think, I they came to a spot where there was an to him. At first the thought of sendpec, "but to you. From you, I think, I need conceal nothing. We, I hope, un-deratand one another. I know that you have long desired to be revenged upon the girl, and that you would hesitate at above it was easy to pass into another. weak presented themselves, were dis-"Here comes Jan-ila at last," said missed, and then he thought of Lela. Eric as the youth began to descend the He rapidly scanned his chances of getladder from the room above. He car- ting to her. Jan-ila informed him that ried with much difficulty a huge bundle she was in charge of several old women, of firewood-light branches, such as the chief among them being old Bari, were used as fuel for the temple. When he reached the foot of the ladder he fell cied he could obtain access to his beon his knees and embraced Eric's legs, trothed. The plan perfected, the next with many protestations of joy. thing was to act." "I did not believe you dead, my mas- After unfolding his scheme to the othter. I knew you would return. I have ers he exchanged garments with Jan-fla brought the rifle and the cartridge belt; and rubbed earth upon his face to darken now we can rescue Iklapel and Kulcan. his "complexion;" and buckling his rebrought the rifle and the cartridge belt; now we can rescue Iklapel and Kulcan. There are many who are with yon. Chal-pa is feared more than he is loved, and when they see you many will desert him. Let us hurry!" "Hasten slowly, my lad. We will wait as noiselessly climbed the next ladder. elings bespeak thee an idiot! I have a for the proper moment; then with due There were three stories to the temple. mind to kill you now at Chalcu's feet!" effect and the pomp of our surroundings each with its ladder, which creaked un-Tepelpec's eyes and tongue were pro-truding when Chalpa cast him loose, will not rise again." the top, at the sacred space wherein stood "See," said Jan-ila, breaking into his the temple, he saw Iklapel standing mo-"Kill me, Chalpa," he cried, "aye, and in one hour the people will know how you swindled (them! They will see the and candles." crafty Chalps in a new light, as one who "That's more to the point, for I am not until Eric laid a hand upon his seeks his private ends in their public nearly starved," answered his master. shoulder. Then he started, for he recog- band.

and it is my duty ollaries are hard times, panics and the "But, think you, would Quetzal like periodical disturbances of the industrial to see you preparing his bride for death?" world which result in thousands of

"He has gone and left her-his she wrecks. was, and he will protect her. I do no wrong in thinking it."

COTTAGE BY THE SEA. Second-It leads to a thousand crimes, "Yes; he will protect her, and you The desire and the determination to get. shall help him," he said, standing up be- rich, and that shortly, is the power that fore her and revealing his face. "Do leads the man intrusted with money to not start-I am Quetzal. I have re- risk that money in questionable transacturned, but it must not be known until tions. It is this haste to be rich that tomerrow. This you must do. Tell her sketches for your cashier and your merprivately that she must ask Chalps to chant and your bank officer the wild permit her to have one last conversation dreams of luxury which lead at last to an with Kulean before she dies. She must outer act of criminality. The cashier from go to Chalpa's house, where her brother his deak dreams of a palace, of horses and is confined, and tell him 1 am here and carriages, and the cottage by the sea, a will smite the rattlesnake tomorrow. magnificent mansion in the city. Tell him to yield not, nor be discour- not willing to obtain his money by the aged, for he will be safe. slow process of work. He believes that

"Kulcan is not at Chalpa's house," he can stake a certain sum and win; with said Bari. "The priest has taken him the turn of the wheel of fortune can be to your dwelling, out beyond the city, and is with him there, for he says he money, and the result is crime. These will occupy that house himself here- crimes are but simply eccentric and æsthetic developments of the older crimes

"The deuce he has!" ejaculated Eric. against person founded on the same prin-"That is cool! Very well, she must go ciple. there at once. Some of your women can

A highwayman is a highwayman be attend her, of course, and conduct her cause he determines to be rich suddenly home on her return. But there is no The burglar is a burglar because he de time to waste: she must go immediate- sires to get rich in a night. And the murly; hasten now, but be cautious." y: hasten now, but be cautions," Before she could reach the door it because he desires to be rich immediate opened, and Lela came forth. Going ly. Highway robbery, burglary, murstraight to Eric, she threw her arms der for money, are the originial brutal about his neck and said: elements out of which the more sesthetic

"My own! Something told me you modern developments of hasty riches were here. Blessed, true heart, to come have sprung. It is this mania that leads to me when I needed you so!". to a thousand crimes today against soci-He kissed her many times, hushing ety. The dive, the gambling den, the her voice thus, and then said; saloon, the brothel; have as their funda. "You must go back at once. If you mental inspiration the desire for sudden are seen here it will ruin all: - Bari will riches. There are individual idiosyncratell you for what I came, and tomorrow cies that develop them, but there are all the trouble will be ended. Have pa- thousands of lives drawn to this whirltience and coursge, my darling. Go into pool of vice and crime by the attractive dance of things that a man may possess. power of the evil eye of money. "A man She obeyed silently. With one long believes that he can become rich rapidly fond look she entered the house. Old by keeping a saloon. He is willing to Bari followed her and closed the door [TO BE CONTINUED.]. suddenly acquire a great fortune.

THE BEST MAN Story of a Jealous Office Seeker. Third-This mania as it grows in men

A story is related of a French official who was possessed of a very pretty wife and a particularly jealous temperament. This official had frequently applied without success for a certain post. At length thing, He esteems that to be his treas y a was here; that you was the greatest his wife proposed to interview the chief use of life. Where a man's treasure is doctor in, the world. He said that you, in person and see if she could obtain for there will his heart be also. It will hard could cure him and make him like the her husband what he had failed to pro- en and make mean the poor man who is other boys. I told him he had no money ambition and jealousy. At last he de-vised a safe course. "Yes, my dear, you was killed in battle. The old man after. The doctor; moved by his simple faith, say, did not proceed with the interview that he could not get a man anywhere in tion, and at the end of that time he was upon these terms. It was afterward the country to do as much work on the romping in the fields strong and well having reached the chief's ears, he good naturedly appointed the careful husband Ao old man who had emphasized this to the post .-- London Truth. thought in his life above all others went .

The Prayer of a Paritan.

dividend applied to life invariably reduces it to an absurdity.

death. A workingman left his anvil and with his "false, fleeting; perjured" eggs, watched by the bedside of his dying what can a self respecting hen do but wife. She was a little, withered, tired woman, her face pinched and wan and overwrought with long years of toil. He the marts of trade to compete with pauwas a great, broad shouldered, strong limbed, muscular giant. He gave days and weeks and months to the tenderest ministry of love by her bedside. He lost his position, his place in the ranks of a difficult trade in which to maintain him. self. He ran the risk of being a tramp. but he never left her bedside till the end. With streaming eyes he followed the preacher to the door and asked if there were any hope. 'He lost his wages for months. He was brought to the verge of starvation until he had to accept the starvation until he had to accept the box filled with bones that belonged to charity of strangers. It did not pay. No the kings of France. The bones are work of love pays. But shall love cease pitched, there in confusion, and every to minister to its loved one?

Children do not pay. It does not pay to have children. They are a constant expense. They add nothing to the income of the household while they are children: Yet shall chlidren cease to be born? My boy has never paid a cent He has done nothing but spend. He has been a constant expense for doctor's bills, purse's bills, clothes, shoes, hats, He asked me for 5 cents as I went out of the house last trip. He has cost me more than $1,000 in bills for doctors. He grows more and more expensive Alexandre Lenoir, his intimate friend, every day. He has never added one who was present at the exhumation in dime to my income. He has been a con- the capacity of inspector, and who pre-I take him, up into my arms, and look into his face I would not sell him for the world piled with gold to the stars. And yet he does not pay. The truth is that life does not consist in the abun-

BOUTTACI SHEAVES OF LOVE Dr. George Shrady, the great physician, left his rich patients and went on. trade in human hearts and human blood . a vacation in the mountains for absolute to accomplish that purpose. A man is rest. He left orders that he should be willing to debauch his fellow man in a called on no account; he would answer gambling hell, believing that he may no call as a physician. While resting in the hammock at the country house a of Louis XII, "the father of the people," little barefoot, ragged urchin came up to where he was lying, accompanied by France denies to the mortal remains of the hammock at the country house a emphasizes and develops all that is cen- + a grandmother. The little fellow looled tral in self. It necessarily makes a man | wistfully up at the great physician, while mean and selfish. It causes a man to en-) the grandmother explained: "I could not ter his heart's affection upon that one keep him away, doctor. He heard that have my sanction, but upon one condi-tion only-that you paint your nose a be had made a great mistake; that he rags, hastened to prescribe for him. He firmly in one's mental possession, locked, deep red." The lady, it is needless to ought to have had a substitute. He said guye him two weeks of personal atten. so to speak, in a camp drawer or cabi farm as that, boy and that he was the with the other beys. Thanksgiving day such an outline to aid memory, and the the doctor received by express a rule facile servant easily and deftly fills it box, and when opened found in it a large np with the throbbing flesh and blood of turkey, on one leg of which was tied a manners, customs, incidents and epi-A vulgar Puritan, attering a discourse which he presumably thought was a prayer, thus expressed himself, "Have mercy on that miserable man who are told him of a which he eved wistfully. The mar, him from the ever myself." So that the presumable man who are told himself with a houe for sonp. He asked bone which he eved wistfully. The mar, him from the ever myself." So that the set is a big for in the ever myself." So that the set is a big for interval of the market man told himself with a houe for sonp. He asked the market man a big fat Dutchman prayer, thus expressed himself. "Have him from the egg myself." Signed by to remember delightful and belpful sto-the boy's name. The doctor treasures ries, yerses which, we have, loyed, and ries, yerses, which we have loyed and chapters from the treasure house of the Sacred Word. The collects of the Epissires, above all the treasures of money aver necesived. .: Life does not consist in copal church, familiar by incessant repthe abundance of things which a man may possess. Sinth-It is this passion for money in etition through many years, have been as cheering music in the invalid's room when age and illness have prevented itaelf and money at all hazarda and attendance on divide service. Harper's money quickly that brutalizes the hn-man. For it man trades in the life-blood of his fellow man. It is the most brutal war that the earth ever new. Wemen's Logal Bights In Kontacky, The Kentucky legislature is likely to take still another advance step in regard Martial war is Brutal enough ! It is a horrible thing, to butcher men, with swords and bayonets and guns and can-nons, but it is more inexpressibly brutal to the property eights of women. The lower house has passed by a large major-ity a bill providing that a husband on the death of his wife shall inherit only to butcher men and women col cially and cast them into the pit of hunone-half of the surplus of the wife's perspair.... It is kind to kill one quickly. It. sonal estate instead of the whole, as now, Even this would be a larger share than the wife receives of the husband's estate is bratal to kill them by a lingering apon his death. The Kentucky Equal If a man wrecks a train, they offer a Rights association hopes ultimately to se-oure the equalization of courtesy and dower, and astronation of courtesy and somining for his life. :Wa say other raching is too good for the man who would wreck an express train loaded with men, women and children... But in' this waz for money men sneak into the side. But what about the heas and their 88, an increase of 66 over the kin? Have they no rights, that human ment at beginning. No work of love pays. Eliminate love beings are bound to respect? If this egg-from life, and there is nothing left but maker is allowed to flood the market $7 per month. Tuition $1.2.5 according to grade. Music f Write to the Principal for logue. Produce Commission Meria Vegetables. Fruits, Berria Tongue, Furs, Eggs, Paul 274 Washington St., New 1 withdraw her product indignantly from sale? Can bens be expected to go into per egg plants and support indigent and improvident roosters on the mere pittance that the machine article can be made for? Most certainly they cannot. And if the hens are to be insulted and driven from America, where will spring chickens come from?-Kansas City Star.

NAW , MANY IRoyal Bones / Strange as it may appear, it is a fact that in one of the storerooms of the museum of the Louvre there is an old dusty time that the box is moved they are necel essarily tossed about and mixed together. The Vie Contemporaine was the first paper to notice the existence of this deposit. Thanks to the information which has been given to us by the director of the fine arts, we can affirm that these bones which are now treated with such odious disrespect are the remains of our kings. In 1793 the tombs of St. Denis were violated, and the bones were given to M. Ledra, the mayor of Fontenay-aux-Rosesy the father of Ledru-Bollin, by served a quantity of the precious objects. The relics were finally transmitted to the nephew of Ledru de Maire, who in 1864 gave them to M. de Niewerkerke, who was charged by Napoleon III with the duty of organizing at the Louvre the "Museum of the Sovereigns," and the relics have remained neglected from that day to this.

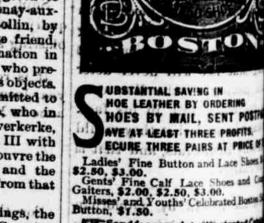

We ask for the bones of our kings, the remains of the founder of the Capetian dynasty, of the conqueror of Marignan, of Charles V, the king that saved the country from the pake of England, and the humblest citizen.....Figaro

Why Not Commit to Memory' In an age so full of busy setivity at the present, so diffused with and interpenetrated by the spirit of utilitarianism. "committing to memory seeins cure for himself. On this being sug-gested the latter remained silent for a rich who have gone beyond the hope of not be bothered with him. He said he solete. Yet there is something to be considerable time, fluctuating between recovery. I heard of an old farmer in knowed you could onre him, and he said in its defense. It is a great con- can testify to their durability net of the brain and ready to be pro-duced at a moment's notice. Given sented. See Orders can be sent to me, venienco, if mothing more, to have the comfort.

NO PAPER LIKE IT ON

Wity bot Funny. Wity bot Funny. Religious not Pious Not for Sect but for Souls WHOLE BERMONS IN A SERTE

Send for complete illustrate POSTAL SHOE COMPANY 149 Congress St. and 146 Franklin SL. I have a contract'with the Shoe House, and give itimy m fied recommendation. Auf plaint make to me direct. rant every pair to be just at solemn and fearful duty?"

W. H. WORTH, S. B.A

Company. The Editor of THE CAUCIE

"Pray talk not of duty, dear father; here, alone, we need conceal nothing. I am not your slave! I fear you not, and I dare tell you that I think you a most admirable master of trickery, one who would steal the snake's fangs from him without his knowing it. Believe me, I admire you, and I am proud to aid you in vortenlene Mile ..

Chalpa, pale with rage, sprang upon the smaller ney, seized him by the throat and show him as a terrier shakes a rat "Miserable son of a polecat, thy driv-and he staggered for a few moments.

t miserable man who was 'It was at a "Sabbath observance" meeting. "The miserable man was the and devout cleric, and the blasphemy consisted in stating that in his judgment on a sounday arternoon. This awful sup-plication was attered, within my own knowledge, less than 30 years ago. I fancy that my reader will have no diffi-tulty in deciding which individual was the miserable man.—Longman's Maga-oughly destroys Christian life. The behind her.

Preferred Old Eaggles

It is related of a Chicago lady (name of Belvideer, and I've seen Baggles, and gimme Raggles,"-San Francisco Argo-Daut.

New England Superstition

In olden times in New England it was Valentine's morning while out wallding was a destined wife or a destined hus-ket man told him nothing at all; take lately pouring forth blasphemy against the bone along If he wanted if. The old man, who was a little hard of hearing, put his hand to his ear and asked. "Canno Roman Catholic archbishop, a peaceful you knock off a little?" The market man and devout cleric, and the blasphemy langhingly replied, "Yes, he would take consisted in stating that in his judgment 10 cents for it." The old man paid the there was no harm in taking a quiet dime and went away chuckling over his walk in the Botanic garden at Edinburgh great bargain. It is necessarily true on a Sunday afternoon. This awful sup- that as we develop this principle in life to a meat market and decided to content.

hinself with a houe for sonp. He asked man afflicted with it begins at once to cultivate these delightful mottors; old but awful in their meaning: "Dog eat dog."

"Devil take care of the hindmost," "Business is business," (or) harmond "The best man is the man that-gets here."

"Resolved. That we will love ourselves as our neighbor loves himself, and we will make it hot for any man that tries to outdo as in this labor of love." He prays only that familiar prayer. Lord, bless me and my wife, my son John his wife, us four and no more." A man died the other day in , the fal-In olden times in New England it was supposed that the first unmarried person of the other sex whom one met on St. er out in his will when he left the earth: "Lord, bless, me and, my wife, my son John and his wife, we four and no more.

Hos The Olden is's Market Women. Queen Mictoria dan't about turning Stank Exchange, and with a lie and a trick and a subterfuse wreck a whole relimed comporation from and to sud of the line, destroy a thousand homes, dong down, into, the litch, into the pit, into market women when she can. During her recent absence she allowed the dairy products of her Windsor farms to be sold tesi Londan butten dompany, which in turn sold to the public thick, yellow but ter, stamped with the royal arms, for 40 ognis a pound T London; Letter. Joy 11 the grave of a lingering death, thomsands of women and children, and he is crowned, formoth, sa amodern Napoleon of finance instead of being hung to the Subseribe to The Caucasian $1.00

WOMAN'S TEMPLE Per Yess A IL CHICAGO DELY MAPER THAT EVERYBON Qoing to Buy A Dictionary GET THE BEST.

Send a dime in stamos for three !

THE RAM'S HORN

Fully Abreast of the Time A Choice Gift A Grand Family Educator The Standard Autho Successor of the anthen ridged." Ten years spent i oditore en SOLD BY ALL BOOKSELLES Po not buy reactals of obsolets mans and FOLL FARTICULAR C. WERRIAM CO., Passa Bortagfald, Mass., U.S.