VANCE'S SECOND LETTER

Senator Vance has written a sec ond letter. This one is in reply to bare the infamous hypocracy of tion? the Republican party. In this great cris's Vance has shown that he is a MAN. His action has brought joy to the hearts of thousands who have so long idolized him. And though he seems to go out of his way to east a fling at "Maryann," yet we thank God that we are not little enough to be influenced thereby, but take this opportunity to give him due credit and praise for his strong and courageous position. There is one thing, however, in his letter that surprises us. That is that a man of his age and experience should be surprised and hurt that his letter has caused him to be criticised, abused and lied on. How can Senator Vance expect to stand boldly and honestly by the people in opposition to the machine, and still have the machine and monopoly organs to speak well of him. If he will now write another and pledging loyalty to the party without regard to the interests of the people, then they will all praise him.

In conclusion we wish to say that every man in the State who believes in the principles of pure Democracy owes a lastly debt of gratitude to the Senator for his heroic words so fitly spoken at a time so opportune. If the Democratic party retains any of the principles of Jefferson and Jackson, if it is unperverted and reclaimed from the hands of the traitors who have about delivered it body and soul to the greed of the monopolists and gold bugs, it will be due to the Senator's heroic position. As far as we are concerned we are not owned by any party. We are concerned but little, as to whether the letters help or hurt the heterogenious conglomeration called the Democratic party, but we do rejoice that they will add new converts to the PRINCIPLES of PURE Democracy, and if the Democratic party should be an uncongenial and chilly habitation for such patriots, they can find a host of friends and co-laborers in the ranks of the Populist party.

Wedding Presents.

Why is there no antiwedding present eague? Surely the time has long since arrived for such an organization to be started. Wedding presents are a far more serious and lasting nuisance than, et us say, crinolines are ever likely to The nuisance has been aggravated of late by the pernicious practice of publishing in the newspapers lists of wedding presents received, and I have been driven to air this question by a list of 200 or 300 names of donors of wedding presents published the other day in connection with a "fashionable marriage" in the north. This is, in fact, a highly ingenious method of stimulating the generosity of the friends of the happy

The snobs are induced to give more lavishly by the knowledge that their names and their gifts will be proclaimed to all the world in the newspapers. People who might otherwise, either through common sense or common stinginess, refrain from giving, are intimidated by the fear that their names will be conspicuously absent from the published list. It has become the practice to advertise in connection with deaths, "no flowers." How popular will that bride and bridegroom be among their acquaintances who first dare, in announcing their wedding to advertise "no presents!"-London Truth.
