

THE CAUCASIAN.

VOL. XI. GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 10, 1893. NO. 42.

EDITOR'S CHAIR.

THE EDITOR ON THE... The Editor of the News and Observer...

HE SUBMITS AND CONFESSES.

That "open letter" to Capt. Ashe... has been read and enjoyed by fifty thousand people in North Carolina.

COUSIN ADLAI

NOT ABLE TO DO AS MUCH FOR HIS COUSINS NOW AS IN '92... A Bad Misrepresentation of the Finances of the Country.

TO THE POINT.

TIMELY AND PERTINENT REFLECTIONS SUGGESTED BY THE PASSING SHOW... Hoke Smith's Yellow-headed Parrot-Lady Macbeth Caldwell-What is the Matter With Brother Lafferty?

THE VIRGINIA POPULISTS.

HOLD A ROUSING CONVENTION AT LYNCHBURG... TICKET NOMINATED AND A STRONG PLATFORM ADOPTED.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 8.—Men, panics, congresses, elections may come and go but Ransom stays here forever.

NEWS AND COMMENT.

Dear reader, did it ever occur to you why the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Messenger is hounding down such Democrats as Alexander and Broughton with even more dogged persistence and venom than any one outside of the party?

COUSIN ADLAI'S COUSIN.

"The North Carolinians seem to be exceedingly anxious for officers" said Mr. Brevard Stevenson, a cousin of Vice President Stevenson, last night in one of the hotels.

TO THE POINT.

When Tom Jarvis read Vance's silver letter he said, with a ring of victory in his voice, "Bully for Vance. It makes mine melt."

THE VIRGINIA POPULISTS.

At the Thomasville Orphanage Thursday Aug. 17th, 1893, Col. N. A. Dunning and Hon. Marion Butler will be present and address the public.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 10.—The Populist State Convention of Virginia met in Lynchburg on last Thursday August 3rd.

THE VIRGINIA POPULISTS.

At the Thomasville Orphanage Thursday Aug. 17th, 1893, Col. N. A. Dunning and Hon. Marion Butler will be present and address the public.

THE VIRGINIA POPULISTS.

At the Thomasville Orphanage Thursday Aug. 17th, 1893, Col. N. A. Dunning and Hon. Marion Butler will be present and address the public.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 10.—The Populist State Convention of Virginia met in Lynchburg on last Thursday August 3rd.