The big hearted editor nous: give you a full column, and then you must make it interesting. You are SOUTHERN PRIZE!! not aware how much good it will do you. At some day you may fill the editor's chair. Great men have once been little like you, and if you ask them where they got their start, they will tell you that they commence at the foot of the ladder and advanced step by step. Ask questions about Washington, early settlement of America, French and Indian War, tell about your home, where situated, and what river, sound, lake, or ocean you live close by. Make your something interesting. Let me hear
