whatever may be its source. It ad mires courage in this era of flunky ism. It respects the candid, honest man wherever found and in whatever ranks, and whatever may be his pofor the toady in politics. We have only supreme contempt for political jugglers and "makeshifts." An honest, brave, courageous, defiant, aggressive man like the intrepid South Carolinian, whose speech is printed in The Caucasian this week, is a revelation in public morals. No doubt our commendation of this man and our enthusiastic appreciation of the speech will subject Senator Irby to the criticism of a truckling, subsidized, bigoted, ignorant, vicious Bourbon press. We have waited hees in Indiana. eagerly, expectantly, and, at times, hopelessly, for the inspiration of Southern leadership in the Senate debate. The hour and the man met in John Irby. The answer appears to us very plain. There was a majority in the Senate in favor of the Administration fore the time came for him to decide, and the question is asked repeatedly the vote of the House in favor of resis. It is now the duty of Mr. Glenn to produce that letter. Our Washington correspondent this week says that the President is indignant about the matter. Now the question arises is Mr. Cleveland mad because he wrote the letter, or is he mad because Mr. Glenn misrepresented him. In short did Mr. Glenn ever get such a letter? It is now time for Mr. Glenn to speak.

We suppose the tariff is not robbing the people much now. We never hear anything about it.

Mr. Cleveland's alleged letter to Bob Glenn, written during the campaign in which he committed himself to free silver, turns out, upon investigation here, to be a mendacious canard.
