"ZEB VANCE IS DEAD." greatest son. For months the people of the State and his friends and admirers all over the Union (for indeed he had them as far as his name and fame was known) have feared that the end was near, yet when the sad news come it was a shock that was felt in every spot of Tarheeldom from the topmost peaks of the Great Smoking Mountains to the Atlantic waves. He was great in mind, great in heart, great in soul. The people have lost an eagle-eved and incorruptible guard who stood on the watch-tower of their liberties. they have lost their ablest and purest advocate and defender in the great tween immunity and the grasping and mercia-good of corporate powcomes when the people needed his services most. In our news column: will be found a full necount of his for the faneral and a biographical sketch from his boyhood's days up some other thoughts concerning i life, the lesson it teaches and with
