A CAMPAIGN FUND

A prominent citizen of this State (and a man who is not wealthy but in good circumstances) called at THE CAUCASIAN office a few days ago, and inquired what was being done toward raising a campaign fund for this year.

Senator Jarvis says that he stands on the Chicago platform. Hon. Grover Cleveland says he stands on the same platform.

THE NEGRO TAYLOR IN OFFICE. The Kansas negro, Taylor, who was nominated by Cleveland to be Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, has been confirmed by a Democratic Senate.

In another column see a letter from a correspondent at Seward, N. C. He says that a man was arrested, tried, convicted and hung there in 1776 for being a Tory.

NO, NOT "GOOD BYE." The machine papers in closing their comments on ex-Congressman Kitchin's card say "good-bye Kitchin."

The condition of affairs presented by the Alabama Democratic State convention, deserves more than passing notice.

In the first place (as it has already been announced in THE CAUCASIAN) in the fight for Governor between Congressman Oates and Capt. Johnston, the issue between the free silver and goldbug Democrats was squarely drawn.

The above clipping probably represents the real sentiments of the Observer. If this is so, then it was trying to fool the people when it was whooping up a State campaign.

THE BRIBERY FIASCO. The bribery investigation has proved a farce, as everybody supposed. Senator Hinton of Virginia, was also approached some time in April, but it never occurred to him that it was an attempt to bribe him until the expose of the sugar trust scheme was made.

"NOTHING UNCONSTITUTIONAL." Since Ransom's memorable reconstruction speech a quarter of a century ago, nothing has escaped his lips in the Senate but the two words quoted.

We regret that had health forces Mr. H. F. Seawell, a talented young lawyer, to give up the editor's chair of the Carthage Free Press.

COMMENTS AND COUNTER COMMENTS.

The Durham Sun commenting upon ex-Congressman's Kitchin card in THE CAUCASIAN says that the Democratic party will go on regardless of the people who are disappointed.

The North Carolinian referring to Hon. Buck Kitchin, says that "It becomes a Democrat to lay aside his convictions because he does not agree with the administration."

The New Bern Journal says that Capt. Kitchin should "stay with the Democratic party and help rescue it from its peril."

"We don't know how it is. We have not looked at the situation from Captain Kitchin's standpoint, but if it is true that the ship of State is manned by a piratical crew, it is the duty of Democrats to throw the pirates overboard and save the ship."

The Journal confounds the "ship of State" with the Democratic party. The Demo-Republican party is the "piratical crew" that is now driving the "ship of State," the people's government, to destruction and Capt. Kitchin has joined the people in their effort to throw the Cleveland, Sherman, Ransom and Simmons pirates overboard and save the ship.

The News-Observer-Chronicle in commenting on Capt. Kitchin's card, published in last week's issue of THE CAUCASIAN, says that Capt. Kitchin does not claim to be converted to any new doctrine, yet he declares that he can no longer affiliate with the Democratic party.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

The Charlotte Observer is the paper that started the cry for a State campaign. It has said time and again that the Democratic party could not carry Cleveland in North Carolina this year.

The nomination of Col. W. C. Oates for Governor of Alabama was a distinct victory for the administration. He stood clearly for the President while Capt. Johnston represented the Populist tendencies in the Democratic party.

We understand that when Gov. Carr was hunting some one to chaperone him over the State in the last campaign, that he was offering any office in his gift to get a man. Therefore we suppose that he was under some kind of a promise or obligation to Mr. Jarvis who took the job, no doubt very eagerly.

The new Democratic, protective tariff bill reminds one of the old schoolmaster who came before the school committee for examination as to his qualifications for a school teacher, and who knew little, if anything, more than the committee.

"Well, Mister," said one of the committeemen, "do you think that the world is round or flat?" "Round or flat?" Repeated the applicant thoughtfully; "well, sir," he said finally, "I'll teach it just as you please, just as you please."

THE STATE NORMAL AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

One of the greatest Commencements North Carolina has seen for many a day, was at Greensboro last week. The closing exercises of the State Normal and Industrial School under the management of Dr. Charles D. Melver, was a brilliant success from beginning to finish.

At 6:30 this morning, Hon. W. J. Bryan and wife arrived in the vestibule, and were escorted by another couple to their quarters at the Hotel. The Naval Battalion band, of Charlotte, is discoursing sweet music for the occasion.

Dr. Melver made quite a strike in securing Congressman Bryan for Commencement orator. His subject was rather an innovation at school Commencements, but it is an innovation that is commended.

Gen. Gordon in North Carolina. Greensboro, May 26.—Gen. Gordon lectured last night on the "Last Days of the Confederacy" to a large and enthusiastic audience.

BROADNAX REPRIVED.

Notorious North State Murderer Has Another Month of Life. Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—Gov. Carr has reprieved until July 6 Richard Broadnax, who was under sentence to be hanged at Milton June 8 for murder.

South Carolina Girl Prefers Death to an Objectionable Marriage. GREENVILLE, S. C., May 26.—Katie Subduth, quite a handsome girl—15 years old, attempted to commit suicide last afternoon in this city by jumping in a well 47 feet deep.

THE CAUCASIAN CONGRATULATES DR. MELVER AND THE WHOLE STATE UPON THE MARKED SUCCESS OF THE SCHOOL.

When the immortal Vance passed from earth, Gov. Carr took his Alliance yard stick and went in search of a man who would measure up to the Ocala demands.

"A BILL OF SALE TO THE TRUSTS"

The above is the best title we have yet seen for the tariff bill which the Democrats are now trying to pass. Let that committee appointed to investigate bribery investigate how much money has been paid into the Democratic campaign fund to induce the party to put the bill in its present shape.

The speeches of Capt. Thos. W. Mason and others at the laying of the corner stone of the Confederate monument at Raleigh last week have been very highly spoken of by those who heard them.

THE BRIBERY FIASCO.

The bribery investigation has proved a farce, as everybody supposed. Senator Hinton of Virginia, was also approached some time in April, but it never occurred to him that it was an attempt to bribe him until the expose of the sugar trust scheme was made.

Crush the machine and save the State.

A GREAT COMMENCEMENT.

The Nebraska Congressman Speaks on "Money" at the Industrial School. GREENSBORO, N. C., May 26.—Greensboro wears a holiday garb to-day. Yesterday afternoon was an occasion of unusual interest and high decoration was resumed with increased activity this morning, and now every store and office front on Elm street, down to the depot is gaily bedecked with the flags and bunting of the State Normal and Industrial School, and here and there, the red, white and blue.
