JUDGE CONNOR HAS DONE IT.
In another column will be found a letter from Judge Connor to Judge Howard under date of Sept. 3rd. It will be seen that Judge Connor at last takes the position that he will not serve the majority of the people of his State on the Supreme Court bench unless at the same time he can serve the Democratic party.
The editor of this paper was away from home when the letter referred to above was made public. Before leaving home (and therefore before we had seen Judge Connor's last letter) we wrote an editorial which appeared in the last issue of THE CAUCASIAN, saying that Judge Connor would never take the position that he has taken, and our only comment now on Judge Connor's position is to republish that editorial. There is not a sentence or word in that editorial that we wish to take back, change or modify, except to say that either we underestimated the terrible ostracising and demoralizing power of the machine or else we underestimated Judge Connor's stability and moral courage to withstand it. The editorial is as follows:

"There is no man in the Democratic party (or out of it) in North Carolina who is the superior of Judge Connor in loyalty, integrity and fitness for the Supreme Court bench. Yet he must be elected and elected by his own party because he will not bow to the party machine and allow it to set up the standard for his judgment and conscience. A party that will allow itself to be led by the best man in it because he will not sacrifice his manhood for the selfish desires of the machine, is a party that is dangerous to human liberty. When a party grows that intolerant it is time to overthrow it. Such persecution would corrupt the manhood of all who are not blessed with as much stability, firmness and strength of character as Judge Connor. What does the machine want him to do? They want Judge Connor to flout the thousands of men in North Carolina who not only admire him as a man but who also approve of his course as a Judge on the Superior Court bench. They want him to stultify himself by saying that he would not serve on the Supreme Court bench unless the office was brought to him on a gold plate, with a glitzy Democratic label on it.

"The machine threatens Judge Connor that unless he follows the course marked out by them that he will himself be 'out by them.' The machine, mistook and underrated the man when they used that argument on Judge Connor. He can never be moved by arguments that appeal to the soul and selfish elements of human nature. Judge Connor would sacrifice himself politically a dozen times before he would do anything that did not measure up to the highest sense of duty of citizenship irrespective of party.

"Now the question arises, would Judge Shepherd, Judge McKee or Judge Barwell 'out by them' that he will himself be 'out by them.' We challenge any Democratic paper in the State to admit they would. Such an admission would be a base surrender on them if they are to sit on the Superior Court bench."

We do not regret that we placed the above high estimate on Judge Connor, but we are deeply pained that he should, by his own confession, say to the world that the above estimate was incorrect. A high ideal has been crushed. Our feeling is somewhat akin to what we suppose a man feels when he is disappointed in the woman that he loves.

Judge Connor says that his letter to us under date of Aug. 13th has been misunderstood. That is difficult to believe when his reply is read in connection with our letter to him under date of Aug. 10th. Up to that date we had never approached him, directly or indirectly, in connection with this matter. We did not write him then because his card to the News and Observer under date of Aug. 2nd was not satisfactory to those who wanted a non-partisan judiciary, but because certain persons continued to come to us as friends of Judge Connor and claimed to speak with authority when they said he would not serve if elected. Even then we would not have written him, had it not been that the same thing was told to others who possibly did not place the same high estimate on Judge Connor as we did. No fair minded person who will read our letter to him as published in THE CAUCASIAN on Aug. 23rd can fail to see that its only object was to give him an opportunity to say, if he so desired, that he would not serve if elected. Not desiring to intimate that he had the least suspicion that he did not come up to the high standard laid down by the People's party, we studiously avoided asking this direct question, but wrote him a letter which contained the following paragraph:

"We are contending for the establishment of the principle in this State, that the highest judicial tribunal should be non-partisan. If any party in the State is opposed to a non-partisan judiciary, then of course to that extent the object aimed at will be defeated. Your report on the bench, and as a citizen had been such as to convince the Democratic party that it would favor a non-partisan judiciary more than another that man was yourself, hence the action of the convention in emphasizing the principle by naming you as one of the men to represent it. I don't believe that you are opposed to a non-partisan judiciary, yet how can there be such a judiciary if there is no man in the Democratic party who will be a member of the party, will permit the use of his name to represent this principle? If the establishment of this principle, however, should not meet your approval of course that would end the matter; but otherwise I think that every one who is in favor of lifting the burden of party politics, should and will cast his vote for you in November. Unless you should state that there are business and personal reasons which would prevent you from serving on the bench, after being elected."

Every man in the State of all parties know what his answer was (for the Democratic papers published his reply but did not publish our letter to him), and every man in the State believed after reading his answer that he intended to serve if elected. Even those who did not know Judge Connor personally put that construction on his letter; those who knew him personally knew that there was no duplicity about him and that if he had intended not to serve that he would have said so in that letter. If the People's party had simply wanted the use of his name in this campaign, we would never have written him that letter, but we wanted the State to have the benefit of his service on the bench. Of course, now no one who favors a non-partisan judiciary will vote for Judge Connor. The majority of the people will cast their votes for a man who will serve the whole State and every party and interest in it fairly and justly, a man who will accept the Judgeship without requiring a Democratic label to be on it.

ANNANAS AND THE GOVERNMENT MULE
Joseph Daniels in his paper claims that the Democratic party would not have done as bad as it did if it had not been for the People's party. In short he charges that the People's party Congressmen prevented the Democratic party from redeeming its pledges. He charges that the People's party is responsible for Democratic failure and Democratic perfidy. The following is the editorial referred to:

"The speech of the Hon. Wm. Wilson yesterday in accepting the renomination for Congress made a bold and vigorous speech. Referring to the difficulty of passing the bill through the Senate he said that despite a nominal Democratic majority in that body, the great trusts and monopolies were still able to write their taxes, as they had done under Republican rule, in some of its most important schedules. 'The burden upon you is the same whether they use a Democratic or a Republican hand as their antagonist. But the wrong to you is infinitely greater when those who bear the commission of your own party thus prove faithless to its highest duties.'"

He places the responsibility where it properly belongs. The people will rejoice at the passage of the Senate bill because it is better than the McKinley bill, but they will correctly place the responsibility for not passing a better bill on six Democrats, four Populists and all the Republicans."

It takes a combination of the characteristic qualities of Annanias and a government mule to make such a statement.

If this statement were true it would be an admission that the five People's party Senators and nine People's party Congressmen were more powerful at Washington than the Democratic Senate, the Democratic House and the Democratic President with all their patronage and prestige combined.

Let the country once put on guard a People's party Senate, a People's party House, and a People's party President, and we defy the Democratic party, the Republican party and "the world, the flesh and the devil" all combined to prevent the People's party from repealing bad legislation and passing remedial measures. No longer would the monopolists go to Washington and write taxing schedules; no longer would the officers of the Sugar Trust and Huntington and other Railroad Kings make their headquarters in the committee rooms of the nation; no longer would the conspiracy of England send its emissaries to the White House to order an issue of gold interests bearing bonds. Those bloated monopolists and plutocratic anarchists would no longer get any more consideration than crank Coxe and his ragged sore-footed tramps. At once the wings of monopoly would be clipped and every one of them would be put on exactly the same footing as every private citizen; at once the gold trust would be broken by the passage of a law for the free coinage of silver at the time honored ratio of 16 to 1; at once the national banking monopoly would be stopped and our paper currency be made to stand on its own bottom equal in the payment of debts with gold; at once would the excessive burden of taxation be taken from the shoulders of those who are least able to pay but who now pay the bulk of the revenue raised; and it would be placed on a man's possessions instead of his necessities; at once a GRADUATED income tax would be put into operation not to raise one twenty-seventh (1-27) of the revenues of the government but to raise at least one-fourth of the money necessary to run the government. When this is done the influence of the rich will be brought on Congress to be economical. If such a law were in force Congressmen would not vote to squander millions in pensions, millions to build costly and often unnecessary public buildings, millions to clean out rivers and mud creeks, millions to keep up a board of unnecessary office holders, millions in subsidies to pay railroads and steamship lines above the contract price for carrying the mails. Congress would not even then vote it self extra pay and extra mileage &c., and if they did the rich would be the first to denounce them and to call a halt. As it is now when these reckless and wasteful expenditures of money are made there is no one to raise his voice against it but the poor. Those who pay the bulk of the taxes are always the men who are most anxious for economy. Let the rich pay their fair and just share of the taxes and then they will cry the loudest for economy.

In short the People's party would enact such laws as would give every man a free and equal opportunity to enjoy the fruits of his own labor. During the last ten years the wealth of the United States has increased several hundred millions of dollars. If we lived under honest laws every man who helped to create that immense wealth would to day be enjoying his share according to his talents; if such laws were on the statute books this immense wealth would not to day be accumulated into the hands of a few speculators, gamblers and corruptors of Congress; if such laws were on the statute books we would have well-to-do farmers, prosperous merchants, well educated children and happy homes, and the only class who would suffer, get in debt and grow poor would be those who would neither toil nor spin.

This is a bright picture and we could get it by voting for it. No sane man ever expects to see it come while the present parties manage and control our public affairs. The People's party is the only party that can or will enact such laws. Let all those who want to see such a day come vote for the People's party, give that party a chance and then judge it according to the use it makes of that chance.

Of course nothing better is expected of Mr. Daniels that to apologize for the shameful record of the administration and to try to throw the blame on other shoulders. He is daily feeding at the pie counter of this administration. He is growing fat on a part of the spoils wrung from you by monopoly. The ass knoweth his master's crib.

So much for national questions. Now let the People's party be put in control in this State and it will at once proceed to break up every trust now existing and operating in the State, it will proceed to make every corporation list for taxation all of their property which now pays no tax; put the People's party in power and it will proceed to undo as far as possible the mistakes, blunders and injustices of the last legislature; it will break up the odious, oppressive and vote-stealing ring under the present county government system; it will take up the great work of educational and material development commenced by the Alliance legislature of 1891; it would take up the work just where that progressive and patriotic legislature stopped and carry it on till North Carolina not only stood at the head of the educational column, but till her vast resources should have blessed us all and attracted the attention of the world. The editor of this paper is ready to face all political parties and every citizen in the State on his record in that reform legislature and will pledge that the People's party legislature of 1895 will take up and carry on the great work so nobly begun.

Speaker Crisp and Hoke Smith both made speeches in Atlanta last Friday. Crisp said in a very weak way that he favored free coinage of silver. Smith said that he was opposed to free coinage. They both said they were Democrats and both told the people to follow them and that party to get relief.

We see it advertised that the Democrats will import Mr. Black from Pennsylvania to speak in Raleigh on the 20th to give the "key note to the campaign." At the same time New York says that North Carolina ought to keep Ransom in the Senate. Thus we see that New York and Pennsylvania are taking a hand in our fight down here.

The sugar planters of Louisiana in convention at New Orleans renounced their allegiance to the Democratic party because the sugar trust was protected in their tariff law while the planters were left out in the cold.

The agonizing efforts of democratic orators trying to explain the beauties of the new tariff law is a pitiful sight.
Sugar has advanced 12 per cent.
We have tariff reform now.

COL. HARRY SKINNER
Named for Congress by the People's Party Convention of the First District—He Receives an Ovation From the Convention.
EDENTON, N. C.
The Populist convention of the First Congressional District met here on Thursday 6th Sept. '94. The convention was called to order by Hon. Theo. White of Perquimans, Chairman of the Congressional Executive Committee. Rev. T. W. Babb of Perquimans was made Chairman and T. F. McCaskey of Martin Secretary. Mr. John Brady of Gates, nominated Hon. H. H. Hodges of Beaufort in an impassioned speech nominated Hon. Harry Skinner of Pitt. The roll of counties were then called and Skinner received 122 6/10 votes; Gatlin 12 4/10, but before the result was announced John Brady of Gates moved that the nomination of Col. Skinner be made unanimous which was done, every delegate voting for the motion. On motion the chair after cheering and singing of the national anthem, Hon. H. H. Hodges of Beaufort, E. P. Daniels of Pitt a committee to notify Col. Skinner of his nomination and escort him to the hall. While the convention was waiting the appearance of Col. Skinner the largest and most cheering and reverberating around the walls, galleries and recesses of the commodious building. Col. Skinner made an eloquent speech in which he thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him. His review of the condition of the country which he pictured as truly as anything brought about by the adoption of the single gold standard was masterful and convincing, and will long be remembered by all who heard him. Col. Skinner will make a fitting canvass of the district and will be elected by a large majority. The Populist of the 1st district will assist him in every effort and work steadily and energetically to give him that position that nature, education, ability and culture has so fittingly destined him to fill.

On motion the Ex. Com. was called to meet and to fill vacancies if any and to thoroughly organize for the campaign. On motion the meeting adjourned.

The secretary of the convention desires to say in behalf of the convention that we sincerely return our thanks to Hon. Theo. White Chairman of the Ex. Com. for the very fine arrangements made for the entertainment of the delegates, and also our appreciation of the presence of our State Chairman, Hon. Marion Butler, and his very able speech. We feel ourselves under many obligations to the railroads, steamship lines and carriers who rates while attending the convention.

T. W. Babb, Chairman.
T. E. McCaskey, Secretary.

A Letter from Judge Connor.
WILSON, N. C., Sept. 3, 1894.
Hon. George H. Conard, Tarboro, N. C.:

MY DEAR SIR: You will remember that some weeks ago I conferred with you in regard to the proper course for me to pursue to secure what I learned was the purpose of the People's party to place my name on their ticket for Associate Justice. I then stated to you that I had done and should do whatever I could to prevent it. What has since occurred in connection with the matter was correctly stated in an editorial in the News and Observer on the 30th ultimo. I should have submitted my proposed acts to you had you been at home and was surprised to learn that you were not aware of my reply to Mr. Butler until the 31st ult. You construed aright my letter to Mr. Butler, and say you think a construction unthought of by myself could be justified and would probably be generally drawn out of that letter I republished and I thought emphasized my first protest. It seems now that neither the Populists or the Republicans so construe it, and by their course force me, after using other means, as you are aware, that I regard Judge Conard as I first thought suitable toward the support of me for me for a highly honorable position. My strong attachment to the principles of the Democratic party and belief that its continued control of the administration of the government is essential to the welfare of the State and Nation and my determination that my name shall not be used to jeopardize its success impels me to repeat that I not only will not consent to the use of my name in opposition to its nominees, but to declare positively and in writing, but to the slightest reservation, that if my wishes shall continue to be disregarded and I should be elected, I would not accept the office, qualify or serve, and I am not willing to place this action upon opposition to the principle of a non-partisan judiciary, but upon the true reason that I regard the nominees of my own party as in every way fit and proper persons for the positions, and that I shall give them my loyal and cordial support, and that I regard the success of the party and the enforcement of its principles as essential to the welfare of the State and Nation.

I wish to say, for reasons apparent to all, that I regard Judge Conard in every respect entitled to the support of all good citizens. He is learned in the law, of marked purity of life and character and by temperament and training free from partisan bias.

I most sincerely trust that this declaration may relieve me from further embarrassment and the necessity of further trespassing upon the kindness of my friends. I wish to thank you for your loyal friendship and wise counsel in this, to me, most disagreeable experience. It is thoroughly consistent with an intimate association of more than twenty years and strengthens the strong but pleasant sense of obligation which I shall ever entertain for you. I am, Sincerely yours,
H. G. Connor.

The Charlotte Observer says that "New York feels kindly toward Senator Ransom and want him re-elected." This is because he represents New York better than he does North Carolina. This is just as we expected.

COLORADO PEOPLE'S PARTY CONVENTION.
Gov. Waite Renominated—Hon. Life Pence Says the Ticket Will Be Elected by a Large Majority.
Pueblo, Col., Sept. 5.—The State Populist convention reconvened today. The committee on credentials reported in favor of resending the full Waite delegation from Arapahoe county and the report was adopted. At 11:30 Gov. Waite was renominated by acclamation. The sixty loyal delegates asked the privilege of escorting him to the convention. He was introduced to the convention by Miss Phoebe Cozzen.

After the governor delivered his address of acceptance and had retired from the platform Mrs. Waite was called for and received an ovation when she appeared. Congressman Life Pence was called for and made a short speech, in which he predicted that the Governor would be re-elected by a large majority. The platform endorses the Omaha platform, the initiative and referendum, proportionate representation, and the legislation recommended by the recent State law congress.

NEVADA POPULISTS
Nevada Ticket and Adopt a Winning Platform—Senator Jones Congratulated.
Carson City, Nev., Sept. 5.—The platform adopted by the State convention of the People's party advocates the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, the redemption of government bonds, and the prohibition of any further issue in times of peace. The abolition of national banks and the collection of the indebtedness of the Pacific Railroads are demanded, and the President is denounced for the suspension of the Sherman silver purchasing law and the Geary act.

The convention this morning sent a telegram to Senator Jones, expressing joy at his abandoning the Republican party. Hon. F. G. Newlands was nominated for Congress and Hon. John E. Jones for governor.

MAJ. GUTHRIE SCORES A VICTORY EVERY DAY.
He Handled E. W. Kerr Like he had been a School Boy.

SMITHFIELD, N. C.,
Mr. Editor—On Thursday Maj. Guthrie spoke here. A man named Kerr from Sampson county was sent here by the State Democratic Chairman to meet him. Maj. Guthrie made a magnificent speech and used about ten minutes to make Kerr ashamed of himself for attempting to reply. That man Kerr will never attempt to speak against Maj. Guthrie again. A man from Dunn told us that when Kerr met him there the day before that Maj. Guthrie used him up just as bad as he did here. Maj. G. invited Kerr to go on with him and speak the next day at Tarboro, but that man Kerr had enough and went home. Maj. Guthrie is not only a delightful, entertaining speaker but his arguments are unanswerable. He is doing a grand work. He could canvass every county in the State, the People's party would sweep every thing.

DEMOCRATS DECLINE A NOMINATION
They Cannot Face the People on the Record of Their Party and Besides They See the Handwriting on the Wall.
Lansing, Mich., Sept. 4.—S. L. Kibbourn, Democratic nominee for Congress for the Sixth district, published a letter to-day declining the nomination. The Democrats are all at sea again.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 4.—Judge Bucher, Democratic candidate for representative-at-large in Congress, has forwarded to Secretary Harris his withdrawal.

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 4.—Congressman Moses T. Stevens, Democrat, has written a letter declining to be a candidate for re-election in Fifth district.

Denver, Col., Sept. 5.—V. R. Markham, nominee of the Democratic convention for Supreme Judge, has given notice he will decline to accept.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.
The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that seized me in the night, and led, as it turned out, to the discovery of the deed feeling that I had been possessed of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'sore' feeling in my stomach. Physicians advised me to try various remedies, from which I derived no relief. When I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, I procured a bottle and began using it. My nervous system continued to improve, and in a few days had passed beyond the point where I had been before. I had not been over a year and a half, but I had gained ten pounds in weight, though I had not had more than 150 lbs. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and all of them are cured. In addition, I had a case in mind—James K. Lee, of the Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, cured all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., 123 East 10th St., New York, N. Y. Price, 50c per bottle, 25c per bottle, 10c per bottle. Free from quackery and dangerous drugs. Sold by All Druggists. Aug. 10-2p
