Transaction of Fx-Governor Bloxham. TALLAHASSEE, Fla , May 12 .- It is said here tonight that the legislature now in session will investigate the Big Democrats Who Were Elected deal by which four million acres of Florida land were tranferred to Hamilton Disston, of Philadelphia. At the time of the transfer several years ago, W. D. Bloxham, now comptrol-ler, was governor and it has always been charged by his political opponents that the part he played in the transaction was unfair both to Diss ton and the people. Disston purchased four million acres for $1,000 .would pay in Florida internal imten cents on the dollar. When Disston sought to purchase the bonds he The CAUCASIAN, last week, referred found they had been cornered by a about par. Disston refused to buy the bonds and paid cash for the land, ten cents on the dollar. It is alleged that Bloxham and his friends made several hundred thousand dollars on the transaction.

Just before Bloxham's term as governor expired it is said that he deeded to Disston 2,000,000 acres additional, for which the State never received a dollar. Disston afterwards deeded this laud back because of the been very severely criticised. A resolution to investigate will be introduced this week. It is claimed Blexham will be adduced.

Chicago's tuffed Pay-Rolls--Under Dem

Chicago's new Commissioner of Public Works-for a new Commissioner was one of the results of the political revolution at Chicago's last Some Mayorality election—has been investigating the pay-rolls of his department during the past year with some astonishing results. He found dead men and men credited with residing upon vacant lots carried on the rolls. From one pay-roll there were 638 names dropped after the election, the remaining 100 men finding no difficulty in doing the necessary work. In the water pipe bureau, the latter half of March 2906 names were on the pay-roll. During the first half of April 530 were sufficient. In one case four la borers were found with five inspectors over them. In another instance in another one laborer was under the surveillance of one inspector.

Commissioner Kent estimates that the city was cheated out of a mill on a year by stuffed pay-rolls, and promises that nothing but a whole sale emigration of professional political heelers who shared in this plunder of the city will prevent a lot of criminal prosecutions. And while the people were yet much troubled as to what would befall them there came into their midst certain men from the north, who sayeth: "We be messengers from one of the thirteen tribes," and are peaceable. Now, one of these men was called Teamoh, which, being interpreted, is Douglassite, and they spake many good things to the people. And when they had journeyed around about the country they departed into the land far to the south Now, after they had seen that land and said it is good, they fetched a compass and landed at the chief city of the O'Ferrallites. While the Governor of that land had not restrained his trumpeters from warning his people of the vile thing that had been done in the chief city of the thirteen tribes, he was told of the GLENMORE, N.
