

The Strange Story of a Ring.

It is stated upon reliable authority that in one of the palaces in the Spanish capital city of Madrid a magnificent ring hangs by a silken cord about the neck of the statue of the Maid of Almodna, the patron saint of Madrid. This ring, though set with diamonds and pearls, is nevertheless unguarded. The police pay no attention to it, nor is there any provision made for watching it by special officers, because it is not believed that any thief, however daring, would venture to appropriate it to his own use, and when the history of the ring is considered, it is hardly to be wondered at that a superstitious people prefer to give it a wide berth. According to the story that is told of the ring, it was made for King Alfonso XII, the father of the present King of Spain. Alfonso presented it to his cousin Mercedes on the day of their betrothal. How short her married life was all know, and on her death the King presented the ring to his grandmother, Queen Christina. Shortly afterwards Queen Christina died, and the King gave the ring to his sister, the Infanta del Pilar, who died within the month following. The ring was given to the youngest daughter of the Duc de Montpensier. In less than three months she died and Alfonso, by this time fearing that there was some unlucky omen connected with the bauble, put it away in his private chest. The ring was worn by the King himself, and it was deemed best to put the ring away from all the living. Hence it was hung about the neck of the bronze efigy of the Maid of Almodna, where it appears to be safe as though surrounded by a cordon of police.

A Chance for an Experiment.

Have plants intelligence? Do they ever think? These are interesting questions that would have to be answered by the statement of an observer of the ways of pumpkins and melons. Says he: "Plants often exhibit something very much like intelligence. In the case of watermelon, during a dry season, he placed a few inches from a growing pumpkin or melon vine, the latter will turn from its course, and in a day or two will get one of its leaves in the water."

We do not vouch for the truth of this, but if it is true, it is a very interesting thing. It is a very interesting thing, and it is a very interesting thing. It is a very interesting thing, and it is a very interesting thing.

Corporation Grants.

Every year the Post-office department pays nearly $30,000,000 to railroads for hauling mail cars. It is an enormous sum, and it is a very interesting thing. It is a very interesting thing, and it is a very interesting thing.

'England's surplus of $20,000,000 this year is due not so much to its own good politics as to bad politics in the United States.'

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 7-14th, 1896.—Reduced Rates via Southern Railway. The Southern Railway Company has reduced the rates on passengers traveling to Chattanooga, Tenn., May 7-14th, 1896. The Southern Railway will sell round trip tickets to Chattanooga at greatly reduced rates from all points on its line as follows:

Washington, D.C., $16.50; Charlottesville, Va., $16.15; Lynchburg, Va., $15.25; Danville, Va., $13.35; Goldsboro, N.C., $16.75; Raleigh, N.C., $16.00; Durham, N.C., $15.15; Greensboro, N.C., $13.35; Salisbury, N.C., $12.95; Charlotte, N.C., $12.00; Spartanburg, S.C., $9.50; Asheville, N.C., $7.45.

THE FARMER.

The Texas Farmer is blessed in as much as he does not have to give a mortgage on his crop to the Fertilizing Company. There are no fertilizers sold in Texas; no need of them, while in many of the States it costs the farmer from three to five dollars per acre for fertilizers. Why can you buy good lands in Texas for what it costs to fertilize in others. Write to A. A. Gallagher, Southern Passenger Agent, Iron Mountain Route, Chattanooga, Tenn., and he will send free of charge maps and books giving price and character of soil, product raised and yield per acre.

START A POPULIST PAPER.

If you want to whip an enemy, it is not a good plan to furnish him ammunition to shoot you with, and it is not a good plan for Populists to support a Democratic newspaper. Just get to get the county news, where it is possible to have a local paper of their own. If you want a Populist paper for your county to help you fight the battles of the coming campaign, you can have it. For further information address HOME PUBLISHING CO., MARSEVILLE, N. C.

"YOU KNOW THIS IS TRUE."

What is it the average man asks when he starts to go West? It is this: "I want the shortest and quickest line with the fewest changes." Now if you will write to A. A. Gallagher, Southern Passenger Agent, Iron Mountain Route, Chattanooga, Tenn., he will send free of charge maps and books giving price and character of soil, product raised and yield per acre.

DYSPEPSIA CURED BY

Mr. H. P. Williams, Ruth, Ga., in a recent letter writes: "After two years experience I do not hesitate to recommend it to all who suffer with Dyspepsia or Indigestion in any form. The purchase of one is a good investment."

This is only one of the hundreds which we have. A special leaflet for each State, as well as a large book telling all about it, and containing terms for rent and sale, free for the asking. Write for it.

WHO ARE THE ANARCHISTS?

Read the Parallel Below—Let What Is Said by Men Who Have Made History be Noted—Let what is being said by Gold-bug and the Money Power be Considered—It is Time to Awake! None but Fools will Close Their Ears and Eyes to Facts—Let the Independent Spirit of 1776 Crush the Accursed Assassins of Liberty.

Now and then some contemptible hireling of plutocracy, or some pitiful and detestable gander-headed, party-blinded fool limbers up his parrot-like tongue, and screeches "anarchist" at the honest people of the country who are trying to restore and maintain "a government of the people by the people for the people." Of course the honest men of the United States now know that none but an incorrigible fool or an irredeemable scoundrel is ever guilty of such screeching, and argument to prove it would be superfluous.

It is sometimes interesting, however, to note comparisons, and below we present a few of many that might be offered. On the one hand there are expressions in the nature of prophecy. On the other there are evidences of fulfillment—all going to show that the present course of government is leading to desperation and ruin. Shall there be a change? It is for the people to say.

Who are the anarchists quoted below? Read the fearfully significant parallel and let us have your opinion.

I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have made a monopoly of the money of the country, and they are now endeavoring to make a monopoly of the business of the country. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the government, and the banks should be made to answer to the people, and not the other way around. —Thos. Jefferson.

"If the workingmen had no vote they might be made more amenable to the hard times." —Indianapolis News (dem.)

"The capitalists have bought and are buying largely the associated press, and are controlling the avenues of intelligence." —William Windon (rep.)

If it is possible to inaugurate a greater system of robbery of the people's money (than the State banks), that system has been inaugurated in the present system of national banks. The money lost by the people under the old system of State banks is a mere bagatelle when compared to that which has been lost under the present system of national banks. —Jas. G. Blaine.

Place the money power in the hands of a combination of a few individuals, and they, by expanding or contracting the currency, may raise or sink prices at pleasure, and by purchasing and selling when at the greatest depression, may command the whole property and industry of the community. The banking system concentrates and places this power in the hands of those who control it. No wonder, then, that the people have invented better calculated to place the destinies of the many in the hands of the few. —John C. Calhoun.

"I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and calls for me to tremble for my country as I never trembled before. As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places has followed. The money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudice of the people until all wealth is concentrated in the hands of a few. The public is destroyed. I feel that this moment more anxiety for the safety of the country than ever before, even in the midst of war." —Abraham Lincoln.

"Monarchy is sometimes hinted at as a possible refuge from the powers of the people. I would be scarcely justified were I to omit exercising a warning voice against returning to despotism, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudice of the people until all wealth is concentrated in the hands of a few. The public is destroyed. I feel that this moment more anxiety for the safety of the country than ever before, even in the midst of war." —Abraham Lincoln.

"The American laborer must make up his mind henceforth not to be so duped by the European laborer. Men must be taught to work for less wages. In this way the workingman will be nearer to that state of independence which is his God-given right." —New York World.

HOW IS IT NOW? "The best meal to give a tramp is a leaden one." —New York Herald (Ind.).

"The old English system of imprisonment for debt would be preferable to our present bankrupt law." —Chicago Times (dem.)

"Hand grenades should be thrown among those who are striving to obtain higher wages, as by such treatment they will be taught a valuable lesson." —Chicago Times (dem.)

I say, come on with your schemes of confiscation, and graduated income taxes, and irredeemable currency, and universal suffrage, and to proclaiming the doctrine of the ring leaders under military necessity, and even here in the United States, we must get rid of universal suffrage, and we shall. Rather than allow these things, we will have one of the secret civil wars. —Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston; hired church tool of monopoly and plutocracy.

"There seems to be but one remedy and it must come—a change of ownership of landowners on one hand and of tenant farmers on the other something similar to what has existed in the old countries of Europe." —New York Times (Ind.).

Is not a dollar a day enough to buy bread? Water costs nothing, and a man who cannot live on bread is not a man. A family may live, laugh, and be contented with good water, and water and good bread at noon, and water and bread at night. —Rev. Henry Ward Beecher; $100,000 preacher.

$4,500 NUGGET OF GOLD.

A Chunk of Gold Found in the Historical Lead Creek Mine. There is great excitement in Concord and Carrabass county. A twenty-three pound nugget of gold was found at the Reed mine in Carrabass county last week. It was found by a man named Shin who is employed by some Ohio party.

Just 200 yards from the spot where the nugget was picked up, the great 25 pound slug was discovered nearly a century ago. The nugget is valued at $4,500.

The people are greatly excited and are thoroughly instilled with the gold fever. In connection with this it will be interesting to note that the Reed mine was the first gold mine discovered in the United States. In 1799, according to Wheeler's History of North Carolina, a large nugget was found one Sunday by a son of Jno. Reed, who was shooting fish with a bow and arrow. The boy took the piece home and hid it in a hole for several years on his house floor, to lay against the door to keep it from shutting. In the year 1802, he went to market to Fayetteville, and carried the piece of metal with him, and on showing it to a jeweller, the jeweller immediately took it for gold, and requested Mr. Reed to leave the metal with him and said he would fix it. Mr. Reed left it, and on his return the jeweller showed him a large bar of gold, six or eight inches long. The jeweller then asked Mr. Reed what he had taken for the bar. Mr. Reed, not knowing the value of gold, thought he would ask a "big price," and so he asked three dollars and fifty cents! The jeweller paid him this price.

After returning home, Mr. Reed examined and found gold in the surface along the creek and in the year 1803 a 25 pound nugget was found.

MONEY

OUR MONEY WARS

By SAMUEL LEAVITT, Author of "DICTATOR GRANT" and "PEACEMAKER GRANGE," and Editor of Peter Cooper's Advocate.

A monument of learning. One cannot but be more than pleased with the history, and admirably well adapted for the purpose of reference. He is not unwise to have a copy of this "Peacemaker Grange," etc. Quite worth the price. It is a valuable work, and one that no one who is interested in the history of the money power should be without. It is a valuable work, and one that no one who is interested in the history of the money power should be without. It is a valuable work, and one that no one who is interested in the history of the money power should be without.
