No Sacrifice of Principle.

For The Caucasian.

SILVER, Stanley Co., N. C., June 16, '96. I stand with Senator Butler and a majority of the State executive committee on the subject of fusion. I hold that a sacrifice of principle for the purpose of getting a few of our men into office is a dishonor to our party. If we co-operate with the Republicans giving them five electoral votes we are giving 5-11 of our free coinage principles and those five electoral votes might be the turning point in the Presidential election. No good general would surrender 5-11 of his army before the battle was fought. That Populists want co-operation, but do not want a sacrifice of principle to get it.

I congratulate Senator Butler on his noble work in the U. S. Senate in favor of reform. All North Carolinians, irrespective of party, should be proud of him and Representative A. C. Shuford. He stands, like the patriot that he is, fighting for the people's rights against fearful odds. I think Hon. A. C. Shuford should receive the nomination in the seventh Congressional district to succeed himself in our next Congress without a dissenting voice.

INDIAN TRAIL, N. C., June 18, '96. The Populists of Union county are standing "in the middle of the road," and gaining ground every day. We applaud the action of the State executive committee in refusing to accept the proposition of the Republicans in regard to fusion. Our motto is to steer clear of the enemy, and fight them with all the power of a suffering and outraged people. The great burning issues that are confronting the American people must be settled, and this, the CAUCASIAN shows to be in the hands of every friend of the people. It is the best paper in the South, and it has done more to break up machine rule in North Carolina than all other influences combined.

Tories and Goldbugs and Republicans.

For The Caucasian.

DELLWOOD, N. C., June 18, '96. I am seventy-seven years old. I never claimed to be a Democrat in my life. I imbibed Whiggery when quite a child by the convention and talk of my mother, who was a little girl in time of the Revolutionary war.

My opinion of the Tories was very unfavorable and I must say that I hold to the same opinion of a man who will vote for the gold standard that I then had of the Tories, and I think that future historians will hand them down to future generations with much the same kind of fame.

My first vote ever cast was for William Henry Harrison and John Tyler, and I lived a John Tyler-Henry Clay Whig up to the time of the war. I was opposed to secession. I claimed to be a Union man in the time of the war. At the surrender I united with the Republican party. To be consistent and conscientious I had to, as I believe, a consistent Republican up to Benj. Harrison's administration. I quit then and united with the People's Party. I stand exactly to-day with the Peoples Party, and a man truer to them the sun never shined upon.

Wolves in Sheep's Clothing.

For The Caucasian.

HALIFAX, N. C., June 18, '96. As chairman of Halifax township I can safely say that we endorse the action of Mr. Butler, at Raleigh, and are with him, first, last and always. Is just where he has stood since '92, with all the rebuke that could be heaped upon me by the SUB-BOSSES of the Democratic party, who are today wolves in sheep's clothing, crying for free silver! free silver! They do hate so bad to LEAVE THE FREE COUNTERS, but I do hope and trust that the people will not be deceived any longer, but will act wisely and with independence before it is too late.

One As Bad As the Other.

MINNOLA, N. C., June 18, '96. The Popa here are "in the middle of the road" and no fusion with either one of the old parties is what they want, as one of the old friends is as bad as the other.

LAKE SPURFORD, N. C., June 16. The Populists are in the "middle of the road" and will stay there. Hyde county is for silver. The Peoples Party is growing every day. Hurrah for "Mary Ann" Butler and THE CAUCASIAN.

A WARNING TO HIS PARTY.

GROVER CLEVELAND WRITES A LETTER--AND TELLS THE DEMOCRATS TO BEWARE OF SILVER.

He Cannot Believe the Democratic Party No Executive and Position as to Decline for Free Silver in Its National Convention. It Means Lasting Disaster to the Party Organization.

WASHINGTON, June 16.--Today President Cleveland made the following reply to a representative of the New York Herald, who asked of the President a statement concerning the Democratic situation. Mr. Cleveland said:

"I have made no figures as to the probable action of delegates already chosen or to be chosen to the Democratic national convention, but I refuse to believe that when the time arrives for deliberate action, there will be engraved upon our Democratic creed a demand for the free unlimited and independent coinage of silver. I cannot believe this because I know the Democratic party is neither unpatriotic nor foolish and it seems clear to me that such a course will inflict a very serious injury on every interest of our country which it has been the mission of Democracy to advance, and will result in lasting disaster to our party organization. There is little hope for us as a means of success. This free silver proposition, after its thorough discussion at a political campaign, will attract a majority of the votes of the country.

"It must be that many of the illusions influencing those now relying on this alleged panacea for their ills will be dispelled before the time comes for them to cast their ballot, which will express their sober second thought. The adoption by Democracy of this proposition would, I believe, give to our opponents an advantage both in the present and future which they do not deserve.

"My attachment to true Democracy is so strong that I consider its success as identical with the promotion of the country's good.

"This ought sufficiently to account for my anxiety that no mistake be made on our party convention. In my opinion no effort should be spared to secure such action of the delegates as will avert party demoralization.

"It is a place for consultation, and a comparison of views of those Democrats who believe in the cause of sound money should there be heard and be constantly in evidence. A cause worth fighting for is worth fighting to the end. If sound money Democrats suppose there is danger of a mistake being made such danger should be averted by every effort in averting it instead of creating discouragement.

"I am very far from arrogating to myself a controlling influence upon the policy of my party; but as an unflinching Democrat who has been engaged in the grand old organization hereafter no greater political privileges than to occupy the place of private in its ranks. I hope I may not be blamed for saying this much at this time in the interest, as it were, of the grand old organization so justly proud of its achievements, and always so undaunted and brave in its battles for the public welfare."

"UNEXCEPTIONALLY GOOD."

Such is the Status of the Peoples Party in Nash County.

For The Caucasian.

It affords me much pleasure to report that the sentiment and condition of the Peoples Party in my county is UNEXCEPTIONALLY GOOD. I have yet to hear of a single Populist who has disapproved of the action of the State executive committee in reference to co-operation upon the unfair terms offered by the Republicans.

Every one is calmly awaiting the call for our National convention before taking decisive steps in political matters, fully realizing his right to vote his sentiment on his ballot, which he knows will be fairly counted on the 3rd of November next and thought may be

"Distinct as the billow," its force will be

"One as the sea." The course of our State chairman Butler, fully endorsed by them as such, as well as his strenuous efforts and firm stand he has taken for the Peoples Party in the Senate to secure for our oppressed country the best legislation.

Congressman W. F. Strowd, likewise, comes in for his meed of praise. All say of the "noble old Roman" "Well done thou good and faithful servant!" His course has been fully approved by the Populists and Alliance men in Nash county.

To the selection of delegates to the National convention, and Congressional committee, I have heard much, as the plan certainly is more economical and will secure good representatives and save much time.

The Democrats are evidently giving us due credit for the manly independence we have for our stand for the principle, and let them become convinced that an oppressed child cannot be forced to return to his cruel and unnatural parent, even with the alluring bait of "office," they will be willing to vote with us for free silver and the other reforms on which we harmonize.

I believe that the "little cloud like a man's hand," that appeared in the political sky at the Prohibition National convention, at Pittsburg, on May 27th, which was driven by the silver "bolt" of Henry's "Blaine" may pour forth a saving flood for "the healing of the nations."

WATCH THE DEMOCRATS.

They Are Making Loud Professions and Big Promises--But What Are Their Records?

For The Caucasian.

As the time is drawing near for the conventions of the different parties, I would write a word of warning to the voters of the Populist Party and also the managers of the party. I say, WATCH THE DEMOCRATS. In my opinion this free silver attack which is sweeping the country and of which almost every Democratic paper is full, is with them nothing but a humbug--a vote catcher. Well do I remember in 1892, how the Democratic press and speakers told us to vote the Democratic ticket and we would have free silver. It has been almost four years since that time and no free silver yet. I am a full-blooded free silver man, but I never expect to speak in the Democratic party nor anywhere outside the Populist party. They see the handwriting on the wall; they see their doom; and they hear the murmurs of the masses all over the country, who speak in no uncertain tones, and they are making one of the greatest struggles of their life.

What, free silver inside the Democratic party! Just as well expect Grover Cleveland to give Senator Butler a high position in his cabinet. It is done to blind the people; to fool them again.

Talk about free silver in the Democratic party! They have no more use for it (only to catch votes) than the devil has for a powder horse. I will not speak in the Democratic party, nor anywhere outside the Populist party. They see the handwriting on the wall; they see their doom; and they hear the murmurs of the masses all over the country, who speak in no uncertain tones, and they are making one of the greatest struggles of their life.

[A copy of letter received June 11]

"It was a great pity you published your letter in the CAUCASIAN, as you were being talked about as the next register of deeds for this country.

That place is worth all the rest, and just suits you. It pays about two thousand dollars every year, and you could have published a fusion paper. But you have turned your back on all the parties, except the Democratic, and they won't give you any place. The fusion party wanted you, but now you have slapped them all in the face. It is a great pity."

The above is a copy of the letter received by me.

POLITICAL POT-POURRI.

Condensed Mention Of What People Are Saying And What Some Are Doing.

Bird's Eye View of Events as Pictured by the Expressions of Opinion by Some People Who Know--People Who Are Talked About For Office.

Capt. S. A. Ashe, of Raleigh; Mr. Carmaduke J. Hawkins, of Ridge-way, and Mr. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, are being spoken of in connection with the Democratic nomination for State Treasurer.

Col. F. A. Olds, the Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

"The Chatham county Democrats, it seems, failed to elect Henry A. London a delegate to the State convention. For twenty-five years he has always been a delegate, and has always been one of the most useful and accurate members."

This is rather strange to THE CAUCASIAN, for the genial Mr. London is about all that is left of the Democratic party in Chatham. His explanation of this "slip" is that Mr. London was too modest to elect himself.

Hon. William A. Guthrie, of Durham, N. C., a recognized Populist leader and lawyer of high standing, was seen at the Metropolitan last evening, says the Washington Post. It is thought that he will be nominated for Governor when his party assembles to name a State.

Senator Butler, unless he told me so, would not be until the meeting of the National Populist convention at St. Louis.

In discussing the situation with a Post man, Mr. Guthrie said:

"The Populist and Republican parties in North Carolina have drifted so far apart that fusion is no longer thought of by either. It would have been impracticable anyway on the Presidential ticket, but now there will be no combination to elect State officers, as there was in 1894. There may be a local combination affecting only county officers, but this will scarcely be general. In 1894 the fusion movement was carried to success because two great reforms were to be obtained by it--the reform of the election laws and the reform of the judiciary which gave the legislator the right to appoint commissioners, who, in turn, selected county commissioners, the most important of all local officials. Both purposes were carried out; frauds on the ballot are a thing of the past, and the right of the people to choose their own officers will never be taken away."

"There is now no longer any such ground for combining against the party that had stood for perpetuating these abuses, for the abuses have been corrected, and so there will be three separate tickets in the field. The Populist Party in North Carolina stands solidly for silver; no man could be a Populist who was not in favor of free coinage. I know that a tremendous majority of our people are believing in this policy, no matter to what party they belong. It is the only policy which the Populist will carry the State in November."

"What figure will the Populists cut in the National election?"

"I can't answer that until after all the National conventions have been held. If the silver Republicans at St. Louis this week bolt and nominate Senator Teller, and if the Democrats at Chicago are wise enough to come out for silver and endorse Teller, then it is almost a certainty that the Populist convention will likewise recommend him as a fit Presidential candidate. Of course the silver convention, which meets on the same day and in the same place, St. Louis, will follow suit. If all this happens Mr. Teller will be certain to go in the White House on March 4th next as Grover Cleveland is to make his exit."

Commenting on the fact that Mr. W. C. Whitney decided to forego his trip to Europe in order to try to get the Democratic convention to declare for the gold standard, the New York Herald says that Whitney is worth to the gold cause as much as one hundred silver delegates would be to the silver cause.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

"Some earnest and life-long Democrats say they do not like the tone of the silver resolution which the Wake county Democratic convention adopted last Saturday. They add that it is perilously like the resolution adopted by the so-called State silver convention Sept. 25th last, and that it makes the test not Democracy but free silver."

So! When you pin some of these Democratic free silver squallers right down to business on this silver question, they wiggle like a hooked eel. And they are so sick that even after they are caught there is danger of their slipping away.

HERE'S ANOTHER SLIP.

Democrats Nominate Another Goldbug For The State Senate.

TARBORO, N. C., June 16, '96. The Edgecombe county Democratic convention, which was recently held here, nominated a man for the State who is an avowed gold standard advocate, at least he says he is opposed to the free coinage of silver--which means gold standard. But the action of the Democrats will decide no one in this county this year. The people are for the restoration of silver and other financial reforms, and no goldbug can be elected.

JAMES B. LLOYD.

Ex-Congressman Bryan, of Ne-benka, is one Democrat who had the encourage a year ago to say that if his party should decide for the gold standard he would leave it. In a recent interview he says:

"What the Western Republican leaders tell you of the situation will be of more interest than what I say. But I am only repeating the declarations they make when I say the strong probability is that the Republicans cannot carry a single State west of the Mississippi river. I have assurances from eminent Republican sources that in a contest with the lines drawn squarely on the money question, Illinois and Indiana will certainly be found in the Democratic column, while even Ohio is doubtful. Everybody admits that the new lining up upsets all calculations based on party lines of the past. The movement in favor of silver is no confined to any State or any section."
