The Ladies' Manual. Twelve Books Combined in One!

The Ladies' Manual is a large volume of 122 large three solution quarto passes, neatly bound in attractive colored paper covers. It contains 256 hardsome illustrations, and is without exception the largest and most comprehensive book for ladies ever published and sold for the low price of twenty-five cents. It is really freder books combined in one and sold for the price of one, for it contains the material usually sold in twelve separate and distinct volumes. It may therefore be justly claimed to be a first default book for heavy-five cents. It is without doubt one of the most useful and valuable books for ladies ever published, containing a greater amount and more extensive variety of useful information than was ever before gathered together and published in a single volume. The following are the contents of the Ladies' Manual: I. Fancy Work for Home Adorsment. How to make Sizes for 8 and 10 years. The little frock illustrated is cadet-blue cashmere, trimmed with rows of narrow, black velvet ribbon. The straight, full skirt is finished at the foot with a deep hem and banded with rows of the velvet. It is gathered to the waist, and on each side of the front several tucks headed by rows of velvet are run down five or six inches, the velvet bands ending in loops. The lower, closefitting parts of the sleeves are trimmed to match, and so is the square bertha. The waist is the regulation full "baby" style, held in place by a fitted lining, and the yoke is of Irish point lace; velvet or fancy silk can be used for this, if preferred.
