NOTE.
On more than one occasion extracts have been made from editorials in THE CAUCASIAN and sent over the country by the Associated Press as coming from Senator Barker, when the editorials were written by the managing editor from a local standpoint. To prevent a recurrence of impressions thus conveyed, the editorials written hereafter by Senator Barker will be signed "M. B."

A STATEMENT OF GREAT ECONOMIC CHANGE.
In the last issue of Hon. Wharton Barker's journal, the American, there is a very thoughtful, able and comprehensive editorial headed "The Defense and the Defenders of Human Rights." Mr. Barker has been a life long Republican. Like Senator Teller he refused to support McKinley on a gold platform. He supported Mr. Bryan. But he was not pleased with the Chicago convention and is not a Democrat and never will be. Since the last campaign he has studied the transportation question and is now satisfied that the platform of the Peoples Party is right. Why does he not join the Peoples Party? The conduct of those who are trying to divide the party makes him hesitate. Let very Populist who loves his party and its principles read the following taken from Mr. Barker's editorial.

After showing how his party (the Republican Party) had gone entirely over to the gold gamblers, and how the great railroad systems of the country were used to build up our industry and to tear down another, he says:
The use of our railroads in this diabolical way the Republican party has tolerated, even as it has tolerated the appropriation of gold millions and the resulting expropriation of the richest of the few by the despoiling of the debtor classes. It has tolerated the trusts that have grown up under this system; it has permitted them to shelter themselves behind the protective system, and under the tariff imposed for the protection of our people as a vast ground from which to oppress them. Thus has the Republican party become the champion of property rights, the sinner and abettor of those tramping on human rights, and building up an oligarchy of wealth, an oligarchy that threatens the sanctity of the ballot box, imperils the freedom of elections, undermines our Republic, crushes liberty to earth.

It turns, then, to the Republican party as the defender of human rights. The Democratic party comes much nearer being the party that was organized to overthrow an oligarchy built on negro slavery, an oligarchy that enriched itself by despoiling 4,000,000 blacks of the fruits of their toil, but who championed and protected the money oligarchy, preying on 70,000,000 of freemen, freemen from chattel slavery, despoiling them of the fruits of their toil and reducing classes and the industrial poverty, until the negro freemen bids to become but a trawler on their condition.

The American supported the Republican party while it believed that party would best serve the best interests of our country.
In 1892 there was no choice between the parties. Both candidates were accepted to the money oligarchy; both distasteful to those believing in the supremacy of human rights. In 1896 we gave our support to Mr. Bryan, not because we were satisfied with the platform of the Democratic party or its candidate, but because we saw in the rejuvenated Democratic party the promise of a bright future, a ray of promise that would become a whole, as it had in part, the champion of policies dictated by a regard for the rights of man.

only discord bred of mutual distrust of the motives of well-meaning, patriotic men. Mere jealousy of the leaders, the desire to equalize by pulling down rather than by building up is contemptible. Those who harbor it are unworthy of the great cause to which they profess to be attached with heart and soul.

It seems now that the Peoples Party is on the eve of a split. Therefore, though it stands for the principles that must be the issues in the next contest, it is not in a condition to invite into its ranks the various reform forces and to lead them to victory.

The above should make every sincere and honest Populist, who has been misled by the Coxy scheme for a conference to divide the party, stop and think. Mr. Barker supported Bryan, but he is not a Democrat; the Populists supported Bryan, but they are not Democrats. Mr. Barker was so impressed with the position of the Peoples Party, and because he was taking the same position himself, began to study our principles. The result is, he is a Populist, but the action of the kickers and disorganizers makes him hesitate about joining the party. There is a fine opportunity then to bring recruits into our party than now, if the kickers would only stop their suicidal course, and let us all join hands in inviting and welcoming into our party such men as Mr. Barker. We must show such men as Mr. Barker (and there are hundreds of thousands of them waiting to see where to go) that the Peoples Party will exert itself to unite all genuine reformers against the common enemy. They are not Democrats. They will not join that party unless our party leaves them nowhere else to go. They believe in our principles, but they will not join our party if they think that it will be used as a side show for the gold syndicate and the monopolies in the next fight.

IT DEPENDS.
Referring to the effects of the new tax law, concerning which there has been so much discussion in the State papers within the past week, the Asheville Citizen says:
Can it be possible that the people of North Carolina will, with the exception of the property class, refuse to power up a such a combination of ignorance and spite and malevolence as was embodied in the fusion majority in the last Legislature?
That depends. If the Democrats fuse with the Populists as they did last year, they will be stopped from criticizing the present administration, and the Legislature of 1898. If Democratic speakers go over the State in '98, as they did in '96, frothing at the mouth about 16 to 1, and governing by the iron hand and the iron fist, as they did last year, about what had been going on under our very noses, why, then, the people will return to power that very continuation of ignorance and spite and malevolence. Why should they not, if, by silence, they are given to understand that that is the only way to escape the iron hand of the Democrats as ever to regain control of North Carolina, they have got to find out that there are other people to be attacked, besides Cleveland and Carlisle, who won't be running them, anyhow. The feelings of somebody here at home have got to be hurt if the Democrats are to have a victory.—Charlotte Observer.

Oh, the pity of it! Truly, it seems that the party is demoralizing and that none can be in it and not become tinctured with bad company characteristics.
We feel a tinge of regret at seeing the Charlotte Observer about to go down in the very dirt. Generally speaking, it has been about the only leading daily Democratic or so-called Democratic paper in the State that has maintained any respectability or observed any decency during the past year. It is the only paper that has not been victimized by some of its splenetic and spitefully impotent correspondents. But we never blamed the Observer for this. It could not always know whether these correspondents were telling facts or not, and in the rush and haste of daily journalism we know there is no time for full investigation of what is set in by its reporters. If there had been such time, many things that have appeared in the Observer would have never been published therein.

The Observer was about the only "Leading" daily Democratic paper in North Carolina that became disgusted with its party when that party stood for the Populist platform and then stood for the Democratic platform. The Democratic ticket, they are not the best. The idea of an infernal snarl, talking about anybody else's honesty? No wonder the Observer was disgusted. Any honest, decent paper could not have felt otherwise. And we are free to say that we inwardly commended the Charlotte Observer for the disgust it felt. It had our genuine sympathy and our candid respect.

But it has remained in Democratic company, and the result is that it seems to be getting "wobbly." The first stumble it made was to allow itself to be taken in by the wild report sent out from Raleigh announcing the ruin of the A. & M. College because of a change or two was made in the faculty. We really expected the Observer to editorially notice the denial and condemnation of these reports by the College Faculty, composed almost of the same men who have always been there; but to our utter astonishment it sought to emphasize that absurd drivel. Our heart sank within us. "Is the very last evidence," we thought, "of any sort of decency among daily democratic journals in this State, about to go down?" We fervently hope not, for with all the wrongs we have of, and the suspicion we entertain toward the Democratic party, we would like to see something like either dots or detards, we cannot say.

about the last Legislature. All editorials have some remarks made about them; but how unthinkably ridiculous it is to try to make it appear that the last body was a "combination of ignorance and spite and malevolence" and saying nothing about the assassin gang that had been assembling in Raleigh for twenty years before. We would not hold up the last Legislature as a thing of grand credit to the State, yet any man with any sort of sense knows that it was far superior to many of the crowds that had come here to make laws prior to 1895. You can't fool the people any longer, if you ever have fooled them, about these things.

But now about the "dirt." The Observer talks about hurting somebody's feelings here at home as a condition precedent to a Democratic victory. This is not the normal plane of the observer, and hence we fear it is becoming tainted. But whose feelings? And who is going to do the hurting? Is it possible that the Observer thinks that any man or any paper that calls itself democratic can hurt the feelings of anybody in this State who is not a Democrat. Great Scott, Doc! do you know how a Democrat stands in this State now? And don't you know further, that if you can hurt any feelings, the more you hurt them the greater and more disastrous will be the defeat of any Democratic ring that can make up a slate and counterfeit their political opponents' tickets?

We declare, honestly, we like you and respect you, but you have certainly come to a point where you need to "cool off." Perhaps the weather is to blame for this business anyway. We shall squarely regret the day when we must conclude that the Charlotte Observer is maintaining its respectability with a weak hand, and taking leave of its common sense at the same time.
There is not a word of truth in the report that Senator Butler had made arrangements with Senator Pritchard for part of the federal patronage of North Carolina, which has been published in certain Democratic papers. The whole story about any bargain or agreement is utterly without truth or foundation. The position of Senator Butler and the Populist Congressmen is just as stated in the card recently published over their signatures.

THE CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION.
The North Carolina Teacher's Assembly, at its recent session at Morehead city, formed a strong and influential committee to organize and promote the campaign of education this year. Hon. C. H. Mabane, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was made chairman of the committee. This means that some genuine "stirring up" is going to be done all down the line. Mr. Mabane is bending every energy toward awakening a practical and vivid interest in educational matters and it may as well be understood, once for all, that he proposes to find and will find plans and measures by which the sentiment of the people of this State on this question can be kept in a quiet and apparently unobtrusive in this work, but is earnest and determined and never ceases thinking of it.

Of course it is pretty well understood that the "campaign of education" in this State is based upon the law enacted by the last General Assembly, proposing to give from the general State fund as much money to any township as that township will raise for education by means of special tax. This practically means that township, by waking up and taking advantage of the law, can extend its school term from five to eight weeks longer than the term has usually been; and since an extension of the school term has long been talked of and almost demanded, it does seem a little bit, if any township would decline the opportunity offered.

An election on the question must be held in every township. On this point the law is mandatory. It may be that in some localities there will be indifference, and it may be that a tight vote will be cast in some quarters; but the election will be in progress, and every voter in North Carolina will have an opportunity to vote on the most important and vital State question that has been advanced in a generation.

We do not write on this question with as much enthusiasm and hope as we would like to feel. We know that some men—some good men—in various parts of the State are not in sympathy with the purposes of the township feature of taxation. We sincerely hope that they are not numerous, but it is certain that they are. Here and there are, up to this time, in opposition to the proposed plan for extending the public school term. We do not question their motives now, but we will take the liberty of saying that it seems incredible that any man who desires to see the State pull from the slough of ignorance and illiteracy in which it has been for so many years, and which it is now in, can stand up in opposition to the only practicable plan that has ever been suggested or offered for remedying these conditions. Our inevitable conclusion is that these men have not taken pains to look into the matter thoroughly.
