TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS FOR CAMPAIGN.
We have had a number of requests to make a special rate for THE CAUCASIAN for three months. We cannot do this. It means a loss to us. The paper cannot be published for less than $1.00 a year without loss.

"THE KIND OF A WHITE MAN'S PARTY NEEDED."
The News and Observer, after four weeks' hesitation and squirming, has at last been forced to answer—but what an answer! See how it dodges.

For the benefit of our many readers who have subscribed to THE CAUCASIAN during the past month, we will say that four weeks ago we published a column and a half editorial headed: "The Kind of a White Man's Party Needed," in which we showed the kind of the white man's party that all good men favor—one that will bring together to elect the next legislature all of the good citizens of the state who are honestly opposed to the gold standard and to the domination of the State by Rothschild's fraud corporation.

From '76 to '91 every Democratic legislature refused to pass laws to force railroads and other monopolies in the State to list their property and pay their share of taxation. Is the News and Observer in favor of electing another legislature of the kind which will repeal the laws which the Alliance and the Peoples Party have passed to force this vast amount of property to pay taxes?

For years the women, girls and teachers of the State had been demanding the establishment of a Normal Industrial and Training School for girls. Every Democratic legislature under monopoly influence denied this appeal. The Alliance legislature granted the appeal. Which of the two kinds of legislatures does the News and Observer favor?

From '76 to '91 the Democratic party under the lead of the railroad attorneys and the Ransom Machine sent delegations to every national Democratic convention supporting a Cleveland goldbug for President. Does the News and Observer want to re-establish the rule of that ring and dynasty in order to slaughter Bryan in 1900?

These are only a few of the many reasons why the good people of this state do not want to see the Cleveland Ransom monopoly machine reinstated in this state as they were from '76 to '91, with one exception. THE CAUCASIAN has been showing each week how the good people of this state united on great economic reforms in '90-'91 to give us a white man's government which the trust and monopolist could not control, and which would legislate for the public good could be united in a co-operative movement for the same purposes in the next campaign.

There is not a man who has read THE CAUCASIAN's article in favor of a white man's party for reform and good government but what will smile at the name and dodging reply of the News and Observer. It will remind each one of the case of the ostrich that thought it had hid when it stuck its head in the sand. But for the benefit of those, if there be such, who may think that the Observer's reply is in any way pertinent, we will state the following facts:

yet the railroad attorneys controlling the Democratic party each time made their campaign with the "nigger" and the tariff as the issues, and hence succeeded in getting a legislature each time that would down a Railroad Commission. Does the News and Observer want more legislatures of that kind?

It was in 1890 when the people rose in their might regardless of party, under the lead of the Farmer's Alliance, kicked the nigger and the railroad politicians in the background and made a great campaign against railroad domination and pledged every candidate for the legislature to vote for a Railway Commission and for other economic reforms, that the people first succeeded in electing a legislature the railroads did not control. The negro was not an issue in that campaign, and yet the white men got together and elected a legislature on the reform questions. THE CAUCASIAN is in favor of another such fight. Will the News and Observer join THE CAUCASIAN in making such a fight, or will it help the railroad attorneys to make the "nigger" an issue and elect another legislature that the railroad can control?

The same is true with reference to the six per cent interest law. The people demanded it year after year. The railroads and the Cleveland and Ransom goldbugs in disguise who controlled the Democratic party each time promised it to them, but they made their campaign on the tariff and the "nigger" and succeeded in getting a legislature which the bankers and money lenders could control, and hence it was left for the Peoples Party members in 1894 to give the people the six per cent interest law, which they had so long demanded and which had been denied them by every Democratic legislature. Is the News and Observer in favor of electing the kind of a Democratic legislature that will repeal the six per cent interest law?

But for the benefit of those, if there be such, who may think that the Observer's reply is in any way pertinent, we will state the following facts:

From 1876 to 1894, or rather from the administration of Vance to that of Russell, every governor has been a so-called Democrat, yet every one has been under the influence of the railway corporations of the State. Does the News and Observer want more Governors of that kind?

From 1876 to 1894 every legislature in North Carolina has been Democratic (except the Alliance legislature in 1891, and we are in favor of another legislature of that kind) yet every one of these legislatures, except the Alliance legislature, has been dominated and controlled by the railroads and the money lenders. Year after year, for ten years or more, the people have been demanding a Railway Commission to control railroads and check discriminations and extortions.

STUPIDITY THAT IS NOT STUPID.

The monopoly grant at Charlotte, when its editor is in possession of his natural faculties, is not stupid. But his latest lap in defence of the lease fraud is as muddy and maudlin as if it were scribbled trash for the "Wilmington Messenger." Listen to him:

"Thus it will be seen that Mr. Butler wants the State of North Carolina in its administration of the affairs of the North Carolina Railroad, to adopt the policy which he holds so responsible when pursued by Jay Gould and other corporations. In other words, he is willing to see the private stockholders frozen out—their forty-nine shares of stock put on a basis on which they would not be worth a continental or Confederate note. If he doesn't mean this in the foregoing extract he doesn't mean anything at all. Then how much better is it than Jay Gould? In what particular does the moral character of the transaction proposed by our writer from that proposed by the other?"

Now suppose a man (call him Joseph) owns a majority of stock in a corporation. He is offered a big price for it by Jay or his successors. Must he decline a big profit because his minority associates cannot sell or will be hurt if he sells? Ordinary men would sell and say, "this is my property and I am not guardian for you."

"Oh, but my dear Joseph, if you sell to Jay he will have the control and will cheat me. He will eat up the profits in big salaries for himself and his cronies; and will use the property to his own profit, that belongs entirely to me." So says the minority man.

Joseph would answer: "That is your lookout, not mine. If Jay cheats you then go to law or do the best you can. I have had the majority control and I didn't cheat you. But if a horse trader offers me a big price for my horse, I have the right to take it without enquiring as to whether he will gamble with it or cheat somebody on the race track."

And so Joseph would sell his stock to Jay. Then Jay would proceed to cheat them according to law. He would apply to them the "laws of business" by means of which the whole breed of Jays, the Astors, the Rockefellers, the Vanderbilts and the Rothschilds and Morgans have piled their riches and wealth; and without which concentrated help would not be in control of a subsidized and corrupt venal press.

But this corporation organ professes to believe that Joseph is as immoral in selling his own property for a good price, as is Jay in buying it for the purpose of running over the minority men and swindling them according to law.

He professes to believe that good men must never dispose of their own until they get the consent of all other good men and take security from the purchaser that he, himself, will be an angel. These truly good are scarce, except in corporation and monopoly railroad newspaper circles, where only true piety exists—piety that is measured by the gold dollar and keeps pace with its rising scale.

"A friend tells of seeing some convicts at work in Caldwell and upon asking one of them the reason for their being there, got this answer: "I had fellow, pointing to a brother in distress, 'is in for killing or a cow; the power of the State is here for Ed. Wakefield last year.'"

THE NEWS AND OBSERVER TO ANSWER.
"A friend tells of seeing some convicts at work in Caldwell and upon asking one of them the reason for their being there, got this answer: "I had fellow, pointing to a brother in distress, 'is in for killing or a cow; the power of the State is here for Ed. Wakefield last year.'"

THE NEW SCHOOL LAW CURE THREE

Mr. E. P. Overton, of Crosswell, N. C. in a communication to the Progressive Farmer on the school question says: "If we farmers could get better prices for our produce, the majority of us would undoubtedly be in favor of being taxed higher for the benefit of schools and in order to secure a longer term, provided the money was spent for the benefit of the children and not spent to free so many unprofitable or un-useful county school officers. In that way, much money that should be used for the benefit of the children is spent to no purpose."

If every farmer was rich he could afford to send his children off to a college, or to the city graded schools, or to some good academy to be educated. The very fact that farming is so unprofitable makes it necessary for 95 children out of every hundred to grow up in ignorance unless a good public school is run in each neighborhood, so the children can board at home and help on the farm mornings and evenings and Saturdays, and still get a good education.

Our boys and girls must grow up ignorant or we must have better public schools. The defects which Mr. Overton points out existed under the old school law, but the new law cures all these defects. The new township law will make our schools better and give longer terms, without any extra taxation.

After the people see that the school money will not be wasted, but handled wisely under the new township system, then they will be willing to vote the local township tax whenever it shall be found necessary.

If our children are to be educated it is the cheapest way to do it. It is the only way that a majority of the children will ever get an education as long as we stay under the gold standard and the prices of farm products stay low.

We should have a graded school in every township, just as the cities now have. The city graded schools are run by local taxation, the county graded schools (if we ever have them) must also be run by local taxation. It is the cheapest way to have good schools.

JUDGE CLARK'S RESPONSE.
The "Times-Herald" of Chicago selected one justice of the highest court in each state and addressed him a letter, enquiring as to the legality of injunctions in labor disputes, against laborers quitting work or moving about the country, and as to the proper remedy for the abuse. For this State it selected Judge Clark. Below we give his response, which upholds the freedom of the citizen and the right of trial by jury.

EDITOR TIMES-HERALD, Chicago, Ill.
SIR:—In response to your inquiry, the new practice of issuing injunctions in labor disputes, in its scope, is without precedent in the history of the State. It is a bold usurpation by judges who have been appointed to life positions by the influence of great corporations and who are under no responsibility for their conduct. It is a denial to the citizen of the right of trial by jury, by judges who enact the law by their own decrees and then execute it by the pen and the contempt.

The remedy is by a constitutional amendment which shall make the United States Judges elective by the people in their respective districts and circuits for a term of years. That public sentiment endorses this corrective measure is shown by the fact that the supervision of public opinion is shown by the fact that in every State, except three, the judges now hold for a fixed term, and are subject to removal by a vote of a bare majority of the legislature. As to the U. S. Judges, they are selected without the public having any voice in their selection and ordinarily by influences that are hostile to popular rights; they are subject to no restraint, as impeachment is impracticable, and they assume to set aside the acts of Congress and to stay the action of the Executive—at their will. That, possessed of this arbitrary and supreme power (which should be entrusted to no one but men and by reason of their life tenure (which is unrepugnant) subject to no supervision, there are not withstanding, they can trust no longer to this. Arbitrary and supreme power will debauch its possessors. It has always done so. Judges are no exception to this principle of human nature.

Justice Supreme Court of N. C.
HON. WALTER E. FAISON.
In the last issue we published an account of the death of Hon. Walter E. Faison, the late Solicitor of the State Department at Washington. While only 42 years of age he was one of the finest international lawyers in the country, and besides, he was one of the finest types of manhood this writer has known. He is probably the only man in the history of our Government that has been promoted so frequently on merit without having any political influence whatever behind him. But this has been achieved at the cost of his life, for death is the result of overwork.

PERATOR JONES' MISTAKE.

Senator Jones, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, wrote a letter to the machine Democrats in New York which counted against them in ignoring the Chicago platform in their State and local fight in order to get gold and silver Democrats to get together. The Atlanta Journal, a gold Democratic paper, (edited by Hoke Smith) is greatly delighted with Senator Jones' letter, and commenting on it, says:

"It is an extremely cheerful and hopeful sign that the National Democratic chairman thinks more of the party's success than he does of the address at this time to the one issue which has done so much to divide the Democratic party."

Senator Jones has made a mistake, and the more praise he gets from papers like the Atlanta Journal the more he will realize the mistake. Of course the Atlanta Journal wants the silver and monopoly questions put in the background. It is each day howling tariff and "nigger."

We see it stated that Ex-Senator Ransom is in favor of making the "nigger" the leading issue in the next campaign. Of course he is. He needs the nigger to hide behind to call attention from his own shady record. How could he make a speech on the silver question without he betrayed his people and voted to repeal the last silver law on the statute books? How could he enter a campaign to fight the robber national banking system, when he voted for the infamous measure in the Senate? How could he enter a campaign when the people were fighting the oppressors of railroad monopolies and asking for lower rates and fares, when he has been Andrews' right-hand man and stand-by in the State and in Congress for a quarter of a century?

Of course Ransom and a great many railroad politicians are anxious to keep these questions out of the campaign. They must be kept out or those politicians will have to stay out.

THE GOLDING RAILROADS.
A few weeks ago J. Pierpont Morgan, the American financial agent of the Rothschilds, gobled up the Lehigh Valley railroad for his Shylock valleries in London. Last week he captured the Georgia railroad. We see that he is now figuring to wreck and capture the B. & O. system. This will make ten of the largest railroad systems in the United States, comprising every foot of railway line running into New York from the South and West and out to Chicago, except the Pennsylvania, and it is reported that he has his greedy clutches already turned to that system. We are fast approaching the time when our people must make up their minds to take charge and operate their own railway system, or allow the whole thing to be operated by the London gold syndicate. Which shall it be? In such a contest the Tories will be one side; the American patriots on the other.

FORCING MEASURES TO THE FRONT.
Just as long as voters do their kicking between elections and on election day vote the same old ticket, just that long will things go from bad to worse.—Rosenburg X Rays.
We heartily endorse the above for it locates the disease very accurately. It is as the X Rays says, and will continue just the same old way so long as the people let lawyers and politicians do their thinking for them. This has been the trouble for 100 these many years. The voter, the most directly interested in an honest government has not the manhood to oppose these vampires. But we are proud to say that the Populist, little by little, are forcing to the front those measures so essential to existence as a nation, as a people, and we do not think the time so very far away when the Populist party against oppression in every form will have its effect for the good of our people.

GIVE THEM NAMES.
"The Wilmington Messenger says: Every few days we see in State exchanges reports of 'change of heart' of reputable populists, who have become disgusted and have cut loose from the Butler gang."

It will be noticed that these papers are careful never to give the names nor the Post Office of those Populists who they claim have joined the Democratic party.

Judge Robinson in his charge to the Grand Jury at Raleigh last week, charged that free passes were unlawful under the Railroad Commission law and that any railroad violating this law should be indicted. We congratulate Judge Robinson. He is the first Judge who has done this. THE CAUCASIAN called attention to this matter in its last issue and asked why the Superior court Judges did not charge the Grand Jurors.

HOW FOR 50,000 SUBSCRIBERS

Let every reader of THE CAUCASIAN send in at least one new subscriber under our special offer, and so help to circulate THE CAUCASIAN. Every voter should read the facts which THE CAUCASIAN is publishing every week. For $1.00 we will send it every week until December 1, 1898.

"The Democratic railroad organs have all published and criticized what purported to be an interview with Governor Russell in the Washington Post. Every one of the leading Democratic dailies could have had Governor Russell interviewed and ascertained whether or not the interview was correct before they published it. They did not. Why not? Now Governor Russell has come out in a statement denouncing the bogus interview as false. Will all these Democratic papers now make the correction? We will wait and see."

Now that the Populists have made a square fight in opposition to a government by irijunction, and a great majority of the people are flocking to their standard the Democrats oppose it. Where was the manhood of your Democratic statesmen that they did not oppose it, when virtually the same thing happened under Cleveland's administration? May God have mercy on your deceitful souls; you will need it.

See on the front page a letter from Senator Butler to the Sampson Democrat. That paper refused to publish the letter, though it had called on the Senator for a reply. It contains more facts than a railroad organ wants to publish.

The Wilmington Messenger has not yet explained why it refused to publish Judge Avery's card. It is better reading than editorials clipped from that negro paper at Faison's.

We are at liberty to state for Dr. Kingsbury that he will oppose any movement looking toward colonizing the negro in Africa or anywhere else outside of this State, at present. He needs them in his business.

Editor Daniel's defence of the Almighty against Mark Hanna's presumptuous familiarity is the leading feature of a new farce comedy entitled "The Devil Quoting Scripture."

If the Republican party and the gold standard are responsible for the high price of wheat, who is responsible for the low price of cotton?

It was really too impolite to hurt Mr. Page's feelings by questioning the infallibility of the Federal Court Judges.

"For several months, I was troubled with a persistent humor on my head which gave me considerable annoyance, until it occurred to me to try Ayer's Hair Vigor. Before using one bottle, the humor was healed."—T. T. Adams, General Merchant, Tarboro, Va.

NOT ALWAYS UNDERSTOOD

A fact often overlooked, or not always understood, is that women suffer as much from distressing kidney and bladder troubles as the men. The womb is situated back of and very close to the bladder, and for that reason any distress, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder, or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort.

The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided by setting urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need doctoring. If you have a pain or dull aching in the back, pass water too frequently, or scanty supply, with smarting or burning, these are also convincing proofs of kidney trouble. If you have doctored without benefit, try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. The mild and extraordinary effect will surprise you. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures. Take the medicine you should take the best. At drugstore fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention THE CAUCASIAN and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

CONVICTS ON PUBLIC ROADS
THE CAUCASIAN published an editorial advising the use of the convict on the public roads. It was glad to see that Catherine Caldwell, who is county attorney for that county (and who by the way is also chairman of the Peoples Party county Executive Committee) had applied to the Penitentiary for convicts for the public roads of the county. Let other counties do this and it will not only solve the Penitentiary problem, but will also result in a permanent and lasting good to the farmers and all classes of citizens for this and the next generations.
