A New Form of Personalities. The old style of portraying famous people through a "sketch" or "biog-raphy" is to be modernized in the Ladies' Home Journal during 1898 Five of the most prominent Americans have been chosen for the departure: President McKinley, Mrs. Cleveland, Mark Twain, Joseph Jefferson, and Thomas A. Edison. Each will have a special article, which will consist of about fifteen or twenty fresh, unpublished stories and anecdotes strung lished stories and anecdotes strung together, each anecdote showing some characteristic trait or presenting a different side of the subject. The idea is to show famous personalities through their own doings and sayings, and to make these articles accurate the relatives and closest accurate the relatives accurate the relative to the people and through the lawful disbursement of the government.

Direct Legislation.

Biblical Recorder. From the Michigan Law Journal through Public Opinion we get a satisfactory definition of some expressions which have lately been used very thoughtlessly in North Carolina. We speak of the Refer endum, the Initiative and the Imperative Mandate. The Referendum is a demand by a stated percentage of the voters (usually five per cent) that a particular bill or law before a legislative body shall he taken out of the hands of the legislators, and settledby the peo-,le. The filing of a demand signed by the requisite num ber of voters, with the clerk of the legislative district constitutes a veto upon the action of the legislature. The measure thus vetoed is then
