Everybody in this county knows that there are a greet many Winchester rifiee deposited at different points in our county and State to be used in intimidating voters in the coming election. Many men are said to be spotted whose lives and premises are to suffer at the hands of hired vandals, already the tocain has been sounded and the Hessians are deling sounded and the holiness test of brome Merritt was the scene of one of the most dastedly acts the history of Robeson has ever blushed for. A number, 10 or 12, armed with pistols, stacked one man, and after firing many shots down the different roads, they stulked off under the cover of the darkness, but unfortunately for them they were recognized, and yesterday, in the full blaze of a noon day sun they took a rick to the county asylum, under the secort of our friend, Solicitor Seawell.
