had led to the belief that he would not abandon his high office until the festival had been celebrated. Immediately upon the presentation of the resignation, the corporation passed the following minute:

"The announcement by the president of his resignation of his office, to take effect at the end of this university year, has come to the corporation as a great surprise, and they would most profoundly regret it if they believed it was necessary to accept this action as final and conclusive."

DINGLEY ON THE TARIFF.

Representative Dingley, chairman of the ways and means committee, says in an interview regarding the proposed revision of the tariff:

"The government will need for some time all the revenue produced by the war taxes. During the month of October the war expenditures exceeded the war revenue by some $14,000,000, and the month they will be $10,000,000 in excess. This being the case, there will be no change at least in the fiscal year."

BLAMES ARMY OFFICERS

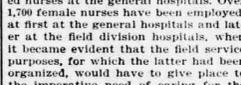

Surgeon General Sternberg Files His Report.

HE DEFINES CAUSES OF SICKNESS.

Thinks Much of It Was Due to the Ignorance and Inefficiency of Department and Regimental Commanders—Defends Medical Corps.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Surgeon General George M. Sternberg has made his report to the secretary of war. It relates mainly to the work of the medical corps during the war. The following are the more important features of the report:

"The number of medical officers, 192, allowed by law to the army is inadequate in time of peace. The insufficiency of time of war was met by the assignment of over 1,000 regular officers to the very small proportion of medical officers having experience of a military character in the United States at the department at the outset, but many of the staff surgeons from civil life showed great aptitude for the service and speedily became of value as administrative and sanitary officers. "No provision was made for hospital corps men for the volunteer troops, except that which empowered the secretary of war to enlist as many privates for the hospital corps as the service required. The number of men enlisted and transferred during the war was approximately 6,000.

FAULT NOT WITH CAMP SITES.

"The sites of certain of the camps have been instanced in the newspapers as the cause of typhoid fever. A review of the whole situation shows that it was not the site, but the manner of its occupation, and the general spread of disease among the troops."

After referring to orders issued for the sanitation of camps General Sternberg says: "Practically nothing was done to make the men comfortable or to remedy the unsanitary conditions until these were brought to the attention of the secretary of war by inspectors sent out from the war department. Then the sanitary conditions were improved, but not before the manifestations of typhoid infection were rife in them. New sites were carefully selected, and the camps were re-located, and the troops went into camps first time."

Accident in New Jersey.

Trenton, Nov. 21.—G. W. Rogers of Camden, employed as a conductor on the Atlantic City, Philadelphia and Washington, and H. G. Rue, baggage master of Rogers' train, were killed at Rahway last night. They had completed the run to Rahway, and were walking to the depot to take a train for home when run down by the Chicago limited, east bound. Their bodies were cut up and scattered along the track for some distance. The engineer of the limited apparently did not know he had struck any one, for he went ahead without stopping. The bodies were taken to the morgue.

General Sternberg insists that his department was not responsible for the condition of transports in which soldiers were returned from Santiago nor for the alleged abuses and prevalence of disease at Camp Wikoff or other home camps after the fall of Santiago.

ABOUT CATARRH.

It is caused by a cold or succession of colds combined with impure blood. Its symptoms are pain in the head, discharge from the nose, ringing noises in the ears. It is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, soothes and rebuilds the tissues and relieves all the disagreeable sensations.

ALTERNATIVE FOR SPAIN.

Must Give Up the Philippines or Fight For Them.

Paris, Nov. 21.—The American peace commissioners, in a written communication to the Spanish commissioners, declare that the third article of the protocol regarding the Philippines is capable of only one fair construction, that arbitration is needed to settle the terms and that the United States cannot admit any other power to figure here purely as a lexicologist. They maintain that the treaty commissions are charged to determine whether Spain or the United States shall in future own the Philippines.

This communication is accompanied by a clear declaration that the United States will possess the Philippines. Following this declaration the American commissioners do not believe the Spaniards two alternatives: First—To accept a sum of money from the United States and to cede and evacuate the Philippines; Second—To lose the Philippines to the United States by conquest, with the possibility of other territorial losses to the United States for the same added expense of conquest.

"The government, it is semi-officially announced, intends to notify the Cuban people that Spain will not honor the Cuban debt, which will not be mentioned in the peace treaty. The government considers itself completely freed from the responsibility of the Cuban debt, and is exercising sovereignty and collecting taxes in Cuba."

Race War Over Baptism.

Woodbury, N. J., Nov. 21.—The Rev. I. M. B. Thompson, pastor of the Central Baptist church of this city and formerly of Orange, N. C., has resigned from the church owing to differences which have arisen between the trustees and himself over a request of the colored Baptists for permission to use the baptismal pool of the Central church to immerse their converts. When the request was presented to the trustees, it appeared to have the endorsement of the Rev. Mr. Thompson, and the board granted the permission. The matter would have rested there had not some of the members of the church objected. Women members, it appears, objected to having white persons use the pool after negroes had used it. The trustees refused to give permission to the colored Baptists for permission to use the baptismal pool of the Central church to immerse their converts.

Commodore Mayo Sued For Divorce.

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 21.—It has just become known here that Jennie Elin, widow of Commodore Mayo, of Washington, had applied for divorce a few days ago in the superior court, New York. The divorce was granted by the court, and the divorce was granted by the court, and the divorce was granted by the court.

KEELY PASSES AWAY.

THE NOTED INVENTOR DIES OF PNEUMONIA IN PHILADELPHIA.

He Promised to Work Miracles in Active Power, but His Wonderful Invention Never Became Practical. Most Invented in His Scheme.

John W. Keely, the inventor of the so-called Keely motor, died at his home in Philadelphia on Friday evening from pneumonia. He was taken ill on Saturday, Nov. 12, and continued to grow worse steadily. Mr. Keely was 41 years old and leaves a widow.

Several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry was stolen from the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Singer and their son, Edward W. Singer, in the Hotel Savoy, in New York. The federal government has decided to prosecute the case of James W. Tolbert, assistant postmaster at Monticello, N. C., who was driven from his home by a mob during the recent riots there.

Oh, How Thankful

Pain Was Maddening and Hope Had Been Abandoned—Wonderful Results of Purifying the Blood.

"A very serious case in my 43rd year, which grew worse and worse, and finally a severe attack of rheumatism. It discharged a great deal of pus from my joints, and I suffered in this way for years, and gave up hope of ever being cured. My wife was reading of a case like mine cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and she advised me to try it. I began taking it and when I had used a few bottles I found relief from my suffering. Oh, how thankful I am for this relief! I am stronger than I have ever been in my life. I am in the best of health, have a good appetite and am a new man altogether."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It is reported that the German government has recently sent to Washington an assurance that the German visit to Spain has no official significance.

Chief Quartermaster Colonel Williams and assistant, Stewart, attached to the American expedition commission in Havana, died of yellow fever in that city Friday.
