Washington, Dec. 3.-The annual report of Secretary Alger is a practically complete official history of the Spanish- prise to be preceded by a large and im-American war. The secretary has given to the public not only all the official dispatches that passed directly between his own office and commanding officers in the field and camp, but has supplemented these with short explanatory notes, setting forth the reasons for vaious movements, and then, to complete he record of events, he has included in the body of his report the report of ly the reports of all the bureau officers for sincere congratulation in the re-

The report proper begins with what may be described as a chronological history of the war, consisting of a number of short paragraphs, beginning with the declaration of war on April 21 and setting forth the date upon which any event of importance occurred, but making no comment whatever upon the facts. The only exception to this rule is in reference to the casualties at Sanmade that there was a lack of surgeons present, the report states that there were 140 surgeons in attendance and that of 1,431 wounded only 13 died of at Santiago, the report shows that Shafter demanded the surrender on the 3d On the morning of the 11th another demand was made.
