The penitentiary report shows that since March 12th, 190 Federal prisoners have been received of whom 180 now remain, and that 389 State convicts were received during the year. Of the latter, 285 have been physically sound, 55 unsound and 49 were sent direct to the farms without physical examination. Of the Federal convicts, 143 were sound and 47 unsound. This remarkably large percentage of unsound will attract attention.

Thursday night about 7 o'clock Thomas Lewis, a 25-year-old-negro man, living in Mark's Creek township, was assassinated as he was walking along a path toward his home, and about 350 yards from it. His family heard the gun and so did Mr. Williams, on g whose lands Lewis was a tenant. Williams went to him, hearing Lewis cry for help and says the negro lived about 10 minutes.
