Raleigh, N. C., March 16

Messrs Julian S. Carr, W. J. Edwards and associates have secured charter to extend a railroad westwardly from Goldsboro through the counties of Wayne, Johnston, Harnett, Moore and other Western counties.

Smith Taken to Smithfield for Trial.

Tom Smith, the negro who killed a white man named Cawthorn and cut the throat of a white man named Winfrey at Selma last Christmas, and who was brought here and placed in Wake jail to prevent his being lynched, was taken from the jail Monday and carried to Smithfield for trial. Smith will be arrainged for trial at the present term of Johnston court, which began Monday.

University Notes.

Mr. Walter H. Page, editor of "The Atlantic Monthly" lectured here on Thursday night, his subject being "The Greater Republic." His introductory remarks were mainly to remove from the minds of his hearers the idea that he was an "Expansionist" or favored expansion. Mr. Page's whole lecture however, was devoted to pointing out that we are conscientiously bound to act as a loving, protecting, generous guardian to the islands now belonging to us by right of conquest. He showed himself an able man and no doubt won many to his views.

The University base-ball team won two games last week, both by generous scores. Wednesday, March 9th we defeated Horner's School by a score of 21 to 2. Saturday we defeated Bingham's School by a score of 14 to 0.

Bishop Cheshire arrived in Chapel Hill Saturday and left Monday. He confirmed seven persons Sunday night the ceremony being quite impressive.

Chapel Hill always has a subtle charm that seems to fill the air, and with each breath pass into the very souls of the students extending it's strange, lasting influence. This time of the year seems to intensify the strange charm, and the boys, happy and light-hearted under its enlivening influence, wish so often that those at home could for a short time at least, visit here and become enchanted as it were.

Vance Monument.

The Executive committee of Vance Monument Association met Saturday afternoon with a view to the speedy carrying out of the plans contemplated in the recent joint resolution of the General Assembly appropriating $5,000 to be used in connection with the funds in the hands of the association for the erection of a bronze statute to Gov. Zeb. B. Vance.

The committee elected Mr. R. H. Battle as president of the association in place of Gov. Carr, who resigned some time since.

The president, and treasurer Mr. Joseph G. Brown are to act with the committee of the legislature consisting of Dr. R. H. Speight, Mr. S. L. Hart and Mr. J. D Boushall.

The committee resolved to write to leading artists for bids with plans, etc., to be submitted to the legislature consisting of R. H. Speight, Mr. S. L. Hart and Mr. J. D. Boushall.

The committee resolved to write to leading artists for bids with plans, etc., to be submitted to the legislative committee and the association.

They resolved to recommend as a suitable site the east entrance of the capitol square from Newbern avenue, to correspond with the Confederate monument on the west entrance.

New Corporations Incorporated.

The Secretary of State incorporated the following companies:

The Revolution Cotton Mill, near Greensboro; with a capital stock of $300,000. The incorporators are E. Sternberger, Moses H. Cone and Cæsar Cone.

John Slaughter Co.; of Goldsboro, with a capital stock of $4,500, General merchandise business. The incorporators are C. Dewey, John Slaughter and C. F. Herring.

The Watkins Hardware Company, of Henderson, capital stock $5 000. General merchandise business. The incorporators are Samuel Watkins, John B. Watkins, Jr., and William Edwin Moss.

The Sampson Tobacco Warehouse Company, of Clinton, with capital stock of $10 000, Leaf tobacco business. The incorporators are F. R. Cooper, W. B. Stuart and others.

The Falkner Furniture Company of Goldsboro, with a capital stock of $5.000. Furniture and general merchandise business. The incorporators are W. K. Parker, F. P. Parker and A. W. Falkner.

Hard on the Jury.

"It is safe to say that if his resignation had not been in the hands of the Legislature he would not have been vindicated as he was."

The above is what Kingsbery, of the Messenger has to say of S. Otho Wilson's case. Surely Mr. Kingsbury has lost his head, or he has a poor opinion of those who voted to vindicate, (that's the expression), Mr. Wilson. If Mr. Wilson was vindicated by being declared wrongfully ousted from his office, certainly any honest man, who thought him wrongfully ousted should have voted to reinstate him; as much as they might dislike to have him a commissioner, but Mr. Kingsbury admits that he would have stultified himself had he been a member voting against his own conscience had his resignation not been in the hands of the Legislature, when he went to cast his vote, or he intimates that those who voted to reinstate sold their vote for his resignation; will the members who thus voted let this base slanderer go unnoticed? We will see.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN:

DEAR BROTHER:—I take my pen in hand to write you a few lines to inform you that I am well and hope these few lines will find you enjoying the same good blessing. This will inform you that our members of the legislature have returned home and eggs have declined in price likewise. I would have wrote you some time back, but since the second day of this year to the eighth day of this month, the legislature, that can boast of making more promises and more different kinds of promises than there are kinds of Democrats, and you know there are 32—the same number that there is pounds in a bushel of oats, has been in session, and I had fears that they might impeach me or change my name to Mud or Dennis.

If I were to write to my friends in Raleigh while they were in session, seeing as how I did not wear a two and a half cent button red shirt or kill any negroes last fall. Bill Jonsin says this county sent the most promising men than any county, whether that be true or not, one thing we do know, the people that sent them have made some promises, one of them is if the good Lord will forgive them they will never send the same crowd again.

Well, they adjourned, and notwithstanding the fact, that we take the chances of cyclones, hail, lice in the cotton, worms on tobacco, chintz bugs on the wheat and corn, murrian among the cows, cholery among the hogs, roup among the chickens, too much rain or too much dry, declines in the price of eggs, blight in the simmon blossom and black law crop.

We are to have that body assemble in in June 1900; now if we must have such a calamity, why not let them meet for the next two years as the county commissioners do, meet the first Monday in each month, we favor that, and since we have looked over their work and find there was not room at the pie table for all of them to get seats after the session was over owing to the fact that they made a mistake in cutting the timber for the table, when the job was let out and failed to get it long enough and see some important bills that were introduced and failed to get through for the want of time' We think it very important that they should meet once a month. Some of their failed to pass bills that was introduced should not be allowed to stand long without being framed and glass over them. Now, that bill offered to prohibit barkeepers from having free crackers on his counter should by all means become a law. Suppose some old rubber-neck dispensary galoote that had lost all his teeth should go into a bar-room for a throat cleaner, and want something to kill the taste, he could not eat a pretzel or a cracker like the fellow with teeth don't you see? It would not be equal rights to all. The bar keeper would be guilty of practicing class accommodations.

That bill to stop foot-paths in Durham county should have been enacted into a law. Suppose man, woman, girl or boy was traveling a foot path and get stung in the field by a cotton, tobacco or fodder worm and no dispensary near. They might be put to untold trouble. Make them travel the beaten road, and if they should be attacked by a stinger or a biter they have much better chance of meeting a wagon with a little "campfire," or it might occur near a country store if they were traveling tee highways. In that case they could find Dr. Cough's Bull Syrup or some other drug. By all means stop the foot-paths in Durham county and elsewhere. And that bill to give Joe Winkles a public highway should have passed and become a law if it had required the entire military force of the State to carry it into execution. If I were in Col. Winkles' stead I would sue the whole shooting match for slander if it was not done and move where there was a light way and live on both sides of the public road and put my cow lot in the middle of the road. Let that matter be the first act in June.

There were other bills of just as much importance to the great laboring masses as what we have named that failed to become laws. All would have went through with a whoop but for the tussle they had pulling the two Wilsons up the Blue Ridge to Round Knob, and putting the brakes on so they would not slip back on the Governor. Give us the monthly sessions.

LOGAN'S STORE, N. C.,
March 7th., 1899.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN:

In the last political campaign, the Populist party in this State made a great fight upon principals of reform as set forth in its State platform. It is well known that the Democrats borrowed enough of the Populist platform to secure to themselves a good per cent. of the Populist votes of the State. They raised the race issue to whip into line those Populist voters and as many white Republican voters as they could scare with the revolutionary methods of red shirts and shot guns. They succeeded well with the auxiliary help of intimidations, the use of whiskey, money and merchandise on the weak voter. There is no respectable white man in the State who is in favor of negro domination, but it was strongly urged, upon the part of the Democratic opposition, that the State was not under negro domination nor would it ever be; that absolute white rule would be given in the eastern counties as rapidly as it could be done in a regular way. This promise availed nothing with the Bourbon Democratic leaders. They were determined to get control of the State and then entrench themselves in power by disfranchisement laws for all time to come. No party has the right to make a law, to declare, in effect, that no other party shall live. Because that would be assuring an electorship contrary to the spirit of a free country. Ever since the freedom of the negro, and his rights guaranteed to him by the constitution of the United States the race question has been an enigma for the most unprejudiced thinkers. They have all tried to point out the solution of the question and at the same time allow both races to live in the same country and under the same laws, but this condition of the two races will not admit of a just settlement of this momentous question. While the negroes' intelligence does not qualify him to become ruler over white men, but will never be satisfied to live in a country contentedly where the privileges to hold office is denied him, to educate him makes him less useful as a laborer and more clamorous for office. To deprive him of his rights of citizenship makes him a criminal, and makes criminals among them worse criminals. Then what will be done with him? I answer, colonize him. I think that the statistics will prove, that in the states where the negroes have been deprived of the right of citizenship crime has been steadily on the increase. South Carolina has ten rapes committed by negroes to North Carolina's one. If the negro was colonized there would be no excuse for disfranchisement laws, and we would have no more riots and bloodshed about the time of elections on his account. The white race could go on in its progress of material and mental advancement. It could discuss and settle political questions upon their merits and in a quiet and decent manner.

The Democratic party has enacted a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the people which means disfranchisement to a large percentage of white voters in the State. The white people cannot afford to be punished in this way because the negro is among them. This State was the first to declare in the Mecklenburg declaration of independence that "taxation without representation is unjust." If this principal was true then it is true now. The doctrine of disfranchisement of certain classes is an imperialist doctrine. The party that advocates it is an imperialist party. Let the Populist party meet at an early date and strike for liberty for the white voters of the State.

The Populist State platform is good, but it ought to meet and declare its position upon certain issues that have sprung up since the last campaign. I verily believe that if the Populist had control of all departments of the State government they would give a clear, undefiled administration of the same with the least possible expense to the people. The Populist party may point with pride to the illustrious Secretary of State. His administsation has been clean and above reproach. The State Treasurer's office has been administered by a man who cannot be excelled by any other man either in the State or out of it. Hal Ayer is a credit as an official to his predecessors.

Senator Marion Butler stands today without a peer in the State in front of intellectual power and political honesty. I had the pleasure of reading the Congressional Record during the sitting of a part of the 65th Congress. and I watched his actions closely. He was on hand every time when there was anything of importance to be attended to in the United States Senate, and he never deserted the people. We need have no fears so long as we have honest party leaders. Our Senators and Representatives in the United States Congress have stood firmly by the doctrine of the People's Party when it looked like the bravest of men would weaken in the face of the scathing attacks made against them upon the part of their opposers.

In scanning the reports of the legislative proceedings we have not seen where an anti-trust bill was passed, although the item might have escaped our notice. If such a bill was passed we have seen no mention made of it, and it must have fell far short of the mark.—Durham Herald.

An anti-trust law did pass on the day before adjournment, after the Senate had changed the Stevens law until it could not be recognized. Senator Glenn, of Forsyth, says that it is a very good law. CHAIRMAN SIMMONS' ADDRESS

ISSUED ABOUT SEPTEMBER 25TH, '98, TO THE VOTERS OF THE STATE.

It Was to Deceive—Not Going to Disfranchise the Negro. Democrats Removed the Property and Educational Qualification in the State.

Below we give a few extracts of what Chairman Simmons sent out through the Democratic papers during the last campaign. What we do not copy is on the same line of what we do copy. Read it and decide whether he lied or not. He said:

"For the past twenty years or more, just before every election, the Republican speakers, at their midnight meetings, have been in the habit of telling the negro if the Democrats came into power their right to vote would be taken away from them. After the Democrats came into power in this State, they always had some reason to give these credulous beings why the Democrats had not disfranchised them as they had before predicted.

"First, they told them if the Democrats got the State government they would disfranchise them. The Democrats got the State government and did not disfranchise them. Then they told them if the Democrats elected a President they would disfranchise them. The Democrats elected a President and did not disfranchise them. Then they told them if the Democrats got control of Congress they would disfranchise them. The Democrats got control of Congress and did not disfranchise them. All along the honest white men of the State laughed at these lies, and marveled that the negro did not have sense enough to see that he was being duped.

"Finally the negro himself began to see through the trick. He had seen the Democrats in full power in the State for twenty-two years, and had learned through experience that that party did not propose to disfranchise him, and he, too began to laugh at these liars, and finally refused to be frightened by their rot any longer. So the old Republican scare-crow had to be hauled down and put away.

"Now these same old demagogues, aided by a few pie-eating and pie-hunting Populists who used to laugh at this fraud upon the negro, have again brought out the old Republican scare-crow of disfranchisement; but, strange to say, they are now using it in an attempt to try and frighten, not the ignorant negro, but the poor and uneducated white men of the State. But these wily schemers will be disappointed. They will find that the uneducated white men of this State are not so easily fooled. They will find that while they may not have any book learning, they have the quick intelligence and hard sense of the white race, and they will find that they are not to be fooled, by a bugaboo. There is not a white man in North Carolina who will be frightened by this old Republican negro bugaboo, and they will by their votes teach these fellows who are presuming upon their ignorance that their intelligence is not to be thus trifled with and insulted with impunity They know the Democratic party was the party that removed the property and educational disqualifications to suffrage in North Carolina. They know that the Democratic party has always stood for manhood suffrage, and they know that the Democratic party will never, under any circumstances under the sun, consent to the passage of any law which will take from them, however poor and ignorant they may be, the right to vote, or which will in any way diminish or lessen that great privilege. They know that the Democratic party is composed largely of poor and uneducated men, and that it looks to this honorable class of our citizenship for its support, and that it will in turn protect them in all their rights of citizenship; and guard them, their wives and their children in their homes, their reputation and their virtue.

"It must be remembered it is the Republicans who are circulating this silly story about the Democrats. Even the Populist wing of that party denounced the story as absurd. As barren of truth about some things as the Hand Book recently issued by Dr. Thompson and Hal Ayer. It is frank enough to admit that there is no truth in the Republican clamor about the Democrats disfranchising the negro, much less anyiwhite man, and that the history of the past twenty odd years of Democratic rule in North Carolina proves the utter falsity and absurdity of the Republican rot this subject. Nor do responsible Republicans openly and publicly make this charge. As reckless as they are, they have too much respect for and fear of decent public opinion to visit upon themselves the scorn and contempt which an open avowal of such absurd and ridiculous charge would merit. But while these Republican traitors are silent themselves upon this subject, they send out secret circulars, and send out sneak speakers and bushwhackers to try to frighten and deceive the people by clandestinely circulating these falsehoods concerning the purpose of the Democratic party.

"These leaders and their claquers know, as every intelligent man in the State knows, that the Democratic plan to protect the white men of the East from the horrible negro rule under which that fair section of the State now suffers and languishes is to take advantage of the recent decision of the Supreme court to the effect that one section or county may have one system of county government and another section or county may have an entirely different system of county government, and while according to the white counties, the right to elect all their local officers, to restore the old Democratic system of county government in the counties having negro majorities thus lifting the ruthless heel of the negro from off the neck of the white men who live in the negro-ridden counties of the East.

Paine's Celery Compound Counteracts the Nervous Strain of the School Room.

"I know of nothing so good as Paine's celery compound," says Miss May Sherwin, for the past 17 years principal of the largest public school in Bloomington, Ill., "to counteract the nervous strain incident to a constant life in the school room.

"I have myself used Paine's celery compound," she continues, "with most satisfactory results. It is a splendid nerve tonic."

The discoverer of Paine's celery compound was himself one of the greatest teachers that ever lived.

Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., held a famous professorship in Dartmouth college, and was a lecturer in other great universities all the while he was engaged in that momentous study which led to the chief accomplishment of the medical research of this century—the development of Paine's celery compound.

The general complaint now among intelligent women is that they are hurried and driven and fretted almost out of their senses by the demands upon their time and strength.

No wonder, then, the average woman has lost the capacity for sound sleep, good digestion and the freedom from aches and pains that follow healthy organic functions.

Many years of suffering might be avoided, weary months of lost time put to good service, and thousands of lives saved if persons who do not sleep well and those with overworked brains and nerves would take Paine's celery compound. In the cure of nervous diseases this remedy has again and again demonstrated its power to combat these tenacious ailments.

It is to general poor health that we are to look for the cause of headaches, rheumatism and neuralgia, and to overcome these troubles it is the general health that must be raised. Sick headaches that recur so periodically with most women and are so grevious an affliction should be treated as due to lowered nervous tone, and a thorough invigoration of the body should be undertaken with Paine's celery compound.

The best test of the wonderful value of Paine's celery compound is to use it. Any woman will soon be convinced that it is the one remedy that can make and keep her well and healthful and strong.

MONEY IN POTATOES.

How Two Young Farmers Made $100 Per Acre.

Lincoln Journal.

Messrs. Calvin and Luther Shrum, two live and progressive farmers of this township, have demonstrated that there is big money to be made in raising sweet potatoes.

Last year they raised $1,040 on three acres of land. Of this crop they fed 200 bushels of the smaller potatoes and those bruised or cut in harvesting to their horses, cows and stock and say that as stock food they find the potato better than corn.

Of the remainder of the crop 600 bushels were stored in a specially constructed potato house for market in the spring, and 200 bushels for their own use were stored in cellars.

The house used for storage has double walls 12 inches apart on the sides and overhead, filled in between with dry sawdust. The floor is raised 10 inches, carefully packed down and covered with cement. In this house the potatoes keep perfectly sound all winter.

Messrs Shrum did not begin selling potatoes until the middle of February, and they are finding ready sale for them at 40 cents per bushel. They will make about $250 in money from their three-acre potato field, after supplying their families and saving 200 bushels of corn.
