WHAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS DOINC

For the Maintenance of Civil Liberty and the Discouragement of Good Government by Force.

Editorial in N. Y. Tribune.

Mr. Bryan and his supporters are terribly disturbed about the d n gers which threaten civil lib. r.v. They warn the American propi that if this government is perm ted to exercise dom nion over n territory without admitting to n habitants immediately to the ful privileges of American citizer the they will be raising up a monat militarism and tyranny for te own oppression. It makes no if erence that for a hundred years he country has been ruling pr p without treating them as cill but as domestic dependen's." makes no difference that Cong tos has for a century | een taxing . American people from the Statethe territories annexed and sell. up a government over them w out asking the consent of the g erned. It makes no diff rance th Louisians and Florida were in ruled on annexation by civil (i ernors invested by act of Co ites with despotic powers of Span captains general. Bryanite at ments ar not expected to recogniz histo is facts or hay any atten to constitutional precedents of D ocratic creation. Their purpose to inflame passion and trade on t fears of ignorance.

When, however, Mr. Bryan v . alleged despotic acts of Republic in distant possessions as an + rgu ment for intrusting power to ha it is not unreasonable to ask hi what the Democratic party is f the maintenance of civil liberty at the discouragement of governme by force. The Democratic platfor adopted at Kansas City says:

"We declare again that all g v ernments instituted among men drive their just powers from the con sent of the governed; that any gov erpment not based upon the consenof the governed is tyranny; and that to impose upon any people a government of force is to substitute the methods of imperialism for those of a republie."

Now, imperialism is no better in one of the original thirteen States than it is in Mapila, and the statesman cannot be esteemed either for honesty of purpose or sincerity of argument who wails over lib rty inthe Philippines by our tro ps in
