THE CAUCASIAN'S POSITION I THE NATIONAL ELECTION.

THE CAUCASIAN was very much pained and surprised to see the action of the National Committee of to stay in the State. the People's Party at Chicago last week. Nothing could be plainer than that loyalty to Bryan and loy alty to the rank and file of the par ty everywhere demanded that the National committee in accepting Towns s declination for the Vice-Presidency, should have nomina ted a Populist to fill the vacancy This was the only way of guaran teeing to Mr. Bryan the full Populist vote. But, in the face of this clear duty, the National Committee by a more than two-thirds ma jority, voted to endorse Stevenson. the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, and Cleveland's running mate in 1892. Surely every member of the Committee knew that he voted to do that which would not be endorsed by the masses of the par ty. Surely every one of them knew that they were voting to do what the National Convention would not have done, had it been in session This is another illustration of the danger of entrusting great power into the hands of a few politicians, who for one cause or another are often induced to shut their eyes to the trust reposed in them by their constituents.

People's Party organization and of this fearful blunder as far as Mr. Bryan's interests are concerned; yet we believe that the rank and file of the party, wherever self-respect will the great crime against the organi zation for the time being, and will hold their nose and swallow Stevenson in order to try to elect Mr Bryan to the Presidency. THE CAU CASIAN trusts that the voters will take this course wherever their votes are needed and wherever they can consistently do it. But in North Carolina the Populists are in a position where they would have to swallow very much more in order to get an opportunity to vote for Mr. Bryan. In this State there is between them and that brilliant statesman, Simmons and his thieving political machine. There are also a number of redshirt electors These not many Populists will swallow under any conditions, and THE CAUCASIAN has too much re spect for the patiotism, forbearance, and unselfishness of the Populists of this State to ask them to vote for any man who has been a party to stuffing ballot boxes, denying free speech, defying law and order and inaugurating a reign of redshirt terror and anarchy. If Mr. Bryan were known to endorse these things and the men who are guilty of them there is not a Populist in the State or the nation who would sup port him. Under present conditions the Populists in North Carolina and elsewhere who cannot swallow what is between them and Bryan, and who may be in States where their votes are not necessary will probably stay at home on the day of election. To those who fee it their duty to take this course THE CAUCASIAN Wishes to say, do not be discouraged; do not leave the party; hold your peace until this miserable and detestable em barrassment is over, then let us proceed to re-organize the party, unite all of the elements that are opposed to both of the old parties, and then let us hereafter run a straight People's Party ticket for President and Vice-President until the government is restored to the rule of the people, and the nation redeemed.

NEGROES SHOULD NOT LEAVE.

Nearly every day information comes to us either through the press or from private sources, that ne groes in every quarter of the State are leaving for other states. We are informed that even at the Raleigh railroad depot alone over 250 tickets have been sold to either indi vidual negroes or to negro families leaving the State seeking homes elsewhere, since the election. This exodus seems to be heaviest from the eastern part of the State and along the Sout) Carolina border where redshirtism, rufflanism, and anarchy prevailed in its worst form during the last campaign and the campaign previous.

Along with this information comes the further information that aiready so many negroes have left that it will be impossible for many farm ers in the East to find sufficient labor with which to make another erop. The labor was so scarce in the trucking sections of the East last spring, that truckers in one section had agents out in other sec leave one locality and go to another. The scarcity of labor will be much greater next spring when the trucking season opens.

The full purport of the effect of feit until next spring, and then the so everywhere, truckers, cotton planters and other ! armers in the East will begin to realize the extent of the damage they have suffered as a result of the two negro campaigns of violence and bloodshed forced upon the State by a lot of designing politicians.

Notwithstanding the two horrible, dirty and infamous campaigns which these Democratic machine county court. politicians have inaugurated, campaigns which have undermined the Constitution and nullified the declaration of independence by denying free speech and mangurating a reign of violence and lawlessness, yet we trust that the negro laborers who have not gone will decide

The deportment of the negroes for the last two years has not only been most forbearing and praise worthy, but indeed it presents the most remarkable speedtacle of self restraint and of the observance of law where their enemies and per secutors observed no law, that the world has ever seen. We feel safe n saving that there is no other race of people in existence that would have deported themselves wit such forbearance under similar circumstances; and while this con duct of theirs is largely due to th thoughtless character of the race yet no fairminded and honest man can withhold from them the praise and admiration which they deserv for their conduct under the aggra vating circumstances. If this thing were to continue we could not blame the negroes for going. But THE CAUCASIAN wishes to assure them that this last campaign in North Carolina can never be repeated. It cannot be tolerated longer by any good man or Christian. The conspiracy, headed by Simmons and his ballot-box stuffing machine did not stop with their persecution of the negroes and their stealing of bal-In spite of this betraval of the lots; but in their greed for office and power, they threatened the foundations of a Republican form of government. Every farmer in the State, every good Christian, law ablding citizer of the State, should lose no time i giving to the negroes of the Statthe assurance that THE CAUCASIA: now gives. The farmers of the State especially need the negro. He is the best labor we can possibly get, es pecially for the truck farms and the enabling act: large cotton plantations. With the number of negroes there are in the State there is no danger of any conflict between white labor and ne gro labor. There is a demand for five times the labor that there is in the State of all kinds; and, besides the Northern labor will not come South, and even if it did, it is very different from our class of people and there would be more friction between them and the white people of the South than there can ever justly exist between them and the negro. Even if every negro could be removed from the State of North Carolina, it would still be doubtful if desirable white labor from else where could be secured. But even if it could, there would be a large mixture of the foreign slum element among them, and from this of all the State." class of people and their influence on society, may the good Lord long

SOLEMN COMPACT VIOLATED Josh Billings once wrote this: is no use to argy agin a sucksess. We recognize this utterance to the extent of acknowledging that it useless to argue against or comment on the "noble victory" recently wor by the Democrats so far as affecting the results is concerned. But sure ly the time is not far distant when many people who helped to win that victory must realize how ignobly i was "won" and how they violated a solemn compact by the course they took. To point out this violation can be of no effect now, and indeed, it proved not to be effective in the campaign, for it was pointed out then. To repeat it, however, and to keep repeating it may aid some one who shall reflect on the recent disgraceful history made in this State. That compact is given below. Whe the Southern States were readmitted to the union, among other things the following section was inserted in

"That each of the States of North Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as a State of the Union when the legislature of such State shall have duly ratifled the amendment to the constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirtyminth congress, known as Article 1 upon the following fundamental conditions: That the constitution of neither of said States shall ever be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote in said State, who are entitled to vote by the constitution thereof, hereinfor such crimes as are now felonies at common law whereof they shall have been convicted under laws equally applicable to the inhabitants

About the time that the Vance monument was unveiled in Raleigh letters from a number of politicians and public men were published in a what in the writer's opinion Vance's greatest service to the State This writer did not read all of the them there were only two that seem ed to be able to comprehend or de sired to comprehend that time in Vance's life when his greatness letters were by Major E. "We can hear the voice of the thoughtless saying that the general impression is that his closing days were embittered by defeat at hands of the all-powerful President of his country. When one begins to answer that criticism, he has entered ipon the road which leads straight to the true conception of Vance's greatness. It was comparatively easy for such a man, when in supreme power in his State, to do the just and thoughtful things which he did. And it was comparatively easy for him, backed by all that was good and noble in the same community, to do what he did in 1876. But to stand out against the omnipotent monarch whom our perverted Constitution puts at the head of this consolidated Federal government, on a simple issue of loyalty to his trust, and when almost all the wealth and influence of the State he had saved had gone over to the other side, was something very different.

Powerful influences are at work to minimize this crowning act Vance's glorious life, for its recognition stings the conscience of each one who hounded him then; but, mark our word, out of every hundred persons who gaze upon the mute figure at Raleigh, ninety-nine will have that teature of his life and character in their minds and hearts."

Many politicians who are to-day attempting to trafficin Vance's pop ularity by now claiming to be great admirers of him, were among the henchmen of Cleveland and Ransom, to death. One of these despicable than they stole at the August elec at the Cleveland pie-counter, and writing letters from Washington to his paper each week, siding with Cleveland and Ransom in their persecution of this great tribune of the had the courage to defy the party machine, to defy all of the patronage and power of Cleveland, to defy all of the combined enemies of the people when the interests of the people were being attacked and betrayed by their enemies. Such courage and greatness as this on the part of this man is enough to make him hated while he lived, not only by all the arch-traitors, but also by all small bore political chameleons.

INDIGNATION MEETINGS.

Indignation meetings are being neld in many of the counties of State where the most glaring and infamous of the rascalities and frauds were committed in the last election. Many more counties are discussing taking similar action. But the most significant thing about the present situation is the large number of letters THE CAUCASIAN is receiving evrecognized, except as a punishment ery day from every quarter of the State suggesting and urging that a great mass indignation meeting be held at Raleigh. We understand that letters of similar import are be-Now look at the record made or ing received by Chairman Butler and Chairman Holton.

THE CAUCASIAN has not encour aged the holding of this proposed State mass meeting, and up to date has withheld from publication every letter of this kind received. In our replies to the letters received we have suggested that the result desired could be accomplished in each county where the thievery of the Simmons machine was most flagrant by holding county mass meetings. Besides, we have called attention to the great expense that would be entailed on the people in attending such meeting; and above all. we have called attention to the nation meeting was held that it should be a citizens' meeting, and that the thousands and tens of thousands of good, honest, Christian people of the Democratic party who disapprove and denounce not only the theft of the State, but also the denial of free speech and the reign of anarchy inaugurated should be represented in such meeting; and that, therefore, if such a meeting is held, it should not have the appearance of being a partisan affair in any sense. In this connection, however, it proper for us to say that many the letters that we have received advising such a meeting and asking THE CAUCASIAN'S advice through ite columns, are from men outside of day hastily singing "From Green- when these men might have spoken the Republican and People's party. We advise that if such a meeting is held that it be upon the advice and with the co-operation of this element of our citizens.
