THE FATE OF THE CONFEDERATE SEAL.

It was First Defaced and Then Sunk in the Savannah River.

"The result of the last Confederate council of war held at Abbeville, South Carolina, in May, 1865, was soon known all over Abbeville, and the Generals and the Secretary of War were kept busy for hours sign- sam Jones and ing honorable discharges for the tired soldiers, who immediately applied for them," writes Mrs. Thaddeus Toccoa, Ga. Horton, in the October Ladies' Home Journal. "During the evening Mr. Benjamin asked for a hatchet, and nal: with it he defaced the Confederate seal. About twelve o'clock the same night the Confederate party continued their retreat in the direction of Washington, Geergia, and while crossing the Savannah River in the darkness some one suggested that the seal be thrown overboard. This idea was at once approved, and when the boat reached mid-stream it was watercourse, where to this day, its mission all fulfilled, it serenely of one of their ponds, but think they
