THE AUGUST CAMPAIGN AND THE AFTERMATH

The Raleigh Post Tuesday morning stated that Governor Aycock had received a communication from the International Council of the world headquarters at Seattle, Washington, notifying him that that society offered rewards of $500 each for participants in the recent lynchings at Smithfield and LaGrange.

It further stated that the Governor, in speaking of the interference of this outside organization with the affairs of the state said, that he thought North Carolina could take care of her own affairs in the matter of lynchings as well as other things, and that he desired to serve notice now that hereafter when a lynching occurred anywhere in North Carolina he would immediately thereupon offer a reward on the part of the state of $400 for each of the participants in the lynching.

The Governor said also that he wanted it understood that those who commit that crime which brings about lynching will be summarily dealt with, and their just deserts meted out to them with all possible dispatch.

We opine that the Governor might have made the task of stopping the crimes spoken of above a little easier if he had commenced earlier, to reform the state. But was he not made the leader last year of the mob law gang? Did he not endorse mob law when he was being escorted around the state by armed red shirts who seemed ready to commit any crime in the "name of democracy"?

With kind regards from Lady Roberts and myself, believe me, dear Miss Lee.

A PRETTY OFFER. Something That Will Please the Ladies & The Household.

THE DAUGHTER TO A BAD POST TO KEEP HER FROM MARRIAGE.

On Saturday, on application of William Chappell, a marriage license was issued to Edfus Chappell, his brother, aged 21 and Edna Hodges, whose age was stated as 18. It was to be a runaway affair, but Mrs. Chappell, formerly the widow Hodges, who had married Ed. Chappell, a brother of Edfus Chappell, got on to the affair and tied her daughter to the bed in her room, thus thwarting the proposed Saturday night elopement.

Monday morning Edfus Chappell returned his license to the Register of Deeds' office. Shortly after Mrs. Chappell appeared and gave notice that no license must be issued, as her daughter was under age, being about fifteen. With her was Mr. Ed. Chappell, her husband, and Miss Edna Hodges.

About this time Edfus Chappell entered the Register of Deeds' office and Mrs. Chappell told him he could not have her daughter. The young lover declared he would not give her up, but declared he would have her in spite of everything on earth. He declares that she is over 18 years old and that her age is known in her neighborhood. The Register of Deeds holds the license and will return it over to young Chappell when he calls for it. The parties to the affair live about nine miles from Raleigh, and all the parties left for their home Monday evening, but it is certain that young Chappell has not given up his girl.

LOAD ROBERTS ON GENERAL LEE.

Richmond, Va., July 15.—In a letter just received by Miss Mary Curtis Lee, Load Roberts, now commander-in-chief of the British army, and the hero of the British campaign in South Africa, says that it is his hope to some day visit Lexington, Va., and there look upon the tomb of Lee, the great Southern chieftain.

The following is an extract taken from the letter to Miss Lee: "It may be that I shall never be able to carry out my wish of visiting your country, but I hope that some day I shall do so, and that I may see the monument in the college chapel at Lexington. I shall consider it a privilege to be able to show my respect and admiration for one of the greatest soldiers of any age—Lee, of Virginia."

With kind regards from Lady Roberts and myself, believe me, dear Miss Lee.

EX-JUDGE WHITAKER PASSES AWAY.

He Was a Member of the Raleigh Bar and served as Judge for Four Years. Ex-Judge Whitaker died at his place of residence on Hillsboro St., this city, Wednesday afternoon July 10th, after an illness of several weeks.

The funeral was presided at by Christ church Thursday afternoon by Dr. Marshall, after which the remains were laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery.

The late Judge Whitaker had been declining in health for a long while, and for some weeks he had been confined to his home. He was a sufferer from heart trouble, though a complication of diseases resulted in death.

In the civil war the deceased became Adjutant of the Thirty-Third N. C. Volunteers, and was in eighteen engagements, including such important battles as the Wilderness, Gettysburg, Fredericksburg, Appomattox and others.

When the American-Spanish war broke out Judge Whitaker became Major of the Sixth United States Volunteers and went to Porto Rico in the expedition to that island. He was appointed by Gov. Vance a Superior Court Judge to fill a vacancy, and remained a factor in politics until his death.

An Historic Ship to be Sold to Highest Bidder. Washington, July 12.—The action of the Navy Department today in ordering the sale of the old frigate Minnesota is a reminder of the famous naval engagement between the Confederate Ironclad Merrimack and the Little Federal monitor.

The Minnesota was with the Constitution and the Congress which were run down and sunk by the Confederate ship in Hampton Roads, but the M. nnesota was spared for attack the morning following.

During the night the little monitor arrived from New York, and when the Merrimack steamed out toward the Minnesota she was attacked by the monitor and the famous battle then took place.

The Minnesota is now in Charleston harbor, Boston, and has been used as a receiving ship by the Massachusetts naval militia. She has been appraised at $15,000 and the order of Secretary Long issued today is that she shall be sold to the highest bidder, but not at a figure below the appraised value.
