SENATE IN EXTRA SESSION

Called to Consider Cuban and Canal Treaties

Cost of Fifty-Seventh Congress. Senator Pritchard presented with a handsome silver service. Flight on Senator Smoot

Washington, D. C. March 9, 1903: The extra session of the Senate which met in response to the call of President Roosevelt will get down seriously to business to-day. It was in session for a short time Thursday and Friday, when it adjourned over until to-day. The object of the session is to ratify the Cuban Treaty and the treaty with the Columbian Government for a right of way for the Isthmian canal.

The appropriation of the 57th Congress just adjourned amount in the aggregate to $1,554,108,514.

This is an increase over the appropriations of the 56th Congress which amounted to $1,440,489,438.

The appropriations for the recent session, which ended yesterday, were $753,484,018, as against $800,624,496 for the first session of the Fifty-seventh Congress, which adjourned last summer. The following figures, show by items the expenditures authorized by the recent session:

Agricultures, $5,978,160; army, $78,138,752; diplomatic and consular, $1,968,150; District of Columbia, $8,647,407; fortifications, $7,188,416; Indian, $8,512,950; legislative, executive, and judicial, $27,595,953; Military Academy, $654,248; navy, $81,877,291; pensions, $149,817,600; Post-office, $753,401,549; sundry civil, $82,272,955; deficiencies, $21,561,572; permanent annual appropriations, $1,325,899,820; miscellaneous, $3,250,000.

The first and most important item included in the statement for the present Congress, is an appropriation of $60,130,000 for the Panama Canal, which accounts for nearly one-half of the increase. There is also, aggregated appropriations for the Post office Department of $153,401,549 for the next fiscal year, so compare with $138,000,000 for the current year, making a difference of more than $50,000,000 in excess of the appropriations for the last Congress for the postal service of the new Senators sworn in.

Interest naturally will center in the Hon. Reed Smoot, of Utah, who, because he is an apostle in the Mormon church and subject so the oath of that hierarchy, is held to be ineligible by church people of other denominations in Utah and throughout the country. Numerous protests against his being seated have been filed. One of these alleges that he is a polygamist. Senator-elect denies the polygamy charge absolutely, and in interviews has ridiculed the idea that his duty to the church would ever be paramount to his duty to his country and its constitution.

While Senators generally are reluctant to commit themselves in the absence of an investigation, the opinion prevails that Mr. Smoot will not be seated.

Friends of Senator J. C. Pritchard whose term of service expired with the 57th Congress yesterday presented to him a silver service. The service, a beautiful one of a dozen pieces, was presented to the retiring Senator in the parlors of the Ebbitt House, in the presence of fifty or more political and personal friends. Hon. Richmond Pearson, the government's ministerial envoy to Persia, in transferring the gift to Senator Pritchard expressed graceful words the sentiments of the donors.

In expressing his appreciation of the beautiful testimonial Mr. Pritchard referred in a word to the trials he had undergone during the past year, and said that he had endeavored at all times and under all circumstances to discharge every official obligation. That his friends believed in his fidelity to duty was attested by their spontaneous and generous applause.

PRaises BUTLER AND PRITCHARD

Mr. Wooten of La Grange in an Article to the Charlotte Observer tells of Meeting both the ex-Senators in Washington

Mr. C. S. Wooten of LaGrange, N. C. made a visit to Washington City recently an account of which was published in Sunday's Charlotte Observer. In speaking of the people he met in Washington he has to say of ex-Senator Butler and ex-Senator Pritchard:

"I met ex-Senator Marion Butler. He has two rooms for his office in the bond building, one of the finest office buildings in Washington. He is doing a good practice at law and in the Departments. I was in his office several times and he was busy all the time. He is attorney for a mining syndicate and has an office in New York, and also an office in Raleigh. He is getting stout and looks healthy, and dresses well. He wears a silk hat and a Prince Albert coat, and has the dash and air of a distinguished man. He and his wife board at the New Willard, the most fashionable hotel in Washington. I said to him that I had heard he was worth a million of dollars. He replied: 'You know they would always tell lies on me, but I am making money and getting further from the poor house every day.' He possesses every element that is essential to success. He has nerve, he has dash, he has self-confidence. He is a logical debater, and a fine stump speaker. He does not, like some young men, whine around and poke his head under the coat-tail of some old fogey, but he walked out and attacked them and walked over them. That is the way Napoleon, when only 26 years old, did, when he whipped the old fossils of the Austrian army. That is the way the young James S. Green did when he defeated the great Benton, of Missouri, for Senator. Young S. A. Douglas in 1852, when under 40 years, like an athlete, bounded into the national Democratic convention and attacked Cass, Buchanan and the old leaders of his party. I admire dash, nerve and pluck in the young man. Young Haywood, of this State, when a mere youth, challenged the great Badger for a joint debate. Young man, if you have any sense, think for yourself and assert your manhood, and if you have no sense go away back and sit down. 'I had rather be a toad and feed up on the vapors of a dun-geon,' than to be the servile tool of any boss.

Butler married a granddaughter of William Faison, who, before the war, was the largest stockholder in Sampson county, and his wife was a sister of Governor W. D. Moseley, of Lenoir county, who was the first Governor of Florida. Moseley was in the Senate from Lenoir and my father was in the House at the same time. He was a candidate before the Legislature for Governor and was defeated by only a few votes by Richard Dobbs Spaight. I have heard my father explain how he happened to be defeated. So it will be seen that Butler married into one of the old Southern aristocratic families.

Pritchard is the handsomest man in the Senate and has a natural, graceful, easy independent air. He is popular with everybody. The truth is, you can't help liking him, he is so affable, so pleasant, and so honest with you. He does not try to deceive you. Like many of our great men, he did not have the advantages of early education, but without the advantageous aids he has gone to the front, and stands today the peer of any man in this State in ability, in integrity, and in the unsullied purity of his private and public life. When he leaves the Senate on March 4, he will carry with him the love, the esteem, the confidence and the respect of every honorable man of all parties who is not blinded by party prejudice. He is a pure man, and free from guile. He is "Chaste as the icicle That's curbed by the frost of purest snow

And hangs on Diana's Temple."

I write this not that I am under any obligations to Senator Pritchard for I never asked him for a favor in my life; but because I desire to pay a just tribute to a brave, honest and good man, who is now retiring from public office. Mr. Webster, in his speech delivered in the Senate on March 23, 1848, on the objects of the Mexican war, said: "Sir, political partisans and aspirants, and office seekers are not sunflowers. They do not

"Turn to their God when He sets The same look which they turned when He rose.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Worry

Almost Unnerved Me -Heart Pains. Short of Breath, Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cured Me.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nerve, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that regard today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, short, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied by fluttering would make me feel faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—REV. GEO. W. KIRACOFF, Chincoteague, Va.

MISS SARAH FINLEY,

Vice-President of the Palmetto Club, Memphis, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI is a thoroughly scientific and modern remedy, meeting the needs of the modern woman in the modern way—without the torture of an operation. Wine of Cardui has cured them in the privacy of their homes and it has found a place in the hearts of American women that no other medicine has found. In their gratitude over 10,000 American women have written letters commending Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui meets their wants as no other medicine does. It sustains the young girl at the shock of her entrance to womanhood. Women who take Wine of Cardui have little discomfort during pregnancy and little pain at childbirth. When the change of life appears they enter a happy, healthy old age. Every month it comes to the rescue to assist Nature in throwing the impurities from the body.

Miss Sarah Finley, of Memphis, Tenn., vice-president of the Palmetto Club of that city, speaks for herself and many friends when she bestows the following praise on Wine of Cardui: "Among the numerous medicines placed before suffering women for their relief none can touch Wine of Cardui.
