"SHOULD BE BROKEN UP."

The revolt against the Democratic machine in Asheville, which has developed during the pending municipal campaign, is of unusual significance.

A movement has crystallized and put out a citizens' Independent ticket, headed by Judge George A. Shuford, for mayor.

Mr. J. H. Tucker, a leading attorney, and also a Democrat, is chairman of the campaign committee for the Independent ticket.

At a large mass meeting in Asheville the other night, Chairman Tucker in an address, said:

"Ours is a cause that may well be advocated by the preachers of Asheville and their churches, but what have the other side to say? They say we are breaking up a party! That's awful! If a party stands for the issues which the Democratic party does now, in this city, they should be broken up. If we are the instruments in breaking up the Democratic party, we are forming a party that exceeds anything that has ever been in Asheville. (Applause.) We have the best element of the Democratic and Republican party, and our opponents can take the rest."

"We want the people to come with us and form a good government. After the events of Saturday I believe every honest Democrat will stand with his party no longer in this issue. (Applause.) Just think of it! The registering of ignorant colored voters who were refused registration six months ago!"

Judge Shuford, the Independent candidate for mayor, followed in a speech to the same effect. He said that there was a time when the Democratic party of Asheville stood for the best government and best society of Asheville, but that it did it no longer. That the best people of all parties should now join and defeat the Democratic machine, and restore good government to Asheville.

About the same condition exists in Charlotte and many other towns, yet Messrs. Simmons and Aycock say that they must reconcentrate the distilleries in towns to put them under the control of "good government."

The assertion of independent manhood in Asheville against the Simmons machine is what must sooner or later occur over the whole State. Yes, the Simmons machine "must be broken up" in order to establish the rule of the people and insure good government.

During the term of the recent legislature one of the members of that body said in a speech: "In Democracy there is decency, without it there is none." We think if this very decent member will read carefully of the filthy conditions of the jail at Fayetteville and of the convict camp at Castle Haynes, he will have to swallow the "decency" part of his speech, even though it may not be as palatable going back as it was coming.

But probably we give too much consideration to this young fledgling, because in making this utterance he befouled his own nest. He was raised on Republican pap, and his own father and family connections still get their support from the same source.

Like all new converts, he is trying to ingratiate himself into the favor of his new bosses—the Simmons machine, with false extravagances.

A subscriber, in a letter renewing his subscription to the CAUCASIAN, says: "When you get the report of the committee on that penitentiary surplus, please publish it in the CAUCASIAN, for I wish to see it." We will very lamely publish this report if they will ever give us the opportunity, but when we do see it, if we ever do, we fear it will be like the Irishman's catfish, we will find it has "swunk" since the campaign is over.

Last week the Grand Jury in Cumberland county, after making a visit to the county jail, returned a charge of negligence against the sheriff and jailer. They reported that the jail was infested with filthy vermin, that the prisoners were not properly fed, and that the sick prisoners had to sleep on the hard floor. This is some more of the fruits of Democratic "good government."

The last statement from the United States Treasury shows there is $223,326,187.12 cash balance in the Treasury April 30th, 1903. This is exclusive of the Reserve and Trust Funds.

DICK MORSE LOCKED UP.

Asheville Policemen Detain Him a While on the Charge of Blocking the Street—Pastor Vines Pours Hot Shot into the Regular Democrats.

Asheville, May 3.—One thousand persons today heard Pastor Vines, of the First Baptist Church, preach on the theme, "The Philosophy of the Anti-Saloon League Movement." Mr. Vines vigorously assailed the leaders of the regular Democratic organization, referring to the Democratic nominee for mayor, C. T. Rawls, as the head of the saloon and bawdy house ticket, and declaring that "Ichabod" was written all over the politician who ran counter to the moral sentiment of the State. He declared the course of the regulars would have the effect of driving the best element of the citizenship of the State out of the Democratic party, because the spirit that had prompted 60,000 men and the womanhood of the State to endorse the London bill was behind this movement.

After the service, while the crowd of men stood on the street discussing these bold utterances, policemen arrested and locked up Rev. Dick Morse, the temperance lecturer from Charlotte. Anti-Saloon League members characterized the act of the policemen as an outrage, but the officers say the lecturer was blocking the streets. Police Judge James later ordered the officers to release Morse.

MORE FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Details of the Riot of San Miguel and His Band.

Washington, May 4th.—Unofficial reports received at the war department, give additional details of the campaign which resulted in the death of "General" San Miguel and the utter rout of his band of outlaws by the Philippine scouts, commanded by lieutenant Nickerson and Reese. It appears that the Scouts located San Miguel's band in a strongly fortified position, about half way between Caloocan and Marikina. The fort was situated in the bend of a slough in a very broken country covered with a dense jungle of bamboo. It consisted of a square stone block house enclosed by a stone wall about eight feet high and so well concealed that it had heretofore escaped discovery. This coral and the block house were built by the Spaniards many years ago. Lieutenants Nickerson and Reese and their men made a gallant attack on this stronghold under a very heavy fire from the enemy who fired through loop holes in the wall. In spite of this fire the scouts charged over the wall and engaged the enemy in a hand-to-hand combat inside the corridor, driving them in to the fort. In this assault Lieutenant Reese was shot through the thigh just below the groin.

The fight lasted about an hour and one-half. The Americans lost three killed and ten wounded, the latter, including Lieutenant Reese. The enemy lost heavily. There were 35 dead and dying in the fort and six lay dead outside. Many more dead and wounded were scattered about in the jungle. No prisoners were taken. The body of San Miguel was taken to Caloocan, where it was fully identified.

STEAMER HAMILTON SUNK NEAR NORFOLK.

Collided with the Saganaw—Sixteen Lives were Lost—Others Rescued in their Night Clothing.

Norfolk, Va., May 5.—A collision at sea that cost the lives of twenty or more people and the sinking of the Clyde steamer Saganaw by the Old Dominion Steamship Company's liner Hamilton, occurred between Winter Quarter Lightship and Fenwick Island Lightship on the Virginia coast, at 4:40 o'clock this morning.

The scene of the collision is about thirteen or fourteen miles off the shore and between 150 and 200 miles south of New York or between 126 and 140 miles north of Norfolk.

There were about thirty-six passengers on the steamer, sixteen of which were lost. Miss Mary Sanderlin, Windsor, N. C., was among the passengers rescued.

SHOT DOWN IN COURT HOUSE.

James Marcum, a Prominent Attorney of Lexington, the Victim.

Lexington, Va., May 4.—Just after he had finished filing papers reopening the contested election cases of Breathitt county, James B. Marcum was shot and killed by an unknown assassin. He fell in the front entrance of the court house at Jackson, Ky., and never spoke, death being almost instantaneous. He fell within a few yards of where Town Marshal James Cockrell was shot down in July, the assassin being stationed in the court house in each instance.

Marcum was counsel for the fusionists who are contesting for the offices of county judge, sheriff and other places now held by Democrats. As a result of his efforts and his connection with the Cockrell faction in the Hargis-Cockrell feud he had for a year been generally regarded as a "marked man."

Various plots to assassinate him have been reported and sworn to in affidavits. For seventy-two days last fall he was a prisoner in his own home, daring not even to go out on his porch.

The shots appeared to come from a doorway or possibly from behind a door in the corridor, but as the passage was quickly cleared amid great confusion, no one seemed able to state accurately where the assassin was located.

No arrests have as yet been made, even on suspicion.

Marcum was a trustee of the Kentucky State College, was United States Commissioner of his district. He practiced in Breathitt county for seventeen years.
