"LAWLESSNESS WALKED THE STATE LIKE A PESTILENCE."

GOVERNOR AYCOCK STATED IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS THAT UNDER, AND THEREFORE BY IMPLICATION IN CONSEQUENCE OF, FUSION RULE "LAWLESSNESS WALKED THE STATE LIKE A PESTILENCE, CRIME STALKED ABROAD AT NOON-DAY, SLEEP LAY DOWN WITH ALARM AND THE SOUND OF THE PISTOL WAS MORE FREQUENT THAN THE SONG OF THE MOCKING BIRD."

Some days ago we read an account in the papers that a well-to-do farmer of Catawba county named Mahaffey had committed a nameless crime on a young girl in that county.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 1.—About two o'clock this morning the postoffice at Mocksville was broken into and robbed by professional burglars. The safe was blown open with nitro-glycerine and postage stamps to the amount of $572.60 was taken and $82.99 in cash, all belonging to the government.

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 1.—A tobacco barn was burned on Mr. Albert Parrott's place, in Falling Creek township, yesterday, which with the tobacco in it, entailed a loss of $150.

Statesville, N. C., Aug. 1.—The coroner's jury reported today that Mrs. Dolph Beaver, the woman who yesterday was found dead near her home, had been outraged, choked to death and her body thrown into a well.

Albemarle, N. C., Aug. 4.—On last Saturday evening about dark two white prisoners, Bob Scott and Sid Culp, escaped from the county jail. Sheriff Smith recaptured the Culp, boy to day, near New London, in this county, but has not been able to apprehend Scott.

We are getting exceedingly anxious for an itemized statement of that large surplus on hand at the penitentiary—or is it possible it has been eaten up by the filthy vermin.

The democratic machine is still working overtime raising your tax rate.

POST OFFICE ROBBED.

"CRIME STALKED ABROAD AT NOON-DAY."

Fiendish Crimes Committed Near Rocky Mount and Stateville Incendiary Fire Near Kinston.

Rocky Mount, N. C., August 1.—One of the most brutal and fiendish crimes ever committed within the borders of North Carolina occurred about five miles from this place, in Edgecombe county this afternoon.

A negro brute went to the home of Mr. Paschal Long, who was away from home, and made an improper proposition to his wife, which was resented.

The brute then assaulted her with a razor, terribly cutting her hands and arms and choking her severely, finally dragging her from the house into a thicket nearby and accomplished his purpose.

The lady fought heroically for her honor, but the brute strength of the negro was too great to successfully resist.

A yard dog of Mr. Long attacked the negro when he assaulted the wife and mother but the brute soon ended the brave dog's life by cutting his throat with the razor.

After his consummation of his foul crime against defenseless womanhood the negro fled. Later his victim was found bleeding and unconscious. The alarm was given at once and the neighborhood aroused.

A posse is now scouring the woods for the fiend, and if found Judge Lynch will end his career in short order.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 1.—About two o'clock this morning the postoffice at Mocksville was broken into and robbed by professional burglars. The safe was blown open with nitro-glycerine and postage stamps to the amount of $572.60 was taken and $82.99 in cash, all belonging to the government.

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 1.—A tobacco barn was burned on Mr. Albert Parrott's place, in Falling Creek township, yesterday, which with the tobacco in it, entailed a loss of $150.

Mr. J. W. Rouse, who lives in the Neck township, lost his barn, $200 worth of corn, one buggy and other things in and around the barn, a day or two ago, by fire that was supposed to be of incendiary origin.

Statesville, N. C., Aug. 1.—The coroner's jury reported today that Mrs. Dolph Beaver, the woman who yesterday was found dead near her home, had been outraged, choked to death and her body thrown into a well.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 4.—Sheriff Jordan was notified at 9 o'clock last night for the first time of a big row which occurred late Saturday afternoon at Stokesdale, in which seven white men were engaged with various and sundry deadly weapons.

Albemarle, N. C., Aug. 4.—On last Saturday evening about dark two white prisoners, Bob Scott and Sid Culp, escaped from the county jail. Sheriff Smith recaptured the Culp, boy to day, near New London, in this county, but has not been able to apprehend Scott.

Some days ago we offered Pearson's Magazine together with the Caucasian one year for $1.50, as a special offer for August we will send you The Caucasian and Pearson's one year for $1.25.

New Bern, N. C., Aug. 4.—On account of a shortage in the accounts of T. W. Dewey, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of this city, the bank has been compelled to go into liquidation.

Goldsboro, N. C., Aug. 4.—In the mayor's court this morning there came up a case in which the defendant was bound over to the Superior Court for disfiguring the face of a negro woman, Emmet Brown is the name of the defendant and Jennie Bryan is the victim. The two quarrelled and Brown beat her with a brick.

Sheriff Sturgill, of Ashe, yesterday brought to the penitentiary C. O. Davis, the white man who in cold blood hacked to pieces with an axe and old man and his son, and his own wife.—News & Observer.

Maxton, N. C., Aug. 4.—About one o'clock Sunday afternoon four negroes who were employees of the Southeastern Lumber Company at Kingsdale, N. C., on the Carolina and Northern Railroads were shot from ambush by an unknown party and were seriously but not fatally injured.

The blood hounds from Maxton were wired for at once and a special train from Hamlet carried them to the scene of the shooting immediately.

The dogs had just arrived when one Freeman, a white man, and also an employe of this company, came up and surrendered, acknowledging that he did the shooting.

This is not the first shooting at this place of negroes by white men and the motive seems to be a desire on the part of the whites to stop the negroes from working at this saw mill. Freeman was released on bail in the sum of $500.

I have not education enough to appreciate the profound works of voluminous historians, and if I had I have no time to read them. But your Series of Histories is a new one, in brief compass, just that knowledge of past men and events which I need. I have read them with the greatest interest. To them I am indebted for almost all the historical knowledge I possess."
