Four new and unneccessary judgeships have been created and men appointed to fill the places with a big salary hung to their credentials. The Governors' salary has been raised $1,000, and other salaries have been raised and new offices created.

The State's money has been spent to protect thieving registrars and in various and sundry ways too numer ous to mention.

And this is only the beginning. If the tax-payers submit to this increase in their taxes it will not be

The democratic papers all over this State are "cussing" Ben Tillman and still the democratic machine is trying to Tillmanize North Carolina. Oh consistency thou art a forgotten jewel.

It seems to be the duty of the Bank Examiner in North Carolina to come along after the bank has "busted" and tell how it happened.

The tax payers all over the State are awful mad over the great increase in their taxes. In many instances the taxes have been doubled.
