A SUNDAY ADDRESS

President Roosevelt Made a Sensible and Interesting Taik to Lutherans

Mr. Russevelt Declares That the Luthcran Church in the United States is Already of Great Power and is Destined to be One of the Two or Three Greatest National Churches.

Washington, Special. - President Roosevelt delivered an address Sunday at the re-dedication of the Luther Place Memorial church, which was seriously damaged by fire just one year and Sunday night- while a sociable given in honor of the 78th birthday Dr. J. G. Butler, was in progress. The whereh has been entirely restored and and occupied for the first time since he fire Sunday. The President spoke lowed. in part as follows:

From the standpoint from which I am obliged so continually to look at matters, there is a peculiar function to be played by the great Lutheran Church in the United States of Ameralways had its fullest development in, these already in the land is to see that their own progress and developtent are shared by newcomers from neroes the sea. It is a serious and dangerous thing for any man to tear bosse from the soil, in which he and his forbears have taken root and to be translated into new land. He should receive all possible aid in that new land; and the aid can be tendered him most effectively by those who can appeal to him on the ground of spiritual kinship. Therefore the Lutheran Church can do most in helping upwards and onwards so many of the newcomers to our shores; and it seems to that it should be the duty of this Caurch to see that the immigrants, and especially the emigrants of Lutheran fair, from the old world, may be not grafered to drift off with no friendly nand to him out of the Church communion. The Lutheran Church in this country is of very great power now, numerically and through the intelligence and thrift of its members, but it w... grow steadily to even greater power. It is destined to be one of two or three greatest and most important national Churches in the United States; one of the two or three churches most distinctively American, most distinctively among the forces that are to tell for making this great country even greater in the future. Therefore a peculiar lead of responsiby rests upon the members of this

"It is an important thing for the people of this nation to remember their right, but it is an even more important thing for them to remember their duties. In the last analysis, the work of statesmen and soldiers, the work of the public man shall go for nothing if it is not based upon the spirit of Christianity working in the millions of homes throughout this country, so that there may be that social, that spiritual, that moral foundation, without which no country can ever rise to permanent greatness. For material well-being, material prosperity, success in arts, in letters, great industrial triumphs, all of them and all of the structure raised thereon will be as evanescent as a dream, if it does not

"Let me congratulate you, and congratulate all of us, that we live in a land and at a time when we accept at as natural that there should be an inter-denominational service of thanksgiving, such a ceremony as is to take place this afternoon, in which the pastors of other churches join to congratulate themselves and you upon the re-building of this church. The forces of evil are strong and mighty in this century and in this country, as they are in other countries, as they have been in all the past centuries; and the people who sincerely wish to do the Lord's work will find ample opportunity for all their labor in fighting the common enemy and in assuming toward their fellows of a different most good can be done to our people es a whole.

He added that it was a well-known fact that the anti-jug law bill, applying to a whole State was defeated in 1993, and hence that it was nothing but proper to repeal any law which had been enacted by mistake. Graham, of Granville, favored re-commitment of the bill, as did Stewart, of Harnett, and Alexander, of Mecklenburg, Koonce of Onslow, opposed postponement, saying it was generally understood during the campaign, and he had so stated to his constituents, that the law would be repealed because it was tainted with error, if not with fraud. This is the only manly course to pursue, and then, if it is desired, another bill giving an anti-jug law to the entire State could be introduced and stand on its merits.
