

THE CAUCASIAN

RALEIGH, N. C. July 20, 1904

Entered at the Post Office in Raleigh, N. C., as second-class mail matter.

Eleven prisoners escaped from the authorities at Lumberton last week.

Harnett County celebrated its fiftieth anniversary at Lillington last Thursday.

Mr. B. Frank Mebane, of Rockingham, will be the chief marshal at the State Fair in Oct.

The Southern Cotton Growers Association will be held at Kenilworth Inn, Asheville, September 6th.

Sheriff Cole, of Madison County, brought Chas. Stein to the penitentiary Monday to serve a life sentence. He was first sentenced to be hanged, Sept. 2nd, for rape, but the governor commuted his sentence to life imprisonment.

The Rivside Lumber Company of Wilmington, with $100,000 stock authorized, was chartered by Secretary of State Monday. The incorporators are: W. J. Reaves, M. D. Bright and J. D. Hedrick, all of Wilmington.

Abe Dougherty Captured After Killing Mose Williams.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 7.—News was received here this afternoon of a cold-blooded murder committed at Lytle Cove, near Black Mountain, in this county. Two negroes, Abe Dougherty and Mose Williams, were disputing when Dougherty drew his pistol and shot Williams dead.

Shooting Affair at Kernersville.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 8.—At Kernersville, about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, Ade Walker shot and killed Eugene Lamar, a married man and about 35 years old. The two men were in the blacksmith shop of Granville Manuels, near the Southern Railway depot, when the crime was committed. Walker shot Lamar because he would not play a game of cards with him.

A Large Republican Convention in Virginia.

Roanoke, Va., Aug.—One of the largest Republican State Conventions in the history of the State met here to-day to nominate a full State ticket. When the body was called to order at two o'clock p. m., by State Chairman C. Bascumb Slump, between 1,200 and 1,300 delegates were present. It is almost exclusively a white convention, there being very few negro delegates.

Of Course.

An effort is being made in Raleigh to do away with the dispensary. The prohibitionists are for prohibition, the saloon men are for open saloons and those who want to see the town "beautified" are for the dispensary. The dispensary has been a financial success, but that is no reason the church and city should continue to deal out the deadly poison to the young men and boys of Raleigh. The dispensary should be abolished. If a dispensary is the only source of revenue a town has it is better that it grow up in weeds and bushes rather than "beautify" it with money thus obtained—Siler City Grit.

Drank Whiskey and Laudanum

Durham, N. C., August 7.—W. D. Pool, who lives two miles from the city, attempted suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking an ounce of laudanum on top of three pints of whiskey that he had consumed during the day. A physician was summoned and it was this morning when he was out of danger.

FIENDISH SUFFERING.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and safe effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED AND INJURED.

Floor Gave Way in a Large Department Store in Albany.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The middle section of the big department store of the John G. Myers Company in North Pearl street, collapsed early to-day, carrying down with it over one hundred persons.

Caught in a chaos of brick plaster and wooden beams, between ten and thirty men, women and children met death. Twelve hour frantic work on the part of the rescuers disentangled fifty people, six of them dead and many of the rest badly injured.

BIG SNAKE STORY.

Walked into a Nest of Fifty Five Rattle Snakes.

(Waynesville Courier.) Yes, this is a snake story; a rattlesnake story; a fifty five rattle snake story. It comes pretty straight, too. The man who told it to the chronicler heard it from the feller who saw the snakes who smelt the snakes, who helped kill the snakes, who turned sick, and away from the snakes because he couldn't endure the sight and smell and rattle of the snakes any longer.

So it may be safely accepted as a credible story.

Dave Self and Flint Ray, so the story goes, had occasion about the first of July, to go out on State Line Mountains, which divides Tennessee from North Carolina, and which is also the Haywood boundary line. Whether they attracted by the charm of the rattler, or just happened upon its den, is not stated. Nevertheless, wittingly or unwittingly, they walked into a regular rattle snake community, and they couldn't well get out without a fight. So they went to killing, fighting hard and fast, until they laid out fifty-five, and said they left plenty more; that they could have killed more, if the air around there had agreed with them.

A rattling snake story, but not a very good one to go out about our mountain air.

McKinley's Favorite Hymn.

Eliza and Sarah Flower were gifted English sisters whose earthly lives began and ended between the opening and the close of the first half of the last century; and yet in that brief period both left their impress on their generation; and the younger, Sarah, achieved undying fame by composing the beautiful hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." It was suggested by the story of Jacob's vision at Bethel, as found in Genesis XXVIII: 10-22. The hymn was first published in 1841, and altogether it met with some favor, it was not until 1880 that Dr. Lowell Mason's beautiful and sympathetic music "quickened it into glorious life" and gave it a permanent abiding place in the hearts of the people.

This hymn gained immense additional popularity through the tragic death of President William McKinley. His last intelligible words were: "Nearer, My God, to Thee, 'e'en though it be a cross has been my constant prayer." His prayer was answered. It was a cross—one of the greatest that could come to him and to the beloved nation which he had served so faithfully—that led him through a martyr's suffering and death to claim a martyr's reward. Memorial services were held in innumerable churches in our own and other countries, the most interesting of the latter being in Westminster Abbey, by order of the King. Here, as elsewhere, the greatest interest centered about the singing of the hymn which was in the heart and on the lips of our heroic President as he went to meet his God.—From the Delicatore for September.

A Fine Church Burned.

St. Thomas Episcopal church at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-third st. New York City was destroyed by fire Tuesday. It was one of the most richly furnished religious edifices in America.

PECULIAR DISAPPEARANCE.

J. D. Runyan, of Butlerville, O. told the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms, of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy, for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at all drug stores. Price 25c.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, MRS. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

The Effective Remedy

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.

GRAND WOMEN'S ASSOCIATE, BORN OF THE FUTURE

The September Designer.

Coats, jackets, street and home costumes for ladies and young folks are shown in The Designer for September, and a special article illustrates and describes "Costumes for Grammar and High-School Scholars." "Points on Dressmaking" tells how to line a jacket, and the Millinery Lesson instructs how to make bonnets for elderly ladies. "Chinese Housekeeping" is interestingly described by Laura B. Starr and Bertha Hasbrook in "The Interest of Bread-Winning" series advises "Catering" as a lucrative business. Mary Kilsyth gives suggestions for "The Modern Bed," and Craig S. Thomas writes of "Taming Squirrels." "Mothers' Work and Workers" is contributed by Jane A. Stewart, and Caroline Fuller, author of "The Alley Cat's Kitten," supplies a droll little story, "The Purr and the Spit Cat." In amusements there are a drill, "The Harvesters," and many other plans for home entertainment—"The Son of Elizabeth," by Celia E. Shute, is a short story for adults, and "Miss Ginter," a most clever continued story, is included in this number.

Lightning Shocks a Funeral.

Indianapolis, Aug. 7.—During the funeral services over the body of James Pope of Davis county late yesterday afternoon lightning struck the church in which some two hundred persons were assembled, causing a panic among the congregation.

Undertaker Bonham was just in the act of closing the coffin when a bolt struck the church and he was thrown prostrate on the corpse. Twenty persons were very seriously shocked and as many more were partially stunned by the bolt.

The storm was the most terrific known for years, field of corn being destroyed and woodlands laid waste.

Farming For PROFIT

There is nothing too good for the Farmer; there it nothing too good for the Farm. Good barns, good houses, good wells, good fences, good stock, all on good land, under good management assure good profits. This good applies throughout. It must apply throughout, or it will not apply to profits.

Nowhere is discrimination more necessary than in the selection of fences. The farm must be fenced. Hence, select the best fence, the ELLWOOD FENCE.

The Ellwood is built like a bridge—braced, supported, tied; no stronger or more substantial structure possible. Ellwood fences will hold your hogs, cattle, horses, and poultry. Ellwood Fence has always been popular. It answers all purposes and never disappoints.

We have Ellwood Fences for sale, and at prices that will suit you. Come and see us—we have a bargain for you.
